Mrs. Lyons: Yes, on the $1,900,000 that we have to get in addition to our regular appropriating power, and this was one item that was taken up.

Business Manager: I understand there is something here that Mr. McKenney included that is on your docket tonight, and that is the day camp. There was in the budget provision for two nurses and four playground teachers for day camp playground for crippled children this summer to the tune of $1420. That was an expansion item. We had never run that before.

Mrs. Lyons: That is the one in the Tileston School?

Business Manager: Because of the lack of transportation, Mr. McKenney had figured that $1420 in that estimated playground saving along with rainy days and other things.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that is on the agenda tonight about using the Tileston yard. We talked about that, Mr. Superintendent, and I think you looked into it and gave us a report on it.

Superintendent: That is true. Miss Fitzgerald: Are you saying, Mr. Smith, that we cannot go through with that item?

Business Manager: It was included in the savings. It is on the docket tonight for approval.

Miss Fitzgerald: If it is approved, then it must be restored?

Business Manager: Yes, that's right.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to have that included in the motion, namely, that that be eliminated from the savings and that we go on as we had intended to cut on prior to the cuts where efficiency and necessity demand it.

Mrs. Lyons: And your thought in the matter is: If the occasion should arise way into the year, say in November, when we would have to transfer some funds we could always do it if it was necessary?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, and that is what we have done every year, either with physical education to and from, and with any other department. Isn't that so, Mr. Smith?

Business Manager: Yes, of course, except that my job is to be conservative and have money to go through the year, as you know. We have come out so far all right. I just worry about the day when we don't.

Mr. Muchnick: Just let me ask one question. Is there provision in here for hockey for the balance of this year?

Business Manager: Yes, Mr. Muchnick, I can't answer that.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, there must be some provision for hockey.

Business Manager: You mean for next fall?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, for next fall—for November and December.

Business Manager: I suppose so but I would not want to commit myself.

Mr. Muchnick: Now, it is very possible that if the MDC did not act and do something about the arena, we must have hockey, so that there alone is a saving.

Business Manager: There again it is peanuts.

Mr. Muchnick: It is peanuts? It is $10,000.

Business Manager: Oh, no, no. No. I am trying to find it. I haven't the breakdown. I can't tell you offhand.

Mr. Muchnick: We are back to where we were an hour ago—without the breakdown.

Business Manager: What do you spend on hockey supplies? I cannot pick that figure out of the air. It is peanuts.

Dr. Foley: You can't expect him to do that!

Mr. Muchnick: I don't say I expect him to have it, but on the items we are discussing it might be memoranda.

Miss O'Brien: It is all broken down.

Mr. Muchnick: We have in there for hockey coaches for the rest of the year.

Dr. Foley: He hasn't his bicycles on. He can't find those figures.

Business Manager: I can't find hockey. That is the thing that is bothering me. Can you find it, Miss O'Brien?

Miss O'Brien: No.

Business Manager: It wasn't eliminated. I am wondering if it was ever put in.

Mr. Muchnick: I can't understand why hockey would not be put in without a discussion with the School Committee, who at least theoretically are supposed to run the school system.

Mrs. Lyons: Would it be on the presumption that we have no place to have the children practice and play?

Mr. Carr: Pick out field hockey and give them a figure.

Business Manager: 14 coaches at $7 a day each. That doesn't say hockey, but I am convinced it is, because every other sport is accounted for. That is $4900. Of course, part of that money has been spent from January 1st naturally, so there would be something.

Mr. Muchnick: How about the rental of the Arena?

Business Manager: We have nothing in there for the rental of the Arena.

Mr. Muchnick: It is impossible to say that. We pay the Arena in 1953.

Business Manager: We did not pay the Arena any rental in 1953. Mr. McKenney told you the new arrangement, which was that the Arena was going to take all of the income.

Mr. Muchnick: We had a big fuss about how much we paid them for practice sessions. It went up from $900 to $6,000 or something.

Business Manager: You are right.

Mr. Muchnick: That was in 1953. We were not going to have the sport just until December 31st.

Business Manager: Mr. McKenney has gone on the assumption that the M.D.C. with the bill up there was going to take over the Arena.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know what right Mr. McKenney or anybody had to assume that we would not have to pay rent; and also, if he did assume it, why he did not tell us about it so that we would not be caught with our hockey sticks down next November 15th.

Business Manager: School physicians and nurses. Let me talk on that for just a minute. There was an expansion item in there for three nurses for high schools, amounting to $10,260.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that a full year's pay?

Business Manager: From January 1st.

Mr. Muchnick: That is reduced already by one-third.

Business Manager: In other words, we are saying: Take it all out. There was going to be one for Brighton High to replace a medical aide and for Brandeis Vocational, which may be closed. I don't know. Also, one for the High School of Practical Arts. So we are saying: Take that expansion of $10,260 out right there.

We have four temporary teachers assigned to vision testing apparatus from January 1st to December 31st at $12 each per day. That did not go into effect. Doctor Keenan tells us, until March 30th, and it will close on June 1st, and it will reopen on September 16th, so we figure out a possible saving of $3792 on that appropriation.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, Mr. Smith is now giving us the kind of particularity that I asked for a little while ago which he said is impossible to give.

Business Manager: Listen—it's simple to ask for that, but you are in another league when you talk about that.

Mr. Muchnick: No, I am not, and if I am not, I'd like you to get into the same league with me.

Business Manager: And with the help we have to keep the records and everything else, we have to bunch it.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, the figures that we get in generalities to me mean nothing. But I would like a vote on the other motion.

Business Manager: Listen—I give you as particular figures as I can, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Can we have a vote on the motion? Let's get back to physical education first. This has nothing to do with physical education.

Mrs. Lyons: Do you want to read the motion?

Secretary: Mr. Muchnick moved that Mr. McKenney be instructed to institute no personal cuts in any playgrounds from three to two people, or from two people to one, or to attempt to effect any savings of any kind unless he is firmly convinced in each instance that it does not in any way interfere with the proper and efficient operation of the playground;

And also that he make no cuts in the purchase of the number of items or quantity of items of any of the supplies unless he is just as firmly convinced that a reduction in the number of supplies or a reduction in the quantity of supplies will in no way impair the physical well-being of any of the users of the supplies, and will in no way impair the Physical Education Program as we have it;

And that if and when in November or December we are faced with any problems such as the newspapers have been screaming about during the last several days, we will meet that problem if it exists, and Mr. Muchnick is inclined to doubt that it will exist unless it is manufactured, by the necessary and appropriate action at that time.

Then I am going to add: Include in the motion that these cuts, transportation and JV football, be not made as well; and then add also that the crippled children item be eliminated from the savings—that is, that we go along as we did before the cuts where efficiency demands it.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I should like to see that little sentence in there about the personal opinion of the mover: "Inclined to doubt that there would be any problem involved, unless it was manufactured," which I think is a personal reflection on Mr. McKenney as an administrator, stricken out. I don't think it should be in a motion of that type.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it wasn't intended as a reflection on Mr. McKenney as an administrator.

Miss Fitzgerald: Personal opinions and doubts about somebody else's motivations don't belong in a motion.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, the reason I make motions is because certain facts exist and certain needs exist, and so forth; and I make motions for what I think are in the best interests of our School Department based on my own impressions and my own knowledge, information which I received from various sources, research and other such sources.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I think every member feels the same way.

Mr. Muchnick: In making my motions, I am presenting my personal opinions. If Miss Fitzgerald would like to act on that motion with or without that—

Miss Fitzgerald: I don't think any member should be asked to act on any statement such as "I am inclined to doubt that problems will exist unless they are manufactured."

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, that particular reference as to what my opinion is, I would just as soon have excluded from the motion, and when the motion is acted on again, as I assume it will be, either in the conference or in the public meeting, I will restate my reasons.

Mrs. Lyons: Would you call the roll on that now, Miss Reynolds?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I would like to move that the motion be put over for study. It seems to be such an elaborate motion, consisting of three or four paragraphs, that I would like to see it put over until such time as we have a printed copy.

My motion is to put this over, Madam Chairman.

Mrs. Lyons: One motion at a time, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: Inasmuch as my motion is affecting that one, it takes precedence over that.

Miss Fitzgerald: I think we should be allowed to discuss it fully and freely, and any such statement as "No problems will arise unless they are manufactured" is a personal opinion of Mr. Muchnick's, and I don't think I, as a member of this Committee, should be asked to vote on his personal opinions.

If he is talking about something objectively that is a different matter, but I am not going to sit here and let him make motions in which his personal opinions on the way somebody else runs a department and asks me to vote on them.

I don't want to vote on them and I don't think it is proper.

Mrs. Lyons: Miss Fitzgerald, this is not the first time that personal opinions have been brought into this at all,—not into this thing, but personal opinions have been injected into plenty of things, and motions that have been made and voted on, so would you call the roll on that, please?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Would you call the roll, please?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I would like to amend this motion and direct that in the consideration of this motion the people be instructed—

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I have the floor. The Secretary called my name, and I do not yield it to anyone, and I will vote when I get through.

Now, Madam Chairman, I hope that this amendment will carry, and my amendment is:

That the people, in considering this motion, will appreciate the fact that some members of this Committee who voted for these cuts, and due to the publicity attached to these cuts now find themselves on what you might call a so-called "hook," come in here tonight with these general platitudes; and in order to bail themselves out, they are putting in this facetious motion.

If they feel that Mr. McKenney is not running his department and that they are more competent, I think it is their duty to get rid of Mr. McKenney; and as for myself, rather than take the judgment of the people on this Committee, regarding the Physical Education Department, when on numerous occasions they have shown their lack of knowledge of physical education, I would much prefer to take Mr. McKenney's judgment with his background and physical education.

And I move that that amendment be attached to the motion: that it is obvious they come in with these general platitudes to get themselves out of a bad position.

Mr. Muchnick: Point of order, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Carr: I hope the amendment carries, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: During the call of the roll, as I understand it, no amendments or anything else are in order.

Mr. Carr: Amendment is always in order, Madam Chairman, and I should think the member would be aware of it.

Mr. Muchnick: Did I ask that the call of the roll be continued?

Mrs. Lyons: Would you call the roll on Mr. Muchnick's amendment, and then we will vote on Mr. Carr's amendment.

Mr. Muchnick: On my motion.

Mr. Carr: And amendment that is to be attached to a motion takes precedence over all motions. The only motion that takes precedence over any of these is a motion to adjourn, and I should think you would be aware of it, Madam Chairman.

Mrs. Lyons: I am aware of it.

Mr. Carr: Then I should think you would call them in the order of precedence. My amendment takes precedence over that motion. It is an amendment to the original motion.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, there was a roll call going on.

Mrs. Lyons: Pardon me, Mr. Muchnick. As I recall, every time that something that you wanted, Mr. Carr, was under discussion, and anyone interrupted a roll call, you immediately objected.

Mr. Carr: I am not interrupting a roll call, Madam Chairman. It is obvious. I am the first one to be called, and if I am called to vote on the motion I am entitled to the floor and I can have my say until I decide to vote, and I move that my amendment be voted on.

Yes, for the amendment.

The vote is on the amendment, Madam Secretary?

Mrs. Lyons: The vote is on Mr. Muchnick's motion.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, a point of order. The amendment takes precedence over the main motion; and according to Parliamentary procedure, it is mandatory that you call a roll on the amendment.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, you had called for a vote or a roll call on the motion which I had made. The roll had been started, and I insist that the vote be taken on that.

Mrs. Lyons: Will you call the roll?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I insist on a vote on my amendment.

Mrs. Lyons: The Chair rules that we will vote on Mr. Muchnick's motion.

Mr. Carr: I appeal the decision of the Chair, and I ask you to bring that book of Roberts Parliamentary procedure.

Mrs. Lyons: We have our own rules.

Mr. Carr: Muchnick's rules are your own.

Mrs. Lyons: No, we have rules that we follow.

Mr. Carr: Listen,—you are not kidding anybody. Mr. Muchnick is running this Committee, and has been in spite of your official title, and I think it is about time you got off the chair there and started to run the Committee.

Mrs. Lyons: Would you call the roll, please, and just leave personalities out of it, Mr. Carr?

Secretary: Mr. Muchnick's motion in regard to physical education.

Mr. Carr: No.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I feel that I could not possibly vote for a motion which contained, as this one does, "inclinations to doubt" and impugning the motives of people who are running some of our various departments, and especially the particular department that is in question.

I am certainly in favor of restoring—

Mrs. Lyons: There has been impugning of motives by plenty of people.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, the member has the floor. The name is called.

Miss Fitzgerald: I just wish to state that I am certainly in favor of Mr. McKenney's not curtailing any services if it would put the safety of our school children in jeopardy. I am just as concerned as the maker of this motion is with the efficient operation and the good operation of the physical education department, but I could not possibly vote for the motion as it is so worded, so I vote No.

Dr. Foley: I vote Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

Mr. Carr: Madam Secretary, I would like to change my vote to Present. I would not dignify such a facetious and pointed motion with a vote.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I would like to make a motion at this time concerning the same department.

Mrs. Lyons: Miss Fitzgerald.

Miss Fitzgerald: That is, that I feel, as an individual member of this Committee, that Mr. McKenney has been trying to do a good job as the Physical Education director, and that I have confidence in him.

I would like to have a vote of confidence in Mr. McKenney's ability to make cuts and adjustments in this program, as are consistent with the safety and well-being of the school children of Boston.

Mr. Carr: I second that motion.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Muchnick: May I have the motion itself read?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, that matter before you has been disposed of by vote now. I would like to call for a vote on my amendment.

Mrs. Lyons: Miss Fitzgerald just made a motion.

Mr. Carr: Well, my amendment was pending before the Chair. Am I entitled to vote on my amendment, or are you going to entertain another dozen amendments. I would like to have a vote on my amendment.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to have the amendment read.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that that request was made.

(Mr. Carr's amendment read by Stenographer.)

Mr. Carr: I move that we vote on that motion, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to have clarified just what the amendment is.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I feel that that motion or amendment is just as clear as the former motion we just voted on, and I would ask for a calling of the roll. I directed attention to the contingent circumstances to give a true picture of this facetious motion as proposed by one of the members here.

I would like to see a vote called on that, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, so far as I can see or hear, and I think that I have an understanding of what words mean in the English language, what purports to be an amendment is merely a characterization of Mr. Carr's opinion why I made a certain motion.

In the statement made by Mr. Carr, it is suggested that I made a motion in order to get off the hook. If Mr. Carr feels any better about suggesting that I was on a hook or anybody else was on a hook, he has the statement in a record.

Mr. Carr: Thank you very much, Madam Chairman, I hope that you will call for a vote on this amendment. I believe it has as much merit as the other motion.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I had not yielded the floor. If I am on the hook,—and frankly the suggestion is ridiculous—and if other members of this Committee are on the hook—and the suggestion is just as ridiculous concerning them—and these members are on personal hooks and their personal attachment to any protrusion from a wall normally considered a hook has nothing to do with the operation of a school department by the School Committee, or any of the people in the employ of the School Committee.

If I am on a hook in this or that or anything else, that is my problem. If physical education should not—

Mr. Carr: Is there a time limit to any of these speeches, Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: You had the floor for quite a while.

Mr. Carr: I am only inquiring if there is a time limit.

Mr. Muchnick: Our personal business, even if this motion to amend were in proper form has nothing to do with the official running of this School Department or any portion of it; and I suggest, Madam Chairman, that the purported motion to amend or the purported amendment is completely out of order.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I don't believe this amendment is any more personal than the motion that we just previously voted on, and I would like to see this amendment voted on.

Mrs. Lyons: If you wish to call that an amendment, Mr. Carr, you may; but to my mind it is simply an observation.

Mr. Carr: Will you call the roll, Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: And I just want to make a remark here that I never felt I was on any hook. I simply asked as one of the members of this Committee what everybody else asked, and what everybody else in the School Department was to do to co-operate, and they all did it very graciously, and I cannot understand Mr. McKenney's attitude at all. I think it is not in keeping with everybody else's, and I want to commend everybody else for their co-operation.

Do you want to call the roll on that?

Mr. Carr: Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: Yes.

Dr. Foley: No.

Mr. Muchnick: No.

Chairman: No.

Mr. Muchnick: There being no amendment which in any way concerns the School Department by what Mr. Carr suggests in his statement, I vote No.

Mrs. Lyons: I feel that is a personal observation of the maker of the motion, and I do not wish to vote on it.

Miss Fitzgerald: I hope you will now consider my motion, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, may I ask one question. Are we to draw the inference—

Miss Fitzgerald: I wanted to ask about my motion. I made a motion that in effect was a vote of confidence in the fact that Mr. McKenney as the Director of the Department of Physical Education will certainly make no cuts or curtailments in services which will endanger the health, safety or the recreational opportunities of the children of the City of Boston.

Mr. Carr: Will you call the roll?

Miss Fitzgerald: In other words, I am asking for a vote of confidence in the Director.

Mr. Muchnick: In Mr. McKenney? Miss Fitzgerald: Yes. Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, am I to assume from this motion that the maker of the motion, or the seconder of the motion—and it was seconded before—by voting or suggesting a vote of confidence, solely for Mr. McKenney, wished to single him out and by inference suggest that no other directors or administrators are entitled to a vote of confidence?

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I would include the Superintendent and all of the directors in that motion.

Mr. Muchnick: Am I to assume, then, that the assistant superintendents are out?

Miss Fitzgerald: The assistant superintendents as well.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I believe that the motion was clearly put and was easily understood and there was no need for these other questions to include anyone else. I think the point at issue is the Physical Education Department, and Mr. McKenney, in particular, as the director; and I would like to see this motion confined to Mr. McKenney where the department has come under scrutiny tonight and such criticism from several of the members.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I understood that the maker of the motion wished to enlarge it to include all directors, assistant superintendents, and the Superintendent.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I have no hesitation about making that inclusion.

Mr. Muchnick: If the motion is to be interpreted with the inclusions which I assume are now a part of the original motion, in a general vote of confidence in our school system my guess is that all of us have confidence in the school system and there would be a unanimous vote in the general efficiency in the operation of our School Department without reference to individual A or B or Item A or B; and if this is a vote of confidence in the general overall running of the School Department, I for one would have no hesitation in voting for this.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, the question of the method of proposing the amendment: Did you intend it to be all-encompassing, Miss Fitzgerald?

Miss Fitzgerald: In my original making of the motion, I intended it to single out Mr. McKenney for the simple reason that I felt the previous motion had singled out Mr. McKenney and had been critical of his administration.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, might I inquire, Miss Fitzgerald, why you saw fit not to limit it to Mr. McKenney? Do you still feel as though you wanted to encompass all the administrators?

Miss Fitzgerald: I will make two motions—the first one to single out Mr. McKenney and the second one to add the rest of the personnel.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I move we have a calling of the roll.

Mrs. Lyons: Would you call the roll?

Mr. Muchnick: On which motion, may I ask?

Secretary: On Mr. McKenney first. Miss Fitzgerald moved a vote of confidence on Mr. McKenney.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I see no great need for this motion to assure the public of Boston or Mr. McKenney that he has the confidence of the School Committee.

I have known Mr. McKenney many years. I have known him as the Director of Physical Education in the Boston school, and I believe our Physical Education Department is looked upon as a model in the entire country.

He has been successful in bringing the National Convention of Physical Education Instructors here next year. I think he is commended, and I am happy to vote Yes on a vote of confidence in Mr. McKenney. Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: Yes.

Dr. Foley: I vote Present.

Mr. Muchnick: Present.

Mrs. Lyons: Present.

I would just like to say that I think this is just a lot of showmanship. I think it is ridiculous.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Just a minute, Mr. Carr. I think no one has impugned Mr. McKenney at all as to his ability in running the department. The only thing we have asked is more co-operation from Mr. McKenney, and I vote Present.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, may I make the observation that the mere making of such a motion to me, at any rate, impugns the efficiency of the person in whose behalf the motion is purportedly made.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman? Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: I think there has been sufficient discussion on that.

Mr. Carr: May I say, Madam Chairman, that this was all brought about by the previous speaker. In his words, Madam Chairman, he said that it became incumbent upon the Committee to instruct directors where to make cuts.

Miss Fitzgerald: I want this record to include a few remarks of mine at this time. Madam Chairman.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Smith, would you like to go on, please?

Mr. Carr: Mr. Smith is finished.

He read the whole thing.

Mrs. Lyons: Are you finished, Mr. Smith?

Business Manager: No.

Miss Fitzgerald: I would still like to have this record straightened out, since I think the previous speaker has impugned my motives in making that motion, and I don't like to stand here and see my motives impugned.

Mrs. Lyons: If you want to talk, go ahead and talk, Miss Fitzgerald, but for goodness sake, stop putting it in the form of a motion. To me that is the most ridiculous sort of a thing.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I have seen many ridiculous motions made by many members of this Committee, and I have also seen unlimited time given to various individuals on this Committee, so that the record might show and carry his motives, theories and personal opinions.

Thank you very much, Mrs. Lyons. I will not talk for an hour, because I would not infringe on anybody else's time, but I just wish to say that in the motion made by one member of this Committee there was an impugning of the motives of the director in question, and that was the reason why I made the motion of a vote of confidence.

That impugning was done within that motion which your committee saw fit to vote upon and to vote through, and that was the sentence which said that this particular member was "inclined to doubt that there would be any problems arising unless they were manufactured."

Who else would they be manufactured by except by the Director of Physical Education or his department, which was the one in question at the time the member was making the motion?

That was why I asked for a vote of confidence by the members of this Committee, in that particular Director of Physical Education. It was not that I lacked any confidence in him. I have never shown it, and I don't have it, and I don't expect to have it.

That is all that I wish to have in the record, to make clear my reasons for asking for a vote of confidence.

Thank you very much for the time, Madam Chairman. I think that you will find that just two minutes of your time were taken up by those remarks.

I never would dare to infringe on the time of any other member of the Committee. I just don't like to be misinterpreted and misquoted.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, may I say that I wish other members of this Committee would be as considerate of the time of other members of this Committee, and I commend Mary Fitzgerald for her brief statement.

Mrs. Lyons: All this playacting, —and that is just about what it is—

Mr. Carr: Well, it is a little late now, Madam Chairman. We have been in here two hours now.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS

The order laid over at the meeting of Apr. 13, 1953, that there be included in the Rules and Regulations a regulation that any school teacher of the City of Boston who refuses to answer before a duly constituted committee of the Congress of the United States be subject to immediate dismissal, was taken up.

Miss Fitzgerald: That was my motion, I believe.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I don't know if, in that form, that constitutes a legal method of amending the rules to make one subject to dismissal under the statute; and while I am in accord with the substance and the idea behind the motion, I think that by phraseology we ought to have it referred to the Law Department.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I have no objections to that whatsoever, but I do think that it is a necessary thing to be a part of the rules and regulations.

Mrs. Lyons: Could we vote on that now and then have it go to the Law Department?

Mr. Muchnick: I think it would be better to have the Law Department pass upon it and rephrase it or suggest to rephrase it.

Secretary: Mr. Muchnick, I intended, if this went through, to have an amendment to the rules written up and put in. Do you think you could pass this and then send it to the Law Department for approval as to the form of this proposed amendment to the regulations?

Mr. Muchnick: I think it would be better to have the Law Department suggest the form of the regulation in accordance with the tenure statutes and dismissal statutes and everything else, and possibly redraft that or draft a regulation that would conform to statutory necessities.

Secretary: We have taken final action on Miss Fitzgerald's motion that the rules be amended.

Dr. Foley: There is no objection to referring it to the Law Department probably for rephrasing.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I think before motions have been voted on and then referred for phraseology.

Mr. Muchnick: I do not care if that is done, but I think it is just going to eliminate some of the difficulties that Mr. Kerr pointed out earlier this evening with reference to other orders and amendments. If Miss Fitzgerald would prefer to have a vote and then reference, I have no objection.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, all types of that particular phase of what we have been going through here have always been referred to the Law Department. In fact, my anti-communistic oath was sent to the Law Department for rephrasing.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I would like to see the motion voted on.

Dr. Foley: I would rather see it go to the Law Department for correction, if there is any correction, Madam Chairman.

Mrs. Lyons: Would you object to that, Miss Fitzgerald?

Miss Fitzgerald: I have no particular objection.

Mrs. Lyons: In as much as there may be many ramifications to it that we have not thought of, I think probably it would be wise to let it go to the Law Department, and then you could bring it in again, Miss Reynolds.

Miss Fitzgerald: I would like to have it, if possible, by the next meeting, Miss Reynolds.

Secretary: Tomorrow?

Miss Fitzgerald: If you can do it.

Mrs. Lyons: There is not going to be a meeting tomorrow.

The order was referred to the Law Department.

SALARIES OF CLERKS

The order laid over at the meeting of Apr. 13, 1953, establishing salaries of certain persons employed in the Administrative Offices and Supply Room, was taken up.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I ask that the Committee accept this in public meeting.

On roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

AGNES E. REYNOLDS,
Secretary.

WIDENING OF STREET.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for a public improvement consisting of the widening and construction of Westmount avenue, West Roxbury district, as a highway, at the easterly corner of Dent street, bounded and described as follows:

The highway named Westmount avenue is hereby widened, at the easterly corner of Dent street, and ordered constructed.

For the making of the aforesaid improvement an easement for street purposes is hereby taken in the following described land, exclusive of trees, shrubs, or structures standing upon or affixed thereto:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, bounded:

3. One patrolman for duty in parking area surrounding City Hall Annex from 4 P.M., Monday, September 21, 1953, to properly place "No Parking" signs and to keep the entire area clear for the following morning, so that 25 trucks coming to the Election Commissioners' office for ballots at early hours will be able to park without interference or delay.

4. One superior officer for duty at City Hall Annex, to supervise the police detail for motor trucks from 5 A.M., Tuesday, September 22, 1953, until relieved.

5. One sergeant for duty at basement vault of Board of Election Commissioners, from 9 P.M., on Tuesday, September 22, 1953, until such time as all returns from the 322 precincts are in.

9. The detail of patrolmen at the various precincts will continue until the ballots are counted and the results declared. The officers are then to bring the ballots and returns to the Election Commissioners' office.

10. Cards with the ward and precinct number and location of voting booth printed thereon will be forwarded to the several police divisions, on which the Division Commander will write the name, the division number and the number of the officer detailed at the time stated on the morning of September 22, 1953, at the voting booth of each respective precinct on his division. This card, to be given to the officer so detailed at the voting booth, will be retained in his possession until delivery by him to an employee of the Board of Election Commissioners, who will arrive accompanying a sergeant on motor vehicle from the Election Commissioners' office on the morning of September 22, 1953, with the ballot boxes, ballots, etc., as hereinbefore stated.

This card, when returned by such employee to the office of the Election Commissioners will be its receipt that the ballot boxes, ballots, etc., have arrived at their proper destination.

11. On receipt by the patrolman from the sergeant, detailed on motor vehicle, as herein provided, of registering ballot box, ballots, voting lists and such other documents as may have been received from the Election Commissioners, the patrolman detailed at polling place will deliver same to the warden or clerk of the precinct, allowing no person to take or handle them before such delivery, and hand the key of the registering ballot box to the warden. On delivery of the ballots to the warden, the patrolman will take from him a receipt for the same, which receipt will be returned to the Election Commissioners.

12. After the warden has opened the box and allowed the election officers and the public to see that it is empty, the box is to be again locked and the key given to the patrolman who is to retain it until after the polls have closed except that, if the ballot box clogs, the key to the box should be turned over to the warden so that he may open the box to press the ballots down. If this is not done there is a danger that some of the ballots may become mutilated. (After the warden has pressed the ballots down, he will relock the box and return the key to the patrolman.)

13. The patrolman will obtain from the warden copies of poster, which will be sent to the latter, in relation to smoking and the use of liquor in polling places, and post same in conspicuous places where they may be easily read. Tacks will be sent for the purpose.

14. The warden will deliver to the patrolman detailed at the polling place for his use at that place a copy of the descriptive voting list, which must be returned to the warden at the close of polls.

15. When the polls are opened, the patrolman will mark in the place indicated on tag attached to the key the figures which the register shows before any ballots are cast.

16. At 9 o'clock p.m., Tuesday, September 22, 1953, after the polls close, one sergeant will report in each of the 22 wards (excepting Ward 14, Dorchester; Ward 18, Hyde Park; and Ward 20, West Roxbury, for which wards two sergeants and two motor trucks, each, are provided), to meet motor vehicle at last point of morning distribution; thence to proceed to each of the several precincts in his respective ward, and receive registering ballot box (which must be locked) and key thereof, voting lists envelope, signed by the warden and other election officers, receipts for ballots, unused ballot box, sealed and certified (containing unused and spoiled ballots), stamps for marking spoiled ballots and check lists, and carry them to the Election Commissioners' office and deliver same to some member of the Board of Election Commissioners.

17. When the polls are closed, the patrolman will mark on the same tag the figures which the register shows after all ballots have been cast. He will then hand the key to the warden, who will open the box and take out all the ballots to be sorted and counted. The warden will then cause the voting lists, including the list used by the police officer, to be sealed in an envelope and the envelope certified by the signatures of the warden and other election officers and the same returned to the Election Commissioners. The patrolman will not allow this envelope to be put into the ballot box. The sergeant who will report on motor vehicle will retain this envelope until delivery at the office of the Election Commissioners. The unused and spoiled ballots are then to be put into the box for unused ballots and the box sealed and certified, to be delivered to the office of the Board of Election Commissioners.

18. When returning from polls, all motor vehicles must drive to the easterly side of City Hall Annex, Court square, where ballot boxes will be conveyed by chute to the basement.

19. It is important that the patrolman sees that the voting lists envelope is signed by the warden, clerk and all the inspectors. The patrolman will also see that the special book for signatures of voters is returned in the registering ballot box.

20. In case a patrolman is detailed to relieve another after the close of the polls the commanding officer will see that he is properly instructed as to the duty of bringing official return, the box of ballots cast, and the press return to the Election Commissioners' office as soon as they are delivered to him by the election officers.

21. When the ballots have all been counted, the ballots thus counted, the tally sheets and nothing else, shall be placed by the warden in the leatheroid box sent for that purpose, which must be sealed and signed by all the election officers. The patrolman will particularly see that this box is properly sealed and that all the election officers have signed their names to the certificate on the box. The patrolman will then bring the box, official return, record book and press return to the City Hall Annex, Court square, and deliver same to the Election Commissioners.

The patrolman is directed not to allow the official return, press return or record book to be placed in the leatheroid box with ballots cast, but are to be returned by the officer to the Board of Election Commissioners.

22. While the polls remain open, an officer of rank will visit the polling place in each division at stated intervals, to be designated by the captain, and in case of any disturbance will report the fact to the commanding officer of the station house without delay. If additional men are needed beyond the number available in that division the officer in charge will communicate immediately with headquarters.

He shall remind the officer and the warden on duty at the polls, that the official return, press return and record book are not to be placed in the leatheroid box, but shall be safely delivered to the Election Commissioners with the leatheroid box.

23. Attention is called to the fact that the polls at the Preliminary Election on Tuesday, September 22, 1953, open at 8 o'clock, a.m., and close at 8 o'clock, p.m.

24. Commanding officers of divisions will see that the officers detailed for duty on Preliminary Election Day are furnished with a copy of circular issued by the Board of Election Commissioners entitled: "Instructions to Police Officers on Preliminary Election Day."

25. Voting machines will be used in the following precincts at the coming Preliminary Election:

Ward 1, all precincts.
Ward 2, all precincts.
Ward 3, all precincts.
Ward 4, all precincts.
Ward 5, all precincts.
Ward 6, all precincts.
Ward 7, all precincts.
Ward 8, all precincts.
Ward 9, all precincts.
Ward 10, all precincts.
Ward 11, Precincts 3, 4, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 14, and 15.
Ward 12, Precincts 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 17, and 19.
Ward 13, Precincts 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 15, and 16.
Ward 14, Precincts 1, 2, 5, 8, 9, 11, 13, 14, 15, 17, 19, and 20.
Ward 15, Precincts 3, 9, 10, 12, 13, 17, and 20.
Ward 16, Precincts 1, 5, 6, 10, 12, 13, 17, and 20.

Ward 18, Precincts 1, 2, 5, 6, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 18, and 19.
Ward 19, Precincts 3, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, and 17.
Ward 20, Precincts 5, 9, 12, 13, 16, 17, 18, 19, and 20.
Ward 21, Precincts 1, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 18.
Ward 22, Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 10, 14, and 16.

Officers assigned to duty in these precincts should be apprised of the procedure to be followed. When the warden has set up the machines for voting and the polls are declared open, he will give keys of each machine in the precinct to the police officer. The police officer will have custody of these keys until the close of the polls. Since the law requires that a ballot box be furnished for challenged ballots, the officer will also have the custody of the ballot box key during the polling hours. At the close of the polls, the officer will return keys to the warden. On SHOUP machines keys No. 2 and No. 3 will be automatically locked into the voting machine; Key No. 4 will be given to the police officer to return to City Hall. On automatic machines keys No. 2 and No. 3 will be given to the police officer to return to City Hall. These keys are to be enclosed in a sealed envelope signed by all election officers. Since the procedure is most important, it is requested that the officers check the envelope—one for each machine—to be certain that they are in proper order. These envelopes are not to be put in the leatheroid box but are to be taken in hand by the police officer and delivered to the clerk at the check-in desk in the Election Department. If any challenged ballots are cast in the precincts where machines are used, the police officer will have the ballots to return, but in any event he will return to City Hall Annex the box sent to the polling place for ballots cast, and the envelopes containing the keys.

IMPORTANT NOTES.

A. Officers shall strictly enforce the law pertaining to smoking. Smoking is prohibited within the confines of the polling places during the entire day, while the polls are open, as well as after they are closed.

As polling places and their approaches and exits are, in many instances, in buildings used for places of religious worship, to say nothing of the danger to valuable property from careless persons, the importance of these instructions is apparent.

B. During the hours from 6 o'clock p.m. to 8 o'clock p.m., there has been a large increase in the number of persons who congregate outside the polling places. This makes it disagreeable to voters who are entering and leaving the polling places. Officers shall exert every effort to relieve this congestion.

Officers are reminded that it is the privilege of the voters to watch the count of the votes cast. It is understood that no disturbance or crowding is to be permitted and that the voters are to remain outside the rails.

C. Officers shall handle ballot boxes with great care.

D. At the close of the polls all persons waiting to vote, including any who might be in line at the entrance to the polling place, are to be placed in line by the warden and given cards bearing their names. The police officer is to stand at the end of this line to be certain that no additional persons are permitted to join it. All voters in the line are to be permitted to cast their ballots, whether by paper ballots or by machine.

E. Attention is called to chapter 129, Acts of 1952, which permits a candidate running on "stickers" (or his representative) to distribute such "stickers" adjacent to or in the building where the polling place is located or at the entrance to, but not in, the room where the polling takes place.

Your attention is also directed to chapter 78, Acts of 1932, which states that: "No information regarding the state of the balloting shall be disclosed before the close of the polls."

F. Corrected books showing the locations of the polling places will be sent to each division. You will note that in many instances precincts have been combined in one building, but the number of precincts is 322.

G. Commanding officers shall direct all officers detailed at the polling places in the various precincts to report promptly, according to schedule.

H. Officers shall be informed that in many instances there are two precincts located in the same building, as follows:

General Order No. 1,808.

The annual ball of the Boston Police Relief Association will be held in the Boston Garden, Wednesday evening, December 9, 1953.

The proceeds of the ball, as members of the department know, are added to the funds of the association and are used for the payment of sick and death benefits to members of the association and their families, which funds, at the present time, are insufficient to meet the demands made upon the association.

It is the desire of the Commissioner, the Superintendent, and the Board of Directors of the association that all members of the Force interest themselves and make a special effort to dispose of the tickets for the ball, and thereby make it such a success that the finances of the association will be put on a sound basis, so that the good work accomplished by the association in assisting its members in time of sickness or death since it was organized in 1871 may be continued.

The tickets for the ball will be distributed to each station by the treasurer, Lieut. Harrington B. Wyand, Division 2, who will receive a receipt therefor. Captains of divisions will distribute the tickets to their officers and keep a correct list of the number of tickets given to each man. Each officer will make a daily return to his captain of the number of tickets he has sold, together with the name and address of the purchaser, and will return the money received to his captain.

All officers will be held strictly responsible for tickets allotted to them.

Captains will collect each day all money received by officers in the sale of tickets. This money will be converted into a check, made payable to Harrington B. Wyand, treasurer, B.P.R.A., and forwarded to the superintendent by morning mail the following day. A correct list containing the ticket numbers, together with the names and addresses of purchasers of tickets, shall be kept on file at the various divisions. In this way, it is expected that a complete canvass of the city will be made and a substantial increase in the sale of tickets will be accomplished.

All tickets that remain unsold on December 10, 1953, will be collected by the captain of each division and returned to Lieutenant Wyand who will furnish a receipt therefor.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

Accompanied by other officers, Patrolman Toomey proceeded to this hotel and placed the suspect under arrest. After questioning this man, he admitted participation in eighteen robberies of cleansing shops in and around Boston.

The Commissioner is pleased to recognize the diligence and devotion to duty shown by Patrolman Toomey which resulted in the apprehension of this dangerous criminal.

Under the provisions of General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Chapter 71, Section 42 as amended, I hereby request that you furnish me with written charges of the causes for which my dismissal as a school teacher in the City of Boston is proposed.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) George R. Faxon

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I move that that letter be filed with the records of the School Committee, and I move further that the following orders be adopted in reply to and in reference to that letter.

The two orders are as follows.
ORDERED: That it is proposed to vote the dismissal of George R. Faxon on June 15, 1953, for one or more of the following causes:—

1. For conduct unbecoming a teacher;
2. For conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of Massachusetts;
3. For being a person undesirable as a public school teacher; and
4. For engaging in Communist activities while a public school teacher; for

A. That George R. Faxon did on March 26, 1953, decline to answer before the Internal Security Subcommittee of the United States Senate's Judiciary Committee the following questions:

- (a) "Mr. Faxon, are you at this time a member of the Communist Party?"
- (b) "Mr. Faxon, do you know a man named Herbert Philbrick?"
- (c) "Mr. Faxon, while you have been a teacher at the Boston Latin School, have you tried to recruit anybody into the Communist Party or into the Young Communist League?"
- (d) "Mr. Faxon, while you were at the Veterans' School did you endeavor to recruit anybody at that time into the Communist Party or into the Young Communist League?"

- (e) "While you were at the Boston Trade School, did you make any effort to recruit students into the Communist Party?"
- (f) "While you were at the Roxbury School during 1934 to 1940, did you make any efforts to recruit students into the Young Communist League or into the Communist Party?"
- (g) "Have you ever made an effort to recruit a fellow teacher into the Communist Party?"
- (h) "Have you attended any secret meetings of the Communist Party in Massachusetts?"
- (i) "Have you ever attended any secret meetings of the Communist Party outside the State of Massachusetts?"
- (j) "When did you last see Herbert Philbrick?"

B. That during a period in the year 1949 and for some time prior thereto George R. Faxon was a member of the Communist Party;

C. That George R. Faxon, while he was a teacher in the Boston public schools, held or permitted to be held in his home meetings of the pro group of Communist Party members; and

D. That George R. Faxon did, on March 26, 1953, in testifying before the Internal Security Subcommittee of the United States Senate's Judiciary Committee, commit perjury.

ORDERED: That in reply to the letter addressed to the School Committee by George R. Faxon under date of May 5, 1953, requesting that the School Committee furnish him with written charges of the causes for which his dismissal as a school teacher in the City of Boston is proposed, which letter was placed on file at this meeting of the Committee, the Secretary of this Committee be, and hereby is, authorized and directed to give to said George R. Faxon forthwith written notice of the aforesaid charges of the causes for which his dismissal is proposed, by sending him forthwith a copy of this series of two orders.

On roll call, Mr. Faxon's letter was placed on file with the records of the School Committee and the series of two orders passed by the following vote:

TRANSFER OF APPROPRIATION

Mr. Kerr of the Law Department recommended, to avoid any question as to the so-called down payment in connection with the proposed loan of $5,000,000 for school purposes, that the Committee adopt an order which he had prepared.

Dr. Foley moved the adoption of the following order:

ORDERED: That the sum of $157,351.60 appropriated in the current year for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses now constituting, or hereafter becoming, approved school projects within the meaning of Mass. St. 1943, ch. 645, as amended, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses, be, and the same hereby is, transferred to the following purpose, to wit:—For acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses.

On roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

MARITAL STATUS OF FEMALE TEACHERS

Mr. Kerr of the Law Department: There is one further matter, Madam Chairman, that I would like to bring before you at this meeting.

I believe that the Committee is aware that by Chapter 244 of the Acts of 1953, which was approved by His Excellency the Governor on April 10th, it is provided that the change of marital status of a female teacher or superintendent shall not be considered cause for dismissal under this section.

Under your rules, as they presently exist, the marriage of a woman teacher or woman member of the supervising staff, shall operate as a resignation from her position.

To be sure, Chapter 244 of the Acts of 1953, will not take effect until July in the absence of any emergency preamble, and so it will not be until that time that that act operates to vitiate the rule that I just read you.

However, it would seem to me as though a legislative policy of the Commonwealth has been declared by the passage of Chapter 244, and I therefore call to your attention the question—which is for you to determine—whether you should amend the rule so as to conform with your present regulations within the declared legislative policy of the Commonwealth.

If you desire to amend the rule, I suggest that it take the following form:

ORDERED: That Section 283 of the Rules and Regulations of the School Committee be, and the same hereby is, amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence: If a female teacher or a female member of the supervising staff shall marry, it shall be her duty to report such marriage forthwith to the Superintendent and the Business Manager.

Mrs. Lyons: I would like to move that we accept this proposed amendment.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, on several occasions while a member of the School Committee which preceded this one, I attempted to have our rules amended in line with this proposed amendment and in line with the statute which becomes effective very shortly; and while normally I would like very much to move the adoption of the amendment suggested by Mr. Kerr, I think that that is something that possibly you as a married woman, engaged somewhat with teaching, would like to do, and I would just as soon give way to you if you want to make the motion.

On motion of Dr. Foley and on roll call, the rules were suspended to permit the passage of the amendment to Section 283 of the regulations as presented, by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

On motion of Mrs. Lyons and on roll call the order amending Section 283 of the regulations passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

APPROVAL OF APPOINTMENTS

The Chairman stated that the question was on approving the appointments of teachers as reported by the Superintendent, with the exception of Mary Rockwood Nolan, teacher, elementary (eighth year), Norcross District, and laid over at the meeting of April 30, 1953.

Mr. Muchnick: I will tell you frankly, Madam Chairman, why I would like to have these appointments held. Many of these ninety people have been working for us during the last three years. I would like to know what the supervisors or directors or principals have had to say about these people. The mere fact that they happen to be No. 1, 2, 3 or 10 on a list does not in and of itself prove their proficiency for teaching.

It is our duty to examine into every applicant under the statute and I would like to know what reports we have from each of these people from their immediate superiors, as I suggested a moment ago.

There are two very sad situations before the School Committee right now, and I make no inference that any of these people are anything but the most proper, competent people for us to employ in the school system; but there is evidence of their ability and desirability as a result of the work that they have been doing for us, during the last one, two and three years, and I would like to see those reports before I, for one, act on them.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, did the member have this information in mind when those names came before us first? Wouldn't it have been possible for you to ask those questions when the names were first presented to us and the matter was held over until this time, and those people expected that it was an automatic holdover and that if you wanted that information you would obtain it in the meantime while the appointments were laid over? You had plenty of time in which you could have asked for that information.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, that has been one of the troubles with the school system—that people expect that these things are automatic. I for one am not an automaton.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I am not an automaton either. It is true that there was plenty of time between the last meeting and this meeting when the member could have obtained the information he wants now.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know how much Miss Fitzgerald knows about my personal or professional life but she knows that there has been plenty of time for me to do certain things or not do certain things.

I am satisfied in my conscience, Madam Chairman, that the activities that have taken up my time between the last meeting and this meeting have been such and have been proper activities, that they prevented my getting that information up until now; and until such time as we have that information—which, incidentally, should have been furnished to us along with the nominations—I for one would like to see the matter held up.

I do not want to vote as an automaton at 11:25 after a particularly difficult day in both private affairs and public business, and after a series of sleepless nights during the last few days, for other reasons, on a matter so vital to our school system.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I think I asked for the floor.

Dr. Foley: I yield.

Miss Fitzgerald: I just wish to ask the Superintendent if these ninety names of people whom he has presented to us are people in whom he has confidence and who he feels will serve us well?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Miss Fitzgerald, in answer to that question I say positively Yes. I think the Committee will recall that in executive there was some thought that these new teachers or these prospective teachers should answer another series of questions dealing with allegiance to the Government and so forth.

Dr. Foley: Teachers' oath.

Superintendent: And at the time I said to the Committee that before these names were to be confirmed, which I hoped would have been tonight, I would ask Mr. Bond to be sure that he had an oath card on file—the oath that Dr. Foley proposed I am referring to now—for each one of these candidates, and Mr. Bond assured me a day or two ago that he had an oath card on file for each one of these prospective candidates.

The candidates are all taken from the regular eligible lists. There is not a single candidate whom I nominated about whom I have hesitancy in any way, shape or manner.

If there was any indication of inefficiency on the part of the teacher concerned, I am sure that it would have come up through to me from Mr. Bond or through the Department of Practice and Training, or from some of the principals concerned.

I have no hesitancy in the nominations and no regrets in regard to any of those nominations. They were taken right from regular certificate lists.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, the Superintendent submitted a list of some ninety candidate's not at the previous meeting that we had but at the previous conference, followed by the public meeting, and we accepted them very graciously. On that list the different individuals were assigned to respective schools. It was publicized and it was expected that the assignments would go through, and they did go through in the conference and were held over until confirmation, which would be at this particular meeting.

I do not see any rhyme or reason, Madam Chairman, for this Committee feeling at this time that this list should be held in abeyance inasmuch as they have been assigned. They have been duly accepted by the Committee in conference; and as far as the Committee is concerned, I think that they have gone over the list as best they possibly could; and at this particular time the public press has seen the names. They have published the names, and I don't think that this Committee at this time should hold up for any great length and I move that the list be accepted.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, when I made my first reference to examining the list it was not particularly with reference to the matter suggested by the Superintendent in connection with the oath. I assumed that people would be screened, particularly at this time, very carefully with reference to undesirable extracurricular activities.

I was referring more specifically to the fact that most of these people, regardless of position on the list or regardless of whether they had or had not passed certificate examinations, had been working for us, for several years in some cases.

With reference to most of these people, and very possibly all of these people, there are the usual reports by the Board of Examiners, the Department of Practice and Training, principals, headmasters, supervisors, directors, and so forth. I think we are entitled to have the results of those reports.

We should, in my opinion, in the proper performance of our duty, examine those reports to see if our opinion and judgment of the proficiency and efficiency of these people is the same as that of the Superintendent who nominated them, and no harm can come by waiting until such time as the examination can be made because if approval is given to-night or at the next meeting or ten meetings from now, it is still approval as of the date submitted. These people are currently working, and therefore from their point of view they will lose nothing if they are proficient and efficient teachers.

However, if one of this group turns out to be the kind of teacher we do not think should be in the system by way of teaching ability or any other reason after examination of the reports of their superiors during the periods they have worked for us, and if we will have appointed that one person among the eighty or ninety tonight, we will be stuck with that person and will not, in my opinion, have done our duty as required by the statute in examining into the qualifications of all of them as we can get them by these reports if we do the appointing tonight, and I press the motion that this go over until the next meeting, when nobody who is a proper, qualified, proficient, efficient teacher can be hurt, and if there is the slightest possibility of weeding out any improper or potential improper teacher, we have done our duty and saved the school system from the harm that such an improper person could do from now on in the future.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, speaking on the motion, this is another example of what Mr. Muchnick has done in connection with appointments.

You all recall that at his suggestion you held up rated lists last summer, and they were held up until, I believe, September, or perhaps up to the first of October, and he wanted to look into those lists to be sure that he was discharging all his obligations in regard to these persons who were going to be placed on lists for promotion.

This Committee had one meeting with the Board of Examiners and the Board of Superintendents, and examined one rated list up on the eighth floor, and then, after looking over that list and discussing it with the Board of Examiners and the Board of Superintendents, it was left with the Committee that they could on their own examine into the other lists.

Those lists were not accepted, and I think you will find that the records will show that about a month after that, or some time after that, when I pressed for acceptance and said you had ample time now to examine into these other lists, knowing that you examined into only one—and I think there were eight or ten all together—Mr. Muchnick said that he had not had time to examine any of the other lists. I believe he said something like this—that he had been engaged rather unsuccessfully in extra-curricular activities during that period, and as a result had not had time to study those rated lists, so I think he voted to accept the lists.

This is another example of what in my opinion is hurting the morale of this service. These teachers were off a regular certificate list and you wanted nominations made and you wanted appointments made, and I don't blame you, and I certainly wanted to make them.

Some of these persons are coming in from outside the City. It is not as easy as he portrays it. I think those ninety people deserve to be appointed, and I think it is a shame if you don't do it.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, as long as we got onto the subject of rated lists, I just want to make a three-sentence observation.

There has been some rating during the last few years for head of department, Mathematics. I think it would make very interesting reading to see what the rating people, the Board of Superintendents and the Board of Examiners, and everybody else concerned with rating, had to say concerning one person who rated for the position of head of department, Mathematics, to whom notice is being sent tonight as to the prospects of his being dismissed; and I think with just that as a background it is incumbent upon us to examine, and that is not my major portion in asking that these lists be looked at. There was appointed in 1950, I believe, on nomination of the Superintendent, a teacher named Max Weitzman, whom the School Committee has suspended for several reasons.

Now, with those two cases alone, neither of them based on inefficiency, incidentally, or proficiency as teachers but for other purposes, one by way of rating and getting up, as I understand it, in one rating to the next, and the other by way of initial appointment within three years, I think we ought to examine into these appointments and not just accept nominations automatically as has been suggested.

I for one do not intend to do so. Miss Fitzgerald: I think Dr. Foley made a very good point earlier when he said we ought to accept this list at this time of these teachers who have already been assigned, who have been teaching for us for a matter of how many weeks, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: They have assumed that they were going to be appointed as of tonight.

Mrs. Lyons: Call the roll, please?

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, what motion are we speaking on—Mr. Muchnick's motion or Dr. Foley's motion?

Dr. Foley: The motion to accept the list.

Mr. Muchnick: No, I made a motion that they lie over until the next meeting.

Dr. Foley: On the motion to lie over, I do not really believe that the Committee benefits at all with regard to having the matter lie over. With regard to the Weitzman case, we have been assured that all of these anti-Communist cards have been duly signed by this group now, who are in. I think everything is all right.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman signed an oath, too.

Superintendent: Mr. Weitzman did not sign the oath that these people signed.

Dr. Foley: I trust that this lying over of this particular group will not prevail inasmuch as it is late in the year. It is May 13th, and they have been really waiting for their assignment. They waited many, many years; and as the summer approaches I think it would be very nice of us if we felt that we would put particular emphasis on this list and that we would accept it very graciously and feel that we have done a good job. I think they have been examined enough.

Secretary: This is Mr. Muchnick's motion that these appointments lie over until the next meeting.

On roll call the motion failed of passage by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Muchnick—1
NAYS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—3
ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I move that this list as submitted by the Superintendent and accepted by us in the last conference be accepted and confirmed in this public meeting.

Secretary: The question is on approving the appointments, with the exception of Mary Rockwood Nolan, which is a separate vote, and which were laid over.

Mrs. Lyons: Why is that?

Secretary: I must have suspension of the rules because she received a different salary.

Mrs. Lyons: Why is that?

Secretary: Because she was not entitled to the eighth year.

Superintendent: Under our regulations she was entitled to come in at the third step, but she has been eight years in service, and I feel that she is entitled to the eighth step. I think it is the eighth step.

Secretary: It was agreed to last week in conference, so the rules should be suspended.

Superintendent: But it has to be by a suspension of the rules.

Mrs. Lyons: Is that true on everybody who has given us that much service?

Superintendent: I will say this, Madam Chairman, what we ought to do is this: Have her appointment confirmed tonight. I hope there will be three votes to confirm all of these ninety-two, and I want Mrs. Nolan confirmed in that group.

Mr. Muchnick, if he is consistent, will perhaps vote not to confirm the appointments.

Dr. Foley: I don't think that is necessary.

Superintendent: I am only trying to get the picture, Doctor.

Dr. Foley: Stay on Mrs. Nolan for a minute.

Superintendent: I am only trying to protect Mrs. Nolan. Therefore, I would like to see Mrs. Nolan accepted under the regulations first.

Secretary: At what salary?

Superintendent: At the third step of the salary.

Secretary: She went in at the eighth.

Superintendent: All right, she can go in on the third tonight. The matter of establishing her salary has nothing to do with the appointment part of the regulation.

She can be appointed tonight on the third step in keeping with the regulations, and then she can be put on the eighth step two minutes afterward if there are four votes for it, but at least let's get her under cover, and let's protect the woman.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, if the Superintendent's concern is getting Mrs. Nolan under cover, and protecting Mrs. Nolan, frankly my concern is with protecting the school system.

However, if it will ease his mind any with reference to Mrs. Nolan, if she is appointed under our regulations, and under the law on the third year, then she cannot have anything done by way of increasing her salary until the next salary schedule, as I understand the law of 1875, and I don't know whether or not you can jump anybody five increments.

However, I would like to point out, even though I intend to vote against all appointments tonight, because of the reasons I have advanced, that it does not take four votes to suspend the rules, for Mrs. Nolan, or anybody else. It has been ruled many times, by you, as chairman, by me as chairman last year, and by the Law Department on several occasions that as a result of our votes last year and this year at the organization meeting, you only need three votes to suspend the rules. So let nobody have any worries about it.

Secretary: Approval is on all the appointments except Mrs. Mary Rockwood Nolan.

On roll call the appointments were approved by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—3.

NAYS—Mr. Muchnick—1.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

The Chairman stated that the question was on approving the appointment of Mary Rockwood Nolan, teacher, elementary (eighth year), Norcross District, as reported by the Superintendent, and laid over at the meeting of Apr. 30, 1933.

Secretary: The approval of this appointment will require a suspension of the regulations in order to provide for salary on the eighth year for Mrs. Nolan.

Dr. Foley: I don't really understand that quite well. What is it about?

Mrs. Lyons: I don't either. I thought six years was the most you could get.

Superintendent: Why is it the eighth step? Let me explain it to you.

Dr. Foley: We have to accept it, of course, and then set the salary.

Superintendent: Would you like me to explain the reason why, Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

Superintendent: We have a regulation which says that a re-entrant will come back into the service on the same step of the present salary rate as she was on when she left our service.

Mrs. Nolan left our service, let's say, early in her career.

Dr. Foley: Was she at maximum?

Superintendent: No, she was only on the third step.

Dr. Foley: But a different maximum than what we have today?

Superintendent: That's right. So under the regulations she can come back on the third step. We also have another regulation pertaining to teachers who have taught in our service temporarily and for every year of temporary service we give them one increment, so that if a girl has been teaching for five years as a temporary, we put that girl on the sixth step. If she has been teaching four years we put her on the fifth step.

Mrs. Lyons: Could I stop you right there, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Let me finish, and I think it will be clear in your mind.

Mrs. Nolan has taught altogether in our service eight years as a temporary teacher. She taught some of that since 1940. Is that true, Mr. Bond?

Mr. Bond: Yes.

Superintendent: She was there three years and then she went out with the tenure law. Then she came back in again, and so on.

Dr. Foley: Did she break that continuity of service at the end of the third year, when she is not re-appointed?

Superintendent: That is true, Doctor; but, regardless of that, everyone who comes into our service and served any number of years as a temporary has been given credit. That, Madam Chairman and members, was given to these teachers because there were many teachers who went out to Portland, Oregon, and came back here under advanced salary.

Dr. Foley: Glad to get them!

Superintendent: Yes, and those who stayed with us we gave credit year for year for their temporary service, so that by suspending the regulations Mrs. Nolan can come in on the eighth step, and I think that we should utilize that regulation to bring her into our service on a permanent basis rather than the other one.

We have a precedent for that, and I think it was done by this Committee last year, wasn't it, Mr. Bond? Wasn't there a teacher who taught in Norwood and we brought her in not on the salary step on which she left but rather in keeping with her salary out in Norwood?

Mr. Bond: Is that Mrs. McGinnis, by any chance?

Superintendent: I think there was another one. I think there were two teachers where the Committee has suspended the rule to give the person the opportunity to have the higher salary.

Mr. Muchnick: The one from Norwood was a teacher-coach, as I remember it, and we let him add his coaching salary to his regular teacher salary.

Superintendent: No, that was not true, Mr. Muchnick. This was a woman teacher from Norwood. I am sure there was one case.

Mrs. Lyons: It was my impression that they could get credit up to the sixth step but beyond that they could not.

Superintendent: Now they can get credit up to any step, and that is by action of this Committee. Mr. Bond can correct me if I am in error, but at the present time a person can come in from outside the service at any salary up to the maximum of our salary. Isn't that true?

Mr. Bond: That is true.

Superintendent: Secondly under our present regulations, any teacher who served any number of years as a temporary can come in and receive credit for each year regardless of the number. That does not pertain to re-entrants, and therefore I ask you to suspend the rule and apply that rule to Mrs. Nolan, to bring her in on the eighth step rather than the third.

Dr. Foley: Mr. Superintendent, why wouldn't it apply to re-entrants? What was the reason for that?

Superintendent: There is a specific rule for re-entrants, Doctor.

Dr. Foley: A special examination?

Superintendent: Yes, a special examination with only the major; and in nine cases out of ten—now, note this—with our salary schedule a way up with relation to where it was when people married and went out several years ago and coming in on the same step, brings them in on a step of a much higher salary schedule than the one on which they went out, and it usually is to their advantage.

This happens to be one case where it is more advantageous for this woman to be given the eighth step for temporary service rather than the third step.

Dr. Foley: In our case, for instance, under the tenure law you can only serve as a temporary teacher for three years. Then there is a break. It might be even a year or two years, but you have a continuity of five or eight years, irrespective of the break, don't you?

Superintendent: She has not had continuous service. I think, Doctor, you will remember this situation, and Mr. Muchnick should, too. When we adjusted salaries up to six years, we went back and readjusted salaries back for several years.

Dr. Foley: I think six is a pretty good bracket to come in on that. If you don't you might go back ten or fifteen or more years. It is quite a questionable set-up.

Mrs. Lyons: I think it is questionable, not that it will apply here because she is re-entering, but very often you find people who are not appointed and there is some reason why they are not appointed. They are filling in. They are doing temporary work, but there is always a question in my mind that after six years it seems to me they ought to be good enough so that we want them and appoint them; and to bring them in above that is penalizing the people who have given wonderful service all those years.

On roll call the regulations were suspended and the appointment was approved by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—3.

TERMINATION OF PAYMENT TO TRAINING TEACHERS

A communication was received from Mr. John J. Desmond, Jr., Commissioner of Education, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, under date of Mar. 30, 1953, stating that the Board of Education at its meeting of Mar. 25, 1953, voted: "that payment to teachers in the schools of the City of Boston for the supervision of practice teaching in connection with the program of the State Teachers College at Boston be terminated at the end of the present school year; the payment to teachers at the Martin and Farragut Schools for purposes of observation and participation in connection with the program of said College to be continued."

AGREEMENT WITH DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

A communication was received from John J. Desmond, Jr., Commissioner of Education, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, under date of Mar. 30, 1953, stating that the Board of Education at its meeting of Mar. 25, 1953, voted that an accompanying proposed agreement between the Board of Education and the School Committee of the City of Boston relative to the program of participation and observation at the State Teachers College at Boston be sent to the School Committee of the City of Boston for its consideration and action.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, that is the agreement that was passed by vote in conference; and I suggest that if it is done the same way in public meeting, you will have succeeded in passing what, in my opinion, will be a completely invalid vote, and you will not have a contract that you think you are voting on.

Mrs. Lyons: Send it to the Law Department, then.

Miss Fitzgerald: Wasn't it voted in the conference not to send it to the Law Department?

Mrs. Lyons: I think we can still change our minds in open meeting inasmuch as it appears that if it is not going to be effective there is no point to it.

Miss Fitzgerald: I just wish it recorded that I don't change my mind. I go along with what I said in conference.

Mrs. Lyons: Send it to the Law Department. I think there are three of us who will decide that we will send it to the Law Department.

Dr. Foley: To be safe, I suppose.

Mr. Muchnick: If anybody wants, I will make a formal motion to refer it to the Law Department. I make a motion that this be referred to the Law Department.

On roll call, Mr. Muchnick's motion that this be referred to the Law Department passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3.

PRACTICE TEACHING, PUPILS IN STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE AT BOSTON

The following communication from John J. Desmond, Jr., Commissioner of Education, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, under date of Mar. 27, 1953, was sent:

At the meeting of the State Board of Education held on March 25, 1953, it was voted to discontinue at the end of the present school year the payment of $144.00 to teachers in the City of Boston who are supervising the off-campus practice teaching of students from the State Teachers College at Boston.

The payment of these teachers was assumed this year by the Commonwealth because it had been the practice to give them extra compensation for this service when the College was under the jurisdiction of the City of Boston. Off-campus practice teaching, however, is part of the program in a number of other colleges and the service is rendered without compensation. The Board, therefore, felt that it would not be justified in continuing to pay Boston teachers for the service.

It is the wish of the Board that practice teaching be carried on in the cities and towns in the Metropolitan area, including the Boston schools, and I am writing in the name of the Board of Education to request your cooperation in permitting some students from the State Teachers College at Boston to do their practice teaching in Boston under some of your superior teachers without compensation. I am also writing to the school authorities in the other cities and towns in this area. I am assuming, however, that most of the upperclassmen now in the State Teachers College at Boston will prefer to do their practice teaching in your system with a view to becoming teachers in Boston on graduation. It, therefore, may be necessary to assign a large portion, if not all, to Boston for the next few years.

Although we cannot offer compensation for the services of these teachers, we hope that the opportunity which it will give you to select good teachers for future positions, the professional growth of the teachers who participate, the privilege of sharing your experience with coming generations of teachers, and your interest in providing the best possible training opportunities for future teachers will make participation in the program attractive. The work of the students would, of course, be properly supervised by the professional staff of the College.

If you are willing to cooperate, I shall have Dr. William F. Looney, President of the College, confer with you relative to details.

(The following is the extract from the conference notes of May 6, 1953, referred to.)

Mrs. Lyons: We set this meeting up primarily for the reason that the people from Harvard were going to explain the reasons for some of the suggestions that they had made in the survey:

"Look to the Schoolhouses."

There were other people, I think, who were misinformed and felt that it was going to be an open meeting and I believe they felt it should be a sort of a protest meeting. That was not scheduled for this evening, so I think that we should confine our activities to listening to the group from Harvard tonight.

Later, if the room downstairs with larger quarters is vacant, we will go down there so that everybody will have a seat and nobody will be quite so crowded.

I think it is just as well to prevent scenes rather than go looking for them.

Dr. Sargent, would you like to start now? Miss Fitzgerald is on her way up; Mr. Carr won't be here this evening, and Dr. Foley is evidently on his way.

Dr. Sargent: I really don't have anything with which to start in the real sense. The last time we explained very generally some of the processes of the study and how we had gone about the analysis and how we had tried to put the parts of the puzzle together.

I thought at that time that you people needed time to read it and examine it and look into it and as a result of that examination, you certainly would have questions that you would like to direct to us, so we are here for that purpose this evening, to help try to answer questions that you people may have in connection with the study itself.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that what most of us are most concerned with right now are the things that you might suggest that we would be able to do this September. There are many suggestions in here that you have made about closing schools for the 1st of September, if we had other places or if we had money that would be available to build new schools.

In the light of the fact that we don't have any money, what would you suggest in this that we could do now and be ready the 1st of September to operate so that we could save some money.

Mr. Sargent: I think the best thing that we could try to help answer that is to go to the area report summary page—at the end of Section A-41.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, may I ask a question? Is it possible, now that we are on A-41, to split the discussion up into three areas: elementary, junior high and senior high—or must there be an overlapping.

Mr. Sargent: There will be some shifting, you see. Some of these recommendations relate to converting back to junior high or converting into elementary and so forth, and when that comes up we will mention that.

Mr. Muchnick: And that will lead up to the other. Well Madam Chairman, on A-41, taking area 1, the two that are recommended for abandonment in 1953, I take it by that is meant June, 1953. Is that right?

Mr. Sargent: In other words, not open them in September.

Mr. Muchnick: As of September, bearing in mind what new construction there would be in the area, it could not be completed before 1955 as is suggested here. What provision could be made or should be made for the pupils who are now in those two schools or who would be entering those schools?

Dr. Sargent: I think we can go back to the section itself.

Mr. Carroll: In the case of William Wirt Warren School, those pupils could be in the Gardner School which now is not at capacity and has a capacity of 600. The case of the Hobart Street School presents more of a problem, as was mentioned in the report. You have 158 children there and they are in the kindergarten, first and second grades.

The school should not be opened for safety reasons, and we felt that in that case you should distribute the students to available space in other parts of Brighton or, perhaps, if you could establish a kindergarten similar to the Monastery project which is now in the housing project near the William Howard

Taft School, you might solve the problem. You have the Monastery project; perhaps you are acquainted with that. Then you could move the other group. I think you could put them in with the Garfield School, or perhaps by shifting the upper elementary, the sixth grade, from the Garfield over to the Winship School, you could make room there for an additional second grade and third grade in the future.

That presents a problem in the case of the Hobart Street School. There is no problem with the William Wirt Warren School. There is plenty of capacity in that area for all these students.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you taken into account the distances from the Warren to the Garfield School?

Mr. Carroll: To the Gardner School.

Mr. Muchnick: To the Gardner School.

Mr. Carroll: Yes, we did. We actually went over that route several times, and it appears that we were quite certain that there is no danger as far as traffic hazards between those two sections. There is some industrial area, but there is no traffic hazard in between the Gardner School and the Warren School.

Mrs. Lyons: They are very close together, aren't they, on the map. Perhaps someone over there can point to those two schools. We have the map right here in front of us of area 1.

Miss Fitzgerald: Could I ask the gentleman who has just spoken. Are you proposing that the youngsters who are displaced by transferring from the Hobart to the Garfield would then go to the Edison or to the Taft?

Mr. Carroll: It would be a matter of two shiftings. The upper elementary in the Garfield could be moved, and this is one possibility, to the Winship, which now has some available space, and an extra lower elementary grade could be put into the Garfield, which would take care of the Hobart Street students who are being displaced by closing the Hobart.

Miss Fitzgerald: The distance between the Hobart and the others is about 27-100ths of a mile?

Mr. Carroll: I have actually walked that. I would not know exactly to that extent, however. I know that they are within the same general region, as you can see on the map.

Mr. Muchnick: And in 1955 the 14-room school, if constructed, would then eliminate any school at all?

Mr. Carroll: Would eliminate what? Oh, it would be taking the increased population which is coming up in that area.

Mr. Muchnick: Is there sufficient space, including schoolyard space, and so forth, at the Hobart area for a new modern 14-room school?

Mr. Carroll: There is room to build a new 14-room school. Yes, I would say that is true. What would you say on that on the Hobart side?

Miss Adinoff: In the vicinity of the Hobart Street school there are several possible sites—not on that side as it stands—it would have to be enlarged to handle a school of that size.

Mr. Sargent: That is one of the things that I think generally we have made the point here, and I know it is a problem in Boston and we are not unaware of the complications. However, the sites always are going to be troublesome. You have to face that, and I personally feel that the City has to expect to take by eminent domain property to enlarge sites.

It is not going to be easy, but it is a part of the total program of providing space for children to play in a metropolitan area; and any time you look for sites, the problem of what is presently available and how it can be enlarged will always be a tough one to unravel, and you won't find it easy and you won't be satisfied with what you can do always. However, the size of the sites should be a major consideration, we feel.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I don't think that taking property by eminent domain is a policy which I would like to see the School Committee adopt. Also I think a problem in constructing new schools is the amount of money that is available in Boston for building new schools. I do not see that any money is forthcoming to build all these schools that are recommended in this particular report.

Mr. Sargent: In thinking through this problem we were not making any decisions in terms of what might be the financial ability at the present time of Boston or what Boston should decide it could or could not do.

We are fully aware that Boston has a lot of problems, and schools is not the only one. The problem of financing metropolitan areas now is one that everybody is wrestling with, and I am not competent to speak on the question of whether Boston can or cannot afford it.

I think what a community can afford is somewhat elastic. I would say this, and this is not to do any more than express my feeling about problems of cities.

Boston is and has been losing population. I personally feel that good schools, modern schools, may well encourage people to remain in Boston and continue their residence there. So how you resolve the problem is difficult but somehow or other Boston has to take into account the problem of rebuilding as a city; and I would just say that in the total picture the problem of rebuilding schools is the one that the City has to face in terms of a long period of time, and it is not unusual. Boston is not alone in this.

You had a whole period of depression; and while there was some PWA building there was not much. You have the whole war. Now you see what community after community is confronted with—simply this lag of a long period of no building, and in addition you have this shift in population, new housing developments and so forth.

I do not mean to underestimate the size of the problem, but maybe it is one that is fairly central in keeping Boston alive.

Mr. Muchnick: Could you, Dr. Sargent, or any of the people associated with us give us a general idea of the cost per classroom of building a 14-room school or a 7-room school of good modern construction, properly equipped?

Mr. Sargent: Let me say this: When we are talking of 14 classrooms, as the Committee would understand, we are talking about 14 classrooms plus all the special facilities that would go along with it—a health suite, all-purpose room, plenty of play space on the site, etc.

Your figures are very deceiving in terms of school construction. The only way to get accurate costs of construction is after you have had architects' drawings and estimates from them. Before that all you can do is quote past experience.

I think I am fairly safe in saying that at the present time, or fairly recently in the past, the average cost of construction of elementary schools in this state—and I have no knowledge of Boston's experience at all—is about $35,000 a classroom on the elementary level, and land would be in addition to that.

However, that is a rough rule of thumb. If you want to figure on an elementary level, that is the state experience as of the present time or a year prior to the present time.

You can find some schools in the State that have been built for $30,000 a classroom, but others that are running $40,000.

Mr. Muchnick: Does that figure include in its average the cost of the all-purpose room and the health service?

Mr. Sargent: That is everything but the land.

Mr. Muchnick: Everything but the land, and is it based on any particular number of classrooms as the average?

Mr. Sargent: No. The schools that are being built in Massachusetts are running 14 to 21 rooms very frequently, aren't they, Mr. Mitchell, wouldn't you say?

Mr. Mitchell: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: But the cost would increase. The average cost per classroom would increase?

Mr. Sargent: I don't dare say on that.

Mr. Mitchell: To the extent that you would be providing additional facilities.

Dr. Foley: Would that change on the structure of the building, as to what type of building you should have?

Mr. Mitchell: I think that is one of the reasons why Massachusetts as a state is moving toward single-story structures. They are getting away from heavy construction.

Dr. Foley: Is it under a state code?

Mr. Mitchell: Of course, public safety will determine the type of construction from the point of view of public use of a building, and you still have to provide double access points to classrooms and things like that, but those are public safety regulations. There are no exact regulations, for example, on state aid for school construction.

Dr. Foley: That is a very low cost in Boston—$35,000 a room.

Mr. Mitchell: You may have a complication here. I don't know.

Mrs. Lyons: I think probably some of the building code is not restrictive inasmuch as they have been in force for many, many years. I have spoken to the Mayor about that, and asked him if something can be done. He said, "Yes, he felt that ordinances could be changed."

Mr. Muchnick: If I may suggest, Madam Chairman, it is just a question of an ordinance in changing the building code. I know that from my own experience in the Council where I was responsible for the adoption of the present building code.

Mrs. Lyons: I would like to ask a question on area 7, that is where we are contemplating a new school in the Dwight area. I think you just brought up something that is going to pose quite a problem, and that is a sufficient amount of land to build a school down there in the Dwight-Alcott district.

The people in that district feel that they would like a playground around there, too, and I don't believe that there is sufficient room. I have ridden around there, and it does not look to me as though there is sufficient land for a building, plus very much play space at all there.

That is on page A-16.

Mr. Sargent: Mr. Barry, how about that?

Mr. Barry: Just as Dr. Sargent has said a minute ago, the problem of space or any new buildings in the city is a heavy one, and we went over that area very carefully because of the general proximity of the housing development and I think as we have suggested here there is no specific plot of land that we could name.

Mrs. Lyons: I noticed that that was not in there. Did you think, where the school already is there and then you know there is a ledge aside of it, that that would be a very good place to build a school?

Mr. Barry: You mean on that particular spot? No, I think it would be better to put it in another location.

Mr. Mitchell: You are really up against a city policy here. You are taking houses out and moving market districts and moving everything for highways.

Mrs. Lyons: It is your opinion we should do it for schools, is that it?

Mr. Mitchell: I don't see any argument in the matter. It is a question of judgment by the City.

Mrs. Lyons: A group of parents came in to see me about that area, and they thought there was no better place down there than where the school already is, but there was a place where there are some very old houses near there which they would like to use for a playground. I felt there was not any place around that school, with the size of the school we are contemplating building there; and to expect the youngsters to play, there is very little space.

Mr. Muchnick: In going through that area 7, did you gentlemen consider the playground or the Park Department land that is now used as a playground?

Mr. Barry: Yes. You mean closer to the Bates School.

Mr. Muchnick: I think it is close to the Bates School. Isn't that the area, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: No. The Bates is over near the Immaculate Conception Church.

Mr. Muchnick: No, the one that is near the Mission Church.

Superintendent: I think you and he are speaking about two different Dwights, Mr. Muchnick. I think you are thinking of the Thomas Dwight.

Mr. Muchnick: I am sorry.

Superintendent: That is up in the Mission Hill area, and he is talking about the Dwight proper.

Dr. Foley: That is over near the Franklin House.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, if I could come back to Area 1 for a moment, I am wondering if we could have the Superintendent's comments or opinions with reference to the suggestion made?

Mrs. Lyons: Maybe somebody else has a question while Mr. Muchnick has gone.

Miss Fitzgerald: On Area 2, Madam Chairman, there is a recommendation on that area to take property by eminent domain in two specific areas, one around Monument Square and the other around Eden Street for the building of two projected 14-room buildings.

Would you enlighten me a little bit on how the decision was reached in that case?

Miss Adinoff: We chose those two spots and did not name any specific spot because we knew that there was no land available and that somehow you would have to decide how to get it, but that is where your centre of your population will be.

Miss Fitzgerald: That was the thing that was in my mind because I know that those are two very heavily populated areas. It is where people largely own their own homes, and where they have taken great pride in their community; and a great many of the people there, the parents, were disturbed when they saw the projected taking of some of their homes. They have been residents of Charlestown for years and of course there have been great industrial changes and there have been great changes wrought by the housing projects in that whole area, and they saw how fast these changes had come about in the past and were worried about their current status.

I think we ought to encourage people to invest in their homes in an area like Charlestown if they have stakes there. If there were other sites—

Miss Adinoff: I think that is why we chose those particular spots because we felt that you could have your population there and if you could get rid of some of your own buildings that eventually will have to go and you place your two buildings in the area where you will have your population, you won't have to have children walking too far.

Mr. Sargent: Then this is also true, I think—that new schools increase the value of the property around it, but it is a tough dilemma. I think you are quite right, Miss Fitzgerald.

Miss Fitzgerald: In the Copley and the Warren, for instance, wouldn't it be possible to construct the new schools in that section?

Miss Adinoff: You might, but then on the other hand you run into the difficulty of what to do with the children while building the school there. You are almost up to capacity at the present time at Charlestown, and your enrollment will increase in 1955.

If you start by tearing three schools down, which you have on the one site there, or the two schools, the Copley and the Warren, what are you going to do with those children? You have no other available school space for them during that period while it is being built.

Miss Fitzgerald: I wonder if the Superintendent would have any comment to make on this particular situation in Charlestown?

Superintendent: Miss Fitzgerald, we originally in our long-range building program made recommendations — anticipated recommendations, so to speak, for a new building to replace the McDonnell and the Prescott.

Miss Fitzgerald: They are not in the current long-range program. I checked that.

Superintendent: We took them out—

Miss Fitzgerald: The one you presented last year?

Superintendent: In our recommendations to the Planning Board this year, we removed them, although they were in as of the previous year because of the statement on the part of the Planning Board that they anticipate that by 1975 Charlestown will be pretty heavily commercial.

Mr. Sargent: That is a problem, Dr. Haley, that Boston is confronted with, too, and I can see the reason behind that. We had to face the same thing.

Again, it is not easy for Boston, but what do you do with the children between now and 1975, you see? The Planning Board has every right to do what it is doing.

That is its function—to look to the future in terms of 25 years, but there are a couple of generations of school children, and there again you have to face the problem of what are the relative values.

I don't want to sermonize or preach here, but what do you do with two generations of school children? It is a difficult decision, but in terms of what a Planning Board lays down as a long-range program, then you are faced with saying, "If the Planning Board's proposals work out that way, we might have a school there that in 1975 might not be fully utilized. In the meantime, between 1953 and 1975, where are the children going to go?"

It is again saying, "This is not firm policy, and as of the present minute the best we can do is say that these are the facts populationwise. I am talking now for us. These are the conditions of the buildings, there is no capital commitment presently. There is no urban redevelopment presently funded, and therefore it is just a question of decision for the children in 1956, 1957, 1958, 1960, and so forth.

Mrs. Lyons: Even if we agreed with the Planning Board's opinion of what might happen there in 1975, what if we decided that we would need one new school? Certainly I think that where the people of Charlestown own their homes they are interested enough in having their children in buildings that are not 75 years old and 67 per cent of the elementary classes over there are in buildings 75 years old, and some of them are in pretty bad condition. I certainly think that some of the people over there like to see their children in at least one new modern building.

Mr. Sargent: Can I suggest this? If I were a parent, I think one of the ways to encourage me out of Charlestown is not to have a new school building there. If you have these homes here and there which are good investments and you would like people to stay there, add the factor of good schools and you probably are encouraging that desire considerably.

Mrs. Lyons: As you say, even if we had 25 years' use out of a school or 20 years' use, out of one school, instead of building two, if we felt that that whole area was to become commercial or industrial within the next 25 years, I still think that it would be a very good investment both for the people who own their homes and for the children there; and if we had one instead of two, as suggested, where would you suggest that that one rather than the two be located?

Mr. Sargent: That is not an easy question because I don't think it is an either/or. I think that is a question that you as a school committee have to face. Our recommendation, quite seriously, Mrs. Lyons, would be that the two buildings are needed, and we would stand on that recommendation.

You would be perfectly justified in considering reasons why one is the thing that this School Committee would like to decide on. I think, though, that if you do, I would not want to suggest to you a choice as to the one or the other. We think they are both needed.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, isn't it true that with respect to building either one or two new schools in Charlestown it could not possibly be contemplated in the budget of 1953-54 with the commitments that we already practically have with the available funds that we will have for new school buildings in 1953-54?

Mrs. Lyons: We just do not have the money, but certainly we can get the ideas while these people are here and have been over this area and probably can tell us just exactly. If we cannot do it in 1953, maybe we can manage it in 1954-55, and have some more of these buildings.

I don't feel because we are getting $5,000,000 that is the end of the schools that are going to be built in Boston, because I think Boston will go to pieces unless the schools are replaced. Everything wears out and certainly the schools wear out.

With the amount of service that each one of those buildings provides, it seems to me that whether we are on the School Committee, or whoever is on the School Committee has to take some forward steps to replace some of these old buildings.

While we have this, I think it is a wonderful base for it is a wonderful basic plan, for good operation of our schools.

Dr. Foley: Professor, you realize that there is a great deal of sentiment in historic Boston, don't you? After all, I don't think the public likes you to take anything away, whether it is an old building or whether it is a semi-old building, or what it happens to be.

They feel as though, just as soon as you take one of their old schools away, that is the end-all to their community spirit which they have probably carried on for a hundred years or a hundred and fifty years and that is what is facing the School Committee today.

If we could build a school in the location where you happen to cite here, in your draft, and then let the old schools alone, until you filled them in, it would be all right; but if you take something away from the general public so that Mary will have to go from here to here, or here to here, that is when sentiment comes in, and it is rather a difficult job for the school board, and we do not like to feel as though we are going to distract or take something away from them, and that is the problem we have.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, with all due deference to the sentiment involved, it seems to me far more important that people who object should give up their devotion to a particular piece of real estate, especially one that is in a worn out and in some instances not too safe a condition. They do it when they move from home to home, and there is no reason why it should not be done with school plant or industrial plant, or any other type of building.

I think that from among the objects that we have found, if a census were taken, most of the old graduates whose hearts are in the old building which they attended have moved their homes to some place outside of Boston.

However, I would like to get back, if I may, to Area 1.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, before we leave Area 2 I just wanted to clarify the point Mr. Muchnick is bringing up. It is not a question of abandoning old schools that we were discussing in Area 2 but of taking property from long-time residents in the neighborhood—a population centre of a particular neighborhood.

That was what we were discussing, and I think it is a very serious question when you are faced with the necessity of taking homes away from people who have stakes in the community and have watched their community change in recent years and who have watched property being taken from people for purposes of public housing projects building and who really seriously are alarmed at the current time.

I think that there is no point in alarming them if there is no immediacy facing them of money available for new buildings in the particular area.

Mrs. Lyons: Miss Fitzgerald, you don't approve of all the new highways and other improvements to Boston?

Miss Fitzgerald: I have said nothing to lead anybody to believe that. If you wish to put that interpretation on my remarks, I certainly cannot help it.

Mrs. Lyons: Could we go back to Area 1? Mr. Muchnick, did you have some questions on that?

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to have the Superintendent's comments on the proposals as suggested in the printed report and on the discussion that has taken place so far this evening with respect to the advisability or non-advisability of following the recommendations contained in the report with reference to Area 1.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I will try to answer it in two parts. The survey recommends, as has been said here, closing the Hobart School and sending the pupils from the Hobart to the Garfield; and it was pointed out here that there are 158 pupils, kindergarten and grades 1 and 2. The distance from the Hobart School to the Garfield is 27-100ths of a mile. That is in between schools. It is not an excessive distance—at least between the schools.

It would necessitate, however, crossing Faneuil Street, which is a very busy street.

Mrs. Lyons: Crossing what street, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Faneuil Street. From the area north of the Hobart Street school to the Garfield school is about 45/100ths of a mile. From the Faneuil housing project to the Garfield it is 6/10ths of a mile.

As the survey points out, the pupils in the Hobart can be accommodated in the Garfield, provided some of the Garfield pupils, and I assume it would be grades 5 and 6, would be moved into either the Winship School or the Thomas A. Edison Jr. High School, where there is sufficient space.

If that were done, the distance that these fifth and sixth grade children would have to travel, at least some of them, would be at least a mile.

The survey recommends transportation. I would not know whether the survey, if I may interest Dr. Sargent through you, Mrs. Lyons, means in the last paragraph before the picture, the closing of the Hobart presents immediately the problem of housing.

"If necessary, these students should be transported to currently available rooms in other spaces."

Of course, there would be the possibility, if you mean by that taking kindergarten and grades 1 and 2 presently in the Hobart and transport them to the Edison. Then that would eliminate moving the fifth and sixth grade children presently in the Garfield to the Edison or the Winship, to make room for the Hobart pupils moving up to the Garfield.

I am simply pointing out the facts for the basis of your decisions, Madam Chairman and members.

Now in connection with the William Wirt Warren School, it is of type 4 construction, eight rooms, erected in 1892. It has in it grades 4 to 6 and a special class. The recommendation is that they be transferred to the Thomas Gardner. The distance from the William Wirt Warren to the Thomas Gardner is six-tenths of a mile. That is to school, from school to school. The distance for some of the pupils on this side of the Thomas Gardner would be in excess of 6/10ths of a mile. It would necessitate crossing Everett Street, which is quite a busy street.

The Warren School, Madam Chairman and members, was closed a few years ago, and I think perhaps Dr. Foley remembers when it was closed. I am not sure whether Mr. Muchnick was on the committee at the time, but he could answer that question.

It was recommended to be closed and was closed, and it remained closed only three days. I think it was three days. Then, through public pressure, it was reopened, so it has been closed once during its history and that dates back perhaps not more than five or six years ago. It was immediately reopened as a result of the protests of the parents of that particular area.

Mr. Sargent: May I speak on that?

Mrs. Lyons: How many children now are in the Warren School?

Superintendent: 71, I think the figure is now.

Mrs. Lyons: 71 in the school? Superintendent: Yes.

Mrs. Lyons: And how many rooms in that?

Superintendent: Eight.

Mrs. Lyons: Did you wish to say something?

Mr. Sargent: The problem of heavily traversed streets is one that you cannot avoid in Boston.

Mrs. Lyons: Almost every street. If the school is on this side of the street and they live on that side, we couldn't have a school in everybody's front yard or everybody's back yard. I think we have to come to that conclusion.

Mr. Sargent: What Boston is confronted with, I think, is making access safe. That is not the School Department's responsibility, I presume, in a sense; but just as you say, Mrs. Lyons, there are no accurate traffic counts for the city as a whole. There are some sides of one street and some blocks that have been surveyed at the request of individuals, but there is no system traffic count of the City.

Some of that was done during WPA days and that has been advanced by certain counts. The counts have been done at different hours, and so forth. Even if you went through that process and we dug out as many of those as we did, you cannot pick out a street which is safe, and what is a street which is unsafe. You have just so much heavy traffic with narrow streets. The problem is to turn the problem the other way and say, "How can we provide safe access to the schools which we must operate to accommodate the children?"

As your present highways come in, this is something that seems to me the School Committee has a responsibility of continually calling attention to the people who are planning those highways. What is the pedestrian access going to be?

You can find yourself confronted in a few years with all sorts of islands as far as access to schools is concerned, or pedestrian passageways are concerned, and you just won't have the facilities where you want to have them located so you can make it available for the children without stop lights, special underpasses, overpasses and so forth and so on. It is something that continually has to be studied and examined in Boston.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, may I suggest that, having just been down to the third floor, it is completely empty if you wanted to adjourn there.

Mrs. Lyons: I think everybody would be more comfortable down there.

Mr. Muchnick: It seems to me, Madam Chairman, that where we have here the full complement or pretty close to the full complement of the staff for the Centre for Field Studies that made the survey, we ought to take full advantage of their presence and whatever comments they can add, and it seems to me further that in those areas where there is agreement there isn't too much to discuss.

Now, I assumed that our own administration has studied this report and has some ideas pro or con on each of the items, and therefore I would like to go through item by item starting with A-41 and get from the Superintendent either agreement or disagreement with each specific proposal.

If there is agreement there is nothing particularly to spend much time on; and if there is disagreement, the reasons for the disagreement; and see if that can be thrashed out between the two groups, the survey group and our own administration.

For example, to be specific, on A-41. The first one mentioned is the Hobart School, to be abandoned in 1953, and then a second part of the item is a new school to be built by 1955.

Our administration either agrees or disagrees with either or both parts of that proposal, and I would like specific answers to that type of question—and I don't want to be repetitious—to get everybody's viewpoint; and then, after we get the different viewpoints, we can attempt to make a decision.

Now, with reference to the Hobart School, that being the first one on the list, I would like to know if the Superintendent agrees that it should be discontinued in September and the children taken care of as suggested in the body of the report, or if he disagrees; and if he disagrees, what alternative he offers?

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, could I ask Mr. Muchnick? When you talk about decision, you are getting the opinion of the administrative staff and the opinion of the persons who made the survey in regard to each individual recommendation?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: When you say "decision" you mean decision as of this moment?

Mr. Muchnick: Oh, no.

Miss Fitzgerald: You mean a decision that is to be gone into very carefully?

Mr. Muchnick: I intend to make every decision of mine, whether it be on a school closing or opening, or crossing the street, a very careful one.

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman, I will be glad to give you my points of view on any of these that I have had an opportunity to study.

Mr. Muchnick: All right.

Superintendent: Just as background this is how I approached the problem. There are many things, naturally, in this report that carry over a period of years. The ones that are to be effective, if they are to be effective, as of September, are of the essence at the present time.

Time is of the essence in regard to those, and so my studies in general have been limited, and they have been very intensive, I might say, in regard to those that are to be effective as of September, 1953, and the Hobart is one, and that is why I made my report while you were out of the chamber, Mr. Muchnick, and also the William Wirt Warren.

I have made my report on that.

Mr. Muchnick: Specifically, Mr. Superintendent, on those, based on the report that you made upstairs, do you agree with the Harvard Survey School that the Hobart Street School should be abandoned in 1953?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, no, for this reason: that there is no opportunity for a kindergarten in the Faneuil housing project. We have investigated and found there is no space.

I do not like to enter the problem of transportation of those pupils, kindergarten and grades 1 and 2, in the Hobart area, because I know that we will be confronted with the transportation of pupils in other areas, which will become a very difficult financial problem, I believe, to the school service.

I don't like to move the fifth and sixth grade children from the Garfield into either the Winslow or the Edison, and it would perhaps have to be the Edison, for the reason that the distance would be, in my opinion, too far.

So my recommendation, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, is not to accept that recommendation.

Mr. Muchnick: Upstairs did you mention what the distance would be for the fifth and sixth grade children—or from the Garfield, I mean?

Superintendent: Perhaps to the Edison School some of the children would have to walk a mile.

Mr. Muchnick: Now with reference to the Warren?

Superintendent: Yes. The Warren, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, from the standpoint of the people in that district, should be kept open. I saw the very strong protest that was offered back a few years ago and I am conscious of that. I am also conscious of the fact that it is 6-10ths of a mile from the William Wirt Warren building to the Thomas Gardner. If we add to that another tenth or two-tenths, perhaps, in a few cases, it will perhaps make a distance that will be quite long for some of those children.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, if arrangements could be made for the kindergarten in the project with reference to the Hobart Street school would that change your opinion of the Hobart School?

Superintendent: No, I think not at this time, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, is there any area now where kindergarten children walk three-quarters of a mile or a mile to school?

Superintendent: I don't know of any.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I was just wondering if any of the members of the survey staff would want to comment on those two items or whether we should continue on with Area 2 and get the whole story of agreement or disagreement from the Superintendent?

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, could I ask the Superintendent: In the second case, in the case of the Warren, the Superintendent recommends No on the Warren. Is that right?

Superintendent: That is true. Mr. Muchnick: And is that based on the protests of several years ago of the people in the neighborhood?

Superintendent: Well, it is not on that wholly, Mr. Muchnick. I don't recall just when that building was closed. I think it was before my time as Superintendent.

Mr. Muchnick: What else in addition is there?

Superintendent: The distance, and the Everett Street traffic problem.

Mrs. Lyons: But there are only 71 children. Couldn't they go into another school?

Superintendent: I think not. I think the Storow is fully occupied. It is a primary building, as I recall.

Mrs. Lyons: And there is no space at all for these 158 children? How many are there in the Warren?

Superintendent: 71.

Mrs. Lyons: That would only be about two classes, wouldn't it?

Superintendent: There is a Grade 4. Have you the census, Miss Hearn, in the Warren?

Miss Hearn: Yes.

Superintendent: What are the grade combinations?

Miss Hearn: 23 in grade 4, 18 in grade 5, 21 in grade 6, 13 in special class, and the total is 75.

Mr. Muchnick: And what about the Storrow School, Madam Chairman. Is there any space in that school?

Superintendent: The Storrow, Mr. Muchnick, is a primary building—kindergarten through grade 3. Is that true, Miss Hearn?

Miss Hearn: Yes, four rooms.

Superintendent: Four rooms.

Mr. Muchnick: It has only four rooms?

Miss Hearn: Yes, Mr. Muchnick.

Superintendent: Madam chairman and members, I recall at the time that the William Wirt Warren was closed—and I am sure that antedated my time as superintendent—we gave consideration to putting a room in the basement of the Storrow. It is a very beautiful little building. It is a high elevation; and, is that true, Mr. McMackin?

Mr. McMackin: Well, no, it isn't too high, Dr. Haley.

Superintendent: But on the back of the building it is high. The front of the building, as I recall, although I haven't seen it for a few years, it is right in off of the street, but I think the back of the building is elevated enough so that we did give consideration to a basement room.

Mr. McMackin: We did at one time.

Superintendent: But we certainly would not put the pupils in the basement.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. McMackin, how far is it from the Warren to the Gardner?

Mr. McMackin: The Warren to what school, please?

Mr. Muchnick: The Gardner.

Superintendent: I answered that while you were out—six-tenths of a mile.

Mr. McMackin: Six-tenths of a mile—yes, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: And the Warren itself at the very end of the Boston line, for practical purposes, isn't it?

Mr. McMackin: It is near the end of the district line.

Mr. Muchnick: And it is near the end of the city line, too. It is right over by the Charles River beyond Soldiers Field and the Stadium?

Mr. McMackin: That is true, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: So that any children going to the Warren would live between the Warren and the Gardner?

Mr. McMackin: I think that you might add a tenth, Mr. Muchnick, going in a southerly direction there.

Mr. Muchnick: Then most anybody going from the Warren to the Gardner would have to go 7-10ths of a mile?

Mr. McMackin: I would think so, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And that is for pupils in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades?

Superintendent: And special class.

Mr. Muchnick: Oh, don't we have fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils going more than three-quarters of a mile to school in many sections of the city?

Superintendent: We may have a few, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Isn't our norm one mile?

Superintendent: No, I would not say for elementary.

Mr. Muchnick: The fourth, fifth and sixth grades don't we have many areas of approximately a mile?

Superintendent: I don't think there are too many.

What do you think, Mr. Lynch or Mr. McMackin?

Mr. Lynch: I wouldn't say so. I think that you are trying to keep them within half a mile of the sixth grade, and then within a mile to junior high.

Mr. Muchnick: Are there many that have three-quarters of a mile walking distance?

Mr. Lynch: Not the way these schools are located and set at the present time. I would so No. There probably would be some.

Superintendent: I think, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, as we discussed back some time ago, there are some fringe areas. We mentioned one out around Allendale, you remember, West Roxbury.

Mr. Muchnick: This is a fringe area, too. It is right at the edge of Watertown.

Superintendent: That is true—an odd pupil.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, an area, too, there is another 1953 closing, the B. F. Tweed. Do you agree with that one, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, as this Committee knows, I recommended closing six buildings last May, and one of the six was closed by the Committee and that was the Henry Vane. Among the six that I recommended closed was the Benjamin F. Tweed, which is the recommendation of the survey, and I would recommend it again this year.

Mr. Muchnick: In area 3, the Emerson.

Do you agree with that recommendation or not, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: No. Last year I presented information to the School Committee on the Emerson School and at that time I said that the pupils could be housed in neighboring schools, if boundary lines were changed and possibly districts consolidated.

However, I did not recommend it last year. I simply presented it for information, and at that time I said I felt distances and hazards became a part of my objection.

This year I would not recommend it either because I think we have an added problem, and that is the possibility of extra space, at least for the time being, because of the influx of pupils in the Orient Heights housing section.

Of course, we may have to transport those children once they overflow the John Cheverus; and if we do, of course, it could be true that we would transport to the Daniel Webster or some other school in East Boston.

However, at least the Emerson is at least the nearest to that particular housing area.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, Mr. Superintendent, isn't it better to take children out of a frame building that is 85 or 88 years old and house them in a building which is almost next door and which can house many of them?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, the Patrick J. Kennedy could not house those pupils.

Mr. Muchnick: It would house half of them, wouldn't it?

Superintendent: I cannot answer that question, but it could not house all of them.

Mr. Muchnick: But it would house some of them, wouldn't it?

Superintendent: I would say so.

Mr. Muchnick: And the others could go to the Otis and the Chapman, couldn't they?

Superintendent: Provided you took into consideration distances and hazards.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, how far is the Emerson from the Otis or from the Chapman?

Superintendent: Yes. The Emerson is 45/100ths of a mile from the Otis. The children would have to cross Bennington street. The Emerson is 54/100ths of a mile from the Chapman.

Mr. Muchnick: And don't the children who attend those three schools come from areas that are halfway in between them?

Superintendent: Some may.

Mr. Muchnick: Those who live closest to the Emerson can be accommodated in the Kennedy. Those who live closest to the Chapman could be accommodated in the Chapman, and the same with the Otis, because those three schools are also at the farthest distance points of residential areas in that particular section of East Boston.

Superintendent: Well, you asked me—

Mr. Muchnick: They are the three points of the triangle at the end, aren't they?

Superintendent: You asked me for my reaction and my recommendation, and I have tried to give it to you as clearly as possible.

Mr. Muchnick: In Area 5, the Paul Revere.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, Paul Revere was one of the schools that I recommended closing last year. I would recommend it again this year.

Mr. Muchnick: Area 7, the Andrews.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, Mr. Muehnick skipped over Area 4. Was there any reason why you did that?

Mr. Muehnick: There is nothing there for this year. I am only going into this year's, for the moment, Area 7, the Andrews.

Superintendent: The Andrews. By next fall, the report says, with the Andrews School having been razed to make way for the street development, the elementary school capacity in this area will be 4,080, although it is conceivable that the present enrollment of 220 in the Andrews could be cared for 1953-54 by the Franklin, Williams, Lincoln and Quincy, this would have to be regarded as an undesirable stopgap in the light of the predicted elementary enrollments.

Since it is felt that it would be an undesirable stopgap in the light of the predicted elementary enrollments, my recommendation, Madam Chairman and members, is to postpone the razing of the Andrews School until that necessity confronts it—since, as it says here, it would be an undesirable stopgap.

Mr. Muehnick: Then in that one you oppose the abandonment because you agree with their report?

Superintendent: Well, there are other reasons why I think that it should not be changed at the present time, Mr. Muehnick.

Mr. Muehnick: Could you tell us what those are?

Superintendent: I think that some of the hazards down there are great. For instance, the distance to the Franklin School, which is mentioned here, is 53/100ths of a mile. It necessitates crossing Harrison Avenue, Dover Street, Washington Street, and Shawmut Avenue, and those traffic hazards frighten me.

Mr. Muehnick: Is there any street in that area, whether it be a main street or a side street, that isn't a traffic hazard between 8 and 9 in the morning?

Superintendent: Oh, yes, there are a number of streets down there that are not main thoroughfares, like Harrison Avenue and Dover Street.

Mr. Muehnick: Yes, but is there any street down there between 8 and 9 in the morning, whether main thoroughfare or not, that is not a traffic hazard?

Superintendent: I think some of those side streets are not.

Mr. Muehnick: I come in that way every morning, Mr. Superintendent, and I would much rather be walking on any one of the main thoroughfares than on any of the side streets on which cars are always shooting out.

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muehnick, you are asking me for my opinion. I am not going to argue with you.

Mr. Muehnick: I am not attempting to argue.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman—

Mr. Muehnick: I just tried to offer a sidelight on your comment.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, if you want my recommendations I will give them to you, and I am going to give them to you without argumentation.

The Williams School is three-tenths of a mile. It will necessitate crossing Harrison Avenue, Dover Street and Washington Street. The Lincoln School is 49/100ths of a mile. It will necessitate crossing Harrison Avenue, Washington Street, Shawmut Avenue and Tremont Street.

The Quincy is 42/100ths of a mile. It will necessitate crossing Broadway.

Mr. Muehnick: In the next area, Mr. Superintendent, do you agree . . .

Superintendent: Which one are you referring to now?

Mr. Muehnick: Area 8.

Superintendent: Yes, area 8. What school?

Mr. Muehnick: Do you agree with the recommendations there about closing in 1953?

Superintendent: This is the Hawes Hall. The Hawes Hall is recommended to be abandoned for reasons of safety, transferring the pupils to the Bigelow.

The distance from the Hawes Hall to the Bigelow is short, 27/100ths of a mile. However, it would involve crossing Broadway. It can be done. The traffic hazard is great.

This is not objectionable—this particular situation is not objectionable—but it would require segregation of the boys and girls in the Bigelow and in the Norcross.

The Bigelow at the present time is equipped with toilets suitable for boys. The Norcross is equipped with toilets suitable for girls, and we can take the Hawes Hall pupils and move them into those buildings and keep the sexes segregated down in Grades 1, 2, and 3.

The seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils in the Bigelow can be accommodated in the Gavin, and I am planning to recommend that anyhow to the School Committee, whether or not the Hawes Hall is closed and moved into the Bigelow and Norcross, as the case may be.

Because of the traffic hazard of crossing Broadway, I could not recommend closing the Hawes Hall.

Mr. Muehnick: Well, Mr. Superintendent, do any of the pupils who go to the Bigelow have to cross Broadway?

Superintendent: I would say so, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muehnick—certainly after they reach the fourth grade they will have to cross Broadway.

Mr. Muehnick: Are they the only ones—those who are in the fourth grade and above?

Superintendent: I know that all above the fourth will have to go to the Bigelow or the Norcross and across Broadway.

Mr. Muehnick: Now, and will those in the third, second, and first, or kindergarten, go to the Bigelow, have to cross Broadway?

Superintendent: I cannot answer that question. I think not, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muehnick: Well, who can answer that?

Superintendent: Miss Hearn, could you tell us what you think? You had the Norcross as a principal.

Miss Hearn: The Bigelow, at the present time, I am very certain, has no little children crossing. In the Bigelow School they have a kindergarten, and a first grade. Those children are all on that side of Broadway because I have asked two equalized classes, and I have been unable to do it. The children are unwilling to cross Broadway. At the Norcross there are children crossing Broadway in the lower grades.

Mr. Muehnick: That is grades 1, 2 and 3?

Miss Hearn: Yes, from D street down. The children who are living on Second and Third Streets have to cross because there is no other school for them to go to.

Mr. Muehnick: And is Broadway heavily trafficked at that area?

Miss Hearn: Yes, Broadway at D Street has lights and an officer, and the children have been trained for years to go up D and cross, so for that reason it is an easier crossing than the contemplated crossing at the Hawes Hall School.

Mr. Muehnick: Those children could be trained, too, couldn't they?

Miss Hearn: And the same is true of the Hawes Hall. It is very close to the junction of Dorchester Street and Broadway, a very heavy traffic center, as Dr. Foley can testify with trucks, street cars and everything congested there; and the running in between cars, as children will do, is dangerous unless there were lights and an officer.

Mr. Muehnick: Just one more question. Do any children have to cross Broadway now to get to Hawes Hall?

Miss Hearn: Oh, no. Hawes Hall is quite close for those children on that side of Broadway from probably E Street to the other side of Dorchester Street.

Mr. Muehnick: Do you recommend closing Hawes Hall?

Miss Hearn: I feel as Dr. Haley does. I worked it out. I don't approve of it. I am sure none of you on the Committee would approve of segregation of little children. I think in grades 1, 2 and 3, it is rather too bad to separate them.

I have not liked it. I had to do it as a principal at the Norcross, and at the present time it is being done merely to house children. It is not desirable, out it can be done; and I can accommodate all the children in Hawes Hall in those schools, but again it would absolutely need traffic lights for the Hawes Hall group as the Norcross School has now.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, if the Hawes Hall group walked down their side of Broadway to the lights, which would get them to the Bigelow or to the Norcross, what is wrong with that?

Miss Hearn: It is going to make a long walk. If you know South Boston, some of those children come from the other side of Dorchester Street, on the upper end of Second and Third.

To walk down to D Street and walk back to E Street, is quite a long walk for little children.

Mr. Muchnick: Now, if plumbing facilities were provided, there is no reason why it could not be co-educational in the lower grades.

Miss Hearn: I was merely considering it, Mr. Muchnick, from the fact that the Norcross is an old building, and I think it is recommended here later.

Mr. Muchnick: In 1960.

Miss Hearn: Yes, and I guess—Mr. Muchnick: In the interim it could use some modern facilities, whether they be male or female.

Miss Hearn: Yes, that is very true, but it's a tremendously expensive item, and in the Norcross it offers a very difficult feature on placement. Isn't that true, Mr. McMackin?

Mr. McMackin: Yes.

Miss Hearn: We have very, very limited area in the Norcross and it is highly undesirable. We have gone over that many, many times in the past. It can be done. It is very expensive. I think your segregation for the next 10 years is the better answer, frankly.

Mr. Muchnick: In Area 7, Mr. Superintendent, you mentioned that you did not want children from the Andrews crossing Harrison Avenue and Dover Street and Shawmut Avenue and so forth, to get to the other schools like the Abraham Lincoln, was it? What other schools did you mention in connection with that area?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, you asked me what my recommendation was in regard to the Andrews and why, and I first read to you from the report; and then you asked if there were any other reasons, and I said Yes, that I thought it should be postponed because I did not believe in having the youngsters crossing these arteries if we didn't have to.

Mr. Muchnick: And you talked about the fact that they would have to cross to the Lincoln and the Quincy.

Superintendent: To the Lincoln they would have to cross Harrison Avenue, Washington Street, Shawmut Avenue, and Tremont Street.

Mr. Muchnick: Do any children going to the Lincoln have to cross Harrison Avenue, Shawmut Avenue and Tremont Street now?

Superintendent: I don't know that any young children would.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, who would know?

Superintendent: I think it is safe to say that no primary children have to cross those hazards. In fact, that is why the Andrews building is there.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, is there anybody who would know definitely as to whether any of the primary children who go to the Lincoln have to cross any of those streets?

Superintendent: Yes: I would say, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, that the only way that could be answered without chance of error, is to have all of the program cards and address cards of all the Abraham Lincoln pupils before us and then examine each one—because, as you know, under our present plan, pupils in kindergarten through grade 3 may go to any elementary school they see fit.

Now, it could happen that some child in the area of the Andrews could be attending at the present time the Abraham Lincoln by request or by choice of parents.

Mr. Muchnick: Miss Hearn do you have the Abraham Lincoln?

Miss Hearn: You mean the enrollment? Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: No, do you have the school?

Miss Hearn: Yes, I have.

Mr. Muchnick: You have the Quincy also?

Miss Hearn: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Do any of the children of the lower grades, in either the Quincy or the Abraham Lincoln or the Bancroft or the Williams have to cross any of these main arteries that we are talking about,—Dover Street Harrison Avenue, Shawmut Avenue, or Tremont Street or Washington Street?

Miss Hearn: You are taking in now the two—the Franklin and the Abraham Lincoln?

Mr. Muchnick: The Abraham Lincoln and the Quincy, first.

Miss Hearn: I would have to answer very definitely as Dr. Haley has. If there is an older brother or sister going to the Lincoln—and take, for instance, a working mother—it is a very likely thing that the little child might go with the older one. It is something that we really could not answer.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, you assume that they go with the older ones?

Miss Hearn: Yes, but you would be surprised to see the number who go with the older brothers and sisters.

Mr. Muchnick: Now, how about those who go to the Williams. Do any of those have to cross Harrison Avenue or Albany Street or Lincoln or Tyler Street or Dover Street or Harrison Avenue or Shawmut Avenue?

Miss Hearn: No. Your Andrews takes the children who would be on the north side of Dover, so they would not have to cross; and the children on the south side of Dover would be going primarily to the Joshua Bates.

Again, those who would cross Washington Street to the Williams would be the children who would be going with older brothers or sisters because the normal trend would be for those children to go to the Joshua Bates.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, how about the Franklin? Does anybody have to cross any of those main arteries who goes to the Franklin?

Miss Hearn: Just wait until I get the list. I would assume none, because the Joshua Bates is so crowded. That takes the other side of Washington Street.

Then comes in Williams, which takes between Shawmut and Washington, and the Franklin normally takes between Shawmut and Tremont.

There will be these odd people who go off, but the mass rather lies between those arteries.

Mr. Muchnick: What you mean, isn't it, is that there are some children who are in the kindergarten, first, second and third grades, who are crossing these main arteries every day?

Miss Hearn: Not that I know of, but there could be. That is why I say I would not be able to answer. It is a likely thing, knowing how parents act. But I could not say, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: In area 9, the George Putnam. Do you agree with that recommendation?

Superintendent: No, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Why not, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Well, I feel, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, and members, that the Theodore Roosevelt should not be discontinued as a junior high school.

Mr. Muchnick: Why not, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Because I think it has its place in that particular area and serves a very fine purpose in that area for those pupils.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, how many pupils are in the Roosevelt Junior High?

Superintendent: Mr. Corcoran, have you the figures of the Roosevelt?

Mrs. Lyons: Do those children, Mr. Superintendent, have all the facilities that they do at other junior high schools?

Mr. Corcoran: 501 as of the last of March.

Mrs. Lyons: 501?

Mr. Muchnick: Well, isn't it basic for junior high that there be at least 650 or 700 so that they get maximum course selection possibility?

Superintendent: I think the organization of the school is suitable.

Mr. Muchnick: Isn't it fundamental that there be at least 220 to 250 children in each of the grades of a junior high school so that you can have enough teachers for enough courses for real selection?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman, I have never had any complaints from the principal of the school or from any of the parents of the pupils of the Theodore Roosevelt School.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, what is your opinion about it, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: I gave you my opinion.

Mr. Muchnick: That it does not make any difference how many pupils you have in a junior high school?

Superintendent: My opinion is that the Theodore Roosevelt Junior High School is serving a very fine educational purpose in that particular building and I gave you my recommendation.

Mrs. Lyons: Dr. Sargent, on that Putnam School, it is right side of the Roosevelt School. Who had that district?

Mr. Sargent: Mr. Fitzpatrick, do you want to comment on that?

Mrs. Lyons: On the Putnam School there which is right aside of the Roosevelt School, you have recommended, of course, closing that school and placing the children in the Roosevelt School. I personally cannot see any objection to that. I don't see why these two schools, which are so close together, could not be combined. Wasn't that your recommendation for that reason? It is not because the building is in very poor condition, is it?

Mr. Fitzpatrick: Yes, I think part of it is because of the cumulative factors within the building that are rather undesirable. That is, in the Putnam, not the Roosevelt.

Mrs. Lyons: No, the Putnam is what I am talking about. I know the Roosevelt, but I am not so familiar with the Putnam. I know where it is. From the interior, I mean.

Mr. Fitzpatrick: It is not completely utilized at present. There are three elementary rooms, according to our survey, instrument.

Mrs. Lyons: How many pupils would that be, Mr. Superintendent, in the Putnam, in the three elementary classes?

Superintendent: There is a grade 1, a grade 5 and a grade 6. Mrs. Lyons: What happens to the ones in between, grades 2, 3 and 4?

Superintendent: I would say they are in the Ellis Mendell, are they not? Yes, in the Ellis Mendell.

Mrs. Lyons: And how many children would that accommodate?

Mr. Muchnick: Could I break in for a minute?

Mrs. Lyons: I would like to know how many children are there?

Superintendent: Do you have the census, Miss Hearn, of grade 1, grade 5 and grade 6 in the Putnam?

Miss Hearn: 25 in grade 1, 33 in grade 5, 40 in grade 6, and 98 all told.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, do children in the first grade at the Putnam have to cross Columbus Avenue or Washington Street or any of the heavily trafficked streets around Egleston Square?

Superintendent: In order to answer it accurately we would have to have all of the address cards before us because of the fact of pupils in all three grades can go to any school.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you know, Miss Hearn?

Miss Hearn: No, I don't honestly know.

Mr. Muchnick: Do those pupils who were once in the Putnam as first graders, and have become second and third and fourth graders in the Ellis Mendell, have to cross Columbus Avenue or Washington Street or School Street, or any of the heavily trafficked streets in the Egleston Square area?

Superintendent: I think, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, that to answer that we would have to have the address cards before us.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, Mr. Superintendent, when we first started this discussion, you said something about having made an intensive study of this report.

Superintendent: That is true. Mr. Muchnick: Well, can you tell us what this intensive study consisted of?

Superintendent: Just the information that I am presenting to you now and not all the questions about where every youngster in our Boston public school system resides and every school that youngster attends, and every street that that youngster crosses.

That is a physically impossible task, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick; and I think any fair-minded person would agree with me.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, I claim to be a fair-minded person and I do not agree; and I would like to point out, whether you call it argument or not, that it is almost impossible to have any pupil going to the Putnam School who does not have to cross either Columbus Avenue or Washington Street or School Street, because one side has Franklin Park and the other side you have the Columbus Avenue crossing, and around the corner, almost directly around the corner, except for a few stores and one small three-decker house, I think it is, as I remember it, you have Washington street; and across the street you have School Street, and it is as heavily trafficked a crossing as there is in the city of Boston.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, may I ask the Superintendent: How long has this report been in your hands for study, and how much time would you consider necessary for an intensive study of these recommendations, taking into account the location factors of the various students who reside in these different areas?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman and Miss Fitzgerald, if that study involved the actual streets that every child in our schools had to cross in going to school, that was normally assigned to him or going to the school that was the school of the parents' choice, then that particular task would be tremendous.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, right now, Mr. Superintendent, we have the Putnam set-up for the servicing of a certain area in Roxbury, don't we? What area is it supposed to serve by streets, or whatever it is defined under the set-up without the survey?

Superintendent: The grade 1 that is in the Putnam is set up under our present regulations, so that any child, even from East Boston or Hyde Park or Brighton or West Roxbury might attend the grade 1 there, and under our own regulations, it is set up on a city-wide basis.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, assuming, Mr. Superintendent, that the parents of the children in the areas you mention were not as silly as the answer suggests they might be, and that the school was for the children of the area near the school, what was the plan and what is the plan area-wise, for first-grade children in the George Putnam? Is it primarily for children in the area of the George Putnam?

Superintendent: Under our regulations, Mr. Muchnick; it is for any first-grade child in the city.

Miss Fitzgerald: Was that regulation set up by a previous school committee?

Superintendent: I would say it has been part of our regulations for many, many years—as long as I remember. Miss Hearn, what is your reaction to that?

Miss Hearn: As long as I remember, a primary child may go to the school of his parents' choice irrespective. It might be interesting to note here that, for instance, some of the children scheduled from the eighth grade have been going until numbers made it necessary to change to the Farragut School at the parents' request. You cannot tell where they will want to send them, really.

Mr. Muchnick: How many children at the Putnam either by number or percentage-wise do not come from the immediate area?

Miss Hearn: That I would not know. I happen to know the Farragut because I was crowded at the Farragut and had to actually reserve it for the children who lived in the immediate area, and in that way I discovered that condition, but I would not know at all. The information would not be in the office.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, would it be fair to assume, Mr. Superintendent, that at least one of the first-grade children at the Putnam comes from the immediate area?

Superintendent: That is reasonable.

Mr. Muchnick: What is the immediate area that the administration considers proper, for going to that George Putnam School?

Superintendent: In general, as has been said here before, we like to have facilities for lower grade pupils within a half-mile radius.

Mr. Muchnick: Within a half-mile radius of the George Putnam School, is there any area that does not have to cross a main street like Columbus Avenue or Washington Street or School Street or Green Street?

Superintendent: We can look at the map here on the Putnam.

Mr. Muchnick: I mean that has dwellings and not stores on it.

Superintendent: As I look at the map, the streets are not named, but I would say that there are many.

Mr. Muchnick: That have dwellings rather than stores?

Superintendent: I would think so.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, we have a number of people present this evening who have been responsible for these recommendations to us, and this may be one of the very opportunities that we have left to take their time or to have their time made available to us.

I would like to see this questioning, if I may make that suggestion, directed at their reasons for suggesting these closings. We will have the Superintendent with us on many an occasion, and we can ask him for his agreement or his disagreement with the various recommendations which these gentlemen have made.

I would like to see the time of these gentlemen used to the fullest extent, as you expressed yourself earlier this evening, while we have them with us.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it seems to me that in order to get the best opinion from Professor Sargent and Mr. Mitchell and their associates, we should first find out the areas of disagreement and the reasons for disagreement; and in the elementary field we only have three more areas to cover, so I would like, as long as we have them with us, to get the Superintendent's reaction to areas 11, 12 and 15.

Now, on the Elbridge Smith and the Etheridge and the Savin Hill and the Quincy, the Hugh O'Brien, and Lyceum Hall in Area 11: Do you agree with any or all of the recommendations there concerning abandonment in 1953?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman, taking them one at a time and answering Mr. Muchnick's question as briefly as possible, the Cora Etheridge, No; the Savin Hill, No.

Mr. Muchnick: Could you tell us why?

Superintendent: Excuse me. Could I answer your question directly first?

Mr. Muchnick: All right.

Superintendent: The Quincy Street, No. Lyceum Hall, Yes. It was my recommendation last year. The Elbridge Smith, No.

Mr. Muchnick: And the Hugh O'Brien?

Superintendent: Is that in that area?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Superintendent: The answer to that would be No, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, could you tell us on each of them?

Superintendent: Yes, I will be glad to.

On the Cora Etheridge the distance to the William E. Russell is 38/100ths of a mile. It would necessitate crossing Dorchester Avenue and Columbia Road, even though it might be at the junction.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Superintendent, do any children now cross either of those streets to get to the Cora Etheridge?

Superintendent: I would have to have the address cards before me before I would be able to answer it accurately.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, wouldn't you have to have the address cards before you, before you would be able to answer accurately that they would have to cross either of those streets going to the Russell?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I think you know the location of the Etheridge School very well. You notice what I said. It would necessitate crossing Dorchester Avenue and Columbia Road at the junction.

I see no reason, unless it is by parental choice, that any youngster down by the William E. Russell School would reverse this order and cross at the junction of Columbia Road and Dorchester Avenue and walk up to the Cora Etheridge when the William E. Russell is available to that child. It could be that there is some child doing it by parental choice.

Mr. Muchnick: Of course, you don't think there are any children in the first grade here coming out to this end of Dorchester and South Boston from East Boston or West Roxbury?

Superintendent: I don't.

Mr. Muchnick: Such as might be happening at the Putnam School?

Superintendent: I don't.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know.

Superintendent: Well, what do you think?

Mr. Muchnick: As to whether they are coming from East Boston?

Superintendent: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't think the people of Boston are that silly, frankly,—

Superintendent: Is it possible—

Mr. Muchnick: —as to suggest that,

Superintendent: I did not say that they did. I said that they are allowed to under your rules and regulations. Isn't that true, Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Muchnick: That they are allowed to?

Superintendent: Yes, under your regulations.

Mr. Muchnick: Our regulations.

Superintendent: Well, you can take it "our" or "your," whichever you see fit. It is all right by me.

Mr. Muchnick: Now any other reasons for not agreeing concerning the Cora Etheridge School?

Superintendent: Yes. If the Cora Etheridge and the Savin Hill are both eliminated, taking them jointly, I think that it could easily overcrowd the Edward Everett, because we don't know where the children in the Cora Etheridge and the portable building might choose to go to either the William E. Russell or the Edward Everett and we don't know where the Savin Hill would choose to go to—whether they would go to the Motley School or to the Edward Everett. So, taking the two of them in combination, we might run into an overcrowded or overtaxed condition in the Edward Everett.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Superintendent, supposing we followed your recommendation on the Etheridge and did not close that so that it would not be a combination situation with the Savin Hill School. Would you then favor the abandonment of the Savin Hill School in 1953?

Superintendent: No, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, why not? Superintendent: Because the children then going from the Savin Hill, who wanted to go to the Edward Everett would have to cross Dorchester Avenue and Pleasant Street, both of which are heavily traveled arteries.

Mr. Muchnick: Do any of them cross Pleasant Street or Dorchester Avenue now to get to the Savin Hill?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I would have to have the address cards before me to answer that accurately.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Superintendent, I notice that the reason for keeping so many of these schools open despite the fact that they are in very poor condition or they have a very low enrollment and could well be combined with some other schools is always because they must not cross the street.

Well, now, I wonder what is going to happen? People don't build stores and they don't build parochial schools and they don't build churches, so that nobody has to cross streets to go. I think we need a better reason than just children crossing a street. I think that as far as that is concerned, it would be far cheaper to put in a stop light at some of these crossings than it would to maintain schools.

I think probably that if we gave that reason to the City department that has charge of that, they would be very glad to co-operate and it would be much cheaper to put in a light than it is to run all the schools if there is no other reason than that the children are going to have to cross dangerous intersections. To my mind every street in Boston is a dangerous street for any child.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, you don't know how right you are, and the traffic department already has plans for the installation of 22 new sets of lights, I think it is, beginning in about ten days, as soon as the cable is available, and two of those sets of lights are going to be down in the Dorchester Avenue-Pleasant Street section.

And with reference to that, further, may I suggest that there is a new school almost completed up on Centre Street in West Roxbury, being built by one of the religious orders, and that school is right on one of the most trafficked circles that there is in that area, or any other area of our city.

From my own knowledge, I know that the people of that particular religious order love their children just as much as any other parents in Boston love their children, and they had the choice of where they would build their school; and they assumed, and correctly, that we had an efficient traffic department and an efficient police department and that the rest of the City was not going to just let our children be killed off on every trip to and from school.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, may I say that it is ignoring half of the reasons, at least, that the Superintendent has given in these various cases, to point out that he has only stated that it is hazards that he has taken into consideration.

He has just pointed out a very good reason why he does not recommend that the Etheridge and the Savin Hill be abandoned. He has said that he feels that it may overcrowd schools which are already in that neighborhood.

I think we want to avoid overcrowded conditions as well as we wish to avoid hazards, and I think it is fortunate that we have an administrator who takes all of these factors into consideration when he is weighing any decision.

Mrs. Lyons: It is fortunate that we have a school committee that takes some things into consideration, too, and that we don't have a tax bill that nobody will be able to pay, and I think you have to use common sense as well as sentiment or anything else on this.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, before going on to the other schools in this particular area, and the Superintendent's reasons for or against, I would like to point out that the Superintendent said that the closing of both the Etheridge and the Savin Hill might tax the Everett. It wasn't either.

Now, I would like the reasons, if we can have them, for objecting to the abandonment of the Quincy Street, the Hugh O'Brien, and the Elbridge Smith?

Superintendent: Taking them in order, if you don't mind, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, rather than the order that you gave—

Mr. Muchnick: I don't care which order.

Superintendent: Treating the Quincy first—

Mr. Muchnick: All right.

Superintendent: The Quincy School is in the area in general to the right of Columbia Road.

Mr. Muchnick: Going in town, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: That's right; going towards Upham's Corner.

Quincy Street crosses Columbia Road, as you know. The distance from the Quincy to the Mather and the Southworth buildings is approximately 33/100ths of a mile. The pupils would have to walk up Quincy Street, cross Bowdoin Street and Adams Street to go to the Mather. It can be done, Madam Chairman and members, but my recommendation is against it.

Mr. Muchnick: But what were the reasons for the recommendations against it?

Superintendent: The chief reason, Madam Chairman, in this case, is that those children in grades 1, 2 and 3, would have to walk 33/100ths of a mile and cross Bowdoin Street and Adams Street.

Mr. Muchnick: How many children in grades 1, 2 and 3 now?

Superintendent: The total number in the Quincy is 76.

Mr. Muchnick: And how many of them are in grades 1, 2 and 3?

Superintendent: That is the total of grades 1, 2, and 3. It might be a few more than 76 because of present enrollment. It might be 79. It might be 72. However, the figure as of September, was 76.

Mr. Muchnick: Do any of those children now have to cross any hazardous streets to get to the Quincy School?

Superintendent: I would have to have the address cards before me, before I can answer that accurately.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, can you give us—

Mrs. Lyons: I think I can answer that, Mr. Muchnick, and say that I don't think that any child who goes to any of our schools lives on the same side of the street that the school is located on. That could apply to every single school in the City of Boston where we have youngsters enrolled.

I think if you watch them come out of school or go into school, you will see that there is either a policeman there at a dangerous crossing or you will find teachers assigned, so I really don't think that that is a factor.

So, Madam Chairman, I think the Superintendent has mentioned the distance in this case as a factor.

Mrs. Lyons: Three-tenths of a mile? That is not very far. They walk much more than that.

Superintendent: It is a pretty congested area in there around the Quincy Street school. Now the Elbridge Smith—

Mr. Muchnick: In what is that congested — the area around there?

Superintendent: Well, it is entirely built up, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, you must know that area quite well.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes; and to suggest that that is congested, surprises me; and the fact that we have only 76 pupils in three grades from that area would indicate that it is not congested. What do we do with kindergartners in that area?

Superintendent: I think that in general they go over to the Quincy Dickerman. Is that right? Some of those children in that area, I would say, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, may go up, and I think they do go up, to the Mather School.

Mr. Muchnick: The kindergartners?

Superintendent: I would think so.

Mr. Muchnick: Do we have a kindergarten in the Quincy Street School?

Superintendent: Could I finish? No.

Mr. Muchnick: Could I ask one more question?

Superintendent: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Those who go to the Quincy Dickerman School have to cross Columbia Road to get there, don't they?

Superintendent: I would say that they do and that the children who go to the kindergarten from that area must cross Bowdoin Street and Adams Street to go to the Mather, but kindergarten education is not compulsory education.

Mr. Muchnick: But therefore it is all right for them to take the traffic hazards and to cross Columbia Road which has been properly nicknamed now in various ways either a Speed Row or Death Alley, or to cross the other streets which you mentioned, just because we don't have to let them into the kindergarten?

Superintendent: You asked for my recommendations and reasons on the Quincy, and you have them.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, is there room for a kindergarten in the Quincy?

Superintendent: If we move the third grade out I would say there would be.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, wouldn't it be better to move the third grade out if these traffic hazards are so bad and move the kindergarten in?

Superintendent: It is something that could be considered.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, what do you think?

Superintendent: I would leave it as it is. It has been that way for a number of years and it has worked satisfactorily.

Mr. Muchnick: And the kindergartners have not been hurt in these traffic hazards, have they?

Superintendent: I know of no accidents.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, if kindergartners are not hurt, can you tell me why we should assume that first-graders or second-graders or third-graders are going to tangle with trucks and autos every day?

Superintendent: I don't assume they are going to, but I fear for any child, and I am anxious to keep as many children as possible from crossing dangerous hazards.

Mr. Muchnick: Isn't it true, Mr. Superintendent, that the same requirement concerning attendance at kindergarten, holds true of any child up to the age of seven?

Superintendent: What is that, Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Muchnick: That they do not have to go to school until the age of 7?

Superintendent: Well, we can look at it this way, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick—that kindergarten education is not required.

Mr. Muchnick: It is under our rules, isn't it?

Superintendent: No, no.

Mr. Muchnick: Under the Rules and Regulations of the School Committee?

Superintendent: No. A child can go into the first grade without having been to kindergarten.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, and a child does not have to go into the first grade or second grade or third grade until such time as he reaches the age of 7—isn't that so—isn't our regulations?

Superintendent: I think that is perhaps a law.

Mr. Muchnick: So that those children who are in the first grade at 5 and 6 years of age or in the second grade at 6 years, or the third grade at 7 years, we don't owe them any duties under the law, just because they are attending school on the same theory that you suggest concerning kindergartners.

Superintendent: I think we owe them a moral obligation, because grades 1, 2 and 3 are compulsory grades.

Mr. Muchnick: Don't we owe the same moral obligation to any child we take into the school system whether it is kindergarten or any other grades?

Superintendent: We give them the opportunity.

Mr. Muchnick: Don't we owe them the moral opportunity?

Superintendent: We give them the opportunity.

Mr. Muchnick: What opportunity—crossing Columbia Road when trucks are speeding by?

Superintendent: To attend kindergarten.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, is this intended to be a dialogue between one committee member and the Superintendent, or is the Superintendent being asked to give his recommendations and his comments on the recommendations?

Mrs. Lyons: If you want to ask any question, Miss Fitzgerald, you go right ahead and ask them.

Miss Fitzgerald: I would like to hear the Superintendent continue with his recommendations so that we can go on to hear the people who are visiting here from Harvard.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like not only this Superintendent's recommendations but the reasons for them, and I would like them now on the Hugh O'Brien if you want to give them, Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: Yes. O'Brien building is the building that has the heating that services the Ralph Waldo Emerson, so that eliminating the Hugh O'Brien would first of all make necessary the construction of an expensive heating plant in the Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Mr. Muchnick: How much would it cost to construct that plant?

Superintendent: How much, Mr. McMacKin?

Mr. McMacKin: I have asked the School Buildings Department for estimates. They have not given them to me yet.

Superintendent: What would you say, approximately?

Mr. McMacKin: Around $25,000.

Superintendent: We could not hold ourselves to that, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, but you have Mr. McMacKin's estimate.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you know that $25,000 figure before you came to the conclusion that that was one of the reasons for opposing it?

Superintendent: Mr. Muchnick, in answer to your question I know that the installation of heating equipment is very expensive. I would have said $35,000.

Mr. Muchnick: And any other reasons for the Hugh O'Brien opposition?

Superintendent: Yes, because I do not recommend eliminating the High School of Practical Arts, which would have to be put into effect to eliminate the O'Brien.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, if the High School of Practical Arts were housed elsewhere or were eliminated, would you then oppose the abandonment of the O'Brien?

Superintendent: In the light of the expense, Madam Chairman, right at the moment, I would not want to recommend that the Hugh O'Brien be closed.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that the only factor?

Superintendent: Those are the factors that I have given to you.

Mr. Muchnick: Now on the Elbridge Smith, Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: Yes. The closing of the Elbridge Smith would require the transfer of pupils to the Rochambeau, according to the survey recommendation which is 46/100ths miles away, and will necessitate the crossing by many pupils of Dorchester Avenue and Gibson Street.

Mr. Muchnick: Would it save any pupils from crossing—

Superintendent: Could I finish? Mr. Muchnick: Go ahead.

Superintendent: To the Mary Hemenway School it is 46/100ths miles, necessitating how many pupils crossing Dorchester Avenue and Adams Street. To the Lucy Stone it is approximately 68/100ths miles, so that in general for the Elbridge Smith I would say distances and traffic hazards.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, Mr. Superintendent, do any children now have to cross any of these hazardous streets to get to the Elbridge Smith?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, as long as you continue to ask that question I shall continue—

Mr. Muchnick: You will continue to avoid giving an answer.

Superintendent: I shall continue to give you the honest answer, and I think you know what it is.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, are there any children now attending any of these schools that would be saved crossing any of these hazardous streets if these schools were closed?

Superintendent: I would have to answer that the same way, and, then, too, there would be the added factor, Madam Chairman, that the parents might make some different choices if these buildings were closed.

Mr. Muchnick: What do you mean by that, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: They may not choose these schools.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, beyond the third grade it is the parents' choice, is it?

Superintendent: No, but we give out district transfers when we have available space.

Mr. Muchnick: Is distance one of the reasons?

Superintendent: In the case of the Elbridge Smith?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Superintendent: Two reasons: Distance and traffic hazards.

Mr. Muchnick: However, Mr. Superintendent, is it from the Quincy Street School to the Edward Everett or the Mather or the Quincy Dickerman?

Superintendent: Well, I cannot give you the answer to the Edward Everett.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, how far is it to the Mather?

Superintendent: 33-100ths mile. Mr. Muchnick: And to the Quincy Dickerman from the Quincy Street School?

Superintendent: I cannot answer that question.

Mr. Muchnick: On the Lyceum Hall School, that one you approve of?

Superintendent: I recommend it that last year.

Mr. Muchnick: Will any children have to cross hazardous streets to go to other schools who are now at Lyceum Hall, or who would be going into Lyceum Hall?

Superintendent: At the present time, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, you have in the Lyceum Hall grades 6, 7, and 8.

Mr. Muchnick: Will any of those children have to cross hazardous streets if we close that school?

Superintendent: The sixth grade children would continue on I would say, in either the Mather or the Southworth. The seventh and eighth grade pupils who are older would perhaps go to the Grover Cleveland School, which was my recommendation of last year. They are intermediate school pupils.

Mr. Muchnick: And they would have to cross hazardous streets, wouldn't they?

Superintendent: I would not say any more hazardous streets than they now have to cross because older pupils are expected to be able to take care of themselves and travel longer distances.

Mr. Muchnick: Do pupils now going to Lyceum Hall cross hazardous streets?

Superintendent: They are presently sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils.

Mr. Muchnick: And do they cross hazardous streets getting there?

Superintendent: They have to cross presently both Bowdoin street and Adams street to get up to the Mather School, or at least Bowdoin street.

Mr. Muchnick: To get up to Lyceum Hall?

Superintendent: In general I would say that is true.

Mr. Muchnick: How can you tell us that without having each pupil's card telling where they come from.

Superintendent: Because I know that they have to go up that way to the Mather because it is a dead end.

Mr. Muchnick: Isn't that true in some of the other schools we have talked about?

Superintendent: So far as I know it is the only school we have talked about that is a dead end.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you think that the Atherton and Christopher Gibson ought to be closed within the next couple of years?

Superintendent: That I have not studied, because it is not in the range for September, 1953.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, you know the Gibson is up a dead end, don't you?

Superintendent: I think there is a passageway from the Gibson down to the other school.

Mr. Muchnick: No, Mr. Superintendent. My children attended there. Mr. Corcoran, is there?

Mr. Corcoran: There was a passageway down by the railroad tracks.

Mr. Muchnick: Down by the railroad tracks?

Mr. Corcoran: Hundreds of them have used that.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, we ought to stop that practice at once.

Mrs. Lyons: May I say here that there is an indication that we can use all the care in the world and saying that these streets must not be crossed, by children. They are going to cross them anyway, and nobody lives on the same side of the street as the school.

Mr. Muchnick: That is right, Madam Chairman. In order to get to the Christopher Gibson School, Mr. Superintendent, don't you have to cross either Washington Street, Geneva Avenue or Columbia Road, all hazardous streets, or the railroad tracks?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, my studies have been restricted to those that were recommended as of September of 1953.

Mr. Muchnick: Don't you know about the Christopher Gibson School.

Superintendent: I would like to stand on what I have said.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you know the condition of the Christopher Gibson School?

Superintendent: Yes. My studies have been made on these other buildings.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Superintendent, do I make myself clear in the question?

Superintendent: You certainly do. Do I make myself clear?

Mr. Muchnick: Do you know the conditions concerning traffic at the Christopher Gibson School?

Superintendent: Is it understandable to you, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, that I have restricted my studies to the schools, as of September, 1953? Have I made that clear?

Mr. Muchnick: You have made that clear that what study you have made of this so far has been restricted to 1953. I just asked you a very simple question as to whether you knew the conditions concerning traffic, surrounding the Christopher Gibson School, and as to whether that also is on a dead end, because what applies to the Lyceum Hall might very easily apply to the Christopher Gibson; and if we got some information from you concerning it that could guide us, some of us might be of the opinion that the Gibson ought to be closed in 1953 instead of 1955.

Now you either do or you don't know about conditions concerning that school.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I will be very glad to have a study made of the Christopher Gibson School as I have studies made of these that are imminent in keeping with the recommendations of the survey.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, could I say that I would like to hear the Superintendent's recommendation on the 1953 building, since that is the effective year and that is the year that we are concerned with.

Mr. Muchnick: I was just going to suggest that we go on with the other three 1953 elementary buildings that are involved, the Olney in Area 12. Do you agree with that recommendation, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, last year in presenting my recommendations for the closing of six schools, five of which were not closed, I presented information to the School Committee in connection with the Richard Olney School, and at that time I said that the Richard Olney School could be accommodated as a unit in the Robert Gould Shaw Junior High School, but that I did not recommend it because to me it is educationally unsound to put an elementary school unit in with a junior high school unit unless it is absolutely necessary.

Now in regard to the Richard Olney School pupils being transferred to the Lyndon School, the Ripley and the Shaw, I have given my reasons on the Shaw, and the distance from the Shaw to the Lyndon is 91/100ths mile. To the Sophia Ripley it is 8/10ths of a mile. So I would say distances in regard to the Lyndon and the Ripley are being educationally unsound in regard to the Robert Gould Shaw.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Superintendent, we do have some schools in Boston where elementary schools are housed in junior high schools, and they seem to run very very smoothly.

I think that it can be done. It is a problem that has to be worked out, but I think it can be worked out without too much difficulty at all, with good administration.

Of course, I think, too, the type of a school that it is housed in makes a vast difference, and I think that the Robert Gould Shaw, being one of our good schools could well accommodate these children in one wing.

If you placed them in one wing and kept them away from the older children, I don't see why you probably couldn't have satisfactorily put these children from the Olney School into the Robert Gould Shaw, which is a very good building a very short distance from there. I think it could be worked out. It is only a problem in administration.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I have seen that problem in administration worked out during a visit that I made to the William Barton Rogers junior high school, and I remember talking to both the principal who had charge of the elementary pupils and the principal who had charge of the junior high school pupils, and both of them felt that it was not a satisfactory situation and hoped that it could be brought to an end as soon as possible.

Mrs. Lyons: Well, there are some that are very satisfactory, Miss Fitzgerald, in the system.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, with reference to housing both types of units in one school, we do that in many of our junior high schools don't we, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, we have one unit, of the Agassiz, in the Mary Curley Junior High School.

Mr. Muchnick: Any complaints on that one, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: No, I have not heard any recently. I visited the unit when I visited the Mary Curley School, when I was an assistant superintendent.

Mr. Muchnick: Both of the units worked properly in the same school, didn't they?

Superintendent: They were not satisfactory to me, in general.

Mr. Muchnick: In what way, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Well, the bells of the intermediate schools could be heard down in the elementary school district. There was always the problem, as Miss Fitzgerald has pointed out—and it was very well explained to me by Mr. Lynch in the William Barton Rogers School, who is presently principal of a school where we are housing an elementary unit during the emergency because of the fire in the Fairmount building.

Mr. Lynch is very co-operative but is likewise very anxious to be free from the elementary unit. He pointed out to me many dangers, civil defense, fire drills, bell system, persons coming into the building to visit such as parents coming in to visit teachers of the elementary unit, and various factors of that nature.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Superintendent, at the Olney what grades are accommodated?

Superintendent: The Olney has kindergarten through sixth grade, with 182 pupils.

Mr. Muchnick: At the Joyce Kilmer what pupils are accommodated?

Superintendent: Have you that data, Miss Hearn, on the Joyce Kilmer - kindergarten through sixth grade, I believe. Am I right?

Miss Hearn: That is right. That is not in that district. That is in the other district.

Superintendent: That is in the Beethoven district.

Miss Hearn: But if it's kindergarten through sixth grade.

Mr. Muchnick: How far is it from the Olney to the Kilmer?

Superintendent: Well, I haven't the distance, but it is a long way, I would say.

Mr. Muchnick: It is over a mile, isn't it?

Superintendent: I would not want to say without measuring it.

Mr. Muchnick: It is much more than a mile, isn't it, Mr. Corcoran?

Dr. Foley: It is pretty nearly two miles.

Mr. Muchnick: Kindergarten children are walking much more than half a mile to either one of those schools, aren't they?

Superintendent: I don't know of any, Mr. Muchnick, who are walking any excessive distances in view of the fact—and this is just general—that I live in the neighborhood. I would say that the Sophia Ripley and the Lyndon and the Olney would in general accommodate pupils within an area of a half mile. That would be my general thought.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Superintendent, the Lyndon is beyond the Olney so far as the Kilmer is concerned, and the Ripley is to the left of it; and as far away from the Kilmer, possibly further, than the Olney, so that those children who live between the half way point, are walking at least 6/10ths and probably 7/10ths of a mile, and they are kindergartners.

Superintendent: I could not answer that.

Mr. Muchnick: Don't they have to cross many hazardous streets to get to either one of those two schools?

Superintendent: Well, we have the Morris School, as you know, on one side of Centre Street opposite the Olney, the Olney being on the other side. The Joyce Kilmer has no relationship, as I see it, to the Richard Olney or the Lyndon or the Sophia Ripley as explained by the survey.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, where do those children who live on the Olney Street side of Centre Street, and on the Kilmer side of Centre Street, halfway between those schools go when they are in the kindergarten?

Superintendent: Well, the Olney side of Centre Street is the right, as you go out. The Joyce Kilmer is located on the right but not the part of Centre Street that is heavily traveled.

Mr. Muchnick: How about the Elihu Greenwood and the Henry Grew?

Superintendent: Yes. The Elihu Greenwood: the survey recommends transferring the pupils from the Greenwood into the Hyde Park High School during the interval that a new building is being constructed. We presently have a number of pupils from the Greenwood in the Hyde Park High School, and to accommodate the balance of that unit, it would, in my opinion, interfere with the high school organization.

Now, in regard to the Henry Grew, the distance from the Grew building to the Channing is 68/100ths mile. I think perhaps we would have to eliminate a special class if we attempted to merge the Grew pupils with the Channing, and in addition some of those children, I think, would have to walk pretty close to a mile.

Mr. Muchnick: The Grew is how far from the Channing?

Superintendent: 68/100ths mile.

Mr. Muchnick: Would any of them have to cross hazardous streets?

Superintendent: Well, I am visualizing the children. May I ask Mr. McMackin? What is the name of that street, Mr. McMackin, opposite the Grew?

Mr. McMackin: Austin.

Superintendent: And what is the name of the street the Grew is on, please?

Mr. McMackin: Gordon Avenue.

Superintendent: The pupils on Austin Street would have to come up and cross Gordon Avenue. Gordon Avenue is not a real serious traffic hazard.

Mr. Muchnick: Would it eliminate any serious traffic hazard streets for any of the children who now attend the Grew?

Superintendent: I don't think the problem of the Grew, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, and the Channing, is a problem of traffic hazards in general. I think it is a problem of space and distance.

Mr. Muchnick: Is the Grew that old wooden building?

Superintendent: Erected in 1871, type 4 construction, 10 rooms, kindergarten through grade 6.

Mr. Muchnick: That is a building to be gotten rid of as fast as possible, isn't it?

Superintendent: It is one of the buildings that is in my long-range program for demolition and razing.

Mr. Muchnick: Why do you want it razed?

Superintendent: For the reason that it is an old building, and you have that long-range program. It is not in the immediate long-range program because of money limitations.

Mr. Muchnick: If we had the money, do you think the school is of the kind that should be eliminated immediately?

Superintendent: Well, I will answer it this way: There are other spots in the City where I would feel that it was more needed to eliminate a building than the Grew.

Mr. Muchnick: Which spot?

Superintendent: Well, going back and answering your question in another way, Mr. Muchnick, if we had unlimited money, 20, 30, 35 or 40 million dollars—I would certainly say immediately eliminate the Grew. Eliminate the Greenwood, too, in this particular area.

Mr. Muchnick: Now you would want them eliminated immediately because they are not proper buildings?

Superintendent: No.

Mr. Muchnick: Why should they be eliminated if they are not proper?

Superintendent: If they are not improper?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Superintendent: Because they are old wooden structures, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Does that make them improper?

Superintendent: As far as public safety is concerned, I can give you Mr. Mooney's report on the Grew. Would you like it?

Mr. Muchnick: No, I would like you to tell us whether you think that right now, in May 1953, the Henry Grew is a proper building in which to house elementary school children from the safety point of view, from an educational point of view, from a health point of view, or any other point of view that you have?

Superintendent: At the present time, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I would say that the Henry Grew School is a safe building. The building was altered recently to comply with the provisions of the safety laws. The drawings incorporating the alterations bear the stamps of approval of the City of Boston Building Department and the Department of Public Safety of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

A certificate of occupancy issued by the Department of Public Safety has been posted in the building. Fire drill records indicating the building can be vacated in one minute and 15 seconds. The boiler room is enclosed in masonry walls. The floors and ceilings are of incombustible material. The building is equipped with enclosed metal fire escapes servicing all classrooms. The building was painted throughout. The entire interior and exterior was painted and equipped with new general lighting and emergency lighting.

The building, in the opinion of the Superintendent of Construction is suitable for occupancy except in the two upper floors of the addition which we do not presently use.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman—

Mr. Muchnick: Well, Why do you want to have the building razed if it is in such wonderful condition for use by the pupils, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Yes, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I would like all wooden structures eliminated from our system.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that the only reason you want that building eliminated?

Superintendent: Because it is an old building.

Mr. Muchnick: And it is because it is wood?

Superintendent: And because it is old, and I have so stated in my long-range program that you have.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: Is it because it is wood and because it is old, Mr.

Superintendent, that you want it eliminated?

Superintendent: It is a combination of all of those factors.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, what other factors besides those two?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman, I would like to see on that site or some suitable site a building similar to the present Fairmount building, which we hope to occupy in September of this year, with a nice assembly hall, with all the facilities that are necessary in keeping with modern practices.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, in other words, the Superintendent is saying that it would be wonderful if we could achieve Utopian school buildings and if our budget could encompass Utopian school buildings, but he is telling us that these buildings are currently not improper buildings in which to house the children?

Mrs. Lyons: Miss Fitzgerald, I think we can make that deduction. I think we are intelligent enough to make that deduction.

Mr. Muchnick: Are there any reasons other than the ones you have given, Mr. Superintendent, why you are opposed to the recommendations of abandonments in 1953 on any of these buildings?

Superintendent: Dealing with the elementary schools—

Mr. Muchnick: Dealing with the elementaries which we are discussing on page A-41.

Superintendent: As discussed here this evening, I think that I have given you all of my reasons specifically building by building. Mr. Muchnick: And there are no others?

Superintendent: So far as I can see right at the present time, there are none that I can think of. There might be some, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, that would come before me in the next month or two months or three months or six months, as the case may be.

Mr. Muchnick: But so far you have made an intensive study of the 1953 situation?

Superintendent: I consider that we have made a very careful, reliable study.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I wonder if Dr. Sargent, or any of his group, would care at this time to address themselves to any of the comments made by the Superintendent, concerning his objections, or whether they would rather either not comment at all or comment at some time in the future after they have had a chance to study the record of the discussion in the last hour or two?

Mr. Sargent: I think we have said what we in general feel is the basis on which a study of this sort must be made. The School Committee, in our considered opinion, has a responsibility for informing the citizens of Boston of the needs of the school system; and in this consideration, of course, the problem of finances there and whether you have enough money is a concern, but your problem and your charge is to provide adequate educational facilities.

If other people in the city do not make available the money, at least you have discharged your responsibility. Ours, in making this study, was to recommend to you a program for bringing up to better standards the school buildings of the City, and we did not recognize in that consideration the problems that Boston might not make available certain sums of money.

That is always the case in any community you go into—but your responsibility—I mean, ours as a study group—is to say these are the facts as we see them. These are the implications. These are, in terms of a standard that we think is reasonable for a city such as Boston, the recommendations which result from the analysis.

Therefore, the factor of the impact on the tax base of Boston is something which must be considered but you cannot allow it to confuse, first, defining the dimensions of the problem. If you compromise you must know from what point you compromise.

It is with that in mind that we have laid down this program which seems to us reasonable in terms of both educational standards and needs today. Boston's just got an old school plant. It needs rapid rehabilitation. It needs new buildings. You have to face that fact—times the dimensions of the problem financially are bound to cast overtones, but the problem must first of all be spelled out in its dimensions.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I think that Dr. Sargent hit on many good points in what he just said, but particularly at the end when he said that at some stage of the game the City of Boston must face the fact that some of its school buildings are not proper or very shortly won't be places in which to house children for education or any other purpose; and whether we have the money or don't have the money, when the building falls apart it has to be replaced and the money has to be found somewhere.

If I may add to that, this report is the basis, it seems to me, not only in meeting that issue of taking care of necessities, but by some of the eliminations and abandonments called for here, sufficient money can be saved annually, whether it is in one part of the budget or the other doesn't make any difference, to allow the City to provide out of normal school money, regardless of what part of the budget it might be in, to replace some of the antiquated plants; and by conserving our assets in 1953 we will have at least the necessary money that we will need in 1954, 1955, and thereafter of the City's total income to spend for replacement of old, improper and unsafe buildings.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I have a proposal which I would like to make, with you and your members' permission at this time, concerning the general survey.

That is, I have some general comments which I should like to make if I might be allowed to do so, Madam Chairman.

Mrs. Lyons: I don't see any reason why you can't.

Miss Fitzgerald: Having given preliminary study to the Harvard Center for Field Study's Report, it is my feeling that that body covered very thoroughly the City school buildings in a remarkably short period of time, and its efforts are greatly appreciated.

This is not the first time that the Boston school buildings have been surveyed. Our administrative staff from the Superintendent down has constantly evaluated the school building needs in every area.

Dr. Foley: The Committee will be in recess until the other members come back.

Miss Fitzgerald: I wondered why the necessity for a recess at this particular time? I think that is a very good suggestion, however.

Dr. Foley: Your guess is as good as mine.

(Recess.)

Mrs. Lyons: I think we would save time if we heard from Mr. Mitchell now.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I was about to make a statement.

Mrs. Lyons: When you finish I think that we would save time by having Dr. Sargent or Dr. Mitchell tell us about the high schools and the junior high schools, and why they have recommended some of the changes that they have in the survey, and that would probably eliminate a lot of extra questions and time.

Miss Fitzgerald: May I go on now, Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: It is just two pages long, may I say.

Mrs. Lyons: Too long.

Miss Fitzgerald: Having given preliminary study to the Harvard Center for Field Study's report, it is my feeling that that body covered very thoroughly the City's school buildings in a remarkably short period of time, and its efforts are greatly appreciated.

This is not the first time that the Boston school buildings have been surveyed. Our administrative staff from the Superintendent down has constantly evaluated the school building needs in every area.

The City Planning Board has for the past four or more years been working closely with the Superintendent, the Structural Engineer, who are concerned with school buildings in making a plan for better and more efficiently used school accommodations.

Very often an outside agency can study a situation, as I believe the Harvard Center for Field Study has, with a theoretical attainment in view. However, many such surveys fail to take into account the practicalities of the situation.

The new buildings recommended for Boston, and as reported in the Harvard Center Report would cost upwards of $20,000,000. Recommendations to tear down buildings are predicated upon the building of new schools.

It is my feeling that we should not tear down old schools promiscuously or store them in mothballs allowing them to be rallying grounds for vandalism until the City of Boston secures its budgetary way clear to provide us with more money for new schools, and these, I believe, should be urged, as Dr. Sargent has just pointed out.

Before adopting any of the recommendations of the educators from all over the country and from thousands of miles from Boston, we must move with caution and with a sound knowledge of what we are doing and why we are doing it. The taxpayers of Boston want us to utilize our present plant to its capacity, and as those responsible for spending the taxpayers' money we must be particularly careful that we are not throwing any usable facilities out the window.

It seems to me that equal and even perhaps greater emphasis must be given to educational needs. It must be our task to make sure that we are giving the citizens of Boston the type of education and the classroom situations and the kind of buildings which they desire.

The suggested consolidation of certain of our educational institutions where only girls or only boys are trained, such as the Boston Latin School, and the Girls' Latin School, Girls' High School and the Roxbury Memorial High School, I cannot heartily approve.

On the other hand, I know that many of our district high schools have traditionally had the co-educational pattern, and this kind of education should not be withheld from those who desire it for their children. Men and women work side by side in the business world.

Again, to disturb the high school pattern, at a time when most educators agree that the high school population will double in a very few years, does not make sense.

In order to attain better community understanding of the Harvard survey and in order to weed out any of its impracticalities for Boston, may I suggest that the School Committee, No. 1, set up a representative committee in each of the fifteen areas covered by this report. Have such hearings at the administration building, allowing about two hours for each, for such persons as are interested in presenting their viewpoints, regarding the suggestions about their particular area.

This group could include representatives from the Home and School associations, public officials, respected neighborhood groups, and school administrators. These hearings might be scheduled during the month of July, particularly on the 1953 recommendations.

Thirdly, that after each of the fifteen areas have been heard from, and after the people of Boston and every affected area have been heard, and their recommendations taken under advisement, then the School Committee directs the Superintendent and his staff to make recommendations which could consolidate school districts in Boston in a way that would be more related to the needs of its taxpaying citizens.

Before any action is taken by this School Committee, or any future School Committee, concerning this survey, I honestly suggest that to whatever recommendations occur to the City Planning Board, which has also a stake in Boston's future.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I don't want to prolong unduly any discussion other than questioning, but there are three or four comments that it seems to me that have been just made that should not go by unnoticed.

I cannot understand any opposition by the previous speaker to a long-range $20,000,000 program because of the City's financial inability to support such a program, in view of the fact that within a month, I believe, there was hearty endorsement of a $40,000,000 long-range building program suggested by the City.

As to keeping buildings in mothballs where they become objects or targets of vandalism, may I suggest that perhaps we ought to attempt to teach our boys and girls, and we wouldn't have so much of that problem.

We are all interested in the taxpayers' money and the taxpayers are; and the taxpayers want to see their money spent on proper education and on proper classroom facilities, but they do not want to see their money spent and wasted on heating and lighting empty space and on patching patches in old, unusable, unsafe, dilapidated buildings, nor do they want any of the money spent for other than proper educational purposes.

If we adopt many or most of the recommendations in this survey, we can save enough money annually wasted on that heat and light, wasted maintenance money and wasted personnel money; and I don't intend by that to imply that anybody should be dismissed, but we don't have to have replacements in many cases, to finance out of the City's money, regardless of what part of the budget it came from, the necessary building between now and 1960 or thereabouts.

I deduce from the various comments of the previous speaker that there is some basis for the thought that it is her opinion that this survey does not serve much practical use and that it only has theoretical value and that therefore this School Committee has in effect wasted $10,000 on a theoretical study.

As far as I am concerned, nothing could be farther from the truth. If this survey had cost us $50,000 or $75,000, the potential savings from purely a financial point of view would far more than justify the expenditure.

From an educational point of view, for giving proper facilities which far outweigh the financial advantages, this survey is of inestimable value; and I for one would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to the Harvard Center for Field Studies for a remarkable job done for the City of Boston.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that is the feeling of the majority of the Board, Mr. Muchnick—that they have done an excellent job—and I think I would like to borrow from Dr. Sargent's observation that it is our duty to point out to the people the condition that the schools are in, have them decide whether or not they want to have their children housed in these buildings, and it is up to them as taxpayers to decide whether or not they wish that money expended for a better school plant.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, five buildings were recommended by the Superintendent, and those five choices were reinforced by this report. How many of those buildings were closed in 1952?

Mrs. Lyons: Would you like to go ahead now, Dr. Sargent?

Dr. Sargent: Austin, do you want to speak?

Mr. McCaffrey: In the secondary report dealing with the junior high schools and the high schools, Mrs. Lyons, we stated the standards and our premises that we were going to develop our recommendations on. We restated these preceding our recommendations for 1953, and we have established point 1—that after examining the plant facilities, we felt that the 6-3-3 pattern was the most economical one and the most efficient one for developing secondary schools in Boston, in the future.

Secondly, we had adopted as one of our standards, the pattern of co-education and the desirability of integrating the trade courses for the girls.

After looking over the buildings and evaluating and checking on capacity we found that your secondary schools had an excess capacity at this time of about 6,000, meaning that you had approximately 20,000 students in your secondary school plant and you had capacity for over 26,000.

So, as we looked over the buildings and the problems, we came to some conclusions. One of our recommendations was that because both Dorchester High School for Girls and Dorchester High School for Boys were at about half capacity and that both of these student bodies could be accommodated in Dorchester High School for Boys, and that by some minor improvements, putting in your plumbing facilities and making provisions for your vocational courses for girls, this school would be able to house the expected enrollments for 1955 and 1960 for the boys and girls who are now attending that school.

This would make possible the use of the Dorchester High School for Girls for other purposes. It is a good building. It has a capacity which can well accommodate the pupils who are now attending Trade High School for Girls, Practical Arts for Girls, and the Girls' Division of Brandeis.

The total of these three student groups still would not tax the capacity of that school; and looking over the program in school document No. 75 of the School Committee, we felt that it would be possible to integrate the best elements of these three programs and therefore make it possible to release the Practical Arts High School for Girls as a good building for junior high school, which would eliminate the necessity of building another junior high school in Roxbury.

Secondly, in conjunction with the transfer of the boys from Brandeis to Trade High School for Boys, it would make available a junior high school which is needed in the South End, and it would give you a building which could be used for other school purposes. Trade high school for girls would be sold.

In addition to that, as we faced up to the problem of what to do about junior high school enrollments in the Back Bay, we felt that one possibility would be the use of the Commerce building for a junior high school and as the Commerce building was now only utilized to about fifty per cent capacity and as we felt that the commercial program could be distributed among the other secondary schools of the City, it would be possible to use this building for other purposes.

We felt that because you needed a junior high school in the Back Bay, it could be used for this purpose. If that were true, and in view of the fact that the Girls' Latin School is now housed in the building which is owned by the State and which is on a year-by-year lease, and somewhat overcrowded, and that that might be terminated in the future and used for some other purpose, we thought you ought to look into the possibility of taking the girls from Girls' Latin, combining them with Boys' Latin, and utilizing Boys' Latin for a co-educational school housing the three upper grades, which would still mean that there would be at least the same number of students graduating from Boston Latin each year.

We felt along with this, that this would have a tendency to strengthen your junior high program. It would eliminate the necessity of younger children, 11, 12 and 13 years of age, traveling from all over the city to go to a school and to start very early the six-year program.

Those were some of the things that we thought of.

In addition to that, as we projected the plan into the future, we were recommending that the other schools, the Jeremiah Burke School be converted to a three-year co-educational school in 1955; and that in 1957, which we felt would take several years to work this plan out, it would be very desirable to create a campus school on the site suggested in the survey report and make possible the abandonment of Boston English, Girls' High, and Technical, and create a very desirable unit, which would embrace some of the thinking on secondary education and answer some of Boston's needs.

Stated quite simply, that is about the thinking that went behind this set of recommendations.

Mr. Muchnick: Assuming that the Latin School situation were resolved by the School Committee in such a way as it remains in its present status, there being at least some thought among some of the members of the School Committee that for the type of education given there the six years is preferable to either three or four—and it is hard for me to be particularly objective, because I am either a victim of it or a product of it, whichever way you want to look at it—and assuming the same were to be true of the Girls' Latin School, would you be prepared to suggest where the Girls' Latin School should be housed if the present segregation of sexes were to continue, and the six-year program were to continue?

Mr. McCaffrey: I would prefer to refer that to Dr. Sargent, although we had talked about other possibilities.

Mr. Muchnick: Or, would you rather not at the moment? I mean if you would rather have further talk among yourselves after this has been thrown out by any of us?

Mr. Sargent: We discussed a lot of other alternatives. This is not the only other solution to the problem. One other might be to house Girls' Latin in Commerce and build a Junior High for that section of the City. The problem which demands facilities for the junior high school children of that age range, at least, in that section of the city, which is not presently available, and there would be an alternative to consider.

There was another one that we had in mind at one time, and that would be to build a new Girls' Latin and make Commerce a junior high for the area, which is in a sense saying the same thing I just said but reversing the assignment of the Commerce High building for the Girls' Latin, as contrasted with the use of the building as a junior high school.

In each case certain modifications would have to be made in terms of the facilities within the building, but those certainly are alternatives, and you people and the administration could well think of others but there are three.

Mr. Muchnick: May I suggest that Mr. McKim can go home now?

Mrs. Lyons: May I suggest that Mr. McKim is very much relieved.

Mr. McKim: I certainly am.

Mrs. Lyons: Thank you, Mr. McCaffrey and Dr. Sargent.

Dr. Sargent: May I just say one thing about this, I don't like to get emotional about a problem which we like to look at as objectively as we can, but I do see a unique opportunity for Boston, and you are not going to have it three years. You have flexibility in terms of maneuverability on the secondary level which will be lost when this wave and increased enrollments come up through the secondary level and hit you, and then you cannot in time prepare for the increased enrollments, and the extra facilities, and then you cannot shut some of these other buildings which have long been of service to the community but which we feel now are not the kinds of structures that can provide the educational programs.

Don't misunderstand me. Personnel provides programs, but the buildings do help or they do hinder, or they are at times, by a combination of inadequacies and deficiencies, such that just for the welfare of the community and for the thought of keeping parents and families living here and wanting to stay in Boston as a good place to live—because there are good schools for children and for high school age children—there comes a time when these buildings have to be said to have served their purpose.

It is a unique opportunity right now to move in 1957 or 1958 if decisions have been delayed, or for 1955, even. It will be just that much more difficult and also impossible by 1956 or 1958. This is not unique in Boston, again.

You see, Mr. McCaffrey mentions the excess capacity. Sure—because we are witnesses on the secondary level now the impact of the low birthrate of the '30's; and while our focus is on the problem on the elementary level, we are apt to look so concentratedly at that problem that we forget that this thing is going to hit us in the secondary school very shortly, and therefore, when we think of new high school buildings, we are thinking of something that is a little bit different also than elementary school facilities.

I think Mr. Haley would agree with me that the pattern of elementary education is not as much in a state of flux as is secondary education nowadays.

If you ask us to talk about an elementary school building, we could probably pretty well come to agreement on what constitutes a good elementary school building and what the program might be. We might have some points of difference, of course, but if you ask us about secondary education or ask anyone about it, there is a wide variation in what the secondary schools of the future are going to look like, not only as regards buildings but programwise.

We are finding increased holding power, if you wish to use that term, in the high schools. Only 15 per cent on a national basis of the nation are going on to college. What kind of programs make sense for these? You have technical, vocational programs on one end. You have the highly traditional academic programs for strictly college preparation on the other. Then you have this group in between, maybe 50 per cent of our total high school population is concerned. What makes sense for them?

So when you are thinking of a high school program of buildings you are in an area which demands a lot of concentrated work and effort in terms of thinking out possible programs because these buildings are actually, quite literally, going to house programs as well as house children.

And so I would simply say that whether or not you take all of these recommendations, item by item, is of course your choice; but in any event, what you do with it, I think, should be done in the light of the fact that the planning stages here are more protracted. It takes longer to build a secondary unit. It's bigger; it's more complicated. Of course, it is more costly.

I would just toss out for your consideration the fact that in connection with the problem of secondary education in Boston, and providing facilities for it, the more you can get people of the community to help you think through what they want in the secondary schools of Boston, and what they expect of them, generally,—not of the specific school, necessarily, but of secondary education or higher school education, if you prefer to call it that—the better chance Boston will have of coming up with significant secondary school programs for 1953 and 1980 and 1990.

Again I am reluctant to give a lecture of any sort, but I think in our thinking in the recommendations here for the high schools, we were as much concerned about pointing out the facts that while the time span might appear to be long between now and, let us say, 1975, actually, I would suggest that it means beginning and putting in operation sort of early steps now.

I would hope that Boston would be proud enough of its traditions to start that process and to think of what the high school of Boston will look like in 1960; and it was with that in mind that we emphasized the rare opportunity; and I would think it is rare, that you have right now in terms of planning for that series of school buildings.

Mr. Muchnick: Am I right, Dr. Sargent, in attempting to paraphrase particularly the last part of your statement in this way: that instead of thinking of the secondary level of education in terms of school buildings, we should think in terms of school programs and then either fit those programs into existing buildings or provide buildings in the immediate future as may be necessary for the programs themselves?

Mr. Sargent: Yes, and in this connection, my understanding is, that you have certainly entertained already considerations about a science program of some nature on the secondary level which would modify present offerings.

We don't know, and we would not presume to suggest at this moment, but perhaps in this new campus type school, if you go that way, there should be a science unit in it. I just don't know. I mean, it is a unit which particularly emphasizes that.

However, it is exactly that sort of thinking that I think is involved.

Mrs. Lyons: Are there any other questions that anyone would like to ask these gentlemen?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, is there anything any one of these other gentlemen or ladies from the survey would like to volunteer or offer to us without a question?

Madam Chairman, I wonder if, prior to adjournment, the Superintendent would care to make any comments concerning the high school plan as outlined in the report or in this most recent discussion?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman, I am always very glad to react to any questions that you may ask me if I can offer any thoughts. Apropos of the Brandeis Vocational High School, I think some of the members of this Committee will recall that I recommended closing it back about two or three years ago.

The Committee acted on it, and it was officially closed; and then, after it was officially closed, the vote was changed and it was officially opened again.

I would say for Brandeis Vocational High School this year, as I did for the Tweed School, for example, Lyceum Hall, and other elementary schools that I recommended last year, I would recommend closing the Brandeis Vocational High School at the end of this year.

Planning for the pupils, the girls at the Girls' Trade High School, as we had planned for them before when the building was closed and planned for boys in Brandeis Vocational High School at the Trade High School for Boys, as they were planned for at the time the building was closed.

Now, apropos of the Girls' Latin School I think the members of the Committee will agree that at the time that the Teachers College Unit was being given to the State and it started out with the giving to the State of the Teachers College Building, it was found that the heating units and ventilating, units and all the service units were joint between the Teachers College building and the Girls' Latin School building. Following that time it was agreed by the School Committee to give the complete unit to the State and I objected to it, on the basis that the Girls' Latin School was traditional and that we needed the facilities for that particular building and that in my opinion, as I said at the time, it was very unwise to do.

Now in connection with the making of the Dorchester High School for Boys and Dorchester High School for Girls co-educational, we discussed that plan back some time ago. I don't think it was with the Committee, as it is presently constructed, but it was with a committee just prior to the taking of office by certain members of the committee.

If today the Committee should agree to make both of these schools one to merge them, in other words—we would have to construct a gymnasium for the girls in the Dorchester High School for Boys building. We would have to put in toilet facilities, and we would have to equip that building with a great many home economics services that the girls now have in their building.

A general estimate of the time to bring about that type of construction would perhaps be a year before we could build a suitable gymnasium as an addition to the building.

I have not asked Mr. Mooney for any estimates on the cost of what that gymnasium would be, but I know that when he was asked about a similar type of construction in connection with the Solomon Lewenburg, he estimated the figure would perhaps be around $200,000.

Now in regard to the elimination of the Practical Arts High School, the union of Practical Arts with Trade High School for Girls, while they are related in their objectives, each does perform a very specific function that I would regret seeing eliminated, and I think it would be eliminated if the two buildings were joined into one.

As for the High School of Commerce, I think that one of the reasons why enrollment has dropped in the last couple of years and will drop, I would say, again, effectively in September, 1953, is the fact that there has been more or less constant agitation as to the disposition of the High School of Commerce.

I can cite one very specific case of a gentleman who services my home; and when I say services my own home it could be any one of a number of types of service, so that I do not throw any indication on the individual who comes to my door.

But even as recently as yesterday, one of these gentlemen said, "I have a boy at the High School of Commerce. There is so much agitation about whether the school will continue in operation or not, that we have planned, although I can't afford to, to send my boy to a parochial school because I know that school will not be closed."

So that some of the problems dealing with the enrollment in the High School of Commerce, I believe, is due to the feeling of insecurity.

Now, in regard to merging the Memorial High School for Boys and Girls, I think that would be very unwise. They are two very successful schools as they stand, and I feel that they would continue to operate very successfully as they are at the present time.

Now, as to the Boston Clerical School, we have made every effort to have that school service as many people as possible. We have articulated with business; we have strengthened the courses there, and we are offering every type of service that we can. We recently admitted boys to the Boston Clerical School.

It is an outstanding school, and I would agree that the more we can do to increase the service that that school will give to the citizens of Boston the more valuable the school will be.

As to the union of the Boys Latin School and the Girls Latin School, I certainly think that that would be a catastrophe to our Boston school system.

Boys Latin School has been outstanding for well over 300 years. Its academic record is recognized all over the country, and so is the Girls Latin School, but the Boys Latin School is the oldest school, naturally. It is one that has carried a reputation for many, many years.

If either of the schools was not successful then I would say it might be wise—and I am not using this word lightly, and don't misunderstand me—to tinker with the two; but certainly, with the schools being in my mind the two finest schools for college preparatory work in the country, I think it would be an educational catastrophe to do anything that would impede the continued progress and achievement of those schools.

The achievement is continuous, and I think that if we had time to listen to Mr. McKim tell the most recent results in connection with the National Honor Society, college entrants, number of boys being admitted to Phi Beta Kappa, in the various colleges, and the best colleges of the country, it would convince us of the importance of keeping that school as it presently is; and I feel that the same record for a younger school is true of the Girls Latin School.

Madam Chairman, those are my general reactions to the program.

Mr. Muchnick: Do I take it, Mr. Superintendent, that in that part concerning the Brandeis Vocational High School, if I remember correctly, in which there is a certain area of agreement between you and the Center for Field Studies' Survey, so far as the secondary level education part of the survey is concerned, you consider the report a waste of effort and money?

Superintendent: I place no interpretation whatsoever upon what you have described, Mr. Muchnick. I have made my statement; I believe, very clear. I recommended the Brandeis three years ago, I believe it was. It was closed. The votes were reversed. Some of them were, at least, and the Brandeis Vocational High School was reopened.

I would now recommend, as I have for the Tweed and Lyceum Hall, that it be closed at the close of this school year.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, before we adjourn I was among those who, I believe, either three years ago or four years ago reversed my vote on the Brandeis. That was occasioned by the obtaining of accurate information subsequent to the information which was given to the School Committee when the first vote was taken.

Mrs. Lyons: If there are no other questions, thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen, for your help. I think we are all very much enlightened, and now we will adjourn.

The Committee adjourned.

ASSESSED VALUATIONS CONTINUE TO RISE.

A survey of 43 assessing jurisdictions over 100,000 population, recently completed by the National Association of Assessing Officers, discloses that the latest totals of assessed valuations average 4.3 per cent higher than those for last year. Last year's survey of 46 jurisdictions showed an increase for the preceding period of 6.35 per cent. RESURFACING OF MILTON AVENUE, FROM HIGHLAND TO SUMMIT STREETS, APPROVED FOR IMMEDIATE OPERATION IN KEEPING WITH OTHER WORK BEING DONE IN THAT VICINITY.

Mayor Hynes has approved the request of Public Works Commissioner George Hyland to be allowed to include in the contract of Cronin & Horigan, Inc., the resurfacing (roadway and sidewalk) of Milton avenue, from Highland street to Summit street. The letter of request reads as follows:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, September 10, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of September 10, 1952, a contract was awarded to Cronin & Horigan, Inc., of 14 Woodhaven street, Mattapan, in the amount of $83,688, for reconstructing Highland street and Williams avenue, in the Fairmount Hill section of Hyde Park. Under the provisions of Article 4a of the contract document, the MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES JOINS WITH NEW HAVEN RAILROAD IN EFFORT TO ATTRACT NEW BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY TO BOSTON IN VICINITY OF NEW WHOLESALE MEAT MARKET DISTRICT ON SOUTHAMPTON STREET AND MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE—STREETS AND WAYS BEING PAVED AND MADE READY FOR TRUCKS AND OTHER VEHICLES TO MAKE USE OF AREA.

With the approval of Mayor John B. Hynes, in his effort to increase and encourage business and industry to come to and settle in the City of Boston, the Public Works Department has joined with the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in developing the wholesale meat market improvement in the vicinity of Southampton street and Massachusetts avenue. This development is serving to preserve for the city the meat industry which it was feared would be forced to remove to suburban areas.

The Public Works Department has entered into contracts for paving streets and other works that will facilitate accommodations for the business being forced to remove from the old Market area in downtown Boston to the new district. The communication to the Mayor in which the Public Works Department plans and intentions were approved reads as follows:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, September 25, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At the present time, a new wholesale market development is being constructed in the Southampton Street-Massachusetts Avenue area, under the direction and general sponsorship of the New Haven Railroad.

The initiative and leadership shown by the railroad in this development unquestionably have been instrumental in keeping this important industry in Boston. Its displacement in the old market area—due to the construction of the John F. Fitzgerald Expressway—made it necessary for the wholesale meat dealers to seek other quarters. The delay in obtaining a suitable site in Boston for the re-establishment, as a unit, of this important industry, had reached the point where there was a good possibility that it might move to a neighboring community.

The New Haven presumably recognized the problem and the importance of the wholesale market area, not only to the City of Boston, but also to the railroad, and solved the problem by transforming a vacant, undeveloped tract of land into a beehive of construction activity in a 12-month period, and furnished the wholesale market development the impetus that it needed. The net result of the New Haven's efforts insures the retention in Boston of this important industry in a modern development that probably will be second to none in this country when it is completed.

Saves Industry for Boston.

In preparing the area for the development, the railroad spent many thousands of dollars on operations that could justifiably have been paid, in whole, or in part, by the City of Boston. We estimate that the railroad spent approximately $85,000 for the installation of sewers and local surface drainage facilities; approximately $43,000 for furnishing and laying a gravel subbase for highways that will become public ways; and approximately $40,000 for the installation of water mains. In addition, the railroad provided a concrete conduit between Massachusetts avenue and a point north of Southampton street, to replace the old open Dorchester Brook that ran through its property.

MAYOR HYNES JOINS WITH NEW HAVEN RAILROAD IN EFFORT TO ATTRACT NEW BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY TO BOSTON.

Cost Estimated at $600,000.

This latter project had been deferred by the city over the years because of its cost, which was estimated at approximately $600,000. However, the New Haven tackled the job and completed it without expense to the city, despite the fact that a strong argument for city assistance could have been presented, as the open Dorchester Brook was used as a drainage facility for a large area of Dorchester, and, at times, was considered a public nuisance, because of its odors. Rather than press for financial assistance by the city, the railroad presumably felt that time was of the essence and that any delays, resulting from negotiations, would be detrimental to the proposed development.

I am calling these matters to the attention of your Honor in order that they may appear as a public record, and also to serve as a sort of prelude to the main purpose of my communication. The railroad officials have informed me that they expect tenants to occupy one of the largest buildings in the development within the next two or three weeks. This particular building, which I believe was constructed by the railroad, is approximately 700 feet long, and will be rented to 20 or 30 different wholesale meat firms. The railroad officials have requested that I take immediate steps to construct the public ways located within the market area, in order to insure their completion before the tenants occupy the premises. There is one principal street called Newmarket square, that is located within the area. In addition, there is another street called Theodore A. Glynn Way, which extends from Southampton street to Massachusetts avenue, at the westerly side of the market site.

In order to insure completion of a satisfactory street surface within the next two or three weeks, we contemplate doing a minimum amount of work this fall, and finishing the project next spring, when the remainder of the market area is developed. The minimum work will involve the construction of a two-course penetrated macadam base for part of the roadway width, and the construction of a bituminous type sidewalk.

Most of the work in the market area for the railroad has been done by C. J. Maney Company, Inc., and unquestionably this contracting firm can do the work involved in the public highways most expeditiously and with as little inconvenience as possible to the contractors and subcontractors now engaged in the construction of the remaining buildings in the market development. The Maney organization is geared up to do a fast street construction job and is far better situated in this regard than any other contractor not working at the site.

In addition, I have made arrangements with Mr. Maney of the above-referenced company to do the work at agreed prices, which, in my opinion, are reasonable and compare favorably with prices that would be obtained if we publicly advertised for proposals. The order for laying out and constructing Newmarket square was not approved until last Friday, September 18. Therefore, we were precluded from previously advertising for bids for the proposed work, and it would be most impractical to consider advertising at this time, due to the necessity of providing a reasonably satisfactory highway system within a two- or three-week period.

BEST INTERESTS OF CITY.

It is obvious that time is of the essence, and we cannot wait to receive publicly advertised bids. It is in the best interests of the City of Boston to cooperate to the fullest extent with the New Haven Railroad in this important development, and expedite the street construction work.

Under the circumstances, therefore, I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to C. J. Maney Company, Inc., in the estimated amount of $29,323, for constructing designated sections of Newmarket square on the basis of the standard specifications of this department, and in accordance with agreed prices which were obtained as the result of negotiations between the contractor and the undersigned.

I also respectfully request your authorization to expend an additional amount, if necessary, not in excess of 25 per cent of the above-quoted total of $29,323. The 25 per cent clause is standard on all publicly advertised contracts, and I feel that it should also be included in the subject contract.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Other letter follows:

SUPPLEMENTARY LETTER. PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, September 25, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This will supplement my letter of even date that I sent to your Honor in connection with the necessity of providing for the construction of public streets in the wholesale market area, adjacent to Southampton street and Massachusetts avenue.

As stated in the above-referenced communication, there are two public ways to be constructed within the area; one known as Newmarket square, and the other as Theodore A. Glynn Way. I recommended the award of a contract to C. J. Maney Company, Inc., for constructing parts of Newmarket square, and I would have included the construction of Theodore A. Glynn Way in the same contract, except that the contracting firm of Charles Callahan Company is currently engaged in a contract for subgrading Theodore A. Glynn Way, backfilling with gravel, and installing sewerage works. Therefore, I feel that any additional work on Theodore A. Glynn Way should be awarded to the latter-referenced contractor.

The reasons that I presented in my letter concerning the Maney contract hold true in connection with the necessity of constructing, within the next two or three weeks, a suitable surface on Theodore A. Glynn Way, in order to provide for satisfactory highway facilities to the tenants of the market development.

I have negotiated with representatives of the Charles Callahan Company concerning the award of a contract, at agreed prices, for providing a penetrated macadam roadway base and bituminous sidewalks in part of Theodore A. Glynn Way, in order to provide for a direct connection between Southampton street and Newmarket square. We have agreed on the prices to be paid under the various items, and these prices, in my opinion, are reasonable and compare favorably with prices that would be obtained if we publicly advertised for proposals. It is my opinion that we should not delay this improvement by publicly advertising for bids, as it is essential and in the best interests of the City of Boston to have this desired improvement completed within the next two or three weeks.

Under the circumstances, therefore, I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the Charles Callahan Company, in the estimated amount of $8,314, for constructing designated sections of Theodore A. Glynn Way on the basis of the standard specifications of this department, and in accordance with agreed prices which were obtained as the result of negotiations between the contractor and the undersigned.

I also respectfully request your authorization to expend an additional amount, if necessary, not in excess of 25 per cent of the above-quoted total of $8,314. The 25 per cent clause is standard on all publicly advertised contracts, and I feel that it should also be included in the subject contract.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

MILTON AVENUE TO BE RESURFACED.

resurfacing of Milton avenue, between Beacon street and Highland street, was added to the contract.

The roadway and sidewalk surfaces of Milton avenue, for its entire length, are now in a satisfactory condition, with the exception of the section extending from Highland street to Summit street. The latter-referenced section is in poor condition and should also be reconstructed at this time, but I cannot include it in the above-referenced contract, as the unencumbered balance is insufficient to provide for payment for the proposed additional work.

Under the circumstances, therefore, it is my unqualified opinion that it would be in the best interests of the city to award a separate contract to Cronin & Horrigan, Inc., in an amount not to exceed $9,000, to provide for the reconstruction of Milton avenue, from Highland street to Summit street, a distance of approximately 750 feet. There would be no advantage in publicly advertising for proposals for the work at this time, as the above-referenced contractor is willing to do the work on the basis of the bid prices in the present contract—which were obtained as the result of publicly advertising for proposals, in August of 1952. In general, the unit prices are lower than those bid this year, and I am certain that they are lower than those that would be submitted if publicly advertised proposals were requested at this time. Aside from this point, the contractor has his equipment and organization on the site, and the work can be completed within the next three or four weeks. If publicly advertised proposals were requested at this time, it is questionable if the resurfacing work would be completed this fall.

In view of these circumstances, therefore, it is my unqualified opinion, as stated, that the best interests of the city would be served by having this desired improvement effected by the contracting firm of Cronin & Horrigan, Inc. The latter-referenced firm is new in the highway construction field, and the Highland street contract was the first one awarded to it by this department. I am pleased to state that their work has been most satisfactory in every respect.

For reasons as outlined hereinbefore, I respectfully request that you authorize me to dispense with advertising and to award a contract, in an estimated amount of $9,000, to Cronin & Horrigan, Inc., of 14 Woodhaven street, Mattapan, for reconstructing the roadway and sidewalk areas of Milton avenue, Hyde Park, between Highland street and Summit street, on the basis of the provisions and unit prices in effect in the current contract.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

GILBERT H. HOOD, JR., APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF CHARLESTOWN REHABILITATION COMMITTEE.

and Conservation Program Committees have been set up in South Boston, South End, Roxbury, and Dorchester, making a total of eight district committees now organized. It is the hope of the Mayor that similar committees will be created before the end of the year in Brighton, West Roxbury, Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, Hyde Park, Back Bay, and Beacon Hill. This done, he plans to establish a District Advisory Committee, consisting of the 15 chairmen of the district committees, to work in close relation with his office.

Although the Boston campaign against blight and decay has been underway only since May, surprising results have been obtained in several of the districts, particularly in the Pilot Area of South Boston where many home owners have already painted and repaired their houses and a large number of others have signified their intention of following suit in the immediate future. It is the hope of the Mayor that by next spring all of the district committees will have long-range programs underway.

"The need of the Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program should be apparent to all," says the Mayor. "In every section of the city, especially in the older residential areas, blight and decay have set in and unless we act promptly to check them, the future of Boston as a successful residential, commercial and industrial center is endangered.

"The movement to check blight and decay in Boston should have been started at the beginning of the century. If it had, this city today would still be the domicile of many thousands of desirable citizens who are now residing in adjacent cities and towns and the city's tax values would not have shrunk to their present level.

"The Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program Committees should not be confused with the Urban Redevelopment Program now being contemplated for a few of the older sections of the city that are beyond repair. It is intended exclusively for those sections where houses and buildings are structurally sound and only need paint and repairs or both to rehabilitate them. Many thousands of dwelling houses and business properties are now in that plight."

Chairman Hood, of the Charlestown Committee, has long been interested in the welfare of Charlestown, and it is there that he has spent all of his business career. He is a member of Boston Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, trustee of the Boston Lying-in Hospital, vice-president of the Winchester Hospital, and trustee of Boston Young Men's Christian Association.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Upon September 28 the Mayor approved a contract as requested in the following letter:

Boston, September 22, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Dorchester High School for Boys, now combined with the Dorchester High School for Girls, and occupied by approximately 1,414 pupils, is lacking in locker facilities to the extent that this department has been authorized to dismantle the lockers in the Dorchester High School for Girls and set them up in the Dorchester High School for Boys to accommodate the pupils enrolled.

Invitation bids were solicited for this work from Courtney Hardware Company and Supply Service Company, firms normally doing locker repair work for the Department of School Buildings, and bids received are as follows:

Courtney Hardware Company, $1,224.50.
Supply Service Company, $1,240.

As noted above, bids exceed the sum of one thousand dollars and normally this department would proceed to advertise the work for competitive bids. However, there is such a demand for the use of the lockers that it seems to me that it would be in the best interests of the City of Boston to waive the requirement for public advertising and award the contract to the Courtney Hardware Company, 366 Washington street, Dorchester, in the amount of $1,224.50.

Consequently I ask you to approve this procedure and dispense with the requirement for public advertising.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with business firms, contractors and commercial houses for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from heads of the departments interested were as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Boston, September 9, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Automatic temperature control systems, principally the designs of the Johnson Service Company, the Powers Regulator Company, and the Bishop-Babeock Company, are part of the original heating installations in a large number of our public school buildings, and their continued operation is a necessity. Some installations are many years old, and some more recent; however, all are subject to functional depreciation and deterioration, and, regardless of every effort to keep the equipment in good condition, we find it necessary on occasions to make repairs and replacements of major character.

Each design is distinctive in itself and the parts and appurtenances of one design are not interchangeable with those of the other designs, nor are there any competitive companies within the field of any one particular design. Hence this department is obliged to deal only with the companies specializing in each respective design.

This year I plan to make repairs and to modernize the systems in a number of school buildings, and the cost per building will vary from $400 to more than $1,000; however, the total I contemplate spending in buildings equipped with Johnson Service is eleven thousand (11,000) dollars.

Since it is not possible to obtain competitive estimates for the work; and as the amount of work is indeterminate at the time of this writing; and as it is quite possible that in some instances a single order for repairs to a building will exceed the sum of $1,000, I ask your permission to dispense with advertising and to negotiate a contract, without advertising, with the Johnson Service Company, in an amount not to exceed eleven thousand (11,000) dollars for repairs and replacements to automatic temperature control systems in various school buildings, with the understanding that orders will be issued from time to time as necessity demands, the total of which orders will not in any instance exceed eleven thousand (11,000) dollars.

I can assure you that it is in the best interests of the City of Boston to follow the procedure suggested.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

Boston, September 14, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

Your approval is respectfully requested for the City of Boston to enter into a contract with the Animal Rescue League of Boston, for one year, from October 1, 1953, under the following agreement:

The Animal Rescue League of Boston contracts to board for the necessary period of quarantine, all dogs which may be quarantined at said Animal Rescue League by the City of Boston and to perform the work necessary for complete rabies control in the City of Boston, as designated by the City of Boston, for the sum of eight thousand dollars ($8,000).

The Animal Rescue League of Boston has been performing this work since 1941 to the entire satisfaction of the Boston Health Department and the contract for the year just ending was approved on an identical basis. Inasmuch as this organization is the only one in Boston equipped to perform this service, your authorization to dispense with advertising is also requested.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN H. CAULEY, M. D.,
Health Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, September 11, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On many occasions during the year the Water Division is confronted with a considerable number of small maintenance jobs, and it is most difficult to render the service required, due to the shortage of qualified employees.

I think that it would be beneficial, therefore, if we could arrange for the services of a contractor who could be called upon on such occasions to remedy particular defects. The work would consist principally of adjusting Lowry frames, water service pipes and uprights, side-walk shutoffs, and work of a general nature that is required to maintain a water system the size of Boston's.

It would be difficult to establish work items to pay for such work, and I feel that it should be done on a cost-plus basis, at standard rates for equipment, and at the standard rates established by the department for labor and supervision. We have a similar contract in effect in the Highway Division and it has worked satisfactorily. I feel that it would work equally well in the Water Division. The contracting firm of Mary E. Taaffe is well-qualified for contract work of this kind, as said firm has had a maintenance contract in the Water Division for many years and its work has always been satisfactory.

I therefore respectfully request authorization to dispense with advertising and to award a contract, in an estimated amount of $2,000, to Mary E. Taaffe, of 35 Presentation road, Brighton, for servicing hydrant structures and for doing related work as designated by the Commissioner of Public Works, on a cost-plus basis, at rates for labor and equipment as specified by the department.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, September 14, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This department is in receipt of requisitions from the Water Division of the Public Works Department for miscellaneous parts for Worthington-Gamon Motors.

Worthington-Gamon Meter Division, Worthington Corporation, the manufacturer of these parts, has submitted prices on informal quotation forms. Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Worthington-Gamon Meter Division, Worthington Corporation. Inasmuch as this company is the manufacturer, it is my opinion that no advantage could be gained by publicly advertising for prices. Approximate total amount of contract will be $3,000, net, thirty days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, September 17, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This department is in receipt of requisitions from the Boston City Hospital and Sanatorium Division for revolve covers and revolve asbestos pads.

Atlas Powder Company, the manufacturer of the above materials, has submitted prices on informal quotation forms. Inasmuch as this company is the manufacturer, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Atlas Powder Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,378.80, net, thirty days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, September 14, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M. President AHEARN in the chair. Absent, Councillor Ward. The Reverend Louis Rinaldi, S.D.B., Don Bosco Trade School, East Boston, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. LOUIS RINALDI, S.D.B.

O Lord, from whom proceed all good counsels and knowledge, grant to these Thy servants engaged in the difficult work of directing the affairs of so many of their fellow men wisdom to discern the right, understanding to appreciate the problems and trials of others, fortitude to work out what is right and just in spite of contrary and adverse forces, and peace of mind to perform their duty with equanimity and evenness of temperament. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

President AHEARN expressed the thanks of the Council to Father Rinaldi for offering the invocation and also for presenting to each of the members of the Council a copy of the volume entitled, "Lamb in Woolskins," an account of the life of Don Bosco, founder of his order.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF ABATEMENTS GRANTED.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 14, 1953.
To the City Council.

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Board of Assessors relative to your order of July 13, 1953, requesting them to make public within three days of the meeting at which abatements were granted a list of all abatements granted.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Assessors.
Mr. Thomas G. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of July 17, referring to a City Council order of July 13, requesting them to make public within three days of the meeting at which abatements were granted a list of all abatements granted, this Board has considered this order and is of the opinion that it would not be a proper administrative policy to adopt its provisions.

There is considerable detail such as necessary posting, computing interest on abatements, balancing the Assessors' accounts with those of the Collector relating to abatements granted in a meeting, so that it would be very improbable that the Assessors could issue a correct list in three days.

The present system was put in effect at the beginning of this administration following a conference attended by the Auditor, Collector, and Chairman of the Board of Assessors, in order to correct existing mistakes.

Yours very truly,

EDMUND J. BURKE, Chairman.

Councillor Piemonte moved that the message of his Honor the Mayor and communication from the Board of Assessors be returned to his Honor the Mayor with the request that the Board of Assessors be requested to give further answer to the City Council order of July 13, 1953.

The motion was carried.

ASSESSORS TO MAINTAIN CURRENT RECORDS IN ASSESSORS' STREET RECORD BOOKS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 14, 1953.
To the City Council.

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Board of Assessors relative to your order of August 3, 1953, requesting a specific efficiency within the Assessing Department.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Assessors.
Mr. Thomas G. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Re: City Council Order of August 3, 1953, Requesting a Specific Efficiency Within the Department.

Dear Sir:

Prior to 1952 annual Assessors' Street Record Books were prepared by hand, written in pen and ink, and for a number of years overtime service amounting to approximately $6,500 a year was allowed to expedite the writing of these books during the early months of the year. In 1952 the Board of Assessors determined that these books could be prepared annually by use of the punch card accounting machine system, and this method was adopted in that year.

Previously changes of ownership of real estate obtained from the Registry of Deeds were recorded in the Assessors' Street Record Books, but for the year 1952, because of the change-over to the machine system, a card file was used. For the year 1953 the department will again resume listing transfers of property in the Street Record Books. It should be noted that tax laws require Assessors to keep a record of the ownership of property for tax purposes as of January first only. Even though periodic recording of changes during the year takes place, it has never been the policy of the department to advance this information to the public.

The Board of Assessors are continually attempting to improve the Assessors' Street Record Books in order to provide the most up-to-date service to the public. Any constructive suggestions for improvement will be carefully considered so that the record books will be maintained as currently as possible.

Yours very truly,

EDMUND J. BURKE, Chairman.

PRODUCTION OF SMALL SAILING BOATS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 14, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Penal Institutions Commissioner relative to your order of August 31, 1953, requesting information as to whether the carpenter shop at the prison would be capable of producing small sailing boats of the type presently used in the City of Boston Sailing Recreation Program.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Penal Institutions Department,
September 9, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Replying to your communication relative to the City Council order of August 31, 1953, requesting information as to whether the carpenter shop at the House of Correction, Deer Island, could produce small sailing boats, at this time it would be a physical impossibility as we have no inmates-carpenters on the island.

The officer-carpenter is used solely for the maintenance of the institution, and the volume of work to do which takes up all his time.

Respectfully yours,

EDMUND J. BURKE, Penal Institutions Commissioner.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS AT BLUE HILL AVENUE AND TALBOT AVENUE, FRANKLIN AVENUE, AND HARVARD STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 14, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of August 31, 1953, concerning the installation of traffic signal lights and crossing lines at the intersection of Blue Hill Avenue and Talbot Avenue, Franklin Avenue, and Harvard Street.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
September 9, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

In reply to an order of the City Council dated August 31, 1953, requesting that the Traffic Commissioner have traffic signal lights installed at the intersection of Blue Hill Avenue and Talbot Avenue and Harvard Street, and Franklin Avenue and Harvard Street, I wish to report that this intersection is one which needs traffic relief.

It may be pointed out that in the report of the Maguire Associates to the Commissioner of Public Works it is recommended that a 7-foot divisional island be constructed at each of the street crossings in Blue Hill Avenue between American Legion Highway and Babson Street be relocated. This is a project which we would like to see accomplished. It would enable us to install traffic lights at the desired intersection because the traffic movements would be channelized.

Without a redesign of the intersection traffic lights would not work out satisfactorily due to the complexity of traffic movements. The number of entering and leaving streets and the number of left and right turns and the wide area involved makes it impossible to give satisfactory control of traffic movements by any system of traffic lights at the present time.

However, when the city undertakes the changes recommended in the Maguire report, or some other equally desirable alteration in the street layout, the Traffic Commission will be able to promptly install the desired signals.

Orders have been placed to paint crosswalks at the intersection of Blue Hill Avenue, Talbot Avenue, and Harvard Street.

Respectfully yours,

WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Boston Traffic Commission,
September 3, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

APPROPRIATION FROM PARKMAN FUND INCOME.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 14, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Board of Park Commissioners, requesting the appropriation of $33,000 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Park Commissioners, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

The 1933 budget estimates for the personal service requirements of the Park Department included an estimate of the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund. The budget allowances made provision for the appropriation of this income as it accrued for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Park Department on the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

I submit herewith an order appropriating the sum of $33,000, the accrued income now available from the Parkman Fund, and respectfully recommend its immediate passage by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, September 3, 1933.
Hon. John B. Hynes, Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:
By vote of the Board of Park Commissioners, you are respectfully asked to request the City Council to transfer from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund the sum of $33,000, which is now available, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Park Commissioners as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of..... $33,000

When making up the budget estimates for the year 1933, a sum equal to the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund was deducted from the current Estimates, with the understanding that this deduction was to be replaced by the total yearly income of said Parkman Fund for 1933, to be transferred as it accrued from time to time during the year to the regular maintenance appropriation of the Park Department.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK R. KELLEY, Chairman.

Ordered, That the sum of thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000), be and hereby is, appropriated from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commissioners for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of..... $33,000

Referred to the Executive Committee.

RELEASE OF EASEMENT IN LAND AT 469 MERIDIAN STREET, EAST BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 10, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

Under a consent granted by me, the State Department of Public Works in connection with the constructing in behalf of the City of Boston under General Laws (Ter. Ed.) c. 81, s. 29A, as amended by St. 1943, c. 416, certain highway improvements in connection with the new Meridian Street Bridge between East Boston and the City of Boston.

To facilitate the construction of the same, the State Department of Public Works took on October 23, 1932, in the name of the City of Boston under the above-cited statute, for the purpose of removing a certain building or structure, an easement in land at 469 Meridian street, East Boston, belonging to one Amelia E. Gangemi. The order of removal provided for the removal to continue in effect until the completion of the construction and opening to travel of the bridge and approaches thereto. The purpose for which the easement was taken has been accomplished; but it will be some time before the bridge and its approaches are completed and opened to travel. In the meantime the temporary easement, for which only nominal damages of $1 were paid, clouds Mrs. Gangemi's title and prevents her from getting a mortgage on her property. What Mrs. Gangemi needs is a deed from the city releasing the easement.

Forwarded to you herewith is a communication from the State Department of Public Works formally notifying your Honorable Body of that department's determination that the temporary easement involved is no longer required for public purposes. Transmitted herewith, also, is an order authorizing the release of the easement to Mrs. Gangemi. I recommend that the order be adopted as soon as may be conformably to the City Charter so that the necessary deed may be executed in the near future.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts,
Department of Public Works,
September 8, 1933.
To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Boston.

Gentlemen:
As authorized and directed by vote of the Department of Public Works, a certified copy of which vote is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, I hereby notify you on behalf of said department that in the opinion of said department the temporary easement described in said vote is no longer required for public purposes, and that said department recommends the release of said easement to Amelia E. Gangemi of Boston, Suffolk county, Mass., upon the payment to the City of Boston of the sum of $1.

Yours very truly,
JOHN A. VOLPE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
In Board of Department of Public Works,
September 8, 1933.

Voted, That it be, and hereby is, determined to be the opinion of this department that the temporary easement acquired in behalf of the City of Boston under G. L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 81, s. 29A (as inserted by St. 1943, c. 416), in the herein-after-described bill by the recording of the same on October 23, 1932, with Suffolk Deeds, Book 6819, page 582, of an instrument of taking dated October 21, 1932, is no longer required for public purposes, to wit, the easement consisting of the right to enter upon, and to remove or demolish buildings or structures on, the land located on the easterly side of Meridian street in the East Boston district of Boston, and bounded as follows:

Westerly by Meridian street, about 42 feet; northerly by land now or formerly of Frank and Rosario DeLenzo, about 75 feet; easterly by land now or formerly of Timothy J. and Julia M. Mahoney, about 42 feet; and southerly by Common street, about 75 feet; and shown as Parcel RT-1 on plan entitled "The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Plan of Road in the City of Boston, Suffolk County, Showing Location of Temporary Easements for the Removal of Structures Taken in Behalf of the City of Boston by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, Scale—20 Feet to the Inch, October 21, 1932, P. H. Kitfield, Chief Engineer," and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 6819, page 582, and be it so ordered.

Voted, That the Commissioner of Public Works be, and hereby is, authorized and directed to notify the City Council of the City of Boston on behalf of this department that in the opinion of this department said easement in said land is no longer required for public purposes and that this department recommends that upon payment to the City of Boston of the sum of $1 said easement in said land be released, quitclaimed, and abandoned unto Amelia E. Gangemi of Boston, Suffolk County, Mass.

CITY OF BOSTON.
City Council.

Whereas, The Department of Public Works of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which by virtue of G. L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 81, s. 29A (as inserted by St. 1943, c. 416), is in charge of the City of Boston of the temporary easement, herein-after described, which was acquired in behalf of the City of Boston by said statute by the recording of the same on October 23, 1932, with Suffolk Deeds, Book 6819, page 582, of an instrument of taking dated October 21, 1932, has notified the City Council that in the opinion of said department said temporary easement is no longer required for public purposes; now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the Honorable the Mayor be, and hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to release, quitclaim, and abandon unto Amelia E. Gangemi of Boston, Suffolk County, Mass., by a deed in form satisfactory to the Corporation Counsel, at a minimum price of one dollar ($1), the right to enter upon, and to remove or demolish buildings or structures on, the land located on the easterly side of Meridian street in the East Boston district of Boston, and bounded as follows:

RELEASE OF EASEMENT IN LAND AT 624-634 MAIN STREET, CHARLESTOWN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 10, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

Under a consent granted December 30, 1949, by the then Mayor of Boston, the State Department of Public Works is in the process of making in behalf of the City of Boston under General Laws (Ter. Ed.) c. 81, s. 29A, as inserted by St. 1943, c. 416, certain highway improvements at Sullivan square, Charlestown. In connection therewith the State Department of Public Works took on April 4, 1950, in the name of the City of Boston under the statute just cited, for the purpose of removing a certain building or structure, a temporary easement in land at 624-634 Main street, Charlestown, belonging to one Catherine I. Freeman. The order of taking provided for the easement to continue in effect until the completion of the construction and opening to travel of the highway. The purpose for which the easement was taken has been accomplished; but it will be some time before the highway is fully completed and opened to travel. In the meantime, the temporary easement, for which only nominal damages of $1 were paid, clouds Mrs. Freeman's title and prevents her from getting a mortgage on her property. What Mrs. Freeman needs is a deed from the city releasing the easement.

Forwarded to you herewith is a communication from the State Department of Public Works formally notifying your Honorable Body of that department's determination that the temporary easement involved is no longer required for public purposes. Transmitted herewith, also, is an order authorizing the release of the easement to Mrs. Freeman. I recommend that the order be adopted as soon as may be conformably to the City Charter so that the necessary deed may be executed in the near future.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

JOHN A. VOLPE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
In Board of Department of Public Works,
September 8, 1933.

Voted, That it be, and hereby is, determined to be the opinion of this department that the temporary easement acquired in behalf of the City of Boston under G. L. (Ter. Dear Mr. Mayor:
This is to report the action taken upon the following order passed by the City Council on September 22, 1952:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested to prepare an ordinance regulating the operation of sound trucks so as to prohibit the use of said trucks in residential areas after 7 a.m.; and further Ordered, That a copy of the proposed ordinance shall be forwarded to the City Council.

The records of this office show that pursuant to the request contained in the above-quoted order a draft was prepared on September 29, 1952, dispatched direct to the City Council. A copy of the draft prepared at that time is enclosed herewith for your information.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 10, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hyres,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This is to report the action taken upon the following resolution adopted by the City Council on September 29, 1952:

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consult with the Corporation Counsel for the purpose of reviewing the procedure under which licenses for "Skilo," so called, are presently issued and for the purpose of determining the advisability of revising said procedure so as to require applicants to give in their application more complete information about themselves, their activities and their associates and to further require public notice and a public hearing in all cases before a license for "Skilo" is granted; and be it further

Resolved, That if these and other changes are found desirable that his Honor the Mayor instruct the Corporation Counsel to take the necessary steps to correct the situation and to prepare the necessary rules and regulations, or ordinances or proposed new state law, whichever is required.

Your Honor transmitted to me a copy of the above-quoted resolution on October 2, 1952. Upon receipt of the governing statute, chapter 24A of the Acts of 1908, as amended, I concluded that the situation could be remedied by an administrative revision of our procedures as henceforth. At a conference with your Honor shortly thereafter, I orally so advised your Honor with the result that on October 20, 1952, you instructed the Chief of the Licensing Division in your office as follows:

"This is to notify you that hereafter no license, other than a renewal of license, shall be issued under Chapter 494 of the Acts of 1908, as amended, for a public amusement (other than a theatrical exhibition or public show) unless a public hearing shall have been held with respect thereto by you after notice given by an appropriate advertisement published, at the expense of the applicant, twice a week for two successive weeks in two daily newspapers published in Boston, the last publication to be at least seven days prior to the time fixed for the hearing."

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 10, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hyres,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This is to report the action taken upon the following orders adopted by the City Council on October 6, 1952:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to prepare a list of all of the outstanding private funds in which the City of Boston or any of its agencies are beneficiaries; and be it further

Ordered, That said list set forth the clause designating the amount of the bequest, and the purpose for which said funds may be used; and be it further Ordered, That said list be forwarded to the City Council.

The need for a list of trust funds such as that requested by the above-quoted orders has long been recognized. The report of the City Auditor for the financial year 1953 discloses that there are 385, inclusive, one form of such a list. Much time-consuming and tedious work must be done, however, to correct certain inadequacies in the Auditor's list as well as to bring it up to date. One of the chief weaknesses of that list is its failure to differentiate between the City of Boston and related corporations such as the Trustees of the Public Library of the City of Boston, the Boston City Hospital, and the School Committee of the City of Boston. Furthermore, in a few, if any, references to probate docket numbers and other source material which should appear in such a list if it is to be generally useful.

In 1950 this office completed the compilation of a list of trust funds held for public purposes. That compilation took nearly two years of work. Since your Honor transmitted to me on October 9, 1952, the above-quoted orders of the City Council, work has been under way to enable the compilation of similar lists of the trust funds held for other purposes; but because of the great detail involved, it is only reasonable to anticipate that much time will undoubtedly yet elapse before the compilation is finished.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 10, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hyres,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This is to report the action taken upon the following resolution adopted by the City Council on December 15, 1952:

Resolved, That the members of the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, go on record as favoring a meeting of the Mayor, the Corporation Counsel, and the members of the Boston City Council for the purpose of discussing legislation for the preservation of the legal status which will straighten out inconsistencies in the law pertaining to the status and powers of the so-called County Commissioners.

It is my understanding that the above-quoted order was occasioned by a question as to the meaning of the words "the mayor and city council of Boston," as used in the General Laws (Ter. Ed.), c. 34, s. 4, as amended, to the effect that in Suffolk county the mayor and city council of Boston, the municipalities of Winthrop and the city council of Revere, in their respective cities, and the selectmen of Winthrop in said town, shall, except as otherwise provided, have the power and perform the duties of county commissioners." The uniform practice has been to construe the words in question as meaning the City Council acting with the approval of the Mayor. See McCourt v. Mayor and City Council of Boston, 254 Mass. 100. However, an unwary person might well interpret the order to require the Mayor and City Council to meet in joint session. To eliminate the ambiguity, I have recommended to the Special Unpaid Commission established by Res. 1950, c. 28, and continued by Res. 1953, c. 95, for the purpose of consolidating and arranging all special laws relating to the City of Boston, that the Commission will include in the completed consolidation and arrangement, an explicit provision to the effect that the words "mayor and city council," as used in section 4 of chapter 31 of the General Laws, shall be deemed to mean the City Council acting subject to Res. 1948, c. 452, s. 17D, as amended by Res. 1951, c. 376, s. 1.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 10, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hyres,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This communication relates to the following resolution adopted by the City Council on December 29, 1952:

"Whereas, it appears that the Boston Arena, the home for indoor winter sports, is to be sold to private industry, thus depriving some fifty Greater Boston athletic teams of a site for schoolboy hockey games and other such indoor winter sports; and

Whereas, it is recognized that athletics are an important function of our educational program and in the physical development of our youth, and a formidable deterrent to juvenile delinquency; and

Whereas, it appears to be penny-wise and pound-foolish to adopt or follow any civic policy which does not provide for adequate recreational facilities; and

Whereas, The need is not Boston's alone, but that of the youth of the entire Greater Boston area; and

Whereas, The present Metropolitan District Commission assessment of maintenance costs places a disproportionate share on the taxpayers of Boston; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor request the Corporation Counsel to prepare and draft suitable legislation establishing a board to erect and maintain a suitable arena to house indoor sports; the supervision, cost and maintenance of the same to be borne by the communities to be served; with adequate provisions enabling charges to be made for the use and administration of the facilities and acceptance of gifts of money from private persons, corporations, or other sources; and that any other provisions as may be necessary or desirable be included with the General Laws of Greater Boston with facilities to engage in healthful indoor winter sports competitions, and that the City of Boston be authorized to sell the Boston Arena to private industry, became, as time went on, less and less imminent and was finally negated by the creation of the Boston Arena Authority through the enactment of chapter 669 of the Acts of 1953, and the acquisition by that Authority of the Boston Arena for an indoor skating and hockey.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 10, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hyres,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This is to report the action taken upon the following order passed by the City Council on February 9, 1953:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested to prepare the legal power and authority of the Government of the City of Boston with respect to the control of rentals on residential property of a geographical confinement in the City of Boston; and that said report be prepared and submitted on or before the first of March, 1953.

It is to be noted that the order posed a very serious legal question, the determination of which appeared to depend on many factors. On February 13, 1933, while I was studying the matter, the Attorney General of the Commonwealth advised His Excellency the Governor that his opinion cities and towns could not of their own authority establish rent control regulations, but that the General Court could, by appropriate legislation, delegate to cities and towns the authority to establish rent control. Subsequently, such enabling legislation was passed in chapter 434 of the Acts of 1933. The question posed by the above-quoted order accordingly became moot.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,
Law Department, September 10, 1933.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
This is to report the action taken upon the following orders passed by the City Council on March 2, 1933:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested to draft and submit to the Boston City Council by April 1, 1933, an ordinance establishing control of rentals of residential housing provided that the General Court has not acted in this field by said April 1, 1933; and be it further Ordered, That if the General Court should, on or before April 30, 1933, enact legislation concerning the control of rentals of residential property which requires action by the Boston City Council, for acceptance or rejection, the Corporation Counsel immediately advise the City Council of such action required to effectively establish such controls in Boston.

An ordinance controlling the rent of certain housing accommodations in the City of Boston was drafted pursuant to the request contained in the first of the above-quoted orders, but never transmitted to the City Council because the Federal Housing and Rent Act of 1953 (Public Law of the 83rd Congress, approved April 30, 1933), continuing Federal rent control to July 31, 1933, and chapter 434 of the Massachusetts Acts of 1933 (approved June 2, 1933), providing for the local rent control now in effect, rendered an ordinance inappropriate.

No specific action was taken upon the second of the above-quoted orders because the message your Honor sent to the City Council on June 8, 1933, recommending the adoption of an order accepting said chapter 434, fully covered the matter.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,
Law Department, September 10, 1933.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
On March 16, 1933, your Honor transmitted to me the following resolution adopted by the City Council on March 9, 1933:

"Whereas, There is a necessity for additional sources of revenue for the City of Boston other than real estate taxes; and
Whereas, Chapter 40, section 22A of the General Laws, is a section open to both a narrow and a broad interpretation, be it therefore

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consult with the Corporation Counsel and the City Auditor with the end in view of applying funds from parking meter fees to as many municipal activities having a connection with the regulation of parking and other traffic activities incident thereto.

This is to state for the record that I felt it unnecessary to take any action upon the above-quoted resolution for the reason that, in preparing the communication I sent to the City Council on February 20, 1933, relative to the application of parking meter revenue (see Proceedings of City Council on March 12, 1933, page 43), I had concluded with the City Auditor and had concluded, like him, that the fullest possible use was currently being made of parking meter revenue.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,
Law Department, September 10, 1933.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
This is to report the action taken upon the following order adopted by the City Council on May 4, 1933:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Street Commissioners and the Corporation Counsel to confer relative to providing a time limit on all future gasoline licenses or permits issued by the City of Boston.

After conferring with me relative to the matter as requested by the City Council, your Honor, on May 18, 1933, sent the Board of Street Commissioners a communication with a copy thereof, and covering letter, to the City Council, which was the same as the one spread over the minutes of its meeting on that day. The Board of Street Commissioners has since conferred with me at length relative to the inclusion in the licenses involved of appropriate conditions and, I believe, has submitted to me for approval as to form of condition every such license issued since.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

Mrs. Lyons: I would like all the conversation concerning that appointment in the public record.

Dr. Foley: Everything in the conference pertaining to that we would like spread upon the public minutes; that is, what the Chairman said.

The following is the extract from the Conference notes referred to:

Mr. Segal: My name is Robert M. Segal, 11 Beacon Street, Boston. I represent Local 398, Administrative Guild of the Boston School Department, A. F. of L., and in this particular case I represent Miss Dorothy Brooks.

I have already addressed a communication to this Committee for the purpose of being heard on the case tonight.

I might point out that I am counsel for the Massachusetts Federation of Labor. Mr. Kenneth Kelley, Legislative Agent and Secretary-Treasurer, was not able to stay, and he asked me to pass on the information, part of which I will put in what I have to say.

The problem we have here is a simple problem. I am a little surprised that we have to go through this particular proceeding on it.

This is the problem involving the request of an appointment to the Robert Gould Shaw School as a secretary on the part of Miss Brooks, who has 30 years of seniority in the system. She has been with the school system for thirty years; and based on the pure problem of seniority, which, from my understanding, has been something that this School Committee and its predecessors have gone along with, that would entitle Miss Brooks to this particular position.

In fact, on April 16th, Miss Brooks was called by Miss Reynolds and notified that she was to report to the Robert Gould Shaw School the very next day for an appointment with the principal. Subsequently that day she was notified that the appointment was either cancelled or called off, and someone else was being appointed.

The problem of personalities I am all in favor of omitting. That is not the problem before us. The problem before us is the very simple problem of the principle of seniority which has been adhered to by the present Committee, its predecessors, and has been adhered to by private industry and has been adhered to by you people with regard to custodians and other groups in the school system, and it is something that is very important to the labor movement in general. It would be presumptuous on my part at this moment to tell you the importance of seniority.

However, I simply want to bring to your attention that seniority is something that is recognized not only in industry and in the labor movement but even by your Committee in other phases of the school system, and specifically I would like to refer to some of your previous comments relative to a problem similar to this.

On Jan. 12, 1953, while this Committee was sitting, a problem arose similar to this one, relative to the appointment to a secretarial vacancy in the schools. Mr. Muehnick at that time said: "Madam Chairman, I do not understand why Miss Reynolds brings these assignments to us. On several occasions it has been told to her that the assignment of secretaries in the schools or elsewhere is the province of herself and the Superintendent; and once an appointment of a secretary has been made, it is just up to them to put them where they think they will do the most good."

At that same meeting Mr. Muehnick said again, "Madam Chairman, I don't think it faces us immediately. It seems to me that the problem is one for Miss Reynolds and the Superintendent. They have a vacancy in the school effective today either on a temporary or permanent basis, and it is their province."

The Superintendent agreed with that and said that that was so.

A similar thing was done in February, 1952, and in that case, Mr. Chairman, I believe you were involved. I think I am quoting you correctly when I repeat the remarks in February, 1952, relative to an application for transfer as secretary of the Mary E. Curley School when you said:

"Mr. Chairman, to clarify this situation, I would suggest to this Committee we move on seniority rather than picking at random. In that way I think we will satisfy everybody in the system. I think it is a good move to have this matter taken out of the hands of the School Committee. I do not think there will be any ill will towards the Committee. It is one of those problems which confronts the school board. I would suggest and move you, sir, that we move on a seniority basis."

Mr. Muehnick, who was then presiding, said in reply to what you just said, Doctor Foley, "Well, it seems to me, Dr. Foley, that your suggestion is sound, and I happened to look at the list, and the person who holds the seniority from the date of first entrance into the service also seems to be that person who was picked in this particular case by the head master."

In reply to that, Dr. Foley, you said, "I think the proper thing to do is put it on a seniority basis," and it was done on a seniority basis at that time.

I could go back to previous school committees. In 1951, in December, the problem arose relative to the appointment and transfer of a secretary, and at that time Mr. White said, "Who has seniority among those requesting transfers?"

The secretary read the name of the person having seniority.

Mr. Ward said, "What else can we do but take the senior girls?"

And Mr. White said, "That is according to seniority regulations, isn't it?"

And the Committee agrees with him.

Miss Fitzgerald: Mr. Chairman, it was my feeling at that time, when I heard of this particular situation, that Miss Reynolds had acted properly in assigning Miss Brooks to that school by virtue of the fact that she had had such a long term of service with the School Department, and I have talked to Miss Brooks.

I think she is a competent and able person. I should like very much to move that the Committee confirm Miss Reynolds' original choice and resolve this matter as quickly as possible because I think it has gone on now for about two months. There has been uncertainty in the situation during that time, and I think currently there is one school secretary covering two junior high schools.

Is that correct, Miss Reynolds? Is there one girl?

Secretary: Right up to today there has been, but tomorrow morning I am having a full-time girl go there for the rest of the year.

Miss Fitzgerald: I think it would be the proper move at this time to confirm Miss Reynolds' choice and have Miss Brooks assigned to that school, and I think the whole situation could very easily be resolved. I know that I have always felt that the principle of seniority should be observed, especially in a case where the individual concerned is so able as is Miss Brooks.

Dr. Foley: Any other questions?

Mr. Carr: I would like to second that motion, Mr. Chairman.

Dr. Foley: Any further discussion? Mr. Segal, I think you have explained it quite well.

Mr. Segal: Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

I can leave with you in passing two letters of recommendation.

Dr. Foley: I think we have gone over the matter quite thoroughly here. Thank you for your kindness. We appreciate your coming in.

Mr. Segal: Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

Dr. Foley: The question now comes on the matter involved.

Miss Fitzgerald: And that is to assign Miss Dorothy Brooks to the Robert Gould Shaw School?

Secretary: The transfer of Dorothy Brooks to the Robert Gould Shaw School.

[Rollcall: Carr, Fitzgerald and Foley, Yes; Muehnick, absent; Mrs. Lyons, No.]

Mrs. Lyons: I would like to make a statement here, too. Inasmuch as the lady who asked for a transfer before anyone else asked for a transfer to that school is a woman whose husband worked for us, whose husband dropped dead last summer, and who lives around the corner from the school and has a 12-year-old child, I think seniority is fine, but that there are other things that should temper seniority.

I certainly could not go along with this. I think that Mrs. Daley, who had asked for that transfer before anyone else did, should be the person who should be at that school. I very much regret all this talk about what we are going to do for children and how we are going to help children; and when we have the opportunity to have a mother at home with her child right after school for some little pressure groups, somebody bends to it all the time, and never mind the poor child who is involved.

I very much regret seeing this go through and I say No definitely.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Chairman, I have a question relative to the motion that was just acted upon. Miss Reynolds, was Miss Brooks informed that she was to receive this position?

Secretary: I had told her because she was senior on the list.

Mr. Carr: Did you advertise the vacancy throughout the system?

Secretary: I sent to all the schools.

Mr. Carr: And Miss Brooks did not answer that?

Secretary: She did not, Mrs. Daley didn't, either.

Mr. Carr: How did you happen to inform Miss Brooks that she was to be assigned there?

Secretary: Both Mrs. Daley and she had prior applications before we advertised it, and they did not answer it thinking that that would be satisfactory. Miss Brooks is under seniority.

Mr. Carr: And then you informed Miss Brooks that because of seniority she would receive that job?

Secretary: Yes.

Mr. Carr: And then later on you informed her that she would not receive it?

Secretary: I told her that my story to her had to be rescinded.

Mr. Carr: Why?

Secretary: Because there was some difficulty about it.

Mr. Carr: Well, it was disregarding seniority, wasn't it?

Secretary: I would say possibly, yes.

Mr. Carr: So that she was really entitled to that job from the very beginning?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Chairman?

Mr. Carr: Mr. Chairman, I have not finished speaking yet. Will you please allow me to continue?

Dr. Foley: Yes, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: Regardless of any consideration, on seniority Miss Brooks was entitled to that position?

Secretary: On seniority, yes. Mr. Carr: On seniority, and she thought that her application would serve when you advertised for this opening?

Secretary: Yes.

Mr. Carr: She thought that the application that she previously submitted would entitle her to the job?

Secretary: Yes.

Mr. Carr: Well, I am happy now that she has received the job.

Dr. Foley—Mrs. Lyons?

Mrs. Lyons—Mr. Chairman, on that it was I who asked Miss Reynolds not to do anything about assigning anybody permanently until Mrs. Daley had an opportunity to see the members of the committee and explain the situation to them, and I still say that all things considered it is a farce for these people to sit up here and say, "Oh, we want to do this for the children of Boston, and we want to do that," but when they have the opportunity they just bend to every pressure that there is, and I certainly do not approve of it at all.

AUDIT OF BOOKS AND ACCOUNTS OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The following was offered:

ORDERED: That the bid of three thousand dollars ($3000) of O'Brien, Fitzgerald and Cullen to audit the books and accounts of the School Committee of the City of Boston for the year ending Dec. 31, 1953, in accordance with the specifications, is hereby accepted.

CASE OF TEACHER IN PATRICK F. LYNDON DISTRICT

The following was offered:

ORDERED: That the Chairman of this Committee be, and she hereby is, authorized and directed to send in the name and behalf of this Committee to Barbara M. Murphy, Vice Principal, Patrick F. Lyndon District, a letter, reading as follows:

"In reply to your letter of March 19, 1953, requesting that the School Committee send you by letter the charges which caused your transfer from the Richard Olney School in May 1952, please be advised that, inasmuch as the May 5, 1952 vote of the School Committee merely transferred you from one school to another school within the Patrick F. Lyndon District and so involved no lowering in your rank or compensation, there was no occasion for preferring charges against you and none were preferred. Rather the transfer was made by the School Committee as an exercise of its administrative power to make such assignments as it deems to be best for the Boston School System."

On roll call the order passed by the following vote.

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Muchnick—1.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Chairman, I suggested in the executive session that that be the majority of the Boston School Committee which saw fit to transfer. I asked that that be included.

Dr. Foley: Any objection to rephrasing it? No objection. Will you rephrase that thought?

Mrs. Lyons: I would suggest, Mr. Chairman, that a copy of that vote be sent either to this lady or to her attorney.

Dr. Foley: Would you have any objection to having the vote sent?

Mr. Carr: No.

AMENDMENT OF RULES AND REGULATIONS

The order laid over at the meetings of Mar. 18 and Apr. 13, 1953, amending Section 80 of the Rules relative to requirements for Certificates IV, High School, VIII, Elementary School, Class B, and XXXIII, Junior High School, was taken up and placed on file.

Paragraph VIII. Elementary School, Class B. Strike out the paragraph and substitute in place thereof the following:

VIII Elementary School, Class B. To assistants of day elementary schools in Grades I to VI, inclusive.

The requirements for this certificate are:

A—A degree from a college or university approved by the board of superintendents;

B—Two years' successful experience in teaching and governing regular graded day schools, one year of which must have been in Grades I to VI.

or

A—A degree from The Teachers College of the City of Boston or from the Teachers Colleges in Massachusetts operated by the Commonwealth or from a college or university which grants the degree only upon the completion of a minimum of eight weeks' practice teaching under supervision;

B—One year's successful teaching in Grades I to VI.

Paragraph XXXIII. Junior High School. Strike out the last paragraph and substitute in place thereof the following:

A degree from The Teachers College of the City of Boston or from the Teachers Colleges of Massachusetts operated by the Commonwealth, or from a college or university which grants the degree only upon the completion of a minimum of eight weeks' practice teaching under supervision, the Master's Degree in Education from a college or university approved by the board of superintendents with educational courses approved by that board, or the equivalent of such Master's Degree approved by the board of superintendents, may be accepted as equivalent to one of the two required years of experience in teaching and governing regular graded day schools.

The following was offered:

ORDERED, That the regulations are hereby amended as follows:

Section 266, paragraph 3. Strike out the paragraph and substitute in place thereof the following:

3. No person who does not hold a certificate of qualification of the proper grade shall give any instruction in the schools, except senior students who are legal residents of the City of Boston and who are candidates for a degree from a Teachers College in Massachusetts operated by the Commonwealth or from a college or university which grants a degree in Education only upon the completion of a minimum of eight weeks' practice teaching under supervision who may be assigned to observe and practice in the schools, and lecturers whose appointment shall have been approved by the School Committee. YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Muchnick—1.

Mr. Bond: Notice what this means, Mr. Chairman and Mrs. Lyons—that starting in 1954, in September, only residents of the city of Boston, no matter where they are attending college, who are studying for degrees in education which require practice teaching, may get their practice teaching in the Boston schools.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that is an excellent suggestion, Mr. Bond.

Miss Fitzgerald: Mr. Bond, that is to safeguard making our schools into a laboratory?

Mr. Bond: Yes.

Present: Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick.

CASE OF GEORGE R. FAXON

The following communication was received:

May 29, 1953.

The School Committee of the City of Boston Administration Building 15 Beacon Street Boston, Mass.
Gentlemen:

I have your letter to me dated May 14, 1953, containing the charges and orders passed by you at your meeting of May 13, 1953, and, under the provisions of Chapter 71, Section 42, as amended, of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, I hereby request a public hearing before you upon said charges.

It is against my personal inclinations to engage in public controversy. However, the charges against me with all their sinister, false and unproven implications, have been aired publicly. Elementary fairness, therefore, requires a hearing in full public view. Even more important, the issues which have been raised in my case are so vital to the preservation of our free American public school system and to the preservation of democracy itself, that they deserve the fullest and most open discussion before the people of Boston.

I readily admit the propriety of the School Committee's investigating my competence and conduct in the class room, but nowhere in the charges do I find any question raised about either. This is the real issue.

In reply to the first charge against me; my refusal to answer questions of the Jenner Committee about my politics was based upon the advice of counsel. I used the Fifth Amendment in the full recognition that the United States Supreme Court has described it as "a protection to the innocent,—and a safeguard against heedless, unfounded, or tyrannical prosecutions."

Honest and sincere people differ as to the proper mode of conduct when appearing before these committees. Some propose outright defiance of the committees with risk of citation for contempt. Some propose reliance upon the First Amendment protections for freedom of speech, religion and assembly. Because the courts appear to be holding that the only sound legal method is resort, where appropriate, to the protection of the Fifth Amendment, many witnesses before these committees use this method.

It is not within the province of the School Committee to pass upon the propriety of any lawful course of conduct before these committees nor to punish a teacher for adopting a course of conduct with which it disagrees.

I believe as do many others who find it impossible to cooperate with these committees that such political bodies usurp police and judicial powers and thus operate in an illegal fashion. They deny "due process of law" to those they summon because they present no charges of crime, no evidence other than hearsay, no witnesses for cross-examination and no opportunity to argue in one's own behalf.

A large and significant body of public opinion has become increasingly alarmed at the methods and objectives of the McCarthy, Jenner and Velde investigations into political beliefs and associations. These cynical and demagogic politicians are attempting to terrorize the people and are deliberately fostering a campaign of distrust and fear for their own political purposes. Such politicians are willing to sacrifice the very cornerstone of our Republic for their own political gain. The result is that teachers no less than other citizens are growing afraid to participate in any political activities, or even to discuss controversial issues.

This threat to America has been publicly recognized by many prominent citizens of varying political and religious persuasions:

Senator Lehman, keynoting the Democratic Party's future, on April 29, said that the Bill of Rights was being abridged by "indirection, innuendo, smear and attack" and that this was the achievement of Senator McCarthy, Senator Jenner and others of "their ilk."

The New York Times in its lead editorial of March 22, 1953, said "There have been many signs recently that the country is waking up to the menace of attacks by irresponsible Congressional committees, on the basic rights of American citizens" and "We cannot indefinitely have these arrogant upstarts prying into matters which are no affairs of theirs, including the private opinions of our citizens."

A resolution adopted by the 168th annual convention of the Diocese of Massachusetts Protestant Episcopal Church states that "We believe that the conduct of some Congressional investigations has intimidated independent thought, discouraged disagreement on public policies and destroyed reputations."

A public advertisement signed by fourteen leading members of the Greater Boston community says, "Every American who treasures our heritage of freedom should resist the destruction of our liberties by these committees."

Former Ambassador George Kennan, in a speech at the University of Notre Dame; Mrs. Meyer, in addressing the National Convention of the National Education Association; Mr. Dietrick, President of the American Association of School Administrators, speaking before the National Convention of Parent Teachers' Association and Mr. Justice Douglas of the United States Supreme Court are other examples of nationally important persons who have voiced warnings about this threat.

The charges concerning my political beliefs and associations are improper, irrelevant and completely outside the jurisdiction of the School Committee. It is the law of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts that no public school committee or official may inquire into the "religious belief, creed or practice, or (the) political opinions or affiliations" of teachers.

It is interesting to note that this law (G. L., Chapter 71, Section 39) took years to pass and it was not until 1917 when sponsored by Martin A. Lomasney and fought for by other Democratic leaders of that period that it was finally enacted. Obviously this law was necessary to protect a religious and political group against discrimination it had suffered for years. I am proud of this law.

The charge of perjury seemed so fantastic that I carefully re-read and reconsidered every individual question and answer in my testimony. I found that one of my answers was, indeed, incorrect. I testified that all of my teaching in Boston was in mathematics. I now recall that out of the 80 or 90 classes I taught while in Boston, I did teach about 15 years ago, one class in American History, and in 1952, for one period a week, a class in Health. If this be perjury, then it is easily understandable why one should decline to answer all questions, since a slip of memory lays one open to prosecution in the courts.

The School Committee makes no charges, because none can be made, that I misused my teaching position or the trust placed in me by the City, the pupils and their parents. I say, with what I hope is not unjustifiable pride—would that every public servant in Boston had likewise kept his trust to the people. I think that every pupil I have had in my 18 years in Boston will attest to the fact that I have always taught only the subjects assigned to me, without distortion of any kind.

As one who has been a teacher for 21 years in all, my only consideration has been the high standards of the profession to which I have devoted my entire adult life. I feel that I have the respect of my pupils and too them, I am sure the charges are absurd.

Therefore, in the light of all the above points, I reiterate my request for a public hearing. I trust this may lead the School Committee to reconsider its action and reinstate me.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) George R. Faxon

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Chairman: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: I move that we request Mr. Allen, as counsel for Mr. Faxon.

Chairman: The first matter of business is the vote taken in School Committee, April 13, 1953, on the order...

"ORDERED. 1. That at a meeting of this Committee to be held on Monday, June 15, 1953, a vote be taken by this Committee on the question whether George R. Faxon be dismissed as a Master, Boston Latin School, for conduct unbecoming a teacher, for conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of Massachusetts, for being a person undesirable as a public school teacher, and for engaging in Communist activities while a public school teacher, or for any of said causes.

"2. That effective forthwith George R. Faxon be, and hereby is, suspended, without pay, as a Master, Boston Latin School, pending final action by this Committee upon the dismissal proceedings instituted this day; but in no event shall said suspension continue after June 30, 1953, unless further ordered by this Committee.

"3. That the Secretary of this Committee be, and hereby is authorized and directed to give notice of this tripartite order forthwith to said George R. Faxon.

Chairman (continuing): Regarding that, Miss Reynolds, what is your report?

Secretary: Under date of April 15th, I, as the Secretary of the School Committee, sent the following letter by registered mail to Mr. Faxon:

"Mr. George R. Faxon, 480 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain 30, Massachusetts.

"Dear Mr. Faxon:

"This is to notify you that at a meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston, held on Monday, April 13, 1953, the following order was passed unanimously:

"ORDERED, 1. That at a meeting of this Committee to be held on Monday, June 15, 1953, a vote be taken by this Committee on the question whether George R. Faxon be dismissed as a Master, Boston Latin School, for conduct unbecoming a teacher, for conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of Massachusetts, for being a person undesirable as a public school teacher, and for engaging in Communist activities while a public school teacher, or for any of said causes.

"3. That the Secretary of this Committee be, and hereby is authorized and directed to give notice of this tripartite order forthwith to said George R. Faxon."

Secretary (continuing): Signed by me as the Secretary. Then, in reply to that—that was dated April 15th—I received from the Post Office a return receipt card dated April 16, 1953, and signed "George R. Faxon."

Mr. Muchnick: Prior to any further action on the orders read by you, or the letter read by Miss Reynolds, I move that we request Mr. Allen, as counsel for Mr. Faxon, and Mr. Faxon, to state in open meeting that they consent to the waiving of the notice of meeting on the vote that was taken by the members of the School Committee a few moments ago.

Chairman: That would have reference to a letter—

Mr. Carr: Read the letter Mr. Allen.

Mr. Allen: Well, I so waive it upon behalf of Mr. Faxon.

Mr. Muchnick: And does Mr. Faxon also waive?

Mr. Allen: I take it I am authorized to. I purport to speak for him. You do, don't you?

Mr. Faxon: Sure.

Mr. Carr: I move that we now adjourn.

Chairman: Just a minute, Mr. Carr. Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, there was read before, during the hearing, a letter from Mr. Allen addressed to the School Committee, dated June 15th, which letter was addressed to the School Committee, as I recall it, as a result of a bench conference last Friday, at which time Mr. Allen requested that the vote should not be taken tonight, but should be deferred to some date in the future, because of the fact that the case hadn't, or the hearing hadn't been finished; and he wanted ample time to present Mr. Faxon's side of the case in ample time to argue, and also ample time in which to file a memorandum or brief, if he so saw fit, after the case was closed. Mr. Murphy has also asked for time within which to file a brief; and I, therefore, move that Mr. Murphy and Mr. Allen, each be granted until five o'clock of this coming Thursday, June 18th, within which to file memoranda or briefs, with sufficient copies for each member — a total of seven copies.

Mr. Allen: Seven copies.

Mr. Muchnick: Seven copies, those briefs to be filed with the Secretary of the School Committee on or before five o'clock, Thursday, June 18th.

Chairman: On Mr. Muchnick's motion —

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Chairman: (continuing) would you call the roll?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Chairman: Mr. Carr, there is a roll being called.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, before I vote on this, I would like to have some information from Mr. Murphy.

Do you intend to file a brief, Mr. Murphy?

Mr. Murphy: If my brother, Mr. Allen, is filing a brief, in order to do justice for the School Committee, I will, also.

Mr. Carr: Do you intend to file a brief?

Mr. Allen: Yes.

On roll call, Mr. Muchnick's motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS — Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick — 5

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: I move now that the Secretary be instructed to read to the Committee the letter from Mr. Allen dated June 15th, which was read by him into the record at the hearing, to which reference was made by me a moment ago.

Secretary: Letter dated June 15, 1953:

Boston 8, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

"Confirming my observations made for the record on Friday, June 12, as counsel for George R. Mr. Allen: I am.

Mr. Muchnick: I move that we recess the meeting now being held until Monday, June 22, 1953, at 10:30 A. M., at this same place, where the subject matter of the vote taken on April 13th "That at a meeting of this Committee to be held on Monday, June 15, 1953, a vote be taken by this Committee on the question whether George R. Chairman: Any objections?

Mr. Carr: I don't understand the motion, Madam Chairman, it is so long. Would you repeat it, the substance of it?

Chairman: Probably Mr. Gibbons could read it.

I think I can tell you what it is. Mr. Carr, without going back. The meeting is to be recessed until 10:30 next Monday morning, June 22. At that time we will vote on the dismissal of George R. Faxon, after having sufficient time for the counsel for both parties to give us briefs which will be, at the latest, on Thursday of this week at five o'clock. From that time on, it is felt the Committee will have sufficient time to go over those briefs, and be ready on Monday morning to act.

Mr. Muchnick: And, Madam Chairman, prior to the vote, may I state again for the record, that the recessing until Monday, June 22, is at the request of counsel for Mr. Faxon, with the acquiescence of Mr. Murphy.

Chairman: Any objections? Would you call the roll?

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I move that you proceed to read the order as prepared in executive session by the Boston School Committee.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, prior to the reading of the order as moved by Dr. Foley, I would like to present some of my views for reaching the decision which was reached, and I feel that it is proper procedure that those views be presented before the order is read and voted on.

Chairman: Dr. Foley, would you defer to Mr. Muchnick, and we will vote on your motion just as soon as Mr. Muchnick has finished reading his statement.

You may proceed on that Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Thank you, Madam Chairman. (Reading):

The matter before the School Committee concerns the retention or dismissal of one George R. Faxon a teacher employed at discretion.

By vote of the School Committee on April 13, 1953, it was determined that the Committee would vote on June 15, 1953, on the question whether said Faxon would be dismissed for any or all of the following causes:

1. Conduct unbecoming a teacher.

2. Conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of Massachusetts.

3. In being a person undesirable as a public school teacher, and

4. For engaging in Communist activities while a public school teacher.

Subsequently, on demand of said Faxon, written charges of the causes were furnished, a public hearing was held and the matter was fully, fairly and publicly tried. The June 15th date, on request of said Faxon, was put over to June 22, 1953.

The charges of the causes hereinbefore referred to are similar to what is known in the law as "Specification" or a "Bill of Particulars."

The issues in the instant proceedings are very clear cut, simple, but vitally important.

However, before directing myself to the issues that do exist in this matter I would like first to discuss a major issue which does not here exist. That issue is Communism.

Like every other God-fearing American, I loathe Communism. As did the founders of our country in our nation's original struggle for freedom, I proudly and gladly, and in their immortal words, pledge my life my fortune, and my sacred honor in our Country's war against this cancerous enemy of freedom and decency.

Specifically, so far as teachers are concerned, it is my considered judgement and unchangeable belief that no Communist has the right to teach in a public school system. Nor has any school committee the right to permit a Communist to teach in a public school system—on the contrary, school committees have the unqualified and unquestionable duty to eliminate such persons without equivocation. To those misguided liberals who will decry this alleged attack on academic freedom, permit me to point out that pupils also have academic rights and are also entitled to academic freedoms. Pupils, as I see it, have an inalienable right to that freedom academically that will permit of their being taught truths objectively, impartially and factually. Such teaching is impossible by a Communist whose "truths" and "facts" are subject to change without notice on orders of the Kremlin.

Although the press and the public generally have discussed this proceedings against the general background of the dangers of Communism, the fundamental issue here involved would be the same (for many material purposes), if Faxon's appearance before the Jenner Committee had involved questions other than those pertaining to activity involving Communism. The fundamental issues are:

A. Does the evidence lead to a conclusion that said Faxon was guilty of the acts cited as causes for dismissal in the vote of April 13, 1953, and the vote of May 13, 1953, as more specifically set forth in the charges of the causes contained in said vote of May 13, 1953?

B. If said Faxon is guilty on any or all of said acts or causes, is such guilt sufficient to warrant or justify his dismissal?

A. With reference to the first issue it would appear beyond a peradventure of a doubt by uncontraverted evidence, that said Faxon failed to answer truthfully certain questions concerning material facts asked of him by the Jenner Committee on March 26, 1953. Mere pleading of the Fifth Amendment is not per se a truthful answer. An untruthful answer made under oath with knowledge of its falsity is perjury. Perjury cannot be countenanced in teachers, of all people. Do the facts justify the conclusion that said Faxon perjured himself?

In answering this question one must bear in mind the scope and the limits of the Fifth Amendment. An excellent analysis of this amendment and its application to situations such as the case at bar was recently published by Professors Zechariah Chafee, Jr. and Arthur E. Sutherland of the Harvard Law School.

Following herewith are relevant portions of this analysis:

"... The underlying principle to remember in considering the subject is the duty of the citizen to cooperate in government. He has no option to say, 'I do not approve of this Grand Jury or that Congressional Committee; I dislike its members and its objectives; therefore I will not tell it what I know.' He is neither wise nor legally justified in attempting political protest by standing silent when obligated to speak. The citizen is ordinarily required, when summoned, to give testimony to a Court, legislative committee or other body vested with subpoena power and if he refuses to do so he is punishable. Subpoena power has proved necessary to the conduct of government: it is the correlative of the guarantee to an accused in the Sixth Amendment that he shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor."

"To this general duty of the citizen the privilege against self-incrimination is an extraordinary exception. The federal constitution prohibits all federal officers from requiring anyone to give testimony tending to prove that he is guilty of a crime. Criticized adversely by some because it makes police work difficult, this immunity is justified by others because it keeps government officers active in investigating the facts of offense, rather than relying on 'grilling' suspects."

"There are several current misconceptions about the testimonial privilege to remain silent. The witness is not the ultimate judge of the tendency of an answer to incriminate him. He can be required, on pain of contempt punishment, to disclose enough to show a real possibility that an answer to the question will tend, rightly or wrongly, to convict him of a crime."

"Mere embarrassment is not an excuser—the witness must be subjecting himself to some degree of danger of conviction of a criminal offense. . . . The immunity under the Fifth Amendment of a witness before a federal agency does not ordinarily extend to exoneration from compulsory self-incrimination of offenses under State law. . . . A sense of sportsmanship toward suspected associates is not an excuse; the Fifth Amendment grants no privilege to protect one's friends. If a man feels that he has a personal code compelling this reticence, he must pay for the scruple by standing the punishment society prescribes."

"Difficult questions arise when a witness is asked if he now is or ever has been a member of the Communist Party. The Internal Security Act of 1950 provides 'Neither the holding of office nor membership in any Communist organization by any person shall constitute per se a violation of . . . this section or of any other criminal statute.' Whether this refers only to federal statutes or was intended to include state statutes as well is not clear, but the section tends to militate against immunity when the question is asked with reference to a federal offense. Certainly the fact that disclosure of present or past association with the Communist Party will cause trouble for the witness with his church, his lodge, his union, his employer, or his university, does not excuse him from answering questions about it when subpoenaed before a competent body. . . .

"A privileged refusal to testify is not an admission of guilt for the purposes of criminal prosecution. Its effect on popular opinion is, of course, not within constitutional control."

"It is not only a legal requirement but also a principle of wisdom and good citizenship for an individual called before a court, grand jury, or a legislative investigating committee to answer questions frankly and honestly. The constitutional privilege to keep silent is an exception to the legal obligation to testify; but even when the legal privilege is available, there are times when it is best not exercised."

In claiming immunity under the Fifth Amendment a witness impliedly says under oath, "I can't answer the question truthfully because by telling the truth I would be giving evidence against myself of a crime." If in fact a truthful answer cannot be evidence of a crime it obviously is perjury to make the hypothetical answer quoted immediately above. In the instant case, among the questions asked of Faxon on March 26, 1953, by the Jenner Committee, was the following: "Mr. Faxon, do you know a man named Herbert Philbrick?" Mr. Faxon declined to answer on the grounds of the Fifth Amendment.

On March 26th when said Faxon testified before the Jenner Committee, he did not know whether or not Philbrick had testified concerning him (Faxon), such knowledge, in and of itself, is no proper ground for invoking the Fifth Amendment. The privilege protects one solely from furnishing such evidence against himself which might be a link in the chain of evidence needed to prosecute the witness for a federal crime (Hoffman v. U. S. 341 U. S. 479.) Such evidence must come from the witness who claims the privilege and the privilege applies solely to a truthful answer to a question, provided such truthful answer would furnish a link in the chain of evidence that might help convict the witness of a crime. If a truthful answer by the witness (i. e. Faxon) in and of itself does not furnish a link in the chain,—regardless of the true or false testimony of third persons,—the privilege of the Fifth Amendment cannot be claimed since the witness is then not being asked to give evidence against himself. It is inconceivable how a truthful answer to the question cited above could in any way be interpreted as giving evidence against himself of a crime, and I therefore conclude that in invoking the Fifth Amendment, rather than answer affirmatively or negatively, Mr. Faxon failed to answer the question truthfully. This conclusion is further inescapable as a result of certain testimony on the part of Mr. Faxon at the hearing before the School Committee wherein he stated that "I could not allow myself to be blindfolded with my hands tied behind my back and then try to fight against some unknown charge, against unknown evidence furnished by unknown witnesses who weren't available to me for cross-examination and were not forced to stay within the legal bounds of evidence. These are the reasons why I refused to answer the questions before the Jenner Committee." (Record p. 141.) and "What I would like to say is that I feared the crime of perjury through contrary statements of fact that I might make with what he might make" (Record, page 160). The record is replete with other testimony of the same general import. Record pages 163 to 170, 186, 187, 201 and 202.)

It is clear from the above that Mr. Faxon knew that a truthful answer before the Jenner Committee to the original question asked him and cited above (page 6) could in no way be construed or misconstrued as giving evidence against himself. Therefore, his answer of claim of privilege is obviously untrue and consequently is perjury.

It would seem further that the same conclusions would follow with reference to many of the other questions asked of Mr. Faxon by the Jenner Committee and enumerated in the list of charges of the causes voted by the School Committee on May 13, 1953, (Record pages 203-221, and Pages 242 and 243.) and that Mr. Faxon, by invoking the Fifth Amendment, when a truthful answer on his part to these questions would not in any way be giving evidence against himself of any crime or potential crime, was guilty of perjury.

It would also appear that Mr. Faxon acted completely improperly,—aside from any question of perjury—in refusing to testify before a properly and legally constituted governmental agency on the grounds stated by him. (Record pages 123 through 153.) It is inconceivable that any person, particularly a school teacher charged with the responsibility of setting a proper example to his pupils, should assume the right of non-cooperation with a legally constituted arm of government because of a real or fancied distrust of the agency or a dislike or fear of the personnel of the agency or of certain witnesses who might appear before that agency. Such a course, if followed by many, would lead to chaos and anarchy.

Nor has anyone a right in an orderly civilized community, run under a system of laws, to decide that he will disobey the law if compliance will embarrass him or inconvenience him or annoy him. Similarly no person, particularly a public school teacher, has the right to say, "I will obey those laws with which I agree, but I will not cooperate when I disagree with the law or the purpose behind the particular law."

As is true of perjury on the part of a teacher, so is it also true that disobedience of the law and non-cooperation with properly and legally constituted branches of government, because of a real or fancied dislike or distrust of the law or the agency and its methods, clearly constitute conduct unbecoming a teacher.

One further point on this subject: Counsel for Faxon argued and Faxon testified that the Jenner Committee had no right to inquire into his political and religious beliefs and that he used the Fifth Amendment to protect himself against such inquiry. Assuming the validity of this contention, it would seem that there is clearly a distinction between inquiry into thought and belief and inquiry into acts and deeds. The Jenner Committee in asking Mr. Faxon the questions listed under "A," "c" to "j," inclusive, of the charges of the causes, was inquiring into acts and deeds as distinguished from thoughts and beliefs. Mr. Faxon had no right to claim immunity against inquiry into his beliefs and thoughts as grounds for refusing to answer these questions. Here, again, I find that such failure to answer is improper and is conduct unbecoming a teacher in our school system.

I therefore find that George R. Faxon was guilty of conduct unbecoming a teacher in that:—

1. He committed perjury in testifying before the Jenner Committee, as set forth in "D" of the charges of the causes.

2. He failed, without justifiable cause, to cooperate as required by law with a duly and legally constituted sub-committee of the United States, as set forth in "A" of the charges of the causes.

Since I have reached a decision on cause No. 1 and since there is no specific statutory provision providing for dismissal of a teacher for causes numbered two, three and four. I make no finding with respect thereto.

B. Having found that Faxon is guilty of certain acts or causes as above indicated it then becomes necessary to address ourselves to the second issue,—Is such guilt sufficient to justify dismissal? There can be but one answer.

No School Committee has the legal or moral right to permit persons guilty of the offenses herein established to teach in a public school system and I therefore conclude that said Faxon should be dismissed.

With reference to the motions presented by counsel for Mr. Faxon, said motions became immaterial in view of the details of this finding and decision.

Chairman: Does anyone have any other statements that they wish to make?

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, the only statement I have is that if a teacher-employee of the Boston Public Schools under the definition of those words invokes his privilege under the fifth amendment to the Constitution before a proper tribunal such as the School Committee on any question, he is subject to suspension and dismissal.

Invocation of the Fifth Amendment on the part of a teacher, when asked about it, is practically speaking tantamount to an acknowledgment of Communist Party membership.

So I go along with the fact that Mr. Faxon certainly did not answer enough questions, or the questions put before him by the Jenner Committee.

Now I would move, Madam Chairman, that you proceed to read the order as prepared in executive session by the School Committee.

The Secretary was directed to call the roll and the members voted as follows:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

NAYS—0.

The Chairman read the following order:

ORDERED, That in the proceeding instituted in this Committee on April 13, 1953, and now pending before this Committee for final decision, in the matter of the dismissal of George R. Faxon as Master, Boston Latin School, it be, and hereby is decided as follows:

1. There is competent evidence warranting a finding, and it is found, that—

(a) George R. Faxon is a public school teacher employed to serve at discretion under Section 41 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as amended;

(b) At least thirty days, exclusive of customary vacation periods, prior to this meeting of this Committee, George R. Faxon was notified of the intention of this Committee to vote at this meeting on the matter of his dismissal as a Master, Boston Latin School;

(c) George R. Faxon was, upon his request, furnished by this Committee with the written charges of the causes for which his dismissal is proposed;

(d) The Superintendent of Schools in the City of Boston has given this Committee his recommendations on the matter of the dismissal of George R. Faxon as a Master, Boston Latin School; and

(e) George R. Faxon was, upon his request, given a public hearing before this Committee at which hearing he was represented by counsel and had the opportunity to call witnesses to testify in his behalf and examine them and did present evidence and testify in his own behalf.

2. The motion made by George R. Faxon's counsel before the introduction of any testimony at the aforesaid public hearing, the motions made by his counsel at the conclusion of the testimony given at said hearing by the Secretary of this committee, and the motions made by his counsel immediately after both sides had rested at said hearing become immaterial in view of the detail in this decision.

3. At the aforesaid public hearing competent evidence was introduced warranting a finding, and it is found, that George R. Faxon did on March 26, 1953, decline to answer before the Internal Security Subcommittee of the United States Senate's Judiciary Committee the following questions:

(a) "Mr. Faxon, are you at this time a member of the Communist Party?"

(b) "Mr. Faxon, do you know a man named Herbert Philbrick?"

(c) "Mr. Faxon while you have been a teacher at the Boston Latin School, have you tried to recruit anybody into the Communist Party or into the Young Communist League?"

(d) "Mr. Faxon, while you were at the Veterans' School, did you endeavor to recruit anybody at that time into the Communist Party or into the Young Communist League?"

(e) "While you were at the Boston Trade School, did you make any effort to recruit students into the Communist Party?"

(f) "While you were at the Roxbury School during 1934 to 1940, did you make any efforts to recruit students into the Young Communist League or into the Communist Party?"

(g) "Have you ever made an effort to recruit a fellow teacher into the Communist Party?"

(h) "Have you attended any secret meetings of the Communist Party in Massachusetts?"

(i) "Have you ever attended secret meetings of the Communist Party outside the State of Massachusetts?"

(j) "When did you last see Herbert Philbrick?" and further that George R. Faxon did on March 26, 1953, decline to answer before the Internal Security Subcommittee of the United States Senate's Judiciary Committee each of the above-quoted questions on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him, claiming his rights under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

4. At the aforesaid public hearing the following charge was substantiated, to wit, the charge that George R. Faxon did on March 26, 1953, decline to answer before the Internal Security Subcommittee of the United States Senate's Judiciary Committee the following questions:

(a) "Mr. Faxon, are you at this time a member of the Communist Party?"

(b) "Mr. Faxon, do you know a man named Herbert Philbrick?"

(c) "Mr. Faxon, while you have been a teacher at the Boston Latin School, have you tried to recruit anybody into the Communist Party or into the Young Communist League?"

(d) "Mr. Faxon, while you were at the Veterans' School, did you endeavor to recruit anybody at that time into the Communist Party or into the Young Communist League?"

(e) "While you were at the Boston Trade School, did you make any effort to recruit students into the Communist Party?"

(f) "While you were at the Roxbury School during 1934 to 1940, did you make any efforts to recruit students into the Young Communist League or into the Communist Party?"

(g) "Have you ever made an effort to recruit a fellow teacher into the Communist Party?"

(h) "Have you attended any secret meetings of the Communist Party in Massachusetts?"

(i) "Have you ever attended secret meetings of the Communist Party outside the State of Massachusetts?"

(j) "When did you last see Herbert Philbrick?"

5. This Committee has a duty, implied in law, to maintain the integrity of the public schools of the City of Boston. A teacher employed to serve at discretion under Section 41 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as amended, also has a duty, implied in law, when asked by a public authority a question reflecting upon his loyalty to the United States of America, to hold himself above suspicion by meeting the question with a categorically affirmative or negative answer; and a refusal by such a teacher so to do constitutes conduct unbecoming a teacher within the meaning of Section 42 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as amended. In short, a teacher employed to serve at discretion under said Section 41 cannot at the same time take, on the one hand, the position that to tell the truth about himself would tend to incriminate him and, on the other hand, the position that the School Committee must continue him in his post of honor and trust as a public school teacher.

6. George R. Faxon is hereby dismissed as a Master, Boston Latin School, for conduct unbecoming a teacher.

The Chairman then made the following statement:

I would like to say at this time that I concur with the remarks made by Mr. Muchnick.

While the evidence introduced at the public hearing has not established to my satisfaction that George R. Faxon was not a member of the Communist Party during a period in the year 1949 and for some time prior thereto, no affirmative evidence was introduced at said hearing that he was such a member during said period.

However, while I feel that from the evidence one can reasonably draw an inference, and while I further feel that Communism is a deadly menace to society, my conclusions were based solely on the competent, affirmative evidence in the case.

Ten years of investigation by the Committee on Un-American Activities and its predecessors have definitely established that the Communist movement in the United States is foreign-controlled and that its activities are carried on by conspiracy and by infiltrating its doctrines into our schools and our youth organizations.

Communism takes advantage of the renunciation of leadership by the home and the school.

The fault is not with the students. It is with those adults who seem to have abandoned their role of moral and intellectual leadership in community affairs.

This School Committee firmly believes that the creation of honest, democratic organizations in every public school, college and university, is one of the best means to promote American ideas and moral ideals, but it is also convinced that school authorities and community leaders who fail to recognize the Communist reality do not deserve to be trusted with the job of guiding education.

The Secretary was then directed to call the roll on the order; and on the roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mr. Muchnick, and Mrs. Lyons—5.

NAYS—0.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I have voted, as the record will indicate, for the order as presented. I would have preferred that the order go further and include specifically also the allegation of conduct unbecoming a teacher based on the charge of perjury, as I see it, and in which you have concurred.

That does not in any way change the vote, but I feel firmly convinced that the charge of perjury has been sustained beyond any question of a doubt of any kind, and I repeat that I would have preferred that the order of dismissal include that as well as the various items that were included in the order.

ADJOURNMENT

Chairman: The Chair will now entertain a motion to adjourn this meeting.

Dr. Foley: I move we adjourn this meeting.

Chairman: Then I will further entertain a motion that we waive notice on another meeting and take up further business.

Will you call the roll on this first motion of Dr. Foley?

On roll call, the members voted to adjourn by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

CASE OF MAX WEITZMAN

The Secretary read the following communication:

June 19, 1953
Boston School Committee
15 Beacon Street
Boston, Mass.
re: Max Weitzman
Gentlemen:

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 11, 1953, setting forth the "charges of the causes for which Max Weitzman's dismissal is proposed," together with a transcript of the proceedings of April 18, 1953.

I had the opportunity yesterday of discussing the subject with Mr. Kerr of the City of Boston Law Department. We seemed to agree that the transcript of the proceedings of April 18, 1953 substantially set forth the issues, including the legal positions of both. Therefore, without prejudice to either side, I am prepared to agree that the decision on the charge be based on the transcript, together with briefs filed within a reasonable time.

Bearing in mind that the briefs may extend the decision beyond the 29th of June 1953, I feel it is in order to suggest agreement that neither the action of the Boston School Committee nor Mr. Weitzman's rights be prejudiced by the possibility of a decision being rendered beyond that date.

Please let me have your views and kindly advise of the time within which briefs may be submitted.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Gabriel Kantrovitz

Dr. Foley: I move that we place that letter on file.

On roll call, the letter was placed on file by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

NAYS—0.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I move that the following two orders be adopted:

ORDERED: 1. That on Friday, June 26, 1953 at 2 o'clock P. M. at Room 36 at 15 Beacon Street, Boston, Max Weitzman be given a public hearing upon the charges of the causes for which his dismissal is proposed, at which hearing he may be represented by counsel, offer evidence, call and examine witnesses in his behalf, and present any argument and brief which he may wish to present; and

2. That in reply to the letter addressed under date of June 19, 1953, to the School Committee by Gabriel Kantrovitz, Esquire, attorney for Max Weitzman, which letter was placed on file at this meeting of the School Committee, the Secretary of this Committee be, and she hereby is, authorized and directed to give to said Max Weitzman and to Gabriel Kantrovitz, Esquire, his attorney, written notice of the aforesaid public hearing by sending each of them forthwith a copy of this two-part order.

On roll call, the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

NAYS—0.

Mr. Muchnick: Before we go into the matter of summer schools it seems to me proper that we ought to set a time for the meeting to be held on Monday, at which time a vote is to be taken with reference to the Weitzman matter. I don't care whatever time is set.

Chairman: I think it was very satisfactory to have the last one at 10:30 in the morning, if that is agreeable to the other members.

Mr. Muchnick offered the following:

ORDERED, That the meeting to be held on June 29, 1953, at which meeting a vote is to be taken upon the charges of the causes for which the dismissal of Max Weitzman is proposed, and upon the matter of his dismissal for any or all of the causes stated in the original vote, be held at 10:30 in the morning at the place originally designated in the original vote; and, further, that that meeting be held in Room 36, 15 Beacon Street, Boston.

On roll call, Mr. Muchnick's motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

SUMMER SERVICE OF SCHOOL SECRETARIES

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, before we adjourn I just want to call the Committee's attention to No. 18 on the agenda, the petition from the school secretaries, since this is the last week of school, and they will be wondering about their summer assignments.

They have presented what I thought was an excellent compromise.

Chairman: Is that Miss McCarthy's letter?

Miss Fitzgerald: The petition signed by Miss McCarthy and others.

Chairman: I told her I would speak to Miss Reynolds and ask her if she could assign work for a group of girls for the first part of the vacation, and then some more work for the second group; and if they finished the work that you will assign to them, I felt probably it might be satisfactory to the members.

What the Committee really wants is to have this work done and really to save some money. Once it is done, that is all we ask.

Miss Fitzgerald: I think the girls, Madam Chairman, are quite efficient and are most co-operative and will probably do the work; and I think under this plan they will do it most efficiently.

Secretary: Do you mean in accordance with their petition to try it for two-week periods only?

Mr. Carr: Yes.

Chairman: What I would like to do is to have you talk with the heads of the various departments here and find out how much work there is to be done, what these girls are familiar with, and assign girls who know that type of work to those various offices.

I feel that if they are assigned to those jobs they will become very familiar with them; and year after year they can do them efficiently instead of just making them come in and sit around and not accomplish very much.

I think if they had a plan of knowing just exactly what work they were going to do and when they complete it, we just would not have to spend any money for any extra outside help. Then as far as I am concerned, I feel I would be very satisfied with that arrangement.

Secretary: I will try to do the best I can.

Mr. Carr: Would you work that out?

Secretary: I will try to.

Chairman: Do you think that you can talk to the heads of departments and see what work is to be done?

Secretary: I have already talked with them.

Mr. Carr: Do they have sufficient work laid out so that you could set up a work program for these girls?

Secretary: Yes.

Dr. Foley: Miss Reynolds is that perfectly all right with you so that we can pass it at this particular meeting, or do you wish to have more time?

Secretary: I said I will try to do it in accordance with their petition—which is that every girl work two weeks and I am informed that every single girl will not object to working two weeks, and I would like to see how it works out.

Dr. Foley: Then, Madam Chairman, I move the adoption of the motion.

Mr. Muchnick: For whatever it is worth, I myself would just as soon not vote on this petition and two-week proposition, until such time as I have been able to study it.

I know that there is always a cry of a big backlog of secretarial work. This matter has been gone into many times, and I do not know of any new evidence that would indicate that we certainly do not need all those work weeks and that it should therefore be limited to two weeks.

Chairman: I would like to see the vote deferred until Miss Reynolds has an opportunity to work out a program, and not say that Yes, two weeks is sufficient, and then find that there is still a backlog of work.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, could we have a vote? I think Dr. Foley has made the motion that we vote on the petition.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I withdraw my motion as Miss Reynolds is not prepared to give us a full report on whether she thinks this is possible or not. If you think it is possible, then I would say that we could vote on this particular question. If not, and if you need some more time, that is another matter. I thought you had the petition for the last two or three weeks.

Secretary: No, I have only had it for the last week.

Chairman: Would it be better for you, Miss Reynolds, if we waited for Friday?

Secretary: It would be too late then because we cannot get the secretaries Friday.

Chairman: Why?

Secretary: You have to write or call them—all ninety of them.

Mr. Muchnick: It is my understanding that until such time as the rule is changed, if it is going to be changed, they would be expected to report to work after the formal closing of school.

Secretary: In here?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I move that we accept the petition of the secretaries. I think it can be worked out efficiently and co-operatively. I would press to move the acceptance of the petition in order to give Miss Reynolds the days that she will need to organize the program.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it seems to me particularly improper to accept the recommendation in the petition or to do anything until such time as there has been a study and report by the Secretary and the Superintendent; and I for one would like to find out whether or not we need this work done.

Last year, as I understand it, there was an awful lot of work to be done. Some of the secretaries had to spend all summer in the schools catching up—other than their month's vacation.

I would like to know what the score is before I, for one, vote to change a policy that we adopted after much discussion pro and con, and much agitation pro and con.

Dr. Foley: Miss Reynolds, are you prepared to give a report to the Committee at this particular time?

Secretary: Not definitely. I said that I would try to get along with two weeks for each secretary if it was possible to do so.

Chairman: Do you think, Miss Reynolds, that if we gave you until Friday you could sort of get it lined up and then give us a more definite answer? I feel like Mr. Muchnick. I do not like making a rule and then just throwing it aside, without knowing definitely what we are going to do and how much work there is to be done and how that work is going to be allocated.

I cannot see acting on any motion just to get it out of the way. I want to know definitely why I am voting on it, and if it is reasonable I am perfectly willing to go along with it if the work can be done.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I think this petition was first presented some time ago. It is dated June 11, and it was worked out in conjunction with Miss Reynolds in a conference by this Committee, and Miss Reynolds has already said that she has talked with heads of departments. There should be something she would have to report to us.

Secretary: All I said was that I would try to do with the two weeks.

Mr. Carr: Madam Secretary, surely, in view of your past experience in having this since June 11th, you have a fairly good idea now whether you can work out a program limiting it to two weeks' work and whether you will be able to get the work done. That is all the information this Committee is asking for.

Secretary: I have an idea, but I am not sure.

Mr. Carr: Are you fairly sure that it can be worked out?

Secretary: No, I am not sure that it can be worked out, but I said I would try to do it in the two weeks if the School Committee wished to do it.

Mr. Muchnick: It seems to me, Madam Chairman, that Miss Reynolds has answered the question that there ought to be a little more study into this, and it seems to me, further, under our rules, if I remember them correctly, that the matter having been disposed of this year again as well as last year, there is no proper way of its coming up again this year.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, this is a petition which has been offered to us. I think that is a proper way for a matter to be coming up on the agenda.

Mr. Muchnick: It seems to me on a petition the first thing that ought to happen is that it ought to be heard; and before there is a vote on it we should hear it and get the opinions of the Secretary and the Superintendent and get the opinions of the petitioners and have some time to study it.

Chairman: I am inclined to feel that way about it. I cannot see just voting on a thing to get it out of the way. I want to be sure that the work is going to be done, and not have Miss Reynolds say she has all this work accumulated and what are we going to do? You are not going to hire this extra help, and it has to be done. I think we should give her an opportunity to determine just the amount of work and how it can be allocated before any action is taken on it. I would ask to have it deferred until that time.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I see no harm in calling for a vote on this matter. I think it is due the member who made the motion that it be acted on; I am ready to vote on it tonight.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I move that the motion that was made lie on the table.

Chairman: Do you want to call the roll on that, Miss Reynolds, on the question of this motion being laid on the table?

On roll call Mr. Muchnick's motion to lie on the table passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mr. Muchnick, and Mrs. Lyons—3.

NAYS—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2.

Chairman: The meeting is adjourned until Friday, June 26, 1953.

AGNES E. REYNOLDS,

A meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 7:10 p. m., the Chairman presiding.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, now that all the members of the School Committee have convened, would you ask the Secretary to call the roll and see if all are present?

The Secretary called the roll and the members responded as follows:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mr. Muchnick, and Mrs. Lyons—5.

NAYS—0.

Mr. Muchnick offered the following:

ORDERED, That the public meeting called for June 29, 1953, at 10:30 a. m., for the purpose of taking a vote on the dismissal of Max Weitzman, as more specifically set forth in the vote of June 11, take place at eight o'clock p. m. of the same day, instead of 10:30 a. m. of that day, at the same place, the vote of June 11th to which I refer being the second vote taken on June 11th.

Mr. Muchnick: I make that motion, Madam Chairman, in accordance with the request of Mr. Kantrovitz, counsel for Mr. Weitzman, acting for Mr. Weitzman, and in his behalf and with his authority, and concurred in by Mr. Murphy who has presented the evidence, on behalf of the School Committee at the hearing which was just recessed, both counsel feeling that they would like that extra time for the purpose of preparing their oral arguments, and both counsels having signified just prior to the recess of the hearing, that the statement which I made then concerning this was correct and which is substantially the same statement I am making now, and in which statement I would ask them to concur again for the purpose of the record of this public meeting.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I concur on behalf of Max Weitzman.

Mr. Murphy: I concur and assent.

The Secretary was directed to call the roll and the members, as their names were called, respectively stated that they voted as follows:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mr. Muchnick, and Mrs. Lyons—5.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In connection with the letter of August 17, 1953, from the Board of Trustees with regard to the policy on clearance of snow on trackless trolley and motor bus lines, the attached list is being sent to the 14 cities and towns, showing the equipment available for release by the MTA. This equipment is being offered to the 14 cities and towns to bid upon as they may see fit by units in the list, before offering it for general sale.

The time for making tenders by the 14 cities will be on or before October 9, 1953.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD DANA, General Manager.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Boston, October 8, 1953.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I return herewith letter of September 21 and enclosure that were sent to you by General Manager Edward Dana of the MTA, concerning the proposed sale to the 14 cities and towns in the district of the plowing equipment formerly used by the MTA in plowing the bus and trackless trolley routes.

A complete and detailed survey of the equipment listed on the enclosure, and which is being offered by the MTA to the cities and towns in the district, has been made by Division Engineer McGrath of the Automotive Division of this department, assisted by our Superintendent of Auto Maintenance Daniel Coughlin, our Motor Equipment Repair Inspector Frederick Harvey, and Equipment Repairman Albert Campers. Mr. McGrath submitted a report to me as the result of his examination, and I have taken the following important excerpts from it:

Poor Condition.

"The paint on all units, including bodies, cabs, and running gear, is, generally, in very poor condition. No heaters or defrosters appear in any units. No directional signal lights appear on any units. Clutches, brakes, transmissions, etc., were all checked as far as was possible on the location, in place, without running the vehicles on the highway or around the storage yard of the MTA, and these parts can be accepted as being in reasonably good condition. I further advise that all units carry center blades, and front plows of the flare type.

MAYOR HYNES ARRANGES FOR CITY TO PURCHASE MTA SNOW-REMOVAL EQUIPMENT.

Properties No. 908 through No. 1174, properties No. 1179 through No. 1181, and property No. 1203 are all listed as Walter snow fighters, and are equipped with what may be considered as the older type, 130-horsepower, six-cylinder, RB Waukegan motor. These motors are considered obsolete, and experience in the Automotive Division shows that it is almost impossible to obtain replacement parts for them.

"Properties No. 908 through No. 1092 have external vacuum mechanical brakes, which likewise are obsolete. These brakes are all considered to be undersize for the load capacity, and, further, I would point out that the brakes become mechanical when the motor is dead. All the snow-fighting units in the Public Works Department are equipped with air brakes, which type brake was not in production previous to 1940. MTA units No. 908 through No. 1092 are equipped with five-speed transmissions—four speeds forward, and one reverse. These units are obsolete as of 1940. The majority of the MTA units carry 1100x24 or 1125x24 tires, which are undersize for the load carried by the bodies, namely, 7 to 10 tons.

OBsolete EQUIPMENT.

"All the snow-fighting vehicles of the Public Works Department carry 1200x24, 14-ply tires, and this is the proper size for the load capacity carried in the Humphrey sanding bodies. The sand spreaders on the MTA trucks are generally chain driven with agitators, which, likewise, are obsolete. In many cases the sand-spreading motors are four-cylinder Wisconsin motors of the older type, and they are considered obsolete, thus making it practically impossible to obtain replacement of parts.

"At this point I would draw to your attention the fact that I believe the MTA has a very complete parts inventory for both the front motors and the side motors, which motors I consider obsolete. In 1945 and 1946 the above-mentioned units of the MTA were equipped with alternators to help keep the batteries of these units fully charged. Previously, the generators on these units were not able to keep the batteries fully charged and capable of supplying enough electric current to keep the units burning for night driving. . . ."

Based on the survey by Mr. McGrath, and after taking all factors into consideration, we recommend the purchase of the vehicles shown on the attached schedule, at the prices indicated, which we feel are fair and reasonable, in view of the condition of the vehicles. You will note that our offer provides for the purchase of 22 FWD and Walter trucks, and for the purchase of three bucket loaders used for loading sand and salt. We are willing to purchase, if agreeable to the MTA, any one or all of the 25 units indicated.

In conclusion, I wish to state that arrangements should be made in connection with the purchase of these units, for the furnishing by the MTA of the repair parts that I understand they have in their stock inventory for these units. Many of the parts are obsolete and unavailable for purchase on the open market, and, therefore, it would be advantageous for the city to arrange for their purchase from the MTA in connection with the purchase of the 25 units indicated on the enclosed tabulation.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner.

MAYOR MAKES PROPOSAL.

EDWARD DANA, General Manager,
Metropolitan Transit Authority,
Park Square Building, Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR:

With reference to your communication of September 21, 1953, in which you offer for sale to the 14 cities and towns in the metropolitan district various snow equipment, I submit to you herewith a communication I have received from the Commissioner of Public Works, George G. Hyland. You will note in this communication that the City of Boston is interested in the purchase of 22 FWD and Walter snow-fighting trucks and three bucket loaders. The price which the City of Boston is willing to pay for each piece of equipment is set forth in the Commissioner's letter.

I subscribe to the prices so set forth and herewith make the offer to purchase these pieces of equipment at such prices.

In view of the age of this equipment and in view of the fact that the City of Boston will be put to considerable expense by reason of the MTA declining to remove snow on certain streets, I confidently hope that the offer for this equipment made by the City of Boston will be accepted by the Board of Trustees.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

GORDON AVENUE, HYDE PARK, RESURFACED.

The letter from the Commissioner requesting approval for the work reads as follows:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, September 18, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At the present time the roadway area of Gordon avenue, in Hyde Park, from River street to Hale street, is in a very poor condition, and I am anxious, therefore, to have it resurfaced before the end of the present construction season. This street is not only important to local traffic, but also to through traffic going from Hyde Park to the West Roxbury area, via Bold Knob road, an M.D.C. highway.

Due to the lateness of the season, it would be inadvisable to publicly advertise for proposals for the work, as there would not be sufficient time to complete the resurfacing this year. Therefore, I have made tentative arrangements with Baker & Co., Inc., of 1586 Hyde Park avenue, to do the proposed resurfacing work on the basis of agreed prices, which compare favorably with those that have been obtained recently as the result of publicly advertising for proposals.

The resurfacing work provides for scarifying the existing roadway area where necessary, minor excavation, and covering the present roadway surface with a 2-course bituminous concrete pavement. On the basis of the item prices submitted by Baker & Co. for this work, it is estimated that the improvement can be effected for an amount not in excess of $7,500. As the length of highway involved is approximately 1,500 feet, the cost per foot will be only $5, which is very reasonable for highway resurfacing work.

The nuns at the Home of the Little Flower, which is located at the north-easterly end of Gordon avenue, are planning a celebration and Silver Jubilee on October 1, and I would like to have the resurfacing work completed before that date. The contractor has advised me that the entire improvement can be completed in ten days, and he has further advised me that he will start the work not later than next Monday, September 21, which will insure its completion before October 1.

In view of the circumstances, therefore, it is my unqualified opinion that the best interests of the city will be served by having the resurfacing work done by the above-referenced contractor on the basis of agreed prices, which—as stated hereinbefore—compare very favorably with those obtained recently as the result of publicly advertising for proposals.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authorization to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Baker & Co., Inc., of 1535 Hyde Park avenue, in an amount not to exceed $7,500, for resurfacing that section of Gordon avenue, Hyde Park, that extends from River street to Hale street.

Respectfully yours, headed by J. Edward Downes, well-known South End business leader.

The first area to be surveyed, known to the local committee as Project A, will be south side of West Newton street at Carleton; east to Tremont street; west side of Tremont street to Massachusetts avenue; north side of Massachusetts avenue to Carleton street; and along the railroad bed to West Newton street.

The second area, known as Project B, is bounded by the south side of Dover street at Tremont street; Dover street to Washington street; Washington street to West Canton; West Canton to Tremont street; and Tremont street to Dover.

The over-all study, says Dr. John H. Cauley, Health Commissioner, is under the supervision of Francis L. Donovan, chief inspector of the Health Department's Division of Health and Sanitation. It is being directed by Supervisor Frank P. Henry and John J. Reardon.

The study will involve general appearance of each parcel, condition of structure from the standpoint of paint, water spouts, fences, doorways, steps, porches, windows, roofs, etc. A similar study made early this summer in the Pilot Area of the city-wide program at South

Boston is proving of extreme value to the South Boston committee in the promotion of its work.

As a further means of stimulating the rehabilitation work now going on in the Pilot Area of South Boston, Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland and Park Commissioner Frank R. Kelley will meet today to formulate plans for the planting of several hundred trees along sidewalks leading up to the famous historic shrine at Dorchester Heights. Plans will also be discussed for the resodding of the sides of Dorchester Heights which over the years have become disturbed by the elements.

MAYOR WARNS CITIZENS TIME FOR REGISTRATION FOR NOVEMBER ELECTION GROWING SHORT.

The period in which Boston citizens not yet enrolled as voters may qualify to vote in the city election on November 3 is drawing to a close. The registration of voters will end at 10 P.M. next Wednesday night, under the law, and will not be resumed until the day after the election. Persons whose names are not included on the voting list at 10 o'clock next Wednesday night will be unable to vote in the coming municipal election.

It is the responsibility of all of us to see that our city and our School Department are governed as well as possible. The election on November 3 will be an important one and one in which every eligible and qualified citizen should participate.

I hope that those men and women who haven't yet registered as voters will do so before 10 o'clock next Wednesday night and take advantage of one of our most precious privileges—the right to select the men and women who serve us in public offices.

The election offices in City Hall Annex will be open from 9 A.M. to 10 P.M. on Friday of this week and on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week to accommodate those desiring to enroll as voters. Outside offices will be open in each of 22 wards of the city from 6 P.M. to 10 P.M. on those three nights.

The time for registration is short. The election will be held three weeks from next Tuesday. If your name isn't on the voting list, I hope you will place it there before Wednesday's deadline.

ELECTION DEPARTMENT.

Upon October 2 the Mayor approved a contract with Wright & Potter Printing Company as requested in the following letter:

Boston, October 1, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

The Board of Election Commissioners respectfully requests that permission be given them to award the contract for printing ballot labels for voting machines and paper ballots for the coming city election to the firm of Wright & Potter Printing Company, of 32 Derne street, Boston, without advertising for bids, at the following prices:

For 114,000 official paper ballots (104 precincts), including specimen ballots (10 for each precinct), boxed in open window cartons, $2,565.*

For 21,800 "challenged" ballots (100 for each of the 218 voting machine precincts), printed "Challenged Ballot" in red ink across filing, $287.50.

For voting machine cards and specimen ballots for 218 precincts (3 cards each for 715 Shoup and 690 automatic voting machines), with 10 specimen ballots for each precinct, $4,358.60.

For 1,200 ballot strips for Shoup machines (no printing), $29.

For 20,000 absentee ballots (322 precincts), $768.50.

For 20,000 war ballots (322 precincts), $768.50.

Total, $8,777.10.

* In the event that additional ballots are necessary in excess of 114,000, ballots will be supplied at the rate of $8.65 per M.

The ballots for the coming city election will contain 322 precinct changes and 22 ward changes in the make-up. Great care will be required on the part of the printer, as the time for printing such ballots and ballot labels and making a delivery to this office is very limited.

The Wright & Potter Printing Company is the only printing concern especially equipped to do this work, having printed the state and City of Boston ballots for a long period of years. For this reason, and to safeguard the voters of the city as far as possible against error, this request is made.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS,
PERLIE DYAR CHASE,
Chairman.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Upon October 1 the Mayor approved a contract with John J. Botti as requested in the following letter:

Boston, September 30, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

By public advertising in the City Record of September 19, 1953, the Fire Commissioner invited proposals for constructing manholes and installing conduit underground in Ashmont and Newhall streets, Dorchester. The following bids were received, opened and publicly read aloud in this office at 12 noon, Friday, September 25, 1953:

Joseph Capone & Son, $3,880; John J. Botti, $6,550; James A. Freaney, Inc., $7,290; Leo J. Nawn, Inc., $10,290; Ward General Contracting Company, $10,837; J. G. DesJardins, $11,185.

At the time of the opening of the bids Mr. Fred Capone of Joseph Capone and Son called to our attention that the sum bid in his proposal was in error, as he understood from the specifications that the resurfacing of the street was to be a temporary patch. On September 26, 1953, he submitted a written request to this office asking permission to withdraw his bid because of the error made in his proposal. Superintendent A. L. O'Banion of our Fire Alarm Division, who drew up the specifications, estimated that the work would cost at least $6,000, and therefore the bid of Joseph Capone and Son appears to be much too low to cover the work called for in the specifications.

I therefore request your Honor's permission to permit Joseph Capone and Son to withdraw its bid for the reasons given above and further request permission to award the contract for doing the foregoing work to the second lowest bidder, John J. Botti, 1050 Adams street, Dorchester, in the amount of $6,550.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN F. COTTER,
Fire Commissioner.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

June 29, 1953

A meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 8:14 P.M., the Chairman presiding.

Chairman: The public meeting will be in order. Will you call the roll, Miss Reynolds?

On roll call, the members responded as follows:

PRESENT: Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick.

CASE OF MAX WEITZMAN

Chairman: The first matter of business is the following order which was passed at the meeting on April 18, 1953:

"ORDERED:

"1.—That at a meeting of this Committee to be held on Monday, June 29, 1953, a vote be taken by this Committee on the question whether Max Weitzman be dismissed as a teacher, elementary, Robert Treat Paine District, for conduct unbecoming a teacher, for conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of Massachusetts, for being an unfit, undesirable and improper person to teach in the Boston school system, for insubordination, for the good of the Boston school system, or for any of said causes.

"2.—That effective forwith Max Weitzman be, and hereby is, suspended, without pay, as a teacher, elementary, Robert Treat Paine District pending final action by this Committee upon the dismissal proceedings instituted this day; but in no event shall said suspension continue after July 15, 1953, unless further ordered by this Committee.

"3.—That the Secretary of this Committee be, and hereby is, authorized and directed to give notice of this tripartite order forthwith to said Max Weitzman.

"On roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

NAYS—0.

Attest: Agnes E. Reynolds, Secretary".

Chairman: Miss Reynolds, did you send notices and do you have receipts for the same?

Secretary: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Clairman, I move that this Committee recess into executive session to consider the evidence presented in the matter and to deliberate on the question of the vote to be taken in the matter of the proposed dismissal of Max Weitzman in accordance with the order just read by you.

On roll call, Mr. Muchnick's motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

NAYS—0.

Chairman: The Chair declares a recess to consider Mr. Muchnick's motion.

The members took a recess at 8:17 p. m. and reassembled at 10:17 p. m.

On roll call, the members responded as follows:

PRESENT — Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, will you kindly read the order as prepared in executive session by the School Committee?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, prior to the reading of the order, I had a memorandum that, with your permission, I would like to read now as the reasons for my having taken the position which I have taken.

"The matter before the School Committee concerns the retention or dismissal of one Max Weitzman, a teacher employed at discretion.

"By vote of the School Committee on April 18, 1953, it was determined that the Committee would vote on June 29, 1953 on the question whether said Weitzman would be dismissed for any or all of the following Causes:

1. For conduct unbecoming a teacher.
2. For conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of Massachusetts.
3. For being an unfit, undesirable and improper person to teach in the Boston School System.
4. For insubordination.
5. For the good of the Boston School System.

"Subsequently, on demand of said Weitzman, written charges of the causes were furnished, a public hearing was held and the matter was fully, fairly, and publicly tried.

"The 'charges of the causes' hereinabove referred to are similar to what is known in the law as 'Specifications' or a Bill of Particulars'.

As was true in the case involving one George R. Faxon, a teacher dismissed by the School Committee on June 22, 1953 for certain causes, the instant case was discussed by the press and the public generally against the background of the Communist menace. My own views concerning Communism need no comment here—, they are clearly outlined in the opinion filed by me in the Faxon case on June 22, 1953. However, regardless of the generally accepted notions concerning the issues in this matter, Communism, per se, is not here an issue, despite attempts on the part of Weitzman and his counsel to inject this issue by indirection and by inference on occasion.

"There was also the further attempt on the part of said Weitzman to becloud the issue by dragging the red herring of alleged 'public hysteria' across the hearing room whenever convenient.

"Despite all such attempts to confuse and confound, the issues remain simple, clear and basic.

"The issues, — fundamental to the proper running of this or any public school system are:

"A. Does the evidence lead to a conclusion that said Weitzman was guilty of any or all of the acts cited as causes for dismissal in the vote of April 18, 1953, and the vote of June 11, 1953, as more specifically set forth in the causes of the charges contained in said vote of June 11, 1953?

"B. If said Weitzman is guilty of any or all of said acts or causes, is such guilt sufficient to warrant or justify his dismissal?

"A. It is the duty and responsibility, prescribed by law, of the School Committee to operate our school system properly and legally in the best interests of our pupils and the community at large. This trust was reposed in the members of the Committee by their fellow citizens; — this obligation was accepted by the members when they took their solemn oath of office. This trust requires the School Committee to guard jealously and zealously the welfare of each pupil committed to its care. Fundamental in meeting this obligation, is the duty to see that no improper person is employed in any position from the Superintendent down.

"The record in the instant case is full of testimony leading very strongly and clearly to the conclusion that Weitzman was not only insubordinate without justification, but was also guilty of conduct unbecoming a teacher by his actions on April 18, 1953, and that his retention in the service would not be for the good of the Boston School System.

"The School Committee not only had the right, but it also had the duty to ascertain whether or not Weitzman was a proper person in whose care it could entrust our pupils. Weitzman's refusal to answer questions, his evasiveness, his defiance and his failure to co-operate with the School Committee can lead to no conclusion other than that Weitzman was guilty of insubordination in his actions when he appeared before the School Committee on April 18, 1953.

"It would also seem clear, and I so find, that such conduct on Weitzman's part at the April 18, 1953 hearing constitutes conduct unbecoming a teacher.

"I therefore find that said Max Weitzman was:

1. Insubordinate and was
2. Guilty of conduct unbecoming a teacher, and that
3. His continued employment would not be for the good of the Boston School System, because of his acts on April 18, 1953, more fully described above.

"Since I have reached a decision on Causes No. 1, No. 4, and No. 5, and since there is no specific statutory provision providing for dismissal of a teacher for Causes No. 2 and No. 3, I make no findings with respect to said latter two causes.

"B. Having found said Weitzman to be guilty of certain acts or causes, as above detailed, it must necessarily follow that said Weitzman's connection with our school system should be severed. No school committee has the legal or moral right, in my opinion, to permit any teacher found guilty of the acts or offenses established in this matter to teach in a public school system and I therefore conclude that said Weitzman should be dismissed.

"With reference to the motions presented by counsel for Mr. Weitzman, said motions become immaterial in view of the details of this finding and decision."

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I would like to make some comments at this time, if I may.

When the public is given reason to doubt the loyalty of a teacher through that teacher's refusal to clarify his position as to membership in the Communist Party, which is an organization devoted to a policy destructive of the American way of life, it is my relief that such a teacher forfeits his right to a position in a public school system, and I feel that that is what has happened in the case of Max Weitzman.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, as a member of the Boston School Committee, and being more or less called upon to act in a judicial manner, I find that in the layman's view we have been restricted because of various statutes and legal limitations.

However, I think the general issue before this School Committee transcends all the specific charges; and I think that the menace of Communism has been proved by the Draconian history of the countries which have been subjected to its corrosive and diabolical doctrines.

I cannot condone any refusal to answer questions about a philosophy which has brought misery and destruction to large segments of today's world. Hence I vote for the dismissal of Max Weitzman.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I have asked that you kindly read the order as prepared by the School Committee in executive session.

The Chairman read the following order:

"ORDERED: That in the proceeding instituted in this Committee on April 18, 1953, and now pending before this Committee for final decision, in the matter of the dismissal of Max Weitz-man as a teacher, elementary, Robert Treat Paine District, it be, and hereby is, decided as follows:

1. There is competent evidence warranting a finding, and it is found, that—

(a) Max Weitzman is a public school teacher employed to serve at discretion under Section 41 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as amended;

(b) at least thirty days, exclusive of customary vacation periods, prior to this meeting of this Committee, Max Weitzman was notified of the intention of this Committee to vote at this meeting on the matter of his dismissal as a teacher, elementary, Robert Treat Paine District;

(c) Max Weitzman was, upon his request, furnished by this Committee with written charges of the causes for which his dismissal is proposed.

(d) the Superintendent of Schools in the City of Boston has given this Committee his recommendations on the matter of the dismissal of Max Weitzman as a teacher, elementary, Robert Treat Paine District; and

(e) Max Weitzman was, upon his request, given a public hearing before this Committee at which hearing he was represented by counsel and had the opportunity to call witnesses to testify in his behalf and examine them and did cross-examine witnesses and present argument through his counsel.

2. The motions made by Max Weitzman's counsel after both sides rested at said hearing become immaterial in view of the detail in this decision.

3. At the aforesaid public hearing competent evidence was introduced warranting a finding, and it is found, that Max Weitzman did on April 18, 1953, refuse to answer before the School Committee of the City of Boston the following questions:

(a) 'Mr. Weitzman, have you ever held membership in the Communist Party?'

(b) 'Are you presently a member of the Communist Party, Mr. Weitzman?'

(c) 'Mr. Weitzman, have you in the past attended meetings of the Communist Party?'

(d) 'Have you ever solicited members for the Communist Party?'

(e) 'Did you attempt to solicit or recruit members for the Communist Party at any time?'

(f) 'Have you ever attended any group meetings of the Communist members to your knowledge?'

(g) 'Then you knew Mr. Philbrick, did you or didn't you?'

And further that Max Weitzman did on April 18, 1953, refuse to answer before the School Committee of the City of Boston each of the above-quoted questions on the ground that under the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and also under Article 1 of the Declaration of Rights in the Constitution of Massachusetts and also under Section 39 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of Massachusetts, he had a right to refrain from answering.

"4. At the aforesaid public hearing the following charge was substantiated, to wit, the charge that Max Weitzman did on April 18, 1953, refuse to answer before the School Committee of the City of Boston the following questions:

(a) "Mr. Weitzman, have you ever held membership in the Communist Party?"

(b) "Are you presently a member of the Communist Party, Mr. Weitzman?"

(c) "Mr. Weitzman, have you in the past attended meetings of the Communist Party?"

(d) "Have you ever solicited members for the Communist Party?"

(e) "Did you attempt to solicit or recruit members for the Communist Party at any time?"

(f) "Have you ever attended any group meetings of the Communist members to your knowledge?"

(g) "Then you knew Mr. Philbrick, did you or didn't you?"

"5. This Committee has, on its part, a duty, implied in law, to maintain the integrity of the public schools of the City of Boston, including the subsidiary duty of inquiring whether the teachers in those schools are loyal to the United States of America. A teacher employed by this Committee to serve at discretion under Section 41 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as amended, has, on his part, a duty, implied in law, when asked by this Committee a question reflecting upon his loyalty to the United States of America, to hold himself above suspicion by meeting the question with a categorically affirmative or negative answer; and a refusal by such a teacher so to do constitutes conduct unbecoming a teacher and also insubordination, both within the meaning of Section 42 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as amended; and, in addition, the retention as a teacher of a person who so refuses to answer is not for the good of the Boston School System. Section 39 of said Chapter 71 relating, as it does, to religious beliefs, creeds and practices and political opinions and affiliations and not to questions of loyalty to the United States has no bearing on the respective duties here involved; and, since a person of his own free will chooses to become a teacher employed to serve at discretion under said Section 41, the duties on his part here involved do not deprive him of any of the fundamental liberties protected by either the First or Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States or by Article 1 of the Declaration of Rights in the Constitution of Massachusetts except in the remote sense that limitation is inherent in every choice; but such limitation may certainly be imposed for the protection of the public schools from pollution as the liberties at stake are not absolute but subject to such limitations as may be necessary in the public interest.

6. Max Weitzman is hereby dismissed as a teacher, elementary. Robert Treat Paine District, for conduct unbecoming a teacher, for insubordination, and for the good of the Boston School System, and for each of those causes severally."

Dr Foley: Madam Chairman, I move the adoption of the order.

The Secretary was directed to call the roll and the members voted as follows:

YEAS — Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mr. Muchnick, and Mrs. Lyons—5

NAYS—0.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, there are certain matters that I would like to take up—one or two—if I might. They won't be particularly lengthy.

Madam Chairman, I move you that the Secretary be directed to note that it is now 10:53 p. m. of June 29, 1953, and that the vote was taken just a minute or two prior to the statement as to what the time appears on our clock.

Chairman: Miss Reynolds, would you see that that is recorded?

The Secretary was directed to call the roll and the motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mr. Muchnick, and Mrs. Lyons—5.

NAYS—0.

EXTENSION OF VALIDITY OF CERTIFICATE OF QUALIFICATION

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I want to take one thing up out of order.

There are some lists which would normally expire as of June 30th of this year—namely, tomorrow. One of those lists is Architectural Drawing, Certificate No. XXXI.

There are some questions with reference to that particular list that I would like to go into, and we obviously don't have the time for it. As a matter of fact, there is something on the agenda that is related, at least indirectly, to that list, Architectural Drawing, Certificate XXXI. Day and Evening Industrial Schools.

I therefore offer the following: ORDERED, That the period of validity of Certificate XXXI. Day and Evening Industrial Schools, Architectural Drawing, Rating 857, Cedric O. Salstrom, veteran, expiring June 30, 1953, is hereby extended up to and including July 31, 1953.

Chairman: On Mr. Muchnick's motion to extend the list for Architectural Drawing. Would you call the roll, please?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, before we call the roll, do you have any information on that, Mr. Haley?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, my recommendation to the School Committee is not to freeze a list—

Chairman: Would you call the roll, please?

Superintendent: I have the information that is necessary. It has been on this agenda for several weeks, and I will be glad to present it in regard to that particular position.

It is No. 3 on the agenda; the report of the Superintendent relating to a course in Auto Body Work and Architectural Drafting in the Boston Public Schools.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I would like to hear that report before we are asked to vote on this item or the motion pertaining to this item.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, may I ask when the Superintendent had that report prepared?

Superintendent: This report, Madam Chairman, has been on the agenda several days.

Mr. Muchnick: I am asking as to when the Superintendent's report and recommendation was prepared?

Superintendent: June 10th.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, it may be that I don't read my mail, but I think I do.

Superintendent: I am sorry. That was Robert McCabe. I am sorry, Mr. Muchnick.

Chairman: Did the members receive a copy of your report, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: This was April 28th.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it has been a long standing instruction of at least a year and a half, to my knowledge, that such reports, when prepared by the Superintendent or the Assistant Superintendents, or anybody preparing a report, should be sent to members of the School Committee through the mail so that they might study them and be prepared to act on them at a meeting.

If this has been ready since April 28th, unless I don't receive my mail or don't read it, I don't know what is in the Superintendent's report and I would like to have a copy of the report so that I could study it in my spare time and then act on this matter; and it is necessary, if that is going to be able to be done intelligently, that obviously this list and any other lists in this kind of category should have their life extended for one month.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I have the copy of the report of the Superintendent on Architectural Drawing, and it is dated April 28, 1953. I also have a report on the Auto Body Work in secondary schools dated April 28, 1953. This has been in my office for at least two weeks to my knowledge, and I would like to hear the Superintendent's interpretation of his report.

Chairman: You have the report there, Mr. Carr, haven't you? Don't you know what he said?

Mr. Carr: Well, I do. I am able to read it, but I would like his interpretation of it just to see if it coincides with my interpretation.

Superintendent: Miss Reynolds, these are copies which you sent to members, evidently.

Secretary: I would say Yes.

Chairman: I received a copy. I think all of us received a copy, but it is a long time ago, and I remember distinctly what you said in that, Mr. Superintendent, and I do think, where the Committee has had to give so much time to matters which they never expected they would have to give that much time to, there are some of the other items that are going to come before the Committee that have been of necessity allowed to go long past the time that we ordinarily would have taken them up.

Where there is a list that is so vital to people, I think we should extend those lists, and I certainly go along with Mr. Muchnick's idea that they should be extended for one month to give us a chance to catch up with this agenda.

I would ask that you call the roll on that, please, Miss Reynolds.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, in this report the Superintendent reports that Assistant Superintendent Daley will discuss with the Head Masters the opportunities for employment in this field. I wonder if you have any information on that?

Superintendent: Mr. Daley?

Mr. Daley: I sent that information to the Head Masters to give the men an opportunity to explain it to their pupils. I have no other information on it.

Chairman: By the very nature of the work, it would seem to me that there would be very ample opportunity, with all the building that is going on, to have classes of boys very interested in this type of a course if it was explained to them exactly what the course consisted of and what their opportunities would be when they finish school in that field.

I find it hard to believe that there is no class or that you cannot get a class or that there are very few boys or no boys interested in drafting that would bring them into that type of work.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, particularly in view of what Mr. Daley has just said — that he has not heard from the Head Masters — that is all the greater reason for having this extended to see just what the Head Masters will have to say, if anything, about this in line with what you yourself have just said about such opportunities.

The private schools on the high school level and the post high school level or junior college level in and around Boston are full of such classes; and they are bursting at the seams in some of the places, notably Wentworth Institute; and it seems to me that if there is such a great demand for that kind of vocational education, we ought to make a pretty thorough study of it before we just let things expire because of inactivity and inaction.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, there is no inactivity and no inaction. This is a pretty good example of one man trying to force the Superintendent to appoint him when there is no vacancy, and fortunately for the system, the Superintendent holds a right under the statute to nominate.

Now, this case has been before the School Committee long before this year, and we have made every effort to put the advantages of Architectural Drafting before the Head Masters and before the boys of this school system, and Mr. Daley has taken every precaution and made every effort.

We are not going to force boys into a course simply to appoint one man who is putting pressure on the Superintendent and putting pressure on the School Committee.

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, I don't think that any one of us has done that. I am certainly one person on this Committee who does not bend to very much pressure at all, but I do find it very difficult to believe that a group of boys who do take drafting in our schools would not become interested in this particular type of drafting.

There is so much building going on. There are so many opportunities for them in public housing and all that. They could walk out of high school, and as skilled workmen demand very high salaries. I cannot believe that these boys will not be interested in that type of a course.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I did not make the motion I made because of any pressure that had been applied on me. I don't know whether I am in the low pressure class or the high pressure class, but fortunately to date I have been pressure proof.

I just would like to read the excerpts or some excerpts from a letter sent to me within the last six weeks by one of the men who is a Head Master in one of our schools which is recognized as one of our very able Head Masters in one of our best schools concerning the man about whom the Superintendent says there is pressure, and also concerning in part Mr. Daley's statement about Head Masters not saying anything about the situation or caring.

Mr. Daley: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: With reference to the particular man, it says, in part, and I won't mention the Head Master's name for the time being, at least:

"As a result of our working together I had good opportunity to observe his work as a teacher. In my opinion Mr. Salstrom is an excellent teacher."

Then he goes on:

"I believe this is the first time I have ever written you about an appointment to the Boston system."

And that includes his own promotional appointment, incidentally, about which he never wrote.

"In my opinion the Boston School System will profit by having him added to our corps of teachers."

This is not an attempt to get a job for a favorite. It is not an attempt to get a job for an incompetent. Obviously this letter speaks pretty well about competency. It is not even an attempt to get a job for anybody. It is purely an attempt to get a situation studied, to see if Architectural Drawing is something that we should offer to boys in our school system and to see why it is so desirable in all the schools, public and private, in and around this city; and extending the life of a list for one month is not going, by any stretch of the imagination, to have any adverse affect on the school system.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I was very interested in the remarks of the former speaker, and I can see no obstacle to having this thing studied, seeing what benefits architectural drawing would be to our pupils; but I see no necessity for freezing a list, and if I remember correctly, Madam Chairman, when this came up before this Committee two months ago the same member assured these people who appeared here that they would have an answer in two weeks.

Now it is long since then, and it seems funny that he should wait until the eleventh hour to come in with a motion to freeze this list, and I see no reason for violating the procedure of the School Committee or the Administration.

Chairman: Will you call the roll, please, Miss Reynolds?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, prior to the calling of the roll, my motives having been at least indirectly impugned, may I suggest that I did not know a couple of months ago that I was going to get the mumps.

Chairman: Would you call the roll now, please?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Chairman: The roll is being called, Mr. Superintendent.

Mr. Carr: I will gladly relinquish my place on the roll to hear the Superintendent. Go ahead, Mr. Superintendent.

Chairman: Will you call the roll, please?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I have the floor. I relinquished my position to the Superintendent.

Chairman: I asked that the roll be called.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Superintendent, I gladly yield you my time if you want to use it.

Superintendent: I certainly hope, Madam Chairman, that this Committee will not be guilty of freezing a list for one man.

Now, there has been pressure, Madam Chairman. Mr. Muchnick is reading evidence of pressure upon him. There are many worthy men and many worthy women at the head of lists, and no opportunities occur for them, and the lists expire and they accept that; and this man is not willing to accept it and we cannot make a position for a man just because he is a good man.

Our rules and regulations call for a certain number of pupil hours of a particular subject before I can make a nomination; and I say to you, Madam Chairman, that this is not the first time that certain members of this Committee have tried to force me into making nominations of certain individuals, and I stand on my legal rights.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, may I ask one question of the Superintendent?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Chairman: You are out of order, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: We are in process of calling the roll, and I think it was my time that was yielded. I think it reverts to me.

Mr. Muchnick: Do I understand from the Superintendent that he implies by the first part of his remarks that some or at least one of our Head Masters is guilty of engaging in the business of attempting to pressure members of the School Committee, and do I understand further that the Boston Clerical School is run in accordance with the rules and regulations of the School Committee concerning the number of people employed there as teachers as of now with reference to pupil hours and the numbers of pupils to the ratio of teachers employed? Because if the latter part is so, it is completely an incorrect statement, as the record will show, of a few months ago, and the answer given then was that it had to be done that way, rules or no rules, in order to get proper instruction.

Chairman: Will you call the roll, please?

Secretary: This is Mr. Muchnick's motion.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I am very well acquainted with the man who is at the head of the list. I know he has come excellently recommended. I regret that I cannot see disrupting the procedure of the Administration, nor do I go along with some members of this Committee on freezing these lists.

I regret that it will hurt this man, but in all good conscience I am bound to vote No.

Miss Fitzgerald: No.

Dr. Foley: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Chairman: Yes.

PROPOSED SITE FOR NEW SCHOOL, MISSION HILL

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, just one further item, if I may.

The Legislature will be proroguing within the next two or three or four weeks at the most. The Superintendent indicated when we last spoke here, if I remember, concerning land for the new school at Mission Hill that he favored taking Park Department land. Subsequently there was a conference in the Mayor's office, and that as a result of certain observations by some members of the Committee, including myself, and other people present, was sidetracked—at least from the point of view of its being a definite situation.

However, no other land to my knowledge has yet been obtained out there; and if we are going eventually, as we may have to, to take Park Department land, of necessity there has to be legislation for that purpose.

Now I would like to know from the Superintendent with reference to that Park Department land which he has been favoring and which, I assume, he still favors, not knowing anything to the contrary, as to whether he has obtained the agreement of Mr. Kelley, Chairman of the Board of Park Commissioners, for the granting of that land or of the entire Board of Park Commissioners, and whether or not he has made any arrangements to have the Mayor and City Council approve legislation under Rule 7 (B) if and when such legislation is filed in the State House, and whether or not he has asked the Law Department or anybody to prepare and file the necessary permissive legislation which would enable the Park Department to give this land to the School Committee in the event that became necessary?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I will be very glad to answer that. I think that through School Committee action Miss Reynolds was requested to write to the Mayor to express the wish that that particular land be given to the School Department for a building, and that was where it was last left so far as I know. Miss Reynolds, perhaps, can answer from there on.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, let me make one point clear. It was the Superintendent who, not five minutes ago, made the statement—and I think I am quoting verbatim:

"I stand on my legal rights."

Now, under the law, if I understand it correctly, it is the Superintendent who selects the site for a new school; and if, in the selection of a site for a new school, the Superintendent wishes to have the opinion and advice of the School Committee, or its guidance, he can have it, or he doesn't have to have it.

In selecting the Park Department land, it is not sufficient under the law, for the Superintendent to say, "That's the land I want," because he cannot have it taken by eminent domain. It requires the approval of the Park Department, it requires the approval of the Mayor, the City Council, the House, the Senate, and the Governor, even though it may not require the approval of the School Committee.

And, therefore, regardless of any request to Miss Reynolds to write to the Mayor, there are some necessary steps that have to be taken or should have been taken by the Superintendent—preliminary steps such as getting approval of Mr. Kelly and the Board of Park Commissioners, and I would like to know if any attempt has been made to get that, among other things.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I selected that as the site on which I felt that the school should be built, and I so expressed that fact, to the School Committee.

At that meeting, or a later meeting—and I think you will bear me out, Madam Chairman—you said, I believe, that you wanted to go out and look it over and perhaps have the Mayor go out and look it over with the Committee, at large, and I think, if I am not mistaken, that Mr. Carr said at that time that he knew the site very well and did not need to go out to look it over.

At that time it was left entirely that the School Committee would confer with the Mayor as far as going out to that spot to look it over was concerned.

At a meeting of the School Committee, at which I was not present—I think, Miss Reynolds, you will bear me out on this—when I was ill about a month ago, I think the Committee directed Miss Reynolds to write to the Mayor to ask him to take whatever steps were necessary to obtain that land.

Am I right, Miss Reynolds? Secretary: I don't recall, Mr. Haley.

Superintendent: On the Park Department land?

Secretary: I don't really recall.

Superintendent: You and I talked it over after that, and you told me that the Committee had requested you to write to the Mayor in connection with taking over that land.

Chairman: I think the Committee made that request. I am quite sure.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, there was one intermediate step that the Superintendent neglected to mention. As I understand it, an emissary of the Mayor's or an employee of the Mayor's, conferred with the Superintendent concerning the entire situation out in the Mission Hill area, Park Department land and other land, and I got the impression from the report that was given to me that the Superintendent wanted for the school only that land which is owned by the Park Department.

If that impression is correct, then it seems to me it is incumbent upon the Superintendent to set the necessary wheels in motion by getting the Park Department's approval, and the Mayor's approval, and the Council's, and so forth, and to get it immediately because the Legislature will be proroguing within the next two or three weeks. Otherwise, we will have no land at all out there for any school, and there will be one more year behind.

Chairman: I think the people out there are greatly concerned. They think that the money was appropriated some time ago, and that some action should be taken at least to start the school; and I feel just that way, not only for the Mission Hill area, but now that we are assured of the $5,000,000, I think we should immediately take steps to find sites for schools in the sections where an emergency exists, and I think the very fact that it is emergency demands that we do that, and I see no reason, when we know that we have this money, why we cannot go on from now on and assure these people that they are going to have their schools.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, may I speak, please?

Chairman: Yes, Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: I simply want to refer back to the very order of the School Committee requesting that a letter go to the Mayor. Now it certainly was not going to step in over the School Committee, beyond the selection of the site.

Now, apropos of what Mr. Muchnick just said about an emissary of the Mayor calling me in regard to land, I am not sure whether he was an emissary of the Mayor or not. A gentleman did call me on the phone and ask me if I would give him some idea of where I wanted to place a school in the Mission Hill area.

Now, I make no statements to any individual of where I am going to select a site, because I do not think it is a wise policy, and I said to this gentleman, who said that he had first heard of it from you, Mr. Muchnick, that I was not ready to make any statements in regard to any other spot that I might choose until I had the refusal of the Park Department land.

Well, he said that if he knew about just where I would like to put the school he could do some investigating around in regard to the possible value of the property and the opportunities for obtaining property for a site in that particular area, and again I say that I make no statements to anyone in regard to a site other than to my superiors, the School Committee, and I make it right on the record.

So that I am not going to tell anyone where I am going to designate the spot for a school other than the School Committee, and then it is the responsibility of the School Committee after it is on the record.

Now I know this—that I have my thoughts set upon a certain piece of land over in the cow pasture area. Due to the fact that we had no money at the time, I was not able to designate that spot, and it changed hands and now is owned by a large—let's say—corporation, and now it seems unwise to choose that particular spot and take it by eminent domain because the income from it through the business opportunity will bring the City a considerable taxation.

I want this Committee to know, and I want it right on the record, that I am making no spots as sites for schools to anyone but the School Committee on the record.

Now, could I finish?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Superintendent: If it is the wish of the School Committee now that I take steps to get the site which I selected some time ago—and I think if you check the record you will find that I urged this Committee a long time ago to allow me or to take some action in regard to settling on that site because I said then that we must get legislation through the Legislature; and if it prorogues before we get the legislation through, then we will have to turn around and buy land.

So that this is nothing new. It is only what I said two or three months ago. If it is the wish of the School Committee that I take steps now with the Mayor and Mr. Kelly on the site that I think is the best, then I shall be glad to proceed.

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, I think that was very evident in the vote of the School Committee to write to the Mayor and ask him to take whatever steps were necessary to assure us of having that property. I don't know what else the Committee could have done about that a month ago.

Superintendent: Just let me read you the record of May 25th, and it was the day that I was absent due to illness. Referring back to the Park Department—

Dr. Foley: Miss Reynolds, have we heard anything on that?

Secretary: No, sir.

Dr. Foley: Will you get in touch with the Mayor?

Secretary: Mrs. Lyons went down and talked with the Mayor.

Chairman: The mayor said that he knew the district and he did not feel it was necessary to go out there and look it over. What action he wants to take as far as getting together with the Park Department and asking him what can be done to transfer that to us, I don't know; but I would suggest that we communicate with him and ask him if he would talk to Mr. Kelly of the Park Department and see what could be done. Do you think that is the best place, Mr. McMackin, to build that school?

Mr. McMackin: Yes, I do. The City Planning Board recommends the erection of a new school on that site. Strayer recommended it. I think the Harvard Group recommends a school nearer to the Ira Allen, and another school at the top of Parker Hill. In other words, they say, "Build one in the Mission Hill area," but they would locate it nearer the housing project.

Dr. Foley: Miss Reynolds, will you have Mr. McMackin get in touch with the Mayor's office and see if there can be a transfer of plans?

Business Manager: Won't it take legislation, Miss Reynolds?

Chairman: It will.

Mr. McMackin: Yes. There is $434,000. That will be just enough for the erection of a school building.

Chairman: How many rooms?

Mr. McMackin: Twelve or fourteen.

Chairman: Will that be sufficient to take care of that district?

Mr. McMackin: We thought we could first move on with the 12-room building and then demolish the old building.

Miss Fitzgerald: I think the mothers in that area felt that the present location where the current school is located is the safest one for the children in the project as well.

Dr. Foley: Is there any objection to holding it in abeyance?

Secretary: Then the Secretary will write to the Mayor and ask if it is possible.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, while normally I would not want to prolong this discussion or this kind of discussion, I cannot let go by what I think are some pretty unfair insinuations against an unnamed individual whom I do not intend to name and who is one of the finest citizens in this city and a responsible city official who identified himself, as I understand it, to the Superintendent, as representing the Mayor, because the Mayor did not feel that he himself could go out, and he asked this particular person, who is an expert in the field, to check the land areas with the Superintendent and for the Mayor as a result of the discussion that we had in the Mayor's office.

And to imply by the use of the language that was used or to infer, and I got that inference, that it was some unauthorized person and potentially some real estate speculator who was trying to make a killing by getting information that he had no right to get, to me seems to be most unfair; and then to switch the discussion to the calf pasture land and to state that we were not able to buy it because money was not available; I think the record will indicate that at either the first meeting at which the Superintendent asked that we provide $50,000 or the meeting immediately thereafter, the School Committee provided $50,- 000 for the purchase of some land which at the time the request was made was taxable property to the City and now is again taxable property to the City.

But if I remember correctly, we were asked to provide $50,000 for the purchase of that calf pasture land which was assessed for approximately half of that amount on the City records, and which had been purchased by this group that the Superintendent refers to as a large corporation about a year before the request was made by him for our appropriation of $50,000 and had been purchased by that group for a sum far less than $50,000, and I wonder if all these facts would have been made known to us at all if it were not for the fortuitous circumstance that that particular group, or some members of it, were at the time involved in the newspapers as being after some heavy land damage claims from the Boston Housing Authority as a result of another transaction.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, every member of this Committee has his own impression from remarks and it is his privilege to put the interpretation on the remarks of the Superintendent that he sees fit to make.

The only interpretation that I could possibly see was that the Superintendent was not sure whether this person who represented himself as being an emissary of the Mayor was an emissary or not, and I think he was very wise in refraining from designating any spot. We are not children, and we know there are speculations in the real estate market, and I think we were caught sleeping on the calf pasture project.

When the money was asked to be appropriated long before it changed hands, we could have bought it for a reasonable price. When the money finally was appropriated, we found it had changed hands. I commend the Superintendent for his wisdom, and because of the late hour I now move that we adjourn.

Chairman: I would first like to ask Miss Reynolds if she will find out from the Mayor or call him—did you get a letter back, Miss Reynolds? It is there and on the record and you will probably go to him; and if you haven't a letter would you call his office and ask them to reply to us as the time is very short and we would like to take whatever steps are necessary.

Mr. Carr: I was going to urge upon you, Madam Chairman, because of the pressure of time that the Legislature is under the impression that they will prorogue the end of this week so I think the time element is important.

Chairman: That is why I asked Miss Reynolds to call rather than write. Will you do that, Miss Reynolds?

Secretary: Yes.

Chairman: Mr. Carr says they are on the point of proroguing. If there are to be some steps taken by him in the City Council, would he immediately see that those steps are taken so that we can start and ask for bids for that land.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, just to be sure for the future it is now left that Miss Reynolds will take it up with the Mayor.

Chairman: Yes, but I hope you will take an interest in it, Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: I certainly have had an interest in it for a long, long time.

Chairman: Seeing that the time is so short, we will get this through before the Legislature prorogues.

Miss Fitzgerald: Doesn't the Superintendent automatically have to recommend the site or some such thing?

Chairman: That is true.

Superintendent: I recommended the site some time ago.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it would seem to me, and there is no point in belaboring the discussion any further, that it is clearly the function of the Superintendent as the executive officer of this Committee, to make the arrangements with Mr. Kelly and the Mayor and the Council and everybody else for the procuring of that site, if that is the site which he wishes to have and which he is empowered under the law to select.

It is not proper just to say: "I want this piece of property, boys and girls. You go out and get it for me."

If he feels that that is the proper piece to have, then obviously he ought to speak to Mr. Kelly, who is the head of the Park Department, and he ought to speak to Mr. Hynes, who is the head of the City, and he ought to speak to all of the other people concerned, not just sit back in a vacuum and say, "I picked this site; now let the rest of the city put it into effect for me."

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, now we have two points of view, and I simply want to know what the majority of this Committee wants me to do. I think it is fair to say, Madam Chairman, that you wish Miss Reynolds to handle it with the Mayor. I think it is fair to assume that Mr. Muchnick—correct me, if I am wrong—wishes to have the Superintendent proceed.

Now, I will do whatever a majority of the School Committee wish to have me do, and I know Miss Reynolds will do whatever a majority of the School Committee wish to have her do, too.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it seems obvious that the Superintendent is not going to do anything unless it is by direction. It seems to me that that is not the way for the executive officer of any board of directors to act. To make sure that we get some action one way or the other on this, I will go along very gladly, or not too gladly, but I will go along, with asking Miss Reynolds to do it, although it is clearly something that the Superintendent should have done weeks and months ago.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: But if we are going to have it done, then let's have somebody do it on whom we can rely?

Superintendent: We would have done it months ago but the order was given by this Committee and I read it here, for Miss Reynolds to do it.

Chairman: Well, Mr. Superintendent, I think that the Committee felt that they would hear something back, as you would have injected yourself into it, and we would get some action back, and now I have been getting many, many calls from people over there who feel as though they are rather let down.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, that is not my fault because you gave an order and I read the minutes of the meeting. Is it the wish of the majority—

Chairman: Miss Reynolds will do it, and you will help her, Mr. Superintendent.

Mr. Carr: This will be a cooperative movement, Madam Chairman, between the Superintendent and the Secretary.

The Committee adjourned.

Subject: City Council Resolve of August 17, 1953, Relative to a Sales Activity Program of the City-Owned Real Estate.
Dear Mr. Flemming:
This is in reply to a communication from your office, dated August 19, 1953, concerning City Council resolve of August 17, 1953, relative to a sales activity program of city-owned real estate. Several of the suggestions of the Council resolve are in keeping with the program of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners. Each branch library in the City of Boston and the Central Library at Copley square have copies of listings of all our properties, including therein the location, size and assessed valuation of each parcel under our jurisdiction throughout the city.
We are presently in the process of bringing our book of listings up to date, and copies of the new listings will also be sent to each of our libraries. As soon as our new listing book is completed and ready for distribution, the Board will go forward with an active promotional plan of disposing of city-owned property, utilizing the suggestions set forth in the Council's resolve.
Very truly yours,
HERMAN CARP, Chairman.

Coun. HURLEY in the chair.

Coun. PIEMONTE moved that the message of his Honor the Mayor and communication from the Chairman, Board of Real Estate Commissioners, be returned to his Honor the Mayor with the request that the Chairman, Board of Real Estate Commissioners, give more specific and detailed information to the order passed by the City Council on August 17, 1953.

Subject: City Council Order of August 31, 1953, Requesting the Erection of a Chain-Link Fence, Approximately 1,300 Feet Long and 6 Feet High, to Enclose the City-Owned Property Known as the "Dust-Bowl" at Captain John's Hill, Hyde Park.

We have had the area in question surveyed and find that a fence approximately 1,300 feet long and 6 feet high, to enclose the property, should be erected. The work will be done if and when funds become available.

CERTAIN PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT ON THE LORD'S DAY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 28, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

It has just been brought to my attention that chapter 596 of the Acts of 1953 entitled "An Act Relative to the Licensing of Certain Public Entertainment on the Lord's Day" which was enacted to enable the issuance on a yearly, as distinguished from a weekly, basis of licenses for public entertainment on Sunday through the use of television, radio, and music provided by mechanical or electrical means, contains, through a draftsman's error, a provision which, while it was intended to fix the fee payable to the State Commissioner of Public Safety in connection with all Sunday entertainment licenses, in fact fixes the fee payable to the municipality in connection with all such licenses.

The fee so fixed is $2 a Sunday. In the case of entertainment through the use of television, radio, and music provided by mechanical or electrical means, this fee is the same as that presently charged in Boston; but in the case of so-called live entertainment, i.e., entertainment by vocalists, instrumentalists or other entertainers, the fee so fixed is $3 less than the current Boston fee, and in fact the reduced fee of $40 for an annual license in the case of entertainment through the use of television, radio, and music provided by mechanical or electrical means would seem to be far in excess of the clerical work involved in issuing an annual license which would be much less than that required to process fifty-two weekly licenses.

An ordinance can be passed under chapter 222 of the Acts of 1949 to remedy the situation by re-establishing the current rate for weekly licenses while at the same time reaffirming $50 fee for an annual license. That, it would seem, ought to be done, and done today, because chapter 596 of the Acts of 1953 will become operative next Sunday.

Accordingly, I recommend the immediate passage of the ordinance submitted herewith.
Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-three.

An Ordinance Concerning the Fees for Sunday Entertainment Licenses, So Called.
Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Section 42 of chapter 41 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, as most recently amended by chapter 2 of the Ordinances of 1952, is hereby further amended by adding after clause 32 the following new clause:

33. The fee for a license granted by the Mayor under section 4 of chapter 196 of the Acts of 1949 to hold a public entertainment on one Sunday shall be $10; except that in cases where there is no admission or cover charge and the entertainment is provided by one or more vocalists, instrumentalists or other entertainers, such fee shall be $5; and except further that in cases where there is no admission or cover charge and there is only entertainment through the use of television, radio, and music provided by mechanical or electrical means, such fee shall be $2. The fee for an annual license granted by the Mayor under said section 4 to hold on Sunday a public entertainment solely through the use of television, radio, and music provided by mechanical or electrical means shall be $30. The fees fixed by this paragraph shall be in addition to any sum payable to the state commissioner of public safety.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CORPORATION COUNSEL RE VARIOUS ORDERS AND RESOLUTIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 28, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

Transmitted herewith for your information are copies of communications sent me under date of September 17, 1953, by the Corporation Counsel relative to the following orders and resolutions passed by your Honorable Body:

Order of February 16, 1953, regarding certain allegations in connection with the installation of cables by the Boston Fire Department.

Order of June 22, 1953, seeking certain specific information in connection with legislation then pending for the reorganization of the district courts.

Resolution of June 22, 1953, concerning institution of declaratory judgment or other proceedings for judicial determination of constitutionality of urban redevelopment statutes.

Order of June 29, 1953, relative to the Supreme Judicial Court's giving an advisory opinion to the Massachusetts Legislature with respect to the constitutionality of urban redevelopment statutes.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, September 17, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
On February 25, 1952, the City Council passed the following order:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested by his Honor the Mayor to render to the Executive Committee of the City Council an opinion on the following:

"Has the City Council authority to amend or condition the order for sale of a certain portion of Franklin Field to the Boston Housing Authority so that the moneys received from the Boston Housing Authority for the sale of said portion of land be earmarked for additional playgrounds and other facilities for the Franklin Field section of Boston."

This is to report that the opinion requested by the above-quoted order was furnished the Executive Committee of the City Council in a writing delivered by messenger on and February 25, 1952, the text of which shall be as follows:

I have been informed that your Committee desires to supplement my communication of even date by stating my opinion as to the power of the City Council to provide, in an order authorizing the sale of real estate, for the disposition of the proceeds thereof, inasmuch as under St. 1941, c. 456, s. 3, as amended by St. 1941, c. 604, s. 1, all appropriations, other than for school purposes, to meet taxes, revenue or any source other than loans, must originate with the Mayor, it is my opinion that the City Council has no power to provide, in an order authorizing the sale of real estate, for the disposition of the proceeds of such sale.
Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,
Law Department, September 17, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
This is to report the action being taken with respect to the sale passed by the City Council on June 9, 1952, which read as follows:

"Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston be requested to furnish the City Council with a list of all ordinances, resolutions, and regulations issued in pur-stances thereto governing the required notice and the manner in which said notice is given and to whom, in all applications for the issuances of licenses, changes of zoning laws, or other matters seeking permission for the conduct of some activity out of the ordinary course of business, a detailed outline of the procedure actually followed in a detailed statement as to suggested changes in existing statutes, ordinance or regulations desirably in order to adequately safeguard the interests of the City of Boston, persons owning property in Boston and the City of Boston itself."

As your Honor will have noticed, the above-quoted order in its substance is embracing essentially every kind and description of license and permit. Viewed in this light, little can fairly be said to have been accomplished on my project to date, although every effort is being made to complete the project as speedily as may be consistent with the other work of this department. In this connection, it may not be inappropriate for me to call to your attention that this department is currently engaged in several other unusual projects, of which I should perhaps particularly mention the consolidation and arrangement of all special laws relating to the City of Boston, consideration of the legal aspects of municipal reorganization, preparation of a code, the compilation of a list of trust funds, and the drafting of a comprehensive fee schedule ordinance for passage under St. 1940, c. 222.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,
Law Department, September 17, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
On January 29, 1953, the City Council adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor request the Corporation Counsel, the Budget Commissioner, and the Auditor to make a detailed study of the pending proposal to revise the District Court System of the City of Boston with a view to determining the additional costs that would be incurred by the City of Boston if such revision was carried out; and be it further
"Resolved, That said Committee study recommendations to be suggested to the Massachusetts Legislature or proponents of said measures whereby the City of Boston would be alleviated of bearing the burden of any additional costs."

This is to state for the record that no special action was taken upon the above-quoted resolution, but until chapter 98 of the Acts of 1953 was substituted for the proposed legislation in question, the matter was carefully studied, watched and handled in accordance with the usual procedure of this office.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 17, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
This is to report the action taken upon the following orders passed by the City Council on February 16, 1953:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Corporation Counsel to make inquiry regarding the allegation that members of the Boston Fire Department are, under instructions from their superiors, performing fire-fighting hours of duty for the city, on private property in connection with the installation of cables, and further, that said cable being used for private purposes is the property of the city for which the city is not being reimbursed; and be it further "Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel make whatever investigation he may deem proper for changes in the ordinances or regulations, governing the firemen in order to adequately protect them for any injury sustained while performing on such work under the instructions of their superiors."

Shortly after February 18, 1953, when your Honor transmitted to me copies of the above-quoted orders, inquiry was made regarding the allegations mentioned in the first order. Such inquiry disclosed that just as firefighters frequently work upon private property in extinguishing fires, so members of the Fire Alarm Division of the Fire Department, as a part of the performance of their public duty, occasionally work upon private property in interlocking a private fire alarm system with the public fire alarm system. It becomes the duty of the Fire Alarm Division to make such interlocking connection because it would be against the public interest to have private persons working upon the public fire alarm system. When a sparking wires exactly on the property line is impracticable, the interlocking connection must be made at some convenient point on the private estate. The inquiry failed to reveal any instance where a member of the Fire Alarm Division went beyond that point or where cable belonging to the city was used in a private fire alarm system. It was noted that since every member of the Fire Alarm Division is entitled to workmen's compensation benefits in the event of injury arising out of and in the course of his employment and since there was no evidence that any member of that Division was acting otherwise than in the course of his employment, there was no occasion to make any recommendation under the second of the above-quoted orders.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 17, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

On June 24, 1953, your Honor transmitted to me the following order passed by the City Council on June 22, 1953:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested, under the provisions of 17F, chapter 376 of the Acts of 1951, to furnish the City Council information set forth in the following questions, said information to be furnished as soon as possible before the 14-day limit expires, and in compiling this information his Honor the Mayor consider related statutes governing salaries paid to probation officers, clerks, assistant clerks, court officers, especially as to how they are affected by the order of judges:

1. Does the legislation now pending in the Massachusetts General Court for the reorganization of the district court increase or further financial burden on the City of Boston?

2. What, if any, would be the increased cost per year due to pay increases for judges?

3. What, if any, would be the increased cost per year due to pay increases for clerks?

4. What, if any, would be the increased cost per year due to pay increases for assistant clerks?

5. What, if any, would be the increased cost per year due to pay increases for probation officers?

6. What, if any, would be the increased cost per year due to pay increases for court officers?

7. What, if any, would be the increased cost per year due to pay increases for clerks?

8. What would be the initial cost to the city for alterations and remodeling of the facilities needed for the use of the judges and the courts by the passage of this legislation?

9. What would be the additional cost for equipment and supplies?

10. What would be the additional annual cost to the city for equipment and supplies?

11. What will the total increased cost per year to the City of Boston be if the passage of the pending district court reorganization (including the salary increases of all persons, judges, clerks, probation officers, court officers and other help)?

12. Does the pending bill make provisions for the state or any other community to bear any part of this cost?

The purpose of this communication is to state for the record that I took no specific action upon the above-quoted order because it was not taken up at a meeting of the City Council held on July 3, 1953, by the substitution, in the place of the proposed act to which it referred, of legislation providing for an investigation and study. (See Res. 1953, c. 98.)

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 17, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
This is to report the action being taken with respect to the resolution adopted by the City Council on June 22, 1953, which read as follows:

"Whereas, the reorganization of the Urban Redevelopment Program in the City of Boston under the Federal Urban Redevelopment Program is a matter of considerable import to the members of the public in the City of Boston resident in the areas scheduled for redevelopment and to others; and

Whereas, it now appears that some doubt has arisen as to whether the right of eminent domain exists for the purpose of accomplishing Urban Redevelopment in Massachusetts; be it therefore

"Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel immediately seek judicial determination by means of a declaratory judgment, or otherwise to legally determine whether there is legal power under the Massachusetts Constitution and the statutes of the Commonwealth to proceed with an Urban Redevelopment Program in the City of Boston; that particular attention be given to the question as to whether the power of eminent domain exists in the City for the purpose of Urban Redevelopment."

If a petition for a declaratory judgment is not to be dismissed upon demurrer, it must set forth a dispute caused by the assertion by one party of a legal relation, status or right in which he has a definite interest, and the denial of such assertion by another party is to bring a definite interest in the subject matter, where the circumstances attending the dispute plainly indicate that the matter is justiciable. Non-concise claims will almost inevitably and inevitably lead to litigation." School Committee of Sudbury v. Superintendent of Schools of Sudbury, 318 Mass. 516, 518. Such a dispute would also have to exist as the foundation of any other judicial proceeding.

While bond counsel customarily retained with respect to debt incurred by the City of Boston have stated that decision of the Supreme Judicial Court on a doubtful case they do not see how they could approve a bond issue until that court sustains the constitutionality of a land assembly and redevelopment project under the General Laws (Ter. Ed.), c. 121, s. 26J1J to 26J1M, inclusive, no person having a definite interest in the subject matter has as yet denied the constitutionality of such a project, and so there is no present basis for court action. The matter, however, is being watched closely by this office so that as soon as the opportunity presents itself the proper steps may immediately be taken to have the question judicially determined.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 17, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At its regular meeting held at 2 P.M. on Monday, June 29, 1953, the City Council passed the following order:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Corporation Counsel to advise the City of Boston to seek through the Legislature an 'Opinion of the Justices' of the Supreme Judicial Court as to whether the right of eminent domain exists in Massachusetts to accomplish the redevelopment under the present state and federal statutes, before prorogation of the Legislature this year."

As stated above, the order just quoted was passed on the afternoon of Monday, June 29, 1953. The Legislature prorogated at six minutes before five o'clock on the afternoon of the following day, Tuesday, July 4, 1953. The city's legislative representatives found the Legislature unwilling to seek the opinion requested by the above-quoted order short a time for the drafting, adoption and transmission to the court of the necessary order and the preparation and submission by the court of an answer to the question posed.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
— Corporation Counsel.

APPOINTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL AND DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, September 18, 1953.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

With reference to your order of August 31, in which it is requested that an unpaid commission to be known as the Boston Industrial and Development Commission be appointed, may I state that although this order has considerable merit, nevertheless, I believe the city at the present time, making every conceivable effort to accomplish the purposes for which such committee would be formed, is not in a position to do so.

The Industrial Advisor of the City of Boston keeps in close contact with the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, the New England Council, and the Boston Real Estate Exchange, and will work in conjunction and in harmony with the former Massachusetts Industrial and Development Commission. It is my hope that this newly-formed commission, with its opportunities for research, will bring beneficial results both to the state and to the City of Boston.

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

LEGISLATION TO EXTEND SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS TO MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, September 18, 1953.

To the City Council.

I transmit herewith communication from the Corporation Counsel relative to your resolve of August 19, 1953, approving legislation to be drawn up to be placed before the State Legislature advocating a program of Old Age and Survivors' Insurance to municipal employees.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Law Department, September 17, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under date of August 19, 1953, your Honor transmitted to me the following resolution adopted by the City Council two days earlier:

"Whereas, The 1950 amendment of the Social Security Act places the power in the hands of the State to extend Old Age and Survivors' insurance benefits to municipal and state employees; and

Whereas, The President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower, has advocated a program of extended benefits under this Social Security Act to municipal employees; therefore be it Resolved, That the Boston City Council herein assembled be placed on record as favoring legislation for the extension of Social Security benefits to municipal employees on an optional basis, and that the Law Department be requested through His Honor the Mayor, to draw up the appropriate legislation and place it before the State Legislature.

Section 106 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1950 added to Title II of the Federal Social Security Act provisions enabling voluntary agreements for extending to state and local employees the protection afforded by the Social Security Act, with the explicit limitation, however, that no such agreement may be made applicable to any service performed by employees as members of any coverage group in positions covered by a retirement system on the date such agreement is made applicable to such coverage group. By chapter 108 of the Acts of the General Laws of Massachusetts were amended by the insertion of a new chapter 118C, the intent of which expressly declared it to be the policy of the State to provide Social Security protection to employees of instrumentalities on as broad a basis as permitted under the federal Social Security Act. I am at a loss to understand why further legislation is desired, and so I respectfully ask to be excused from complying with the request contained in the above-quoted order.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of the Public Works Department relative to your resolution of August 19, 1953, requesting a speed-up on the repair work, Toll Gate Bridge, in the Forest Hills area.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
September 17, 1953.

Thomas G. J. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Shannon:
This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of September 14:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through His Honor the Mayor, to speed up the repair work on the Toll Gate Bridge in the Forest Hills area of Boston."

The completion of the above-referenced project has been unreasonably delayed, due to the inability on the part of the contractor to obtain the required lumber.

However, this matter has been further adjusted, and I feel reasonable certain that further advancement will be completed within the next two weeks.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

TRANSFER OF CERTAIN PARCELS OF LAND TO PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 16, 1953.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
Under date of August 31 your Honorable Body transferred to the Board of Real Estate Commissioners six parcels of land which were under the jurisdiction of the Public Works Department. I am now informed by the Commissioner of Public Works, whose communication is attached, that two of these parcels were erroneously transferred to the Board of Real Estate Commissioners. These parcels are now part of the South Boston District Yard and, obviously, should remain in the custody of the Public Works Department.

To correct the error I submit herewith an order which will transfer these two parcels of land to the care, custody and control of the Public Works Department, and I respectfully request the passage of the orders by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
September 8, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
Under date of August 31 of the current year, an order approved by your Honor on September 1 was passed in the City Council, transferring to the care, custody, management and control of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, six parcels of land previously under the jurisdiction of this department.

A mistake has been made in connection with the transfer of Parcels 5 and 6 in the above-referenced order. No request was made by this department to transfer these two (2) parcels to the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, and the inclusion of said parcels erroneously appeared on the original order that you submitted to the City Council.

At the time, I called this error to the attention of the Law Department, and also to the attention of the Chairman of the Committee on Public Lands of the Boston City Council, at a hearing that was held concerning the order. Parcels 5 and 6 were supposed to be deleted from the original order, but apparently this matter was overlooked and the order was passed in the form in which it was presented to you by the Law Department and in which it, in turn, was sent by you to the City Council.

The matter will have to be corrected, as Parcels 5 and 6 have since the property now used as the South Boston District Yard by the Sanitary Division of this department. We spent approximately $50,000 in the past two years on this yard, and it is most essential that it be retained in the control of this department.

The error is understandable, in that Parcels 3 and 4 were transferred to the jurisdiction of this department under the provisions of an order that was passed in the City Council on May 15, 1950. As we had no further parcels of Parcels 3 and 4, I requested in a letter to your Honor under date of January 23, 1952, that said parcels be transferred to the Board of Real Estate Commissioners. Apparently someone in the Law Department assumed that I referred to all parcels that appeared on the original order of May 15 of 1950, with the result that the four parcels were included in the order that was passed by the current City Council under date of August 31. As stated, however, subsequent to your sending the order to the City Council, I called this matter to the attention of the Law Department and the Chairman of the Committee on Public Lands in the City Council, but the mistake was not rectified, with the result that the South Boston District Yard is now officially under the control of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners.

In order to correct this mistake, I respectfully recommend that the enclosed order be submitted to the City Council, transferring to the care, custody, control, etc., of the two parcels of land described therein and which were recently transferred to the Board of Real Estate Commissioners by the City Council order of August 31.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That the following parcels of property be, and the same hereby are, transferred from the care, custody, control and management of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners to the care, custody, control and management of the Public Works Department for Public Works Department purposes.

About eight thousand two hundred fifty (8,250) square feet of land on the northeasterly side of West Second street, numbered one hundred seventy-eight (178) and one hundred seventy-eight (178) in the numbering of said West Second street, See decree of the Land Court, Suffolk Registry District, dated January 18, 1929, transferring a right of redemption under a tax deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 5393, page 235.

About eight thousand two hundred fifty (8,250) square feet of land on the southerly side of West First street, numbered one hundred seventy-five (175) to one hundred seventy-nine (179) in the numbering of said West First street, See decree of the Land Court, Suffolk Registry District, dated February 11, 1938, foreclosing a right of redemption under a tax deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 5440, page 330.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

LEGISLATION ENABLING FINANCIAL AID FOR PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 18, 1953.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Corporation Counsel relative to your resolve of September 18, 1953, that there be prepared and enacted legislation whereby the Boston Public Library would be enabled to receive financial aid from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and other sources for its annual maintenance.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, September 17, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On May 18, 1953, the City Council adopted the following order:

"Ordered, Whereas the Boston Public Library is more than just another department in the City of Boston, its scope of activity extends throughout the metropolitan area and even extends throughout the state; and

"Whereas, the Central Library at Copley square has served the needs of countless students of the many colleges in this area and as such has become an organic part of the great educational pattern of Greater Boston; and

"Whereas, at the 1952 budget hearings testimony was given that at least $100,000 of the annual maintenance cost of the Copley Square Branch could be attributed to non-residents of Boston; and

"Whereas, The Central Library houses the vast reference, rare book and manuscript, prints, special collection, fine arts, music, science and technology, record and film collection sections, which exert an appeal which is always metropolitan-wide; and

"Whereas, The cost of operation and maintenance of the Boston Public Library system is now borne solely by the Boston real estate owners; and

"Whereas, Other states in the Union have, by legislation, provided for financial aid by the Commonwealth and private sources for their city and county libraries; and

"Whereas, New York State for example has contributed about 30 per cent of the annual maintenance cost of the county library as a result of such legislation; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That His Honor the Mayor direct the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston to prepare and draft desirable legislation with adequate provisions whereby the Boston Public Library be enabled to receive financial aid from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and other sources for its annual maintenance, and further that such petition be filed with the Legislature and steps taken for its immediate passage."

Pursuant to the above-quoted resolution I have caused to be prepared and herewith submit to the City Council through your Honor a petition for the passage by the Massachusetts Legislature of a resolve entitled "Resolve Providing for an Annual Payment to the City of Boston in Partial Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred by It in Connection with the Use of Its Public Library by Citizens of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts of Said City," under which there would, subject to appropriation, be allowed and paid from the State Treasury to the City of Boston on the twentieth day of November of each year the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, to reimburse the city for part of the expenses annually incurred by it in connection with the operation of the Public Library by citizens of the commonwealth who are not inhabitants of Boston.

If the enclosed petitions with the approval of the City Council, it should take appropriate steps to have the same signed and filed by its own officers.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

(Annexed hereto are the petition and resolve referred to in the above communication.)

Referred to the Committee on Legislative Matters.

CONTINUATION OF SLUM CLEARANCE AND HOUSING CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:

Whereas, According to an announcement by the Chairman of the Boston Housing Authority, the City of Boston stands to be short about 20,000 units of public housing, and that planned construction will be halted with the exception of those now in operation which are to be completed by December 31, 1954, because of the cut-down on housing by the Federal Government; and

Whereas, The need for public housing is still one of the most distressing problems in the City of Boston, particularly in the classifications of low-end and veteran housing; and

Whereas, Thousands of applications of families seeking housing are still on file with the Boston Housing Authority, and the need for a continued program of slum clearance and housing construction is so vital; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, respectfully petitions the members of both Houses of Congress from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to prepare necessary legislation and to work for the enactment of such legislation in the Session of the Congress to commence January 1, 1954; and be it further

SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE FOR CONSIDERATION OF MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE COVERAGE.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:

Whereas, The increased cost for insurance coverage for the state's 1,200,000 motor vehicle owners, including 175,000 in the City of Boston, because of the increased assessment of surcharges of 27.4 per cent on passenger cars used primarily for business purposes and a 60 per cent increase on compulsory automobile insurance on cars driven by those under twenty-five years of age; and

Whereas, These additional classifications add to the confusion which already exists with regard to certain aspects of the so-called compulsory automobile insurance laws; and Whereas, The constitutionality of assessing war premiums against persons of different age levels; and

Whereas, Businessmen who find it necessary to use their automobiles in the pursuit of their livelihood have already been taxed to a saturation point; and

Whereas, The under twenty-five years of age group increase will be extremely injurious to those young men who in time of national emergency are the ones we depend upon to fight for our country, and that this age group will include a great many veterans of World War II, and will include even more veterans of the recently hard-fought Korean War; in view of the foregoing circumstances, plus numerous others; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, respectfully calls upon the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to forthwith call a special session of the Great and General Court for the purpose of considering such remedial legislation as will correct what has become an extremely unfair, unjust, discriminatory, and unpopular law.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

COMMENDATIONS TO RADIO STATION WBZ.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:

Whereas, Radio Station WBZ, having served the people of the City of Boston, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the entire New England area, for nearly thirty-two years, the anniversary of which is being celebrated this week; and

Whereas, During that period of time they have covered all of the most outstanding and important news events in the world, as well as bringing interesting and entertaining programs to the peoples of the above-mentioned area; and

Whereas, The development since the station's inception thirty-two years ago has expanded to include WBZ's radio and radio-act and more recently expanded to bring to the people of the above-mentioned areas WBZ-TV and its ultra-modern radio and television plant at 1170 Soldiers Field road; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, extends its congratulations and felicitations to this pioneer station on the occasion of its thirty-second anniversary, and, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to Radio Station WBZ and to the National Broadcasting System. The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

Bloom, Jr., a private in the U. S. Army, who was killed in Korea on October 23, 1952.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

REAPPRAISAL OF CITY-OWNED PROPERTY AT BROOKLINE AVENUE, PARK DRIVE, AND RIVERWAY.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the land bounded by Brookline avenue, Park Drive, the new cutoff road and the Riverway presently in the custody of the Park Department be reappraised on behalf of the city; that the said reappraisal establish two figures: (1) the value of the land if reformed for use as a public parking lot; and (2) the value of the land if reformed for use as a parking lot for customers of Sears Roebuck Company.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

OPPOSITION TO LAYOFFS AT BOSTON NAVY YARD.

Coun. HAILER offered the following:

Whereas, Ship repairing and ship building are major industries which hold the key to the economic welfare of Boston; and

Whereas, Proposed layoffs at the Boston Navy Yard would greatly affect not only the workers involved but the economy of the City of Boston as a whole; be it therefore Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, strongly opposes any further cutbacks in personnel at the Boston Navy Yard. The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

Coun. HAILER moved that both of the above orders be referred to the Executive Committee, which the Corporation Counsel be invited to attend the Executive Committee at next week's meeting.

The motion was carried.

Coun. PIEMONTE moved to reconsider the foregoing vote and the motion to reconsider prevailed.

General Order No. 46.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK.

Fire Prevention Week will be observed in the City of Boston from October 4 to 10, 1953, inclusive. Mayor John B. Hynes has issued the following statement in connection with the observance of this week:

"Fires can be prevented. Let us resolve to do our individual part to reduce loss of life and damage to property from fire during this week and every week throughout the year."

An organized campaign to emphasize the importance of fire prevention is being undertaken by the Boston Fire Department, by means of a series of activities concentrated into the Fire Prevention Week period.

Fire stations shall be open to the public between the hours of 12 noon and 8 P.M. for inspection of the premises and for the conveyance of information concerning fire department functions and fire prevention matters. When citizens come to a station during Fire Prevention Week, the man on house patrol shall summon the commanding officer, who should be available and ready to either show the visitors around the quarters and to answer questions regarding the department, or to have a suitable person assigned to this duty.

Children under twelve years of age should not be allowed in the fire stations unless accompanied by adults.

Canvas signs giving notice that Fire Prevention Week is in progress should be displayed from fire stations. Most stations have these signs in their possession from exhibitions of previous years, and it is the responsibility of company officers to see to it that these signs are kept in good condition from year to year. Signs should be displayed from Sunday to Saturday.

District chiefs are required to take an active interest in the fire prevention program in the following manner:

(a.) By arranging special visits to plants and large industrial premises in their districts during the week and holding a special fire drill during Fire Prevention Week, particularly where there are now fire brigades already existing. Notices of the date of the fire drill held and the rating of the drill as either "fair," "poor," or "good" should be forwarded to the Fire Prevention Division so that a summary may be made of the number and location of industrial fire drills conducted in the City of Boston during Fire Prevention Week, on each day of the week.

(b.) All public and private schools within each district should be visited by a district chief or such officer as may be detailed by the district chief to assist in this work. School fire drills are to be held, and permission should be obtained for the presentation of a five-minute talk on the subject of fire and fire prevention at an assembly of the pupils. Such talks should not be read from any manuscript or printed pamphlet, but should be delivered directly by the district chief or by some uniformed member of the Fire Department capable of presenting such a talk effectively and promptly.

(c.) Home inspection blanks should be provided to various school principals or head masters for distribution and collection by the teacher-fire counselor of the building. Collection of the filled-out home inspection blanks from teacher-counselors by the Fire Department is an important feature of the use of these forms and should not be neglected. A list of the schools from which such forms have been collected should be forwarded to the Fire Prevention Division on or before October 27.

(d.) Officers assigned by the district chief to deliver addresses in schools likewise should be assigned to attend Rotary Clubs, Kiwanis, Board of Trade, and other neighborhood and local organization functions, including women's club meetings in the district held during the week, or, if no meeting is scheduled during the week, to attend any meeting held during the month of October. Chief officers should know the various representative social organizations in the community and should keep a list of them for reference at such times when fire prevention messages of importance to the community are to be conveyed to such organizations quickly.

Throughout the week all firefighters are to pay special attention to the observance of fire hazards and to the duty of observing and locating fire hazards along the route followed by them in their coming to and going from daily work. Dilapidated buildings, rubbish accumulations, and other hazards should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. The public expects uniformed members of the Fire Department to know something about fire prevention work and to have an interest in this subject, since they are public employees engaged in this field. Firefighters, therefore, during Fire Prevention Week, should have this subject uppermost in their minds and they should not pass by any fire hazard at any time without making a note of it for reference to the Fire Prevention Division. In short, every uniformed man in the Fire Department is a fire prevention inspector at all times.

An extensive program of radio and television broadcasts, news releases, store window displays, and public exhibitions has been arranged for Fire Prevention Week, notice of which will appear through the usual channels.

By order of Fire Commissioner JOHN F. COTTER.

JAMES J. KANE,
Acting Chief of Department.

Further impetus to the city-wide Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program should be given by the planting of 150 trees along the streets in the vicinity of historic Dorchester Heights, the Pilot Area of the municipal program, according to an announcement of Mayor John B. The following is the report of Mayor Hynes' Citizens' Advisory Traffic Committee as presented after long and broad study:

Boston, October 6, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Several months ago you invited the undersigned to serve as a Citizens' Advisory Committee on the subject of traffic, with the objective of making recommendations to:

- A. Enhance the free flow of traffic.
- B. Provide for sufficient on- and off-street parking facilities.
- C. Provide suitable penalties against flagrant violations of traffic regulations.

Since that time our committee has held a series of 12 formal meetings. Various members of the committee have held numerous conferences with members of the Legislature and officials of the City of Boston, the Metropolitan District Commission, the Metropolitan Transit Authority, and the Massachusetts Department of Public Works. The committee has had the whole-hearted cooperation and help of the Traffic Commissioner, Mr. William Arthur Reilly, and his staff, as well as that of the Police Commissioner, Mr. Thomas F. Sullivan, and his staff.

Our attention has been directed primarily at the congestion in the downtown section of the city, because all studies indicate that this is the critical area. We have also considered the principal ways by which the citizens of Boston and the surrounding communities reach it. However, consideration of the outlying sections would have required more time than was available to us.

It has been a pleasure to serve on this committee. The undersigned members will feel sufficiently rewarded for their time if this report contributes to reducing the congestion which has a stranglehold on Boston economy.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS J. CARTY, Chairman.

CITIZENS' ADVISORY TRAFFIC COMMITTEE IN REPORT TO MAYOR HYNES—MANY RECOM- MENDATIONS MADE.

Report to the Mayor of the Citizens' Traffic Committee.

Your committee represents many diverse community interests, but we find ourselves in complete agreement that no single course of action can by itself lick the problem. We hold the considered opinion that the basic solution lies in a program of 100,000 additional off-street parking facilities, both within the downtown area and at or connected with mass transportation terminals. Other avenues of solution lie in highway improvements, better enforcement of existing parking regulations, new parking regulations, pedestrian control, and various legislative and administrative measures.

Our report contains 36 specific recommendations, of which 23, requiring little or no expenditures, can be taken immediately to provide speedy relief through better utilization of existing facilities.

We have carefully considered Boston's traffic problems during the past six months. We have consulted with the heads of many city and state departments; we have heard the considered views of many informed students of the traffic problem; and we have studied the actions of other communities and the recommendations of traffic engineers.

There can be no doubt that Boston's problem is acutely serious in terms of direct and indirect loss amounting to tens of millions of dollars annually to individuals and business firms. Even more important, the registration of motor vehicles is rising about 5 per cent each year. Intolerable as existing conditions are, the future looks worse unless concerted action is taken.

MANY PLANS PROPOSED.

In recent years many excellent plans have been made at city and state levels. However, since the initial impetus was given to the Master Highway Plan of 1948, we are not aware of any attempts, up to the formation of this committee, to bring together the thinking of the many public agencies and business interests, which is necessary to obtain coordinated action.

We wish to emphasize the indisputable fact that the traffic problem of downtown Boston is the problem of Metropolitan Boston. If the downtown district is allowed to deteriorate and stagnate, the economic damage will be felt by all communities which it serves.

So complex is the problem and so sharply conflicting are the interests of different groups that no step toward improvement can be put into effect without inconvenience or injury to some groups. If the opposition of these groups is going to be permitted to block any improvements which are designed for the public benefit, then the objective of solution of Boston's traffic problem is unattainable. This has been the situation too often in the past. We believe strongly that the traffic problem has become so acute that no single group or public agency should any longer be permitted to veto suggestions for solving the problem which are supported by a majority of the interested parties and which are designed for the greatest good of the greatest number.

Inertia and aversion to change have been equally potent enemies of improvement in Boston's traffic conditions. Hence we urge that the groups represented in this study press actively for adoption of these recommendations and that the public agencies give sympathetic consideration to them.

Prior experience with many traffic innovations has proved that initial opposition to them was unjustified and that in actual operation they proved successful. Certain recommendations in this report are capable of experimental trial periods. We urge that none of these recommendations be discarded until they have been given a fair trial.

In order to focus attention on our specific findings and recommendations, we summarize them below, divided into five main headings.

1. PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION AND FRINGE PARKING.

1. Because the problem is concerned primarily with mass movement, and accommodation of people downtown, we recommend the fullest possible exploitation of the excellent passenger transportation services into and out of downtown Boston, operated by the MTA bus lines and the commuting lines of the railroads, by greatly increasing fringe parking facilities at both MTA terminals and railroad stations. We believe that the facilities at these locations must be relied upon to furnish the major part of the ultimate goal of total accommodations for 100,000 cars.

We mention as an example the increased services provided to South Shore communities by the New Haven Railroad through the addition of 73 commuting trains and expansion of parking facilities at its stations. The vast new parking spaces for commuters at its Route 128 Station is an especially striking development.

We urge the MTA Trustees and other transportation officials to enlarge their programs and expedite their work of planning and installing these facilities in order that their contribution toward the specified goal may be accomplished as speedily as possible.

2. Most of these spaces can and should be installed at existing stations, but the program should not stop there. Until rapid transit facilities can be extended to the areas of potential demand, we recommend that fringe parking facilities also be provided adjacent to major highways in the suburban area and fast express shuttle bus service be established between them and rapid transit terminals.

3. In the light of commuters' acceptance of the new Route 128 Station of the New Haven Railroad, we recommend that the Governor bring together the Metropolitan District Commission, the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, and other abutters to the Boston & Albany Railroad Station at Riverside, to consider establishment of a similar parking facility there.

II. DOWNTOWN OFF-STREET PARKING.

Because there are, and will be in the foreseeable future, legitimate motor vehicle uses in transporting persons through and out of the downtown district, adequate off-street parking facilities must be provided within the district, in order to leave the streets as free as possible to meet the needs of moving traffic.

We note the progress and execution of the program of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners for downtown off-street parking facilities under the statutory $10,000,000 loan authorization.

1. We recommend that the Board accelerate the project for a new parking facility at St. James avenue and Berkeley street in the Back Bay.

2. It is increasingly apparent that the present scope of the off-street parking program for downtown Boston is considerably less ambitious than the facilities being provided by the Central Artery, which alone is expected to handle 130,000 cars per day by 1970. Therefore, we recommend that a downtown off-street parking program be substantially increased. We further recommend that the Mayor and the Board consult with the Department of Public Works, the Metropolitan District Commission, and the MTA and other transit lines, and set up revised goals for off-street parking facilities.

3. To make future projects more attractive to private bidders, we recommend that the Board ask for amendment of the statute so as to permit sales of gasoline, oil, and accessories within the premises leased by the Board to operators of the facilities.

4. We recommend that the Board ask for new legislation broadening its scope so as to permit it to utilize all available space on the state-owned right of way of the Central Artery not needed for highway purposes, suitable for additional parking facilities.

5. We recommend the most careful consideration of the possibility for creating parking spaces by decking over, or tunneling under, the tracks at South Station. This location would afford space for parking many thousands of cars, with access by ramp directly onto the Central Artery, without adding any congestion to streets of the downtown district.

6. To avoid continuing delay and to obtain early action, we recommend that the plans for the Boston Common garage be re-examined to see if they can be so revised as to provide an adequate number of parking spaces at reasonable cost under the existing or amended statutes.

III. CENTRAL ARTERY AND HIGHWAYS.

Vitality important to Boston traffic is improving the flow into and out of the downtown area where most automobile traffic originates or terminates. A key factor is completion of the Central Artery. We understand that work on the Central Artery from the Mystic River Bridge to Haymarket square is proceeding on schedule under existing contracts. But we do recommend that the Public Works Department of Massachusetts consider whether any part of the structure can be opened prior to what we now understand is the target date for completion of the whole project, September, 1954. For example, some immediate relief might be provided if either the portion from the bridge to the ramps at North Station or that section leading across the Boston & Maine tracks to Storrow Drive could be used before completion of the section to Haymarket square.

We recommend that eviction proceedings be instituted immediately, if necessary, to assure prompt vacancy and demolition of the remaining obstacles to completing the section from Haymarket to Fort Hill square.

We urge the earliest possible decision on the route of, and establishing a timetable for building, the portion of the Central Artery running from Fort Hill square to the vicinity of Southampton street. Some variation of the suggestion to tunnel from the vicinity of High and Congress streets to Kneeland street appears to us to offer the least harmful compromise between the somewhat conflicting factors of ideal access to the area of maximum traffic demand, of minimum land takings, of least harm to the smallest number of businesses, and of minimum construction costs.

The roadbed of the Midland Division of the New Haven Railroad appears to offer an inexpensive route that could be constructed quickly for funneling traffic from the downtown area to the southwest. It has some limitations of width which can be corrected much more economically than by constructing a new road. We recommend that the Governor call a meeting of city, county, and state officials to reach agreement on how best to use this logical route.

We note with enthusiasm the plans of the Metropolitan District Commission to widen the Old Colony Boulevard, which should provide immediate relief to traffic proceeding in a southeasterly direction and tie in well with the plans recently announced by the State Department of Public Works for the Southeast Expressway. We also note with enthusiasm many other plans, including those for easing congestion along Soldiers Field road and the Revere Beach Parkway. We are concerned that the area to the west of downtown Boston contains many bottlenecks before traffic reaches the very heavily traveled Routes 9 and 20. While we are confident that the existing agencies of the state, the metropolitan district, and city have had competent advice in arriving at the various road programs, our committee has had difficulty in comprehending the extent of the programs contemplated by these departments as well as the county road programs developed under chapter 90. We consider that close coordination of state, county, and metropolitan district bodies with agencies of the city seems very important.

Therefore, we recommend that the Governor call an early meeting of the heads of the various agencies of the city, county, metropolitan district, and state concerned with traffic to set forth on one combined plan the exact extent of road programs now under way, and the scheduled dates of their completion, in order to provide all the citizens of the community a clear picture of how adequately plans are being made to take care of their welfare.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS REQUIRING LEGISLATION.

1. For improved enforcement of existing parking regulations, so as to reduce the congestion, the hazards, and the inequities caused by the existing non-observance of these regulations, we recommend:

A. That the Mayor petition for enactment of a "towing law," which would give to the Boston Traffic Commission the rule-making authority to empower the Police Department to remove illegally parked cars.

B. That a higher schedule of fines for chronic violators of the parking regulations be adopted, either by action of the justices of the Boston Municipal Court as provided in chapter 219, Acts of 1933, or by amendment of that chapter.

2. To reduce the ever-present hazard of death and injury we recommend that the Mayor enlist the support of officials of other cities and towns in seeking enactment of a law authorizing city and town governments to adopt rules or ordinances regulating pedestrian traffic.

3. We recommend that the MTA Trustees petition the Legislature for repeal of chapter 364, Acts of 1950, which bars construction of a fringe parking facility at Cedar Grove Station in Dorchester.

(NOTE: Other recommendations involving legislation under the heading "Downtown Off-Street Parking" amendment of the statute so as to permit sales of gasoline, oil, and accessories within the premises of off-street parking facilities leased to operators by the Board of Real Estate Commissioners; and new legislation permitting the same Board to utilize space on the state-owned right of way of the Central Artery not needed for highway purposes, for additional parking facilities.)

V. RECOMMENDATIONS REQUIRING ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION.

1. That the complete support of all public agencies and business and civic groups be enlisted for an intensive drive by the Boston Police Department to obtain strict compliance with existing parking regulations, especially those prohibiting parking on heavily traveled downtown streets.

2. That the Boston Traffic Commission adopt the following amendments of its traffic regulations:

A. Prohibition of the backing of trucks against the curbs of these streets: Beach street, from Atlantic avenue to Albany street, 4 to 6 P.M.; Broad street, from Milk street to Atlantic avenue, 7 A.M. to 6 P.M.; Merchants Row, from South Market street to State street, 7 A.M. to 6 P.M.; South Street, from Summer street to Kneeland street, 4 to 6 P.M.; and Washington Street North, from Haymarket square to Keaney square, 4 to 6 P.M.

B. Prohibition of the parking of passenger cars on all streets in the downtown district from 8 to 9.30 A.M.

C. Increase in the scale of parking meter fees in the downtown district, to promote more frequent use by more shoppers.

3. That the Mayor and appropriate city officials confer with downtown hotel interests for the purpose of eliminating the congestion now existing at their entrances; and also that they confer with federal, state, county, and city officials for the purpose of bringing the parking of motor vehicles on official business into conformity with existing regulations applying to private operators.

4. That the city government provide an alternate and more suitable playground for the Sullivan Square Playground, Charlestown, in order to release the latter for acquisition and use as an MTA fringe parking facility.

5. That the Governor be requested to arrange a conference between MFA Trustees and appropriate state officials for the purpose of speedy removal of all legal and administrative obstacles to enlargement of the MFA fringe parking facility at Day square, East Boston.

6. That the Mayor direct the Board of Street Commissioners to construct a public way so as to provide better access between the projected enlargement of the MFA fringe parking facility at Forest Hills Station and main arteries of travel.

7. That the City Planning Board report to the Mayor on the feasibility of an effort to obtain an amendment of the Boston zoning law to require owners of newly constructed commercial buildings to provide loading bays and off-street parking facilities, wherever possible, in conjunction with the structures.

8. That the Police Department, with the assistance of the Boston Traffic Commission and taxicab owners, revise the locations of taxicab stands in the downtown district, after suitable study of changed conditions which have occurred since their original designation.

9. That the Mayor invite appropriate state and metropolitan officials to confer with him and U. S. Army engineers on the entire subject of drawbridge openings on main arteries in Boston and the metropolitan district, for the purpose of revising existing local regulations so as to eliminate nonemergency openings during peak traffic hours between 8 and 10 A.M. and 4 and 6 P.M.

10. That the Boston Traffic Commission expedite the flow of traffic in the downtown district by providing more modern and flexible timing devices on its signal-light systems.

11. That the Boston Traffic Commission investigate the entire one-way street system in downtown Boston for the purpose of anticipating the changes in traffic flow certain to occur as a result of the opening of the Central Artery and other highway improvements.

12. That the Mayor petition the Metropolitan District Commission to permit Veterans of Foreign Wars Parkway as an all-purpose roadway from La Grange street, West Roxbury, to the Boston-Dedham line.

13. That the Boston Traffic Commission conduct a new cordon count of the number of persons entering and leaving the downtown district by various modes of transportation, and also conduct a survey of all off-street parking capacities in use in the downtown district and of terminal parking facilities of the MTA and railroads within the commuting area in order that a better factual knowledge may be obtained of the present dimensions of the problem and its significant trends.

14. That the Boston School Department establish a comprehensive program of driver training in its system.

15. That the Mayor appoint a special committee that will make use of the experience and resources of existing business organizations and public agencies to conduct a large-scale program giving continuous publicity to the many attractions and special events that are available only in the downtown district.

16. That a successor to this committee be appointed as a permanent advisory group to the Mayor, the Boston Traffic Commission, and the Boston Police Department on the continuous problems relating to traffic and transportation in Boston.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION MEETS TO CONSIDER RECOMMENDATIONS OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE AND PLANS FOR MAKING THEM EFFECTIVE.

At a meeting on October 15 the Boston Traffic Commission reviewed in detail the report of the Citizens' Traffic Committee and gave consideration to the various features of the report which apply to subjects under the jurisdiction of the Traffic Commission.

A conference will be held with the Corporation Counsel of the city regarding a petition by the Mayor for the enactment of a towing law and the problem of regulations applicable to pedestrians.

The Boston Traffic Commission will endeavor to expedite the program which it already has in process of installing more modern timing devices and traffic signal lights wherever fluctuation of traffic requires.

The commission will review the one-way pattern of the streets in the downtown area as soon as the route for the Central Artery is finally determined.

The Traffic Commission favors the all-purpose use of Veterans of Foreign Wars Parkway, from La Grange street to the Boston-Dedham line and will make known this fact to the Metropolitan District Commission, which has jurisdiction over that roadway.

The Traffic Commission will make plans to conduct a cordon count of the number of persons entering and leaving the downtown district by various modes of transportation and also conduct a survey of all off-street parking capacities in use in the downtown districts and of terminal parking facilities of the MTA within the city limits. It should be borne in mind, however, that this involves a cooperative activity by the MTA which will involve considerable expense to that organization and that the inauguration of our cordon count will be dependent upon possibilities of the MTA assuming its share of the costs of this survey.

It was voted to establish no parking regulations between the hours of 8 A.M. and 9.30 A.M. in an area which conforms to the section of downtown Boston established by the Legislature as the so-called high parking fine zone in the "Parking Fines Law," chapter 249, Acts of 1953. A list of the streets bounding this area and an illustrative map is attached herewith.

This vote will require the making and erecting of 800 signs and the changing of 1,800 parking meter time plates. Accordingly, the effective date of this new parking regulation is not now established, but will be announced as soon as it can be determined when the necessary signs can be put in place. An inquiry has been addressed to the State Department of Public Works to learn whether or not this area can be regulated by a general promulgation of law rather than by the placement of signs every 100 feet in the area.

The commission will meet again next week for the purpose of further discussing and voting on other recommendations of the Citizens' Traffic Committee.

The purpose of such a tour is to give the various mayors an opportunity to learn at first hand the problems of the peoples in the cities and countries to be visited and the effect of United States aid on these various peoples.

The tour is made possible through the generous sponsorship of prominent citizens in each of the various cities whose mayors are making the trip.

Mayor William B. Hartsfield of Atlanta, Georgia, President of the American Municipal Association, is chairman of the mayors group. Spencer D. Irwin, Associate Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, accompanies the mayors as foreign affairs expert and associate tour leader.

etc. Communications from heads of the departments interested were as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Boston, September 30, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

Subject: Furniture Trucking Contract.
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of August 28, 1953, I wrote you requesting that you approve an amendment to the contract in effect with the Rodgers Motor Lines of Boston, Inc.,
57 Wachusett street, Jamaica Plain,
Mass., for trucking services for this department, increasing the original contract from $12,000, based on normal expenditures for this kind of work, to $27,000, an increase of $15,000, to provide for the removal of furniture and furnishings, as necessary, due to the consolidation of schools.

Practically all the moneys authorized, namely, the $27,000 total contract, have now been expended, and we are confronted with so many requisitions from the School Committee for removals and relocations of furniture that it appears to me that an additional $25,000 worth of work can be contemplated between now and the expiration date of the contract, March 31, 1954.

That we may honor the requisitions received to date and those contemplated, requiring the services of this trucking firm, I ask that you authorize a second amendment to the original advertised contract in the amount of $25,000, without public advertising.

The additional amount of $25,000 necessary is available in the 1953 budget of this department.

Your consideration and approval are requested.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Boston, September 18, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your permission is respectfully requested for the award of a contract, without publicly advertising for bids, to George Allen & Son, 131 State street,
Boston, Mass., for furnishing all labor and materials necessary for the complete renewal of furnace floor No. 5 boiler, Power Plant, Boston City Hospital, at a cost not to exceed the sum of $1,543.

Because of the emergency nature of this work, and due to the fact that this company has the skilled labor required for the performance of such work, as well as all the necessary materials at hand, so as to be capable of performing this undertaking without delay, and as the price is fair, the Trustees are of the opinion that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids and, therefore, request your permission to award the contract, without advertising, to George Allen & Son, 131 State street, Boston, Mass., in a sum not to exceed $1,543.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL,
RICHARD CONDON,
President.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Boston, October 1, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I wish to advise you that we had a serious fire in the machinery house of the Northern Avenue Bridge, over Fort
Point Channel, at 5.15 P.M. yesterday.

The principal damage done by this fire consisted of burning out the interior wiring of the motor operating our Pennsylvania compressor. This requires that the armature be lifted out of this motor, taken to the shop, and rewound at a possible cost of about $1,000.

In view of the fact that this is an emergency and that the cost of the work may exceed $1,000, I respectfully request your authority to dispense with advertising and be permitted to order the Stearns, Perry & Smith Company to commence with this work immediately.

If it is found that the cost will exceed $1,000, we will then execute a contract to cover the work. If the cost is found to be under $1,000, a service order will be issued in the necessary amount.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, September 28, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Water Division of the Public Works Department has submitted several requisitions for meter parts for Hersey meters.

Hersey Manufacturing Company, the manufacturer of the meter parts requested, has submitted prices. Owing to the fact that this company is the manufacturer, it is requested that authority be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award
a contract, without public advertisement, to Hersey Manufacturing Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $14,886.06, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Boston, October 8, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This department is in receipt of requisitions from the Civil Defense office for fifteen (15) mobile RCA radio transmitter receiver units to be used in the Public Works Department in conjunction with other sets now in use.

In order to keep the equipment in the Public Works Department standard and interchangeable, it is requested that permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award
a contract, without public advertisement, to DeMambo Radio Supply Company,
Inc., the RCA distributor in this district. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

The price of these units will be the same as the one submitted on the original equipment by DeMambo Radio Supply Company, Inc., on the publicly opened bid for radio equipment of September 12, 1952, or $414 each unit, less
2 per cent discount, time of payment.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $6,210, less 2 per cent discount, time of payment.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Boston, October 9, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On April 13, 1953, your Honor approved a contract with the Westinghouse Electric Corporation, without public advertisement, for the purchase of one (1)
D4-75 circuit breaker at a cost of $1,520, net.

The Westinghouse Electric Corporation made provision in said contract for an adjustment of price effective at time of shipment but in no event to exceed 20 per cent of original price bid, namely $1,520.

At the time of delivery of said circuit breaker, the price had increased 10 per cent over its original amount, making the new total $1,672.

Permission is hereby requested to authorize the additional payment of $132, in accordance with said contract.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, October 9, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In accordance with the provisions of the letter approved by your Honor on January 20, 1953, authority is requested at this time to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the following company for furnishing perishable foods, etc., to the various city departments from this date, October 9, 1953, to March 31, 1954, inclusive:

Fulton Packing Company, Inc., 10 Newmarket square, Boston, Mass.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

CONGRESS VOTES COMPREHENSIVE HOUSING PROGRAM.

Under the new federal housing law signed by the President on July 15 federal funds for slum clearance and public housing are now available to cities that demonstrate a need for low-rent housing. Cities generally must supply proof of blight, a master redevelopment plan for the blighted area, and temporary housing for displaced slum dwellers. The new law provides advance money to help cities map plans. Many cities, especially those that have housing authorities, already have the necessary information and are among the first to qualify for federal aid. Among the cities that are making studies to determine their housing needs are Chicago, Louisville, Miami, Milwaukee, Philadelphia, and Boston. Legislatures of 42 states have authorized local governments to establish low-rent housing authorities, and at least 25 states have laws authorizing local participation in federally supported slum clearance projects. Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Utah, and Wyoming do not as yet have housing-enabling laws that will qualify their cities for federal funds for public low-rent housing.

MAYOR HYNES URGES TREE PLANTING AS PART OF REHABILITATION PROGRAM.

Washington monument on the top of Telegraph Hill, the park reservation of Dorchester Heights.

"Similarly, trees will be planted along nearby Dorchester street and Broadway, the principal thoroughfares of South Boston, next year after the abandoned streetcar rails have been removed and the streets widened and resurfaced.

"All of the trees will be Norway maples which, when they reach full growth, will be pear-shaped in appearance and approximately 50 feet in height. This species of tree was selected by the Park Department experts as the ideal type from the standpoints of beauty, shade and durability."

As a further means of improving living conditions in the famous old peninsular district, 70 gas lights will be replaced with modern electric fixtures in the immediate future. Also, the sides of Dorchester Heights which have become weather-beaten over the years will be resodded.

It is the hope of the Mayor that the residents of the streets adjacent to those to be planted will be encouraged by the city tree-planting operations to buy similar trees and plant them in front of their homes. Arrangements for such planting may be made by communicating with the Park Commissioner at 33 Beacon street.

The findings of the studies made by the Health and Building Departments of the 1,498 houses and buildings in the Pilot Area of South Boston have been turned over to the South Boston Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program Committee and should be of considerable value to them in formulating plans to encourage property owners within the area to improve their properties.

Richard G. Welsh, manager of the South Boston branch of the National Shawmut Bank, is chairman of the South Boston Committee.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

July 7, 1953.

A meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 10.40 o'clock P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

The reading of the minutes of May 13, 25, June 5, and 11, 1953, was omitted, the Committee approving them as printed.

CONSOLIDATION OF SCHOOLS

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, in the public meeting I would like to have the remarks made by me and the motions made by me in the conference with reference to the closing of certain school buildings incorporated in the public meeting, and I would like a vote on the specific motions to close in the public meeting so that it can be gone into.

Superintendent: May I ask that my remarks be recorded in the public minutes, too?

Chairman: Well, with reference to what?

Superintendent: Dealing with the problem of State aid and various factors and the gymnasium at the Dorchester High School for Boys—those factors that I reacted to?

Chairman: No objection.

Dr. Foley: May I ask that my remarks be outlined and recorded in the public meeting?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I move.....

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I move that any member, including the Superintendent, have his remarks covered in the record of the public meeting, if they so desire. I desire to have mine and I believe Mr. Muchnick does, and also the Superintendent.

Miss Fitzgerald: The entire Committee.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I would like to thank Dr. Foley for his thoughtfulness.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, in the conference Dr. Foley made a motion that the statement read by me be accepted and that the various schools mentioned therein be closed, and that the necessary follow-up work be done as requested in the statement made by me.

I would like to ask Dr. Foley if he will repeat that motion for the public meeting so that, it being necessary to have a vote in public meeting, a vote be taken in public meeting; and that in addition thereto the necessary orders be drawn up by the Secretary so that they can be individually and specifically acted on at our next meeting on Thursday.

Dr. Foley: I move, you, Madam Chairman, that the recommendations as offered by Mr. Muchnick, be accepted by this School Committee.

Mr. Muchnick: And that the schools mentioned in the recommendations be closed?

Dr. Foley: That is true.

Mr. Muchnick: And, Madam Chairman, may I amend that so that the necessary orders be prepared for action at our next meeting, which will take place on Thursday?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, inasmuch as this is to appear in the public record, I would like to point out that I do not feel capable of forming any opinion on the following matter inasmuch as the author of this program saw fit to supply only two members besides himself with copies of this recommendation, and then we received the report, orally.

I do not see how anyone can feel confident that these recommendations should be carried out.

Chairman: I want to say that I think every member of this Committee has had sufficient time to study very thoroughly the recommendations made by the Harvard Survey Group, which were just ones that Mr. Muchnick mentioned, and I think that none of us waited for any other member to tell us which school we felt it was necessary to close.

I think we all had that, and we could take advantage of it, and do any amount of studying on it that we wished; and I do not feel that I waited for anybody's recommendation.

If those were the recommendations of people who were well-qualified and did an excellent job, and a very thorough job in going through our schools, I am acting upon my own and upon the knowledge that I received through the survey.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I would like to say for the record that there are many persons who have different thoughts regarding the same particular survey, and those include such bodies as the Boston Finance Commission.

Chairman: Well, the Boston Finance Commission is not making the policy for the School Committee.

Miss Fitzgerald: The Boston Finance Commission is a very reliable agency.

Mr. Carr: Neither is the Harvard School of Education.

Miss Fitzgerald: They have been studying school matters for years.

Mr. Muchnick: And, Madam Chairman, incidentally, studying school matters for years—referring to the Boston Finance Commission—and doing practically no acting on them.

The following is the extract from the Conference notes relating to consolidation of schools:

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I note that No. 5, the next item on the agenda, talks about the use of school accommodations for one school in the building now occupied by another school.

If I might, Madam Chairman, rather than discuss this matter piecemeal, I have a motion that I would like to make covering the entire subject of which No. 5 is one item, and I would like to take it up at this time.

Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Thank you, Madam Chairman.

Miss Fitzgerald: Could I ask, Madam Chairman, just for the information of all the members who have to sit through some of these lengthy discussions of things which are not on the agenda, if the member would enlighten us as to what the subject matter concerns? Is it the whole consolidation survey, or what, Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: The subject matter, Madam Chairman, is in good part a major portion of the consolidation survey; and if I am going to explain to Miss Fitzgerald what I want to take up, the explanation in and of itself, is the taking up of it; so if I may, Madam Chairman....

Chairman: You may proceed, Mr. Muchnick.

Miss Fitzgerald: May I ask a further question of the member before he presents his views on consolidations which, I take it, he is about to do?

Chairman: Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: Are you offering this. Mr. Muchnick, as a motion, or are you just sounding off your personal opinions concerning the consolidation report?

Mr. Muchnick: I think that what I have to say will answer Miss Fitzgerald's question much better and much more briefly than any attempt at explanation on my part, having written it out with some care, Madam Chairman.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, since the member has written it out with such care, it might have been a good idea for him to present those written opinions of his to all five members of the School Committee since that would be a matter of simple courtesy if we are all to listen to it; since he has done so to two members of this Committee, he might have done it to all five members of the Committee.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't like to disappoint the lady, Madam Chairman, but I have given only portions of it to two of my associates. I have given it as yet to nobody in full because I just finished a few moments ago writing the rest of it and now, if I may, Madam Chairman—

Miss Fitzgerald: Would there be any way for all members of this Committee to obtain copies of this report of yours? There have been many occasions before when this particular member has presented his viewpoint on certain educational matters and has promised to present copies to all members, and copies to all members have not been forthcoming.

Chairman: I think it is within the province of any member who is presenting anything to the Committee to do just exactly what he wants.

Mr. Muchnick: In anything that I have presented in the past and of which copies have been promised, copies have been furnished through the medium of the Daily Record, the publications of the School Committee Minutes, and of the City Record; and if the member in question would like to have me ask members of my secretarial staff to type out more copies, I will be glad to ask them to do so in the morning.

Miss Fitzgerald: I should like to ask the Chairman if I may be excused at this point since I will see a copy of the member's recommendations later.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it is perfectly obvious to any person who views the present school buildings situation objectively and realistically that the time has now arrived for immediate intelligent and courageous action on this most important subject.

It has been repeatedly pointed out by competent observers that our present situation is unwholesome when judged by proper standards. We must remedy at once the condition which results in:

1. Heating, lighting, repairing, maintaining and staffing partially empty buildings;
2. Housing 90,000 pupils in buildings equipped to house 125,000 or more pupils;
3. Duplicating services, on the junior and senior high school level, in too many unnecessary buildings;
4. Wasting hundreds of thousands and probably millions of dollars annually, in the face of a $70.70 tax rate;
5. Diverting funds intended for the education of our children and spending some of these funds for patronage to favored persons in the system and contractors outside the system; and
6. Failure to give pupils and taxpayers 100 cents of value for each tax dollar appropriated for school purposes.

A majority of the School Committee, cognizant of this situation and of its responsibilities to the people of Boston, attempted to remedy this condition. Unfortunately the Committee could not obtain the help or co-operation of the administrators of the School Department and was forced to look elsewhere for guidance. The Committee was fortunate in obtaining, at nominal cost, the services of the Center for Field Studies of the Harvard Graduate School of Education. To Harvard, to Professor Cyril G. Sargent, Director of the Center, to Dr. Donald P. Mitchell, Assistant Director and to the more than three score nationally famous educators and school administrators, we are grateful for their help in preparing the groundwork.

I had anticipated that by this time the administrators of our Boston School System would have reported to the School Committee their recommendations based on the Harvard Survey but, as has been the case all too frequently, we have received no help from our highly-paid administrators. The Committee must therefore act on its own. To our administrators and to all members of our school personnel let me utter one word of caution. Any attempt to sabotage the Committee's program of consolidation, any attempt to foment phoney and unwarranted opposition or any improper obstacles placed in the path of the Committee in its plan of necessary consolidations will be summarily dealt with.

The School Committee will not retain in the employ of the School Department any person, regardless of rank or position, who will not wholeheartedly co-operate in the carrying out of the policies and plans adopted by the Committee in the best interests of the school children of our city.

To the alumni of the various schools which may be affected by consolidations, especially those alumni who have moved out of Boston to escape our high tax rate, let me say that the School Committee values tradition as much as you or anyone else. Our responsibility, however, is to the school children of Boston as a whole and not to the tradition of this or that specific outmoded school or dilapidated building. I am sure that all right-thinking people will agree that it is of far greater importance to our city and our country to preserve the greater tradition of the best education possible within our financial means for our present school children than to dissipate our educational finances to keep alive a school which does not adequately meet the needs of today's school children in their proper preparation for tomorrow. Just as homes and neighborhoods deteriorate so do school buildings, and must be replaced.

May I also add a word to the present local officeholders and those hopeful of replacing them in the House of Representatives, the Senate or the City Council. Please don't try to build your political careers at the expense of the school children of Boston.

Please don't try to promote protest meetings or agitation against these necessary consolidations. The School Committee doesn't like to close schools any more than you or anyone else. All we are doing is facing the facts—unpleasant as they may be. With our exorbitant tax rate, our shifting population trends and our reduced school population, we intend to spend our money for education rather than for patronage in the upkeep of unnecessary expensive, worn-out, and in some cases, unsafe real estate.

While there are some portions of the Harvard Survey with which I am not in complete agreement, by far the greater portion of the survey can be accepted in toto by any person who has the best interests of the Boston School System at heart. Therefore, guided in great measure by the recommendations of this survey, I move that the following schools be abandoned immediately and that the administration make plans for the proper housing of the pupils of these schools as of September, 1953, and that the Superintendent report to the Committee on or before August 10th concerning the provisions made:

1. Hobart Street School.
2. William Wirt Warren School.
3. B. F. Tweed School.
4. Emerson School.
5. Paul Revere School.
6. Andrews School.
7. Hawes Hall School.
8. George Putnam School.
9. Cora L. Etheridge School.
10. Savin Hill School.
11. Quincy Street School.
12. Lyceum Hall School.
13. Elbridge Smith School.
14. Hugh O'Brien School.
15. Richard Olney School.
16. S. M. Weld School.
17. Henry Grew School.

In effecting these closings immediately, it will be necessary to reorganize school districts, make certain alterations to some buildings and, in a few isolated cases, to provide temporary transportation facilities. Many of the above-mentioned buildings must, because of age, distance from present residential areas, lack of safety and lack of adaptability, be replaced. For some pupils, some parents and some school personnel, these closings will result in temporary inconvenience and displacement; but no more so than the temporary inconvenience and annoyance caused by any forward-looking public project, such as our great road-building and highway program.

This temporary inconvenience will result in a better community since properly located, educationally correct, modern, safe, healthy, inexpensive new buildings will replace those which require replacement. And the cost of necessary new buildings can, with efficient administration, be more than offset by the savings resulting from the elimination of such school plant as has long since outlived its usefulness and whose continued patching and repatching is a foolish drain on the taxpayers of the city. Far more important than the financial element however, is the prospect that, through this method of spending our education money properly, more school children will be able to be taught in cleaner, healthier, and safer modern buildings equipped with better educational facilities.

In order to effect some of the closings above provided for, it will be necessary to convert the Theodore Roosevelt to an elementary school and I therefore move that the Theodore Roosevelt School be converted forthwith to an elementary school and that its pupils be transferred to neighboring junior high schools.

The method of effecting the other elementary school closings and consolidations with the least amount of dislocation and inconvenience is clearly and completely blue-printed in the survey report submitted by the Harvard Graduate School of Education. By putting the plans and methods suggested in that report into effect our administration can complete this project promptly.

May I also suggest that this might be an opportune time for our administrators to recommend to the School Committee a plan whereby elementary school districts might be consolidated so that with fewer districts we would be in position to operate more efficiently and less expensively.

I move further that—

1. Dorchester High School for Girls be housed in the same school as the Dorchester High School for Boys; and

2. That Trade High School for Girls be housed in the building vacated by Dorchester High School for Girls; and

3. That the High School of Practical Arts be combined with the Trade High School for Girls; and

4. That Brandeis Vocational High School be discontinued and its male pupils transferred to Boston Trade High School; and

5. That plans be made to eliminate the High School of Commerce upon the graduation of the present Grade 11 in that school and that those entering Grade 10 be transferred to schools of their choosing; and

6. That the Boston Clerical School add to its curriculum such courses now taught at the High School of Commerce that are not capable of being handled in District High Schools.

It is going to be necessary, for many reasons well known to everybody, to erect some new schools. If we discontinue the old expensive method of construction and use the newer types of construction now being used so satisfactorily in many communities we can erect safe, modern, educationally correct buildings at much less cost per building than at present anticipated as the unit cost per building.

With reference to such temporary transportation as may be needed the use of the M. T. A. buses at very little cost to the City of Boston can meet this need.

I urge that this matter be disposed of now before school openings so that necessary preparations for school opening could be made, and before election, so that the type of criticism recently directed against the M. T. A. for its proposed fare increase will not be able to be directed against the Committee.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, it is not necessary at this time to be too far-reaching and entirely absolute in the closing of school buildings. If we look down the long corridor of Time, we can see savings of a million dollars by moderate retrenchment based upon closing only what is essential for judicious economy. Economies effected wisely now will be more advantageous to the system than will too drastic measures, at this time, and I approve of the order of Mr. Muchnick.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, may I ask Mr. Muchnick a question?

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I am asking Mr. Muchnick this: I listened attentively. What is the effective date of the moving of the Dorchester High School for Girls and that combination? Is that all as of September 1st?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Superintendent: In other words, the closing of the seventeen schools and the elimination of the Theodore Roosevelt and the consolidation of the high schools are all effective September 1, 1933?

Mr. Muchnick: The opening of school, whether that be September 1st or whatever the date may be; and, incidentally, Mr. Superintendent, that will call for the reopening of the Lafayette and possibly one or two others. I don't remember, frankly, I believe the Lucy Stone also, as called for in the detailed blue-print in the Survey Report covering those specified items.

Superintendent: Perhaps, Madam Chairman, Mr. Muchnick and the members plan to do this tonight; but if I am to take steps toward this action as proposed by Mr. Muchnick, then there should be official orders passed in public meeting, because every school that is closed must be closed as a result of an order in the public meeting, and every consolidation.

Mr. Muchnick: I understand that, Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: I just wanted to make sure that they will be crystallized in the form of orders. Had you that in mind, Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes. I have made a motion here which I intend to repeat in the public meeting, and such technical wording as is necessary I am sure can be supplied.

Dr. Foley: I move the adoption of the order.

Mr. Muchnick: That has to be done in public meeting, Dr. Foley, and it can be done now. It would be nothing other than in the nature of a vote of confidence. I would just as soon have it passed when proper, at the public meeting.

Dr. Foley: I move the adoption of the order, Madam Chairman, and we will have a vote on it.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, may I say something?

Chairman: Yes.

Superintendent: I just want to say to the School Committee that certainly I shall make every effort to put into effect the orders that are passed in public meeting. However, this Committee in connection with some of these orders is confronted with some very serious problems and I think as superintendent that I should again call these problems to your attention.

The problem of the Trade High School for Girls going to the Dorchester High School, and the consolidation of the High School of Practical Arts and things of that nature, Madam Chairman and Members, require State approval. In other words, we may be confronted with the situation in regard to some of these State-aided schools where we will not obtain State aid.

We have the problem in the case of the Dorchester High School for Girls, going into the Dorchester High School for Boys, of not having a suitable gymnasium. I would say that the girls at the Dorchester High School for Girls in the Dorchester High School for Boys building will be without physical training in the interval of the construction of a suitable gymnasium which may cost two or three hundred thousand dollars.

There are all those problems of that nature and many others that I want to call to the attention of the School Committee before they take action on these orders.

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent

ent—

Superintendent: Could I finish, please?

Chairman: Before I lose your train of thought on the gymnasium is there a gymnasium for Dorchester High School for Boys now?

Superintendent: There is a Boys' Gymnasium but it will not be big enough to accommodate the two schools.

Chairman: Why not? Couldn't they use it at different times?

Superintendent: No, it is used more or less now all the time.

Mr. Daley: Every period.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, could I finish please? I simply want to call to the attention of the School Committee the grave responsibility that is on them in connection with certain of these actions, and I want to say to the Committee that while I will carry them out to the limit, as I should, naturally, I cannot assume the responsibility of all of the complications, such as those that I have mentioned and many others that will naturally arise as a result of this action.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman—

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, to get back to that gymnasium, there are only 400 and some odd pupils there in the whole school, I think, and it surprised me greatly.

It was at the graduation exercises there and a member of the class of 1928 was giving a scholarship, and he told me that when he was a member of the class of 1923 there they had over 2000 pupils in the school, and he was so amazed to find that it had gone down in number to something slightly over 400.

Now, that building, as I walked through it, is such that for 400 pupils they just about rattle around in it, and it would certainly seem the most advisable thing in the world to fill up a good building, and it is a good building, and to make use of our good buildings.

I think this Committee realizes that it is going to take a lot of planning, and it is going to take a lot of changes in program. However, I think that it certainly can be done, and I hope it will be done with good grace.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I assure you that as always I will do everything with good grace; but I do want to have you conscious of the problems that are before you and the responsibility that is on you.

You cannot take an all-boys' school presently with one gymnasium offering physical training now along with military drill which was not offered up to a few years ago, which means the occupancy of that particular area, and the girls' gymnasium now which has more physical training because of a change in curriculum.

There will have to be changes in the curriculum or there would have to be additions to the building, and I simply want to point out those responsibilities which will be on the shoulders of the School Committee.

Chairman: Well, Mr. Superintendent, along that line what do we do in the local high schools where we have boys and girls at one school? We only have one gymnasium, and naturally their program is tuned to that gymnasium. I think that is a minor adjustment.

Superintendent: Now, Madam Chairman, in many of the mixed schools we have two gymnasiums. Hyde Park has two gymnasiums. How about East Boston, Mr. Daley? How many,—two gymnasiums?

Mr. Daley: South Boston.

Superintendent: South Boston has two gymnasiums.

Mr. Muchnick: Roslindale?

Superintendent: Roslindale, no. The boys go to the Municipal Building now, do they, Mr. Daley?

Mr. Daley: No, they do not, sir. Chairman. What do they do?

Superintendent: We have a very small number of boys.

Mr. Daley: There is a small number of boys in the Roslindale High School.

Chairman: How many, Mr. Daley?

Mr. Daley: I haven't the number.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Daley, what is the total enrollment at Roslindale High?

Mr. Daley: 832. Dorchester High School for Boys started out with over 600 at the beginning of the year.

Mr. Muchnick: And how many did it end up with, Mr. Daley?

Chairman: I asked the head master, and he said 400 and something.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, these things can be done if people want to do them, and frankly I do not think that lack of imagination in solving a physical education problem should effect a necessary consolidation program.

If it becomes at all important, the gymnasium of the Dorchester High School for Girls, which is going to be a Girls' Trade School, can be used by the girls of the old Dorchester High School. Where there is a will, there is a way.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I should like to move that the suggestions on consolidations made by Mr. Muchnick be tabled until copies of his recommendations are furnished to all five members of the School Committee.

It is quite apparent to me from the way in which the report has been given, that certain members of this Committee have met between School Committee meetings to discuss the serious matter of consolidations, and it seems to me that it is a very certain obligation of the Chairman of any Committee, regardless of disagreements in Committee meetings, to call together all members of that body to discuss and to consider the pros and cons of making consolidations.

Chairman: Miss Fitzgerald, your observations are merely your own. Because you make them does not make them real, as you know.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I move that that be tabled.

Chairman: Would you like to call the roll on Dr. Foley's motion?

Dr. Foley: May I explain, Madam Chairman?

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, a motion to table has before this taken precedence over all other motions.

Dr. Foley: I made a motion to accept the orders. I was at no meeting prior to the meeting we had today.

Chairman: I wasn't, either.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, if it means anything to anybody, there could not have been any meeting on this with me, on this particular report, because I wrote most of it between 1 and 3:30 this morning, after having spent the last three weeks and all my spare time going through the survey again and again.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman,—

Chairman: Well, I don't think that anyone who is seriously considering any of the consolidations would vote for anything unless they did go through those recommendations very, very thoroughly, and I ask you to call the roll on Dr. Foley's motion, please.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman,—

Secretary: This is a motion. Dr. Foley moved the adoption of orders submitted by Mr. Muchnick in re consolidation of schools, etc. Mr. Carr?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I was hoping that you would put this on the table as suggested by my colleague here until such time as all members were furnished a copy of this recommendation.

I think it is only a common courtesy to your fellow members. The previous member informed us that he had just finished writing it a short time ago and did not have time to type it out. Now he tells us he has been doing it for two weeks and spending night and day on it.

Mr. Muchnick: Three weeks, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I hope that you people will see fit to table this until such time as we have been furnished copies of it. I think it is very unfair to ask us to vote on this lengthy dissertation on consolidations.

If I were to vote on it, I would be following blindly a recommendation that I never knew existed and was just delivered here for twenty minutes in a monotone, and I question if I got half of what it contained.

Chairman: Mr. Carr, you walked out—

Mr. Carr: I surely am not going to be accused by the public of Boston as blindly following a recommendation of the Pied Piper of economy, and I say that you should in all fairness to the members of this Committee, put it over for further action until such time as we are furnished a copy of it.

Chairman: You had the survey from the Harvard Group.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, if you do not see fit to do that, I think you should resign as Chairman.

Chairman: I have no intention of resigning as Chairman.

Mr. Carr: You have disqualified yourself as a presiding officer, in my opinion.

Chairman: Well, you are disqualified as a member of the School Committee, in my opinion.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I believe I asked for the floor before Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I am frankly surprised at the display of temper on the part of the previous member; but that is his own affair. However, I am even more surprised at the suggestion of Miss Fitzgerald that she wants to read this over.

There was ample opportunity for her to hear this while it was delivered rather slowly in what

Mr. Carr describes as a monotone. I am sorry I don't happen to be a graduate of the Staley School of Expression, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: It might help you some.

Mr. Muchnick: But as long as the member in question did not even care to hear it, I don't understand why she is now so interested in studying it.

The motions that I have made are based primarily on the Survey Report that was given to us by the Graduate School of Education at Harvard. I spent a lot of time reading it and a lot of time studying it, and a lot of time waiting for somebody else to make a move; and if nobody else did anything about it, the time has come to act.

School is going to open in a couple of months. There is a lot of work attached to putting these motions into action, and there is a lot of good that can come out of putting these motions into action, and I would like a vote.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman? If you don't mind, Madam Chairman, I feel that the previous speaker has just made certain references to remarks which I made, which I would like to have clarified for the record.

If that is a privilege that you accord to all your members, I think you should accord it to me at this particular time.

Chairman: Go right ahead and talk to your heart's content.

Miss Fitzgerald: I should like to say first that Mr. Muchnick did not have the courtesy to present written copies of his recommendations, and I repeat again, that consolidations are so serious a matter that it seems to me that as soon as the Harvard people had finished their recommendations to us and had finished their report, which I have read as studiously as the previous member has read it, that we should immediately have sat down in session—all five—with the members of the administration most concerned in making these consolidations changes and discussed the pros and cons of making them, and the most efficient way of making them, and that if Mr. Muchnick feels that these things were so terribly important that they should and that they will require a great deal of time to put in operation, he should have made his consolidation observations many weeks before this, and it seems to me that it was incumbent upon the Chairman to call this Committee together as its chief officer and to discuss these things in concert—all five members together—regardless of personalities.

Chairman: I would if I was accorded the courtesy that any chairman should be accorded, but I am not going to be any more courteous to people than they are to me.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I have never been discourteous to the Chair, may I point out.

Mr. Muchnick: May I ask one question? Does the "in concert" of the last speaker—that phrase have anything to do with the Pied Piper phrase of the previous speaker?

Chairman: Probably it does.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I have no responsibility for the remarks of any other member.

Chairman: Would you call the roll, please, on Dr. Foley's motion?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, my reference to the Pied Piper, was the blind following that he has been successful in having on this Committee.

On roll call, Dr. Foley's motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mr. Muchnick, and Mrs. Lyons—3.

NAYS—0.

PRESENT—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2.

DESIGNATIONS OF TEACHERS

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I should like all the remarks of the various members—well, I should like my own remarks—on designations included in the public minutes. I mean the discussion.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I also would like my remarks relative to the designations placed in the public record.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like mine concerning designations put in.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, may I respectfully ask that mine be made a part of the public record?

The following is the extract from the conference notes relating to designations of teachers:

Miss Fitzgerald: Before we go into public meeting could I ask a question about number ten on designations recommended by the Superintendent to fill temporarily positions left vacant because of retirement on pension, absence because of personal illness, and so forth?

As I understand it, there are some people filling positions. Is that true, Mr. Superintendent? They are people who are not so designated. Just what is the story on that?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, there are a great many persons in the system who have been doing the work under an assignment unofficially because the School Committee has not acted upon the assignment, and these persons should be paid.

I do not think it is fair, Madam Chairman, to have a submaster, for example, assigned as acting master of a building and receiving no additional compensation. We have two or three or four carrying on all the administrative duties of a building and still not receiving the two dollars additional compensation.

There are several persons acting as vice principals and submasters who are doing the work of those particular positions and have been in some cases since the first of January. They should be receiving the dollar a day to which they are entitled under the salary schedule.

I think, Madam Chairman, that in fairness to these persons who have been giving their services—some of them since January 1st of this year—the School Committee should officially act upon these designations so that these persons can receive the money to which they are entitled. I do not think there is anything that has hurt the morale more in the last few months, Madam Chairman and members, than this one act of inaction by this School Committee.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I don't know whether my hearing is bad or my understanding is poor, but I have a very distinct recollection that on many occasions the Superintendent by vote of the School Committee was ordered not to put people in that kind of position; and with specific reference to vice principals and submasters was told to transfer people out of those schools in which they were excess under the rules, and we were even given lists of those who were excess vice principals and submasters. He also was told to make no appointments or designations of principals or head masters or any promotional positions pending the outcome of the survey that was being conducted, and the vote taken tonight by the School Committee in ordering the closings and consolidations that it did order obviously shows the wisdom of that policy that was adopted.

I cannot understand how people were designated when we specifically directed that people should not be designated. I don't know why we should now be asked to pay for something that was done, if my understanding is correct, directly contrary to our orders.

Miss Fitzgerald: May I just make one brief comment on the previous speaker's remarks? I don't think you can run a ship without a captain or without lieutenants.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I sincerely hope that there are three members of this Committee who are fair-minded enough to listen to what I have to say, and I will cite a case for you. I can cite several cases.

Mr. Muchnick says that I should not put people in charge of buildings. Let's take Mr. Mannino, for example, out in the Hugh O'Brien. Mr. Gorman retired. Someone had to administer that school.

Now, it doesn't take any understanding or any intelligence on the part of anyone to know that someone has to administer that building. Someone has to certify payrolls. Someone has to call up and get temporary teachers. Someone has to meet parents who are coming in to the school. Someone has to take the responsibility of collecting money, for milk. Someone has to assign teachers.

There are several schools in the city where masters have retired, and what should I do as Superintendent—say, "Let that school run itself?"

I certainly hope that there are three members of this Committee fair-minded enough, using Mr. Mannino as an example, to pay Mr. Mannino two dollars a day and designate him as the acting principal of the Hugh O'Brien since Mr. Gorman's retirement.

Now, the same is true of the man who is administering the Gilbert Stuart School on the retirement of Miss Penell. The same is true in the case of the man who is taking Mr. Linchan's place, Mr. Aicardi. Mr. Linchan has been out ill for a long time.

The same is true of the person who is administering the Washington Allston School since Mr. Pearce's retirement.

Here are men who are running buildings and carrying out all the duties that I mentioned, and I don't think it takes any intelligence to realize that those schools have to be administered.

Now, this Committee to me is negligent in not paying those men for the services that they have given to take care of those children. Who will be responsible for the fire drills in the building? Who will be responsible for the safety of those children if a man like Mr. Mannino, a man like Mr. Connelly, and many others throughout the city who have been assigned by me to do this work are not officially designated?

They have not been officially assigned through this School Committee. They are doing it simply because I have asked them to do it to continue the system; and nothing, Madam Chairman, has hurt this system as has the long time this matter has been unacted upon by the School Committee. I hope three of you are fair-minded enough to pay these people for the services they rendered.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I know that this School Committee on several occasions passed votes directing that just what was done here should not be done; and I for one think that the votes of the School Committee ought to stand when a policy is established.

It seems to me that it is far more negligent on the part of the Superintendent or anybody else to act in violation of the instructions given by the School Committee and then come in and use words such as "negligent" and "breakers of morale" and various other things in attempting to force us to make payment for something that not only wasn't authorized but for something that was done in violation of express instructions. I for one can see absolutely no point in voting for this kind of payment.

If this payment is voted for, it seems to me that it becomes a statement on the part of the School Committee that its directives and its policies can be disregarded at will by the Superintendent, who is supposed to be its executive officer carrying out its policies.

Now we set the policy, and the least that could have been done was that we could have been consulted when the policy was going to be broken.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, could I ask Mr. Muchnick a question—and will you answer it Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Muchnick: It depends on what the question is.

Superintendent: How should the Hugh O'Brien School be administered on the retirement of a principal?

Mr. Muchnick: That is a very simple question—and one, frankly, for the answer of which we are paying you $18,264 and Miss Hearn $10,264, and it seems to me if you want my opinion on how it could be done on a temporary basis, either you tell the School Committee beforehand or you ask somebody else who is running a district to pinch-hit and cover a portion of another district.

Superintendent: You have not answered the question, Mr. Muchnick. This designation situation has been on this agenda since the first of January.

Mr. Muchnick: And you have been told how to handle it — by making no designations.

Superintendent: I have been told that you would not make designations.

Mr. Muchnick: Correct.

Superintendent: Now you haven't answered how the Hugh O'Brien School could be run, the Gilbert Stuart School, and the Mary Hemeway and other schools; and they could only be run by saying to Mr. Mannino that he should be paid. He is doing it gratis. He is doing it unofficially. He is doing it without compensation, and he is doing it to protect the safety of these children. When you don't pay him, you are unfair to him and you are likewise unfair to everybody else when you don't pay them.

Now you say that I haven't told you. I have been after this School Committee, and I refer you to the record. These designations have been on this agenda since the first of January.

Mr. Muchnick: And on several occasions, Mr. Superintendent, since the first of January you were told by vote not to make designations and not to bring up the subject of designations; and frankly at the prices the city is paying you as against the prices they are paying the five members of the School Committee, you ought to be able to work out some method of having the schools properly covered by executives for the safety of the children, as you put it, without violating the orders that are passed by the School Committee.

Superintendent: There were no orders violated that the School Committee has passed because these people have not officially been designated. I have asked them to do the work. I am appealing to three members of this School Committee to pay them for the work that has been well done.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, it was my motion that we discuss this matter of item number 10 on the agenda, designations; and I move that we do so pay all those persons who have been temporarily filling positions in the schools where there were vacancies because of retirements on pension or absence because of personal illness, and that such payment be retroactive to the time when those persons first undertook those extra duties for the benefit and at the request of the Superintendent.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I move that this matter lie on the table till the next meeting.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I hope that your Committee will not see fit to place this on the table.

Mr. Muchnick: A point of order, Madam Chairman. A motion to table is not debatable.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, an earlier motion to table was disregarded entirely by this Committee.

Chairman: Will you call the roll to table?

Secretary: This is Mr. Muchnick's motion to have it lie on the table. Mr. Carr?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I hope that your Committee will not see fit to place this on the table. It is only tonight in connection with an item on your agenda that your Committee saw fit to change the rules to give one individual an increase, and it was probably because she was friendly with members of this Committee. Here are people who have been doing a job for months, and they have not been paid for it. It is a matter of one or two dollars in this case to these individuals, whereas we changed the regulations to give a $13 increase to one member of this School Department.

I hope your Committee won't put this on the table but will act upon it tonight, pass it and so designate these people. I think the Superintendent is to be commended in carrying out his duties.

On roll call the motion to lie on the table passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3.

NAYS—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I believe a letter of condolence should be sent by the Secretary to Miss Cronin's family. Miss Cronin served efficiently for many years as the Secretary of this Committee, and I would like to suggest that this assembly room on the third floor of the Administration Building be dedicated to her memory and that it be named the "Ellen M. Cronin Room", as a memorial to a former secretary and member of the board, you might say, for many, many years.

Miss Fitzgerald: Would you have a tablet properly made by one of the schools?

Dr. Foley: I think an appropriate tablet should be placed in here.

The Superintendent reported the death of the following-named teachers who had retired on pension:

Dearborn District — Elizabeth B. McKeon, May 5, 1953.

Roxbury Memorial High School (Boys) — Frederick H. Dole, June 9, 1953.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, on the retirement of head masters, is it possible for this Committee on the actuation to see that their pension is based on the salary of $8,000 instead of the salary of $7,776? They will never receive the $8,000, of course, but it would be nice to retire them on the maximum of $8,000.

I would like some thought on that from the Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, does that in any way increase the retirement pay?

Dr. Foley: It would increase their retirement somewhat. We have established a maximum of $8,000 for head masters. They will never reach $8,000. They have given remarkable service to the school system of Boston, and I would like to see that they retire at $8,000.

Chairman: You cannot change their salary within the year, and they will be out of service on September 1st.

Mr. Muchnick: It is something to consider, Madam Chairman, for the future.

Chairman: It could be considered for the future; but according to 1875 law, you cannot do that.

A communication was received from the Superintendent, under date of July 7, 1953, reporting that, subject to the approval of the School Committee, he has made the following assignments to serve as acting coordinators, for the summer season of 1953:

Charlestown High School—Martin E. Keane, Master Roxbury Memorial High School (Boys) Frank P. Rich, Master.

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3
NAYS—Mr. Carr, and Miss Fitzgerald—2

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, the thing that I cannot understand about this business of going out placing boys in industry in the summertime with specific reference to Memorial High School, which I have had some connection with in the last few months in connection with boys, is that they have a Guidance Counsellor there and a Vocational Counsellor there.

Superintendent: Excuse me. You are wrong there. They don't have two counsellors. They have one.

Mr. Muchnick: They have one? Superintendent: That is right.

Mr. Muchnick: And that one is out helping the boys get into industry.

Superintendent: Excuse me. That is not true, Mr. Muchnick. The Vocational Counsellor is not out helping to place boys in industry. It is the Coordinator who is out helping place these boys in industry.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, I understand that almost every senior at Memorial High School who is not headed for college had a job to which to go when he left the high school.

Superintendent: That may be true, but they have to be supervised, Mr. Muchnick, during the summer months.

Mr. Muchnick: May I finish, Mr. Superintendent?

Mr. Carr: You have been wrong so often I think you ought to listen to the Superintendent.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know what supervision we have to give to the boys at Memorial High School as against boys at X or Y or Z High School, and if we do have to give supervision, we have one department headed by Mr. Ginn that has several people in there, and I wonder if we are not wasting an awful lot of money on duplication of supervisory efforts and duplicating of job-getting efforts and everything else.

It seems to me that everybody is becoming a specialist in just one limited sphere of the work; and somebody gets the boys onto the streetcar and somebody takes him off the streetcar, and somebody gets him an interview in a job and somebody else follows up with whether he got the job; and 90 per cent of these boys get the jobs on their own.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, could I answer Mr. Muchnick? Every school with co-operative education, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, has a coordinator who is carrying out this work during the summer months.

Now you say: Why do we have these two and not others? The other schools have co-ordinators.

It just happens that Mr. Doherty retired, and someone has to do his work during the summer. In the case of Mr. Keane, he does it in place of Mr. Flaherty, who is the co-ordinator; and, Mr. Muchnick—

Mr. Muchnick: Did he retire, too?

Superintendent: No, but he does not want the work during the summertime. He is in military service, and it is only doing for those two schools what is done for the other schools, and it is part of our entire State-aided program.

These boys who lose employment during the summertime must be replaced, and these boys, too, under State direction must be supervised to see that they are not doing work that they should not be doing.

Mr. Daley: I think, Madam Chairman and Mr. Superintendent, half of their salary is paid by the State.

Superintendent: That is true. Mr. Daley: They must work a certain number of hours in industry in order to receive the certificates.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, as I see it — and I think I see it correctly — half the salary is paid by us and half is paid by the State, and both the City and the State are, for all practical purposes, wasting their respective time. It is just a question in my opinion of making unnecessary work and making unnecessary salary commitments to people, and I for one would like to see it cut out immediately.

There are an awful lot of people doing all this duplicated work, with a $70.70 tax rate, it is time we started checking into what expenditures are necessary and what are wasted.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, Mr. Muchnick amazes me that he thinks this work is tied up with Mr. Ginn's department. Mr. Ginn, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, is Director of the Vocational Guidance Department. It has nothing to do with the Co-operative Industrial Department or the Co-ordinators.

Mr. Muchnick: There is no reason why it cannot have something to do with it.

Superintendent: It certainly does because neither Mr. Ginn nor anyone in his department is skilled in machine practice to go out and place a boy in a machine shop and supervise him and see that he is not.

Mr. Muchnick: I must answer you right here because in 1928 Mr. Ginn got me a job in a machine shop down on South Street.

Superintendent: Mr. Muchnick, you never worked in a machine shop under a State-aided plan now or then, and neither could I, because neither of us would know enough to do that work.

Mr. Muchnick: I found that out that I could not handle the job, but Mr. Ginn got it for me in a machine shop.

Superintendent: That shows that there was a mistake on Mr. Ginn's part. These boys are actually skilled machinists.

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, that is something I would like to ask about. Why is it there is better coordination between our Vocational Guidance Counsellors in our high schools and the various industries we have here?

I am going to give you an example of what happened. We sat with a group of men in industry here who asked us to help them to interest girls in a particular line. They needed them. After all, I think that the industry and the schools should be partners, and we are teaching these children to do things for their livelihood and we are preparing them for life.

I think that there should be a better knowledge on the part of our men and women in Vocational Education and a better coordination with these various industries in our own community to find out what their needs are so that we can show the children in our schools the advantages of going into these various industries.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I think I can answer your question. I can use your son and my son as good examples. I allowed my son to choose what he wanted to do and the college he wanted to go to, and you are now allowing—and rightly so—your son to do just what he wants to do. My son chose college. Your son may choose the same thing.

As teachers in this democracy we can show the advantages of all working activities to the boys and girls in our high school classes. We can advise them and tell them about working conditions and salaries, but we cannot in a democratic public school system force pupils into any particular line of activity simply because there is a shortage in the labor market in that particular activity.

Our counsellors do articulate beautifully with industry, but those children have the same right to choose what they want to do as our own two sons had a right to choose what they wanted to do.

Chairman: I don't think anyone forces anyone into it. It depends upon the aptitudes of children. If they are children who have an academic background and if they have a desire to follow along that line, that is one thing and I think everyone would try to promote that. If they do not, and if they have a natural ability for things that they can do with their hands, then I think that we should take every precaution to show those children what they can get in their own communities and to work with industry.

Where there is a very great need and we can show these children that if they are trained in this specific type of work they are sure of getting a job, we will be doing them good and in the meantime helping industry also.

Superintendent, Madam Chairman, I would say that we do. Counsellors do that effectively, but the choice is ultimately in the hands of the children and in the parents of that particular child.

Secretary: What happens to this?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like that that particular order be held until our next meeting.

Secretary: Not put in at all after all the discussion?

Mr. Muchnick: No, let it be put in and let it be reput in.

Secretary: Laid over? Mr. Muchnick: Until the next meeting.

Superintendent: What order is that?

Secretary: The assignment of Messrs. Keane and Rich.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, again in fairness to Mr. Rich and Mr. Keane I think we either ought to tell those men that we are not going to employ them or we ought to employ them.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, we should not be asked at five minutes of eleven to make a policy.

Superintendent: Could I finish, Mr. Muchnick, and not be in the position where you will say sometime afterward, "Why didn't the Superintendent tell us about this?"

In fairness to those men you either should tell them, we are going to employ them, or we are not going to employ them.

Mr. Carr: Call the roll on that, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: The Secretary read this to us approximately at eleven o'clock tonight for the first time to my knowledge, and I for one do not want to rubber stamp things automatically. If these people think that there is any danger of their not getting paid Thursday night; if they think that there is going to be adopted by this School Committee the policy that we don't need their kind of work during the summer, then let them not report to work for tomorrow morning.

However, as far as I am concerned, I am not going to vote at this hour of the night on something that was just presented to us for the first time so far as I know since the close of school, and I would like to have it held so that some study can be given to it. If these people do not want to work until Thursday night, let them not report to work.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, may I ask the Superintendent if these two men did a similar type of work last summer?

Superintendent: I would say Mr. Keane did, did he not, Mr. Daley?

Mr. Daley: Yes, he did.

Superintendent: And the man at Memorial, Mr. Rich. I think Mr. Doherty did it because he was the coordinator. Mr. Doherty retired the 1st day of July of this year, and that is why Mr. Rich is doing the work this summer.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Rich is the one selected as against someone else?

Superintendent: I will be glad to answer that now, because there were two people in the department who could do it—Mr. Bortnick and Mr. Rich. Mr. Bortnick did not want to do it during the summer months, and Mr. Rich is the senior man in the department and he was willing to do it.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, I would like to have it held until Thursday night, Madam Chairman.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, it was all right last year. I see no objection to adopting it this year. I move the adoption of it.

Mr. Muchnick: I move that it be laid on the table.

Superintendent: And there are six or eight other men who are actually doing it in other fields in other schools, and why deprive these two schools and these men of the same opportunity for the schoolboys that they are directing?

Mr. Daley: Madam Chairman, may I add that in all these co-operative high schools we have worked with an advisory board of industrial men. We sit down with them.

Chairman: Does that apply to all schools Mr. Daley?

Mr. Daley: Co-operative industrial. Each has an advisory board. I sat with the printers led by Mr. Moriarity and discussed the problem within Roxbury Memorial High School for Boys. Two weeks ago I visited six farms in this area. We have boys from the Jamaica Plain High School placed permanently for the summer in those farms. They must be visited.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I move the adoption of the order for Mr. Rich and the other man.

Mr. Muchnick: I made a motion that it lie on the table until the next meeting.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Superintendent, how long has this been on the agenda?

Superintendent: As a matter of fact this is the first meeting, Madam Chairman, that we really have done anything for a month or so, and we have a terrific agenda of very important things that have gone by the board to-night for other things that were not on the agenda.

Mr. Carr: Is this motion to lay it on the table?

Secretary: Yes, to lay it on the table.

Mr. Carr: Probably you want to study that.

Superintendent: The same thing.

Dr. Foley: I move that be accepted.

Superintendent: Accepted?

Dr. Foley: With no comments from the Superintendent.

Superintendent: Well, I think, Madam Chairman, that what is fair to one is fair to the other. Mr. Wendler is a fine man, but so are the other two men, and I think it should be done for all three and show no favoritism.

Dr. Foley: There is no favoritism.

Mr. Carr: I move we lay that on the table.

Mr. Muchnick: I move this be laid on the table until the next meeting as well.

Superintendent: I did not suggest it. I suggested that the other two be passed, with Mr. Wendler.

On roll call, the motion to lay on the table failed of passage by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Muchnick—1

NAYS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr.

Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—3

PRESENT—Mr. Carr—1

Dr. Foley moved that the assignment of Mr. Wendler be approved.

Miss Fitzgerald: I move that that motion be amended to include Mr. Keane and Mr. Rich.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, that amendment is out of order.

Chairman: Yes, I know it is out of order.

Dr. Foley: I move that the assignment of Mr. Wendler be approved.

On roll call, the motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—3

NAYS—Mr. Carr—1

PRESENT—Mr. Muchnick—1

AMENDMENTS TO RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following was offered:
ORDERED, That the Rules are hereby amended as follows:

Section 36, paragraph 2. In the fifth, sixth, and seventh lines, strike out the words "and assistants assigned to members of the School Committee" — so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

2. She shall assign, supervise and direct the duties of all permanent and temporary clerical employees, other than secretaries in the schools, said clerical employees to include those classified as assistants, clerks and all others employed in a clerical capacity.

Mr. Carr: I move that that be laid on the table.

I don't think it is business properly before the Committee at this time inasmuch as it did not appear on the agenda.

The Secretary was directed to call the roll, and Mr. Carr's motion failed of passage by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2

NAYS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3

Dr. Foley: I move the adoption of the order.

On roll call, the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3

NAYS—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2

The following was offered:

ORDERED, That the Rules and Regulations of this Committee be, and the same hereby are, amended by striking out Section 325, as amended on February 4, 1952, and inserting in place thereof the following, which, until the revision of the Rules and Regulations shall have been presented for final approval, shall be subject to being amended, waived or suspended by majority vote:—

Section 325. 1. Annually, on or before the second Monday of March in each year, the School Committee shall determine what, if any, increases and reductions in the compensation of employees of the School Department shall be provided for in the annual budget for such year.

2. The increases and reductions so determined shall be provided for specifically in such annual budget.

3. No increase or reduction in the compensation of any employee or group of employees shall be so determined upon without a hearing with reference thereto held, after due notice, in the month of February.

Mr. Carr: This is to amend the regulation to single out one individual for an increase in salary and the order giving all non-academic civil service employees an increase was placed on the table. However, this one pertains to one particular person?

Secretary: I don't know. It is an amendment to Section 325 of the regulations.

Chairman: It is an amendment to the regulations, and there is no particular individual.

Mr. Carr: The purpose of this amendment is to single out one particular individual.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it seems to me that the purpose of this amendment is to do exactly what the words of the amendment imply, and I don't see that the words imply anything at all that the previous speaker has just suggested.

Chairman: That is just Mr. Carr's interpretation, but necessarily we do not have to adopt his interpretation.

Mr. Carr: It is fortunate that you have a member who does interpret these things.

On roll call, the rules were suspended and the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3.

NAYS—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2.

CERTIFICATING OFFICE

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, in regard to the Certifying Office there have come reports to me that on certain days within the last few weeks the office at Myrtle Street and the outside door has been closed at other hours than the regular closing hour, and I do not know who has given the order for that closing but it has already interfered in many cases with youngsters coming at what they thought was the right time for certificates from the Certifying Office; and I don't know of anybody who has the right to say, "Lock the front door and don't let anybody in" just because they may think there are too many boys or girls there looking for certificates or for other reasons. I would like it distinctly understood that that building should remain open for those hours when it is supposed to remain open, and I think there are signs on the front of the building indicating when people should get there.

Secretary: Mr. Muchnick, Mr. Henry Barry is in charge of the Certifying Office. The place over there for the last month has been overcrowded. There have been one hundred to two hundred in line waiting for certificates. They are fainting away and have to be carried out. The School Manual here says:

"Educational certificates and employment permits: Daily, except Saturdays, from 8:30 o'clock a. m., until 3:30 o'clock p. m."

Mr. Barry, after consulting with me, has said that he would have to close the door at 3 o'clock or thereabouts. They just could not take care of the crowd. The clerks are exhausted. They haven't enough help — they have a few more now, and the girl in charge has been retired on pension. It was not possible to continue unless this was done.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know why we were not told about it or more girls could be gotten.

Secretary: I have right here on this agenda a request that the vacancy caused by the retirement of Miss Mahoney, in charge of the Certifying Office, be filled. Have we reached it? We have not.

Chairman: Can't we move that her place would be filled down there?

Mr. Carr: How long has that been on the agenda?

Secretary: It will take a month if we go to Civil Service.

Chairman: Can we approve of your sending someone?

Secretary: Whom can I send down? I have to rob Peter to pay Paul. I am on the telephone every single day talking with Mr. Barry trying to adjust it. Mr. Barry's two clerks have had to go down and help.

Dr. Foley: Place it on the agenda for the next meeting.

Secretary: I am surprised that it did not get into the newspapers, but I tried to do the best I could.

Chairman: Is there any way that we can help?

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I move that the vacancy in the Certifying Office be filled immediately."

Mr. Carr: I second the motion.

Secretary: Wait a minute. Undoubtedly somebody in the service will get it. Then there will be a vacancy below. It will take a month before you get anybody from Civil Service or off any other list.

Miss Fitzgerald: You have to begin the procedure to fill the vacancy.

SCHOOL SECRETARIES

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, if there is this great shortage of secretarial help, especially at a peak period like we obviously have had and are going to have in the Certifying Office, then we come back again to the question of the school secretaries for whom we are told in one week that there isn't enough work and now we are told that there is more work than we have girls.

Some are out sick, and this and that, and it seems to me that we ought to find out whether or not our school secretaries who are supposed to be putting in this time are kidding us or kidding themselves or kidding the public. I think we ought to have a report for the next meeting on which school secretaries are working, where they are working, which ones are out sick, which ones are on vacation, and what is wrong with those who are sick.

Chairman: I would like to move that any of them who are out beyond the one month for any reason will be without pay.

Secretary: Five weeks.

Mr. Muchnick: What is this five-week business, may I ask?

Chairman: Miss Reynolds, I think, agrees that she had an accumulation or a backlog of work — is that it — of work that amounted to enough work so that it would take five weeks if she got them all. Now the question is this. If they are not here and do not report, then Miss Reynolds has to have someone do it; and if they are not going to be here and are deliberately going to stay away when they are told they can have a specific time and no longer, then that means they will have to take that vacation without pay and that money should be allocated to hire somebody to do the work. There is no appropriation for it. It has to be done that way, and I so move.

Mr. Muchnick: I like Miss Reynolds, and don't like to see her agitated. As a matter of fact, it was my pleasure a couple of years ago to make the motion, the result of which was that she became appointed Secretary of this School Committee.

However, I don't know where this five weeks suddenly comes into it. There was a vote of this School Committee over a year ago which to date has not been changed that school secretaries get four weeks of vacation — not five weeks of vacation — and that is the plan on which we work, and that is the plan on which we must work until such time, if any, that there is a change, and obviously, from the discussion here tonight, we cannot have any change, and I would like to see the policy adopted over a year ago carried out.

School secretaries get four weeks of paid vacation, and any other time they take is on them, not on the School Department.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I don't think the rest of the school secretaries have anything to do with Item No. 26. I made a motion that Miss Reynolds be empowered to make the appointment to fill the vacancy in the Certifying Office which was created by the retirement of Miss Mahoney.

Chairman: I think it has everything to do with Item 26. If there was a sufficient number of secretaries in here, Miss Reynolds, it would be very simple to assign one down there. I think it is time that we should decide who is going to run this School Committee, whether it's going to be the School Committee that is going to run the School Department of whether it is going to be the secretaries who are going to tell us what they are going to do and when.

Mr. Carr: Well, I think, Madam Chairman, it should be explained to Mr. Muchnick that he must have lost one vote along the line. There were two of us here for five weeks vacation for the secretaries, and apparently there was another vote for the five weeks as it has become enforced.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know when it was voted on.

Secretary: Didn't you tell me — Chairman: That is all right, Miss Reynolds, but you are coming in and telling me that the work is not being done.

Secretary: If I had ninety secretaries I would have had the work done.

Chairman: We will hire somebody else outside, and somebody is going to pay for it, and it is not going to be the Committee. They are on their own, and there will be that amount of money to come in. I am tired of this business, I am telling you very frankly.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, we are getting close to Wednesday morning.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to point out just one thing with reference to school secretaries. If this School Committee had adopted their theory that they were to be paid in the same class and have the same vacation as teachers and so forth, they would be getting approximately $3600 a year for 180 days of work, and roughly that would be in the vicinity of $20 per day for what has been variously estimated as either a five or six-hour day.

Now, taking for one minute the five-hour day period, it would be at the rate of $4 per hour, or the six-hour period is about the rate of $3.50 per hour.

Multiplying that hourly rate by the average time that the usual secretary in and around Boston puts in without benefits of pension and tenure and everything else, it would be roughly $150 or $160 a week based on the time that the average private office or private industry stenographer, or secretary puts in, and I would like to find out from the people of Boston, very frankly, if they want to pay school secretaries at the rate of $150 or $160 per week for what they do.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, no one has proposed that the school secretaries get the same salary as teachers, and I do point out again that once more we are getting irrelevancies. I made a motion to fill the position in the Certifying Office which will have to be filled whether the secretaries come in this summer or whether they do not. I press the motion.

Mr. Carr: I would also like to point out, Madam Chairman, that I do not believe there is a secretary getting the salary in the school system that the former speaker purported that they would receive. They don't have one receiving it.

Mr. Muehnick: I am talking about hourly rates, Madam Chairman.

The Reverend Francis J. Dugan of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Hyde Park, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. FRANCIS J. DUGAN.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Pope Leo XIII.

Thou seest, O Lord, how everywhere the winds have hurst forth and the sea is convulsed with the great violence of the rising waves. Command, we beseech Thee, O Lord, who alone art able, both the winds and the sea. Restore to mankind the true peace of Thy name that peace which the world cannot give—and the calm of social harmony. Under Thy labor and inspiration may men return to due order and, having overthrown the rule of greed, bring back again to life the love of good, justice, charity towards neighbors, temperance in all desires. May Thy kingdom come. May all men recognize that they are subject to Thee and must serve Thee, who art truth and salvation; that without Thee they labor in vain. In Thy labor is rest and in Thy labor is goodness. Thou art ever at hand with Thy strength and Thy copious power to help men to keep it. Life upon earth is a warfare, but Thou dost watch the combat and dost aid man to conquer. The weak Thou dost sustain; the victor Thou dost crown.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

Constables with authority to serve civil process upon filing of bond, for the term ending April 30, 1954: Sidney Margolis, 31 Deering road, Mattapan; Francis Joseph Melville, 332 Bunker Hill street, Charlestown.

Referred to the Committee on Confirmations.

VETO OF ORDER RE ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION TO CERTAIN POLICE OFFICERS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 29, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I return herewith, without my signature, and disapproved, the order adopted by your Honorable Body for acceptance of chapter 546 of the Acts of 1953.

The approval of this order would result in a further annual expenditure for holiday pay in the Police Department to the amount of $400,000. This would be in addition to the $350,000 now expended annually for this purpose in that department. The Police Commissioner of the City of Boston is vigorously opposed to the acceptance of this act. Furthermore, there is no provision in this year's budget for the appropriation of money for this purpose.

Acceptance of the act would also result in the acceptance of chapter 640 of the Acts of 1953, which grants additional holiday pay for fire fighters. Acceptance of this latter act would result in a further expenditure of $125,000 annually in the Fire Department. Obviously, the acceptance of the police act would normally mean the acceptance of the act pertaining to the fire fighters. The acceptance of legislative acts which call for the appropriation of money for their execution be entertained at this time. It is our purpose to reduce expenditures of the city so that there may be some relief in the tax rate of 1954. For this reason, and for the reasons recited above, I am constrained to veto the order adopted by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNEK, Mayor.

The message and order were placed on file.

MTA SUMMER SCHEDULE TO CASTLE ISLAND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 1, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the General Manager of the Metropolitan Transit Authority relative to your order of August 31, 1953, concerning the request that bus service be provided on a half-hour schedule from the North Point Carharn to Castle Island, South Boston.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNEK, Mayor.

Metropolitan Transit Authority.

September 25, 1953.

Mr. Thomas J. Shannon,
City Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

This is in reply to your communication of September 2, 1953, addressed to Mr. F. W. Rourke, Chairman, Board of Trustees, requesting consideration and report with reference to City Council order of August 31, 1953, requesting that bus service be provided on a half-hour schedule from the City Point Carharn to Castle Island and that this service be established this year from April 15 to October 15 and be in operation from now to October 15, 1954.

A survey of the possibility of establishing such a line made by our operating officials indicates there could not be sufficient patronage of such service to meet the cost of operating it.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
General Manager.

Placed on file.

LIVE PARKING IN FIRE HYDRANT ZONES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 2, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of the Boston Traffic Commission relative to your order of September 28, 1953, requesting consideration of the possibility of permitting live parking in fire hydrant zones.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNEK, Mayor.

of Boston embodied in 1950 House Document No. 1372, which was presented to the Legislature for enactment as a statute in 1950 but without avail, are being studied with a view to incorporating so much thereof as comes within G.L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 148, s. 9, as amended, into an ordinance to be adopted under that statute, and so much thereof as comes within G.L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 148, s. 28, as amended, into rules and regulations to be promulgated by the head of the Fire Department under that statute. Amendments to the Building Code or new legislation would then be sought for the purpose of enacting into law any residue.

The study now under way cannot be hastily done; for each proposed provision must be considered from the point of view of reasonableness, so that business, industry, and other private interests involved will not be unreasonably harassed, but at the same time the public fully protected. Suffice it to say in conclusion, therefore, that to me the adoption of a fire prevention code for the City of Boston is of paramount importance, whether it may be embodied in a single ordinance or has to consist of a combination of statutes, ordinances, rules, and regulations; and, accordingly, I will exert every effort to have the study now under way completed as expeditiously as the nature of the subject will permit.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

Referred to the Committee on Legislative Matters.

CITY HOSPITAL PLANNING NEW IMPROVEMENTS IN HANDLING OF FOOD.

All of the work embraced within the terms of the aforesaid contract, including the submission of and actual installation of a proposed pay cafeteria system, has been accomplished in a most satisfactory manner and with gratifying results.

However, as your Honor will recollect, the entire project as spelled out in general in the aforementioned report of February 15, 1952, is a most comprehensive undertaking and, as was indicated at the time of the execution of the contract just completed, its scope was necessarily limited to those parts of the whole program which could be carried out within the 12-month term of that contract.

During the period September 15, 1953, to September 15, 1954, this firm proposes to continue its services at the hospital on behalf of the City of Boston and, specifically, to perform at a total cost of $38,000 the following work: (a) to conduct a study and thereafter submit to the Trustees a plan for the operation of the Dietetics Department and to establish such phases thereof at the hospital, during the contract period, as the Trustees shall direct; (b) to maintain and continue the program designed for the training of new and existing personnel and to implement the same by such personal supervision of employees as may be necessary; (c) to formulate and install a cafeteria system in the Doctors' Dining Room; (d) to conduct a study and submit to the Trustees a proposed plan for the consolidation of all food preparation and service in the main hospital; (e) to conduct a study of the various bakery operations to determine unit material cost of items produced and to submit a report to the Trustees evaluating the economy of its operations and containing recommendations and suggestions in respect to the same.

It is the considered opinion of the Board of Trustees that the performance of the work herein proposed would still further improve the preparation and service of food, increase the efficiency of the persons carrying out those assignments, and be a tremendous factor in achieving our ultimate goal, namely, "the establishment of a complete food service management control at the Boston City Hospital."

In view of the foregoing, therefore, it is the recommendation of the Board of Trustees that public advertising be dispensed with, and the new contract, in the sum of $38,000, as herein proposed, be awarded to Crotty Brothers, Inc., because, in addition to being especially well staffed to perform work in this highly specialized type of activity, this firm has an intimate and detailed knowledge of the hospital's recent and current arrangement for food preparation and service and thus is particularly well equipped to evolve the proposals for its revision, supplementation, and improvement, and to effect the same as may be approved by the Board of Trustees.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL,
by RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

Boston, June 16, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

On March 20, 1953, you approved the awarding of a contract, without advertising, to the International Business Machines Corporation of 573 Boylston street, Boston, for the lease of certain equipment, the total cost of the contract for the year 1953 to be eighteen thousand nine hundred and ninety (18,990) dollars.

Since that date because of changes in system and increased workload and the obsolescence of some of the equipment it was necessary to substitute certain machines. The machines to be substituted are listed as follows:

Alphabetical Electric Accounting Machine, Serial No. 28009, $345 per month.

Automatic Carriage, Serial No. 31065, $20 per month.

These machines are needed to replace the following machines which will be returned to the International Business Machines Corporation:

Electric Accounting Machine, Serial No. 11141, $85 per month.

Bill Feed, Serial No. 10114, $20 per month.

This will increase the cost of the contract for 1953 to twenty-two thousand one hundred and ten (22,110) dollars, and inasmuch as this equipment can only be obtained from the International Business Machines Corporation, it is respectfully requested that permission be granted to authorize a change in the contract.

Yours very truly,

WILLIAM G. O'HARE,
Secretary.

FOOD INSPECTION IN BOSTON.

During 1950 the supervision of the food supplies of Boston and of all processing plants, restaurants, and other eating and drinking establishments continued unabated as part of the program of food inspection of the Health Department. Approximately 150,000 inspections were made, and over 1,500,000 pounds of food were condemned and destroyed, most of which consisted of decomposed fruits and vegetables. Among the shipments of food to Boston embargoed or condemned were seven carloads of onions that had been held too long in storage in Chicago by speculators and that arrived in Boston in a decomposed condition. Another shipment consisted of 76 boxes of dressed poultry weighing 4,950 pounds and originating in Belfast, Maine.

PLANS FOR SNOW REMOVAL FOR WINTER SEASON NOW AT HAND APPROVED BY MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES AT REQUEST OF PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER GEORGE G. HYLAND—SAME CONTRACTORS TO DO WORK AS IN PAST SEASON AT SAME PRICES WITH SAVINGS TO CITY BY DISPENSING WITH NEW ADVERTISING.

Mayor John B. Hynes has approved the request of Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland for snow removal for the winter period of 1953-1954. Contracts have been awarded to the same contractors who performed the services for the city in 1951-1952 on the same basis, this being considered most advantageous to the city. The letter requesting and securing the Mayor's approval reads as follows:

NEWMARKET SQUARE, SITE OF NEW WHOLESALE MARKET ON NORTHAMPTON STREET, READY FOR DEDICATION BY NEW HAVEN ROAD AND DELIVERY TO BUSINESS INTERESTS ON OCTOBER 30—GALA TIME PLANNED.

All work in the construction of sections of Newmarket square, the site of the new wholesale market development on Northampton street, by the New Haven Road and the City of Boston, will be completed in time for gala opening of the project at the end of the month. Work is completed several months ahead of the anticipated time which was to have been by spring of 1954.

This news was conveyed to Mayor John B. Hynes by Public Works Commissioner George Hyland in a communication requesting approval of extension of the work of the Contractor C. J. Maney to complete the job and meet the needs of the railroad in their plans

BOSTON BADLY SHORTCHANGED IN STATE AID FOR HIGHWAY BUILDING, ACTING MAYOR FRANCIS X. AHEARN TELLS GOVERNOR'S CONFERENCE ON STATE, COUNTY, AND MUNICIPAL RELATIONS—PROBLEM OF PUBLIC HIGHWAYS TAKES ON RENEWED AND IMPORTANT SIGNIFICANCE—ASSAILS PROPOSED PLAN FOR ARTERIAL HIGHWAY THROUGH DOWNTOWN BOSTON.

Following are the remarks of Acting Mayor Francis X. Ahearn at the Governor's Conference on state, county, and municipal relations. Acting Mayor Ahearn is a member of the panel on highways.

Of all the many perplexing problems which beset a big municipality, today called upon to furnish more and better services in the face of rapidly rising costs, the problem of public highways takes on renewed and important significance.

In this discussion we could advert to many of the ramifications of the highway problem, but, since we are limited to about five minutes in this presentation, I shall confine myself to one or two important aspects of interest at this time to the City of Boston.

To begin with, while on the whole we are very happy to be the recipients of state aid for highway building, in my opinion Boston is badly short-changed in state aid under Chapter 90.

Certainly, the whole state is and should be interested in seeing to it that Boston, the capital city, is equipped with the best highway system possible. Boston's highways, more than any other city, are used by the whole state.

The facts show that there are approximately 724 miles of highways in the City of Boston, and, of this number, approximately 210 miles, or 29 per cent, are principal or secondary streets which would be eligible for construction or reconstruction under Chapter 90.

18 Per Cent of Highway Fund.

Of the 1,623,000 motor vehicles registered in the Commonwealth, about 169,300, or approximately 10.43 per cent, are registered from Boston. The state highway fund, derived from income received through the 5-cent state gasoline tax, is estimated at $55,000,000 for the year 1953. Although Boston has 10.43 per cent of the total registration for the state, it is estimated that, because of the larger gasoline consumption used by Boston trucks and cars, Boston-registered vehicles contribute approximately 18 per cent, or $9,900,000, of this highway fund.

The annual appropriations for Chapter 90 work over the past five years were $3,000,000 in 1949 and $4,000,000 in each succeeding year, including 1953. Of these appropriations, the amounts allocated to the City of Boston over the past five years varied from $65,123.52, or 2.16 per cent, in 1949 to $457,306.36, or 11.43 per cent, in 1952. To date in 1953 the amount allotted to Boston is $232,536.57, or 5.81 per cent of the total appropriated. It can be readily seen from this that the amounts allotted to the City of Boston for Chapter 90 work are considerably less in proportion than the amounts contributed by Boston motorists to the state highway fund.

This unfair additional burden of the cost of building highways for the use and enjoyment of outsiders is no small factor in causing our rising tax rate.

ACTING MAYOR FRANCIS X. AHEARN ASSAILS PROPOSED PLAN FOR ARTERIAL HIGHWAY.

In addition to the 4.83 miles of highway being constructed under Chapter 90 in Boston this year at a cost to the city of $251,900 and at a cost of $232,500 to the state, the Boston highway program for 1953 (exclusive of Chapter 90 projects) comprises 26 miles of highways at a cost of $1,815,000. Using these figures and based on the current tax rate, the city's cost of Chapter 90 work represents approximately 16 cents on the present tax rate; the cost of the city's own highway program about $1.18 on the tax rate; or the total effect of all the highway construction represents approximately $1.34 on the 1953 Boston tax rate.

There is one factor in the allocation of Chapter 90 appropriations that affects Boston in a unique manner. Apportionment of the cost of any Chapter 90 project is on the basis of the state paying 50 per cent of the cost, the county in which the project is constructed 25 per cent, and the city or town the remaining 25 per cent.

WHOLLY SUPPORTS COUNTY.

The City of Boston is the only municipality in the state which pays the entire cost of its county government and therefore must pay 50 per cent of the cost of each Chapter 90 project built in Boston. As a result of this, I sincerely believe that this factor should be taken into consideration in the state's allocation of funds for Boston and should constitute further grounds for a more generous allocation of state funds under Chapter 90 for highways in Boston.

In general then, as we have indicated, we are glad to be receiving as much fine help and state aid in our highway program as we have been getting. However, I do believe, in view of some of the factors outlined, that consideration should be given by the state officials in charge of Chapter 90 allotments to keeping the amounts allocated to the City of Boston in closer proportion to the amounts contributed by Boston motorists to the state highway fund.

PLAN MAY BE DEATHBLOW.

I could not fail at this time to advert to another most important even concerning state construction of highways. At this time the state is seriously considering the construction of a leg of the new Boston Arterial Highway through our garment district and Chinatown. I cannot stress too greatly my opinion that such a plan would be catastrophic for Boston. Boston, in dire financial straits as it is, might well be dealt a lethal blow by the loss of the garment industry and the destruction of the Chinese community. The garment industry is a $200,000,000 activity, and we should be doing all in our power to encourage its growth and blossom rather than driving it from the city. The Chinese community presents a very special and unique problem because of the nature and habits of the people and their economy.

We sincerely beseech the state authorities, Governor Herter, and Commissioner Volpe to reconsider present plans and to give us an opportunity to produce alternate plans for the location of the arterial highway.

While engineers seem to be primarily concerned with the efficiency of the roadway, we, as responsible public officials, must consider such efficiency only one factor in the bigger equation. Other important factors in the equation are the social, economic, cultural, and humanitarian factors of this problem.

I have studied this matter and discussed this matter at length with competent engineers, and I am firmly convinced that we have by no means exhausted good and acceptable alternate plans for the location of the arterial highway which would be more satisfactory to all.

PLANS FOR SNOW REMOVAL APPROVED BY MAYOR.

31, 1951, with the option on the part of the city of extending the contracts to May 1 of 1952. The city exercised the latter-referenced option in all 13 of the snow removal areas.

The contracts were awarded on the basis of publicly advertised bids, with the exception of contracts affecting Snow Areas 6, 9, 10, and 13. In the latter-referenced areas I negotiated contracts on a more satisfactory basis than if the contracts were awarded on the basis of the bids and, therefore, such action was advantageous to the city. These contracts not only provide for the removal of snow on a cubic yard basis, but also on a rental or so-called force account basis, at hourly rates designated by the department and included in the contract document.

Subsequent to May 1 of 1952, the authority of your Honor was obtained to dispense with advertising, and contracts were awarded for the winter season of 1952-1953, at the same unit prices and substantially on the same basis as the contracts referred to above. The latter contracts expired last March 31. It is my unqualified opinion—in view of the rising market affecting labor, equipment, materials, and supplies—that it would be in the best interests of the city to award snow removal contracts for the winter season of 1953 and 1954 to all of the present contractors, at the contract prices and under the same terms and conditions of the contracts that expired last March 31.

The present contractors have performed the work in a very satisfactory and efficient manner, and they have the proper equipment, organization, and qualifications to carry out the snow removal contracts. I have contacted the 13 contractors involved, and they have agreed to do the snow removal work for the winter of 1953-1954 in the areas designated, on the basis of the latter-referenced contracts.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising and to award snow removal contracts to the contractors designated below, in the areas as noted, and at the contract prices per cubic yard designated, which—as stated hereinbefore—are the same prices that were included in the snow contracts for the winter seasons of 1951-1952 and 1952-1953:

Area No.	Contractor.	Price per cubic yard.
1.	Charles Callahan Company.....	$0 80
2.	J. A. Singarella Company.....	80
3.	James A. Susi.....	80
4.	Hugh Nawn, Inc.....	70
5.	Paedla Brothers, Inc.....	99
6.	John J. McCarthy Company, Inc.,	85
7.	Peelless Construction Company.....	78
8.	J. F. White Contracting Company.....	1 00
9.	Carriere Construction Company.....	1 00
10.	Joseph P. McCabe, Inc.....	75
11.	A. Singarella & Son.....	85
12.	C. & R. Construction Company.....	67
13.	Atlantic Roads, Inc.....	85

It is understood that the contracts will expire on March 31 of 1954. Under the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1951, contracts may be awarded in a current year for the first three months of the succeeding year as long as said contracts affecting the latter-referenced period are awarded "upon like or more favorable terms and conditions" than the contract in effect in a current year. The above-referenced proposed snow removal contracts comply with the terms of chapter 182 in that they are being awarded for the months of January, February, and March of 1954, under the same terms and conditions in effect during the current year.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of September 28, the authority of your Honor was obtained to dispense with advertising and to award a contract in the estimated amount of $29,323 to C. J. Maney Company, Inc., for partially constructing certain sections of Newmarket square, the principal street in the wholesale market development.

The contract provided for a minimum amount of construction that would provide reasonably satisfactory means of ingress and egress to and from the largest building in the site. The work provided in the above-referenced contract is practically completed and tenants have already started to occupy the premises. At the time that I wrote to you concerning this contract, it did not appear that any additional highway work would be needed in the area until next spring, as the construction of the remaining buildings did not seem to be advanced to the point where tenants would occupy them this fall.

The officials of the New Haven Railroad have informed me, however, that the entire area is to be officially opened and dedicated as a wholesale market site on Friday, October 30, and that many important personages will attend the exercises. The railroad officials are understandably proud of their achievement and are desirous of having the highway work in the vicinity of all buildings completed for the official opening, and also in order that they will be available for use by the tenants who will occupy the buildings shortly after the official opening.

This is one time when Boston should put its best foot forward, and I feel, therefore, that we should again cooperate and make immediate arrangements to complete the partial construction of the highways, in order to insure a reasonably satisfactory highway system before the end of the month. As time is of the essence, we cannot publicly advertise for proposals for the work and, therefore, it is my unqualified opinion that we should proceed in the same manner as in the above-referenced contract, and award another contract to C. J. Maney at the same unit prices in effect in the current contract.

Incidentally, the legal representative of the railroad, in a communication dated November 13, 1952, agreed that the New Haven would do the necessary highway excavation work, install the gravel subbase, and the surface drainage system without cost to the city. The railroad has substantially carried out this agreement, although the department engineers—in establishing the lines and grades for the recent highway work—found that the gravel subbase was low and that the catch-basins were not installed in their proper locations. It has been necessary, therefore, to provide additional gravel and basins, and the question has arisen as to the payment for same. I am not satisfied that the recently established lines and grades for the new highway work were the same as those established when the railroad deposited the gravel and built the catch basins. The New Haven Railroad and the Maney Company have been very fair and reasonable in everything undertaken at the market site affecting the City of Boston and I am certain that these matters can eventually be equitably adjusted to the satisfaction of all parties concerned. In the meantime, it is my intention to withhold all payments under these items in the contract, pending a conference on the matter with the Board of Street Commissioners and the railroad officials at a later date. The important item for consideration at this time is the construction of the highways, and this work should proceed without interference of any sort.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authorization to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to C. J. Maney Company, Inc., in the estimated amount of $36,935, for partially constructing designated sections of Newmarket square, and Theodore A. Glynn Way, if necessary, on the basis of the standard specifications of this department and in accordance with agreed prices which were obtained as the result of negotiations between the contractor and the undersigned.

I also request your authorization to expend an additional amount, if necessary, not in excess of 25 per cent of the above-quoted total of $36,935. The 25 per cent clause is a standard provision on all publicly advertised contracts, and I feel that it should also be included in the subject contract.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

* Contract awarded.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with commercial houses, contractors, and merchants for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from heads of departments interested were as follows:

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, October 14, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested for the award of a contract, without publicly advertising, for proposals, to General Electric X-ray Corporation, 1256 Soldiers Field road, Boston, Mass., in a sum not to exceed $8,700 for the furnishing of all labor, materials, and services whatsoever for the complete installation of certain new X-ray equipment in a designated room in the Dowling Building, patient admitting area, to be known as Chest Radiography Room. This proposed installation is of vital importance because it will enable the hospital staff to know within an hour from the time of a patient's arrival as to whether or not that person has a chest infection in order that precautions can be taken to lessen the possibility of others who must, in performing their duties, come in contact with such a patient being unnecessarily exposed to the infection.

The X-ray equipment will be procured by the Supply Department on a separate contract with General Electric X-ray Corporation, which firm is its manufacturer. This equipment is very heavy but despite its bulk, it is most delicate and special preparations must be made for its installation in the room. Furthermore, the doors of the dark room itself as well as adjoining rooms must be lead lined in order to insure the safety of all. Also, the dark room must have incorporated within it a special type of ventilation. All of the aforementioned aspects of the contemplated installation are within the skill, experience, capacity, and accomplishments of the aforementioned firm.

In addition, the work must be done in a manner which will result in the satisfactory and efficient operation of the equipment for a long period of time. Also, because of the purpose behind the development of the aforementioned Chest Radiography Room, it is necessary to have the project completed within the shortest possible time. We believe that the General Electric X-ray Corporation can and will do the work in the best possible manner and in the shortest possible time.

Accordingly, it is the well considered opinion of the Board of Trustees that nothing would be gained by publicly inviting bids for the subject work and, therefore, the Board recommends an award of the contract, without advertising, to the General Electric X-ray Corporation to perform the work outlined above at a cost not to exceed the sum of $8,700.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, October 9, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 9, 1953, bids for furnishing one toolroom lathe to Penal Institutions for Deer Island were to be publicly opened and read in this office. However, no bids were received.

Since that time, this office has obtained a written quotation from Packard Machinery Company, 343 Main street, Cambridge, Mass., for South Bend equipment.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with further public advertisement for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Packard Machinery Company for one 16-inch South Bend toolroom precision lathe with extra equipment to be delivered ready to operate to Deer Island at a total price of $2,876.45, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, October 9, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 8, 1953, your approval was given to award contracts for 3,000 tons of bulk rock salt to Eastern Salt Company and to the Chemical Corporation in the amount of $41,400 each and for rock salt in 100-pound bags to Thomas F. Culkeen in the amount of $6,710.

Inasmuch as there are not sufficient funds at the present time to cover the amounts of the contracts for bulk rock salt, it is now requested that the awards to Eastern Salt Company and the Chemical Corporation be elanged to read 1,500 tons each of bulk rock salt at a cost of $13.80 per ton, making the total amounts to these two companies $20,700. The award for rock salt in 100-pound bags to Thomas F. Culkeen will remain the same. The balance of the bulk rock salt will be awarded at a later date when funds are made available.

It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amounts of contracts will be:

Eastern Salt Company, $20,700, net, 30 days from date of invoice; the Chemical Corporation, $20,700, net, 30 days; Thomas F. Culkeen, $6,710, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, October 13, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

A requisition has been received in this office from the Boston City Hospital for fifty dozen, adult size, terry cloth bathrobes.

A sample bathrobe was submitted by the International Bath Robe Company of New York City to the Boston City Hospital for trial and according to a letter received from the hospital proved satisfactory.

On the basis of the trial sample, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to the International Bath Robe Company of New York, New York.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,250, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, October 22, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Park Department has submitted a requisition to this office for 5,000 dozen Hoodie cups for the annual Halloween celebration.

In past years, H. P. Hood & Sons was the only company that rendered satisfactory service regarding deliveries of the ice cream. Inasmuch as this is the most important factor to be considered at this time, permission is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to H. P. Hood & Sons for 5,000 dozen Hoodie cups at a price of 55 cents per dozen.

Total amount of contract will be $2,750, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, October 19, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p.m., Councillor HURLEY, Senior Member, in the chair. Absent, Councillors Ahearn and Ward.

The Reverend Christopher P. Griffin, State Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus, Massachusetts Jurisdiction, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. CHRISTOPHER P.
GRIFFIN.

"Sicut Patribus, Sit Deus Nobis."

One may pray to God that this Council may hear, or one may speak to the Council that it may pray. Instead of praying perfunctorily to God and tabling "the prayer as finished business," we say to you, "This is your 'unfinished business,' your prayers." Pray and pray always to the Eternal God of Wisdom to assist you always with counsel and fortitude in the administration of this Body. Let the light of divine wisdom to direct your deliberations and shine forth in all your proceedings so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of virtue, and civic happiness.

Burn deep in your hearts the words on the seal of the great City of Boston, "Sicut Patribus, Sit Deus Nobis." "As He was with our fathers, may God be with us." May He reign over our families, infusing them with joy and happiness. May He reign over society, calling it back humble and penitent to the throne of His divine majesty.

As He was with our fathers, may God now be with us as a source of consolation to the bereaved and heartbroken families of those who died in the Leyte tragedy in our city.

As He was with our fathers, may God now instill in you the realization and understanding of your vocation as councillors in the service of the citizens of Boston. You are sentinels of good order. You are custodians of civic rights. You are guardians of the cherished American ideals and the imperishable American destiny.

As He was with our fathers, may God now be with us making us instruments of His peace.

Where there is hatred let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

As He was with our fathers, may God be with you.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Secretary of the Board of Street Commissioners relative to your order of October 5, 1933, requesting that the Committee to Memorialize Veterans consider the naming of the square at the corner of Tremont and Hammond streets, Boston, in honor of 1st, Lieut. CONVEYANCE OF LAND AT CASTLE ISLAND TO PORT OF BOSTON AUTHORITY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 14, 1953.
To the City Council.

I transmit herewith an order which would give precedence by the City of Boston to the Port of Boston Authority, without consideration, a certain tract of land, containing approximately 6.3 acres owned by the City of Boston and situated in the City of Boston, Massachusetts. This order is drawn in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 1953, c. 626, Lands of the United States of America at Castle Island Terminal and the provisions of Sec. 1951, c. 705, Lands of the United States of America under the provisions of Sec. 1951, c. 705. Included in the Castle Island Terminal facilities is the aforementioned land owned by the City of Boston and the United States of America during World War I.

Under the provisions of St. 1951, c. 771, the Port of Boston Authority is authorized to expend $1,200,000 for the further development of the Castle Island Terminal facilities, and to execute leases of the property for periods of five years or more, the minimum rentals to be at a rate sufficient to pay the actual principal and interest requirements of the Commonwealth for the facilities included in the leases.

The Port of Boston Authority now controls all of the Castle Island Terminal facilities with the exception of the 6.3 acres of land owned by the City of Boston. Since the area owned by the city is an integral part of the terminal facilities, I recommend the adoption of the accompanying order in order that the Port of Boston Authority may go forward with its program to develop the Port of Boston.

I enclose herewith copy of vote of the Board of Park Commissioners passed October 2, 1953, assenting to this conveyance.

9. The detail of patrolmen at the various precincts will continue until the ballots are counted and the results declared. The officers are then to bring the ballots and returns to the Election Commissioners' office.

10. Cards with the ward and precinct number and location of voting booth printed thereon will be forwarded to the several police divisions, on which the Division Commander will write the name, the division number and the number of the officer detailed at the time stated on the morning of November 3, 1953, at the voting booth of each respective precinct on his division. This card, to be given to the officer so detailed at the voting booth, will be retained in his possession until delivery by him to an employee of the Board of Election Commissioners, who will arrive accompanying a sergeant on motor vehicle from the Election Commissioners' office on the morning of November 3, 1953, with the ballot boxes, ballots, etc., as hereinbefore stated.

This card, when returned by such employee to the office of the Election

Commissioners will be its receipt that the ballot boxes, ballots, etc., have arrived at their proper destination.

11. On receipt by the patrolman from the sergeant, detailed on motor vehicle, as herein provided, of registering ballot box, ballots, voting lists and such other documents as may have been received from the Election Commissioners, the patrolman detailed at polling place will deliver same to the warden or clerk of the precinct, allowing no person to take or handle them before such delivery, and hand the key of the registering ballot box to the warden. On delivery of the ballots to the warden, the patrolman will take from him a receipt for the same, which receipt will be returned to the Election Commissioners.

12. After the warden has opened the box and allowed the election officers and the public to see that it is empty, the box is to be again locked and the key given to the patrolman who is to retain it until after the polls have closed except that, if the ballot box clogs, the key to the box should be turned over to the warden so that he may open the box to press the ballots down. If this is not done there is a danger that some of the ballots may become mutilated. (After the warden has pressed the ballots down, he will relock the box and return the key to the patrolman.)

13. The patrolman will obtain from the warden copies of poster, which will be sent to the latter, in relation to smoking and the use of liquor in polling places, and post same in conspicuous places where they may be easily read. Tacks will be sent for the purpose.

14. The warden will deliver to the patrolman detailed at the polling place for his use at that place a copy of the descriptive voting list, which must be returned to the warden at the close of polls.

15. When the polls are opened, the patrolman will mark in the place indicated on tag attached to the key the figures which the register shows before any ballots are cast.

16. At 8 o'clock P.M., Tuesday, November 3, 1953, after the polls close, one sergeant will report in each of the 22 wards (excepting Ward 14, Dorchester; Ward 18, Hyde Park; and Ward 20, West Roxbury, for which wards two sergeants and two motor trucks, each, are provided), to meet motor vehicle at last point of morning distribution; thence to proceed to each of the several precincts in his respective ward, and receive registering ballot box (which must be locked) and key thereof, voting lists envelope, signed by the warden and other election officers, receipts for ballots, unused ballot box, sealed and certified (containing unused and spoiled ballots), stamps for marking spoiled ballots and check lists, and carry them to the Election Commissioners' office and deliver same to some member of the Board of Election Commissioners.

17. When the polls are closed, the patrolman will mark on the same tag the figures which the register shows after all ballots have been cast. He will then hand the key to the warden, who will open the box and take out all the ballots to be sorted and counted. The warden will then cause the voting lists, including the list used by the police officer, to be sealed in an envelope and the envelope certified by the signatures of the warden and other election officers and the same returned to the Election Commissioners. The patrolman will not allow this envelope to be put into the ballot box. The sergeant who will report on motor vehicle will retain this envelope until delivery at the office of the Election Commissioners. The unused and spoiled ballots are then to be put into the box for unused ballots and the box sealed and certified, to be delivered to the office of the Board of Election Commissioners.

18. When returning from polls, all motor vehicles must drive to the easterly side of City Hall Annex, Court square, where ballot boxes will be conveyed by chute to the basement.

19. It is important that the patrolman sees that the voting lists envelope is signed by the warden, clerk and all the inspectors. The patrolman will also see that the special book for signatures of voters is returned in the registering ballot box.

20. In case a patrolman is detailed to relieve another after the close of the polls the commanding officer will see that he is properly instructed as to the duty of bringing official return, the box of ballots cast, and the press return to the Election Commissioners' office as soon as they are delivered to him by the election officers.

21. When the ballots have all been counted, the ballots thus counted, the tally sheets and nothing else, shall be placed by the warden in the leatheroid box sent for that purpose, which must be sealed and signed by all the election officers. The patrolman will particularly see that this box is properly sealed and that all the election officers have signed their names to the certificate on the box. The patrolman will then bring the box, official return, record book and press return to the City Hall Annex, Court square, and deliver same to the Election Commissioners.

The patrolman is directed not to allow the official return, press return or record book to be placed in the leatheroid box with ballots cast, but are to be returned by the officer to the Board of Election Commissioners.

22. While the polls remain open, an officer of rank will visit the polling place in each division at stated intervals, to be designated by the captain, and in case of any disturbance will report the fact to the commanding officer of the station house without delay. If additional men are needed beyond the number available in that division the officer in charge will communicate immediately with headquarters.

He shall remind the officer and the warden on duty at the polls, that the official return, press return and record book are not to be placed in the leatheroid box, but shall be safely delivered to the Election Commissioners with the leatheroid box.

23. Attention is called to the fact that the polls at the City Election on Tuesday, November 3, 1953, open at 8 o'clock A.M., and close at 8 o'clock P.M.

24. Commanding officers of divisions will see that the officers detailed for duty on City Election Day are furnished with a copy of circular issued by the Board of Election Commissioners entitled: "Instructions to Police Officers on City Election Day."

25. Voting machines will be used in the following precincts at the coming City Election:

Ward 1, all precincts.
Ward 2, all precincts.

Ward 3, all precincts.
Ward 4, all precincts.
Ward 5, all precincts.
Ward 6, all precincts.

Ward 12, Precincts 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 17, and 18.
Ward 13, Precincts 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 15, and 16.
Ward 14, Precincts 1, 2, 5, 8, 9, 11, 13, 14, 15, 17, 19, and 20.
Ward 15, Precincts 9, 10, 12, and 13.

Ward 22, Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 10, 14, and 16.

Officers assigned to duty in these precincts should be apprised of the procedure to be followed. When the warden has set up the machines for voting and the polls are declared open, he will give keys of each machine in the precinct to the police officer. The police officer will have custody of these keys until the close of the polls. Since the law requires that a ballot box be furnished for challenged ballots, the officer will also have the custody of the ballot box key during the polling hours. At the close of the polls, the officer will return keys to the warden. On SHOUP machines keys No. 2 and No. 3 will be automatically locked into the voting machine; Key No. 4 will be given to the police officer to return to City Hall. On automatic machines keys No. 2 and No. 3 will be given to the police officer to return to City Hall. These keys are to be enclosed in a sealed envelope signed by all election officers. Since the procedure is most important, it is requested that the officers check the envelope—one for each machine—to be certain that they are in proper order. These envelopes are not to be put in the leatheroid box but are to be taken in hand by the police officer and delivered to the clerk at the check-in desk in the Election Department. If any challenged ballots are cast in the precincts where machines are used, the police officer will have the ballots to return, but in any event he will return to City Hall Annex the box sent to the polling place for ballots cast, and the envelopes containing the keys.

IMPORTANT NOTES.

A. Officers shall strictly enforce the law pertaining to smoking. Smoking is prohibited within the confines of the polling places, during the entire day, while the polls are open, as well as after they are closed.

As polling places and their approaches and exits are, in many instances, in buildings used for places of religious worship, to say nothing of the danger to valuable property from careless persons, the importance of these instructions is apparent.

B. During the hours from 6 o'clock P.M. to 8 o'clock P.M., there has been a large increase in the number of persons who congregate outside the polling places. This makes it disagreeable to voters who are entering and leaving the polling places. Officers shall exert every effort to relieve this congestion.

Officers are reminded that it is the privilege of the voters to watch the count of the votes cast. It is understood that no disturbance or crowding is to be permitted and that the voters are to remain outside the rails.

C. Officers shall handle ballot boxes with great care.

D. At the close of the polls all persons waiting to vote, including any who might be in line at the entrance to the polling place, are to be placed in line by the warden and given cards bearing their names. The police officer is to stand at the end of this line to be certain that no additional persons are permitted to join it. All voters in the line are to be permitted to cast their ballots, whether by paper ballots or by machine.

E. Attention is called to chapter 129, Acts of 1952, which permits a candidate running on "stickers" (or his representative) to distribute such "stickers" adjacent to or in the building where the polling place is located or at the entrance to, but not in, the room where the polling takes place.

Your attention is also directed to chapter 78, Acts of 1952, which states that: "No information regarding the state of the balloting shall be disclosed before the close of the polls."

F. Corrected books showing the locations of the polling places will be sent to each division. You will note that in many instances precincts have been combined in one building, but the number of precincts is 322.

G. Commanding officers shall direct all officers detailed at the polling places in the various precincts to report promptly, according to schedule.

H. Officers shall be informed that in many instances there are two precincts located in the same building, as follows:

IN CITY COUNCIL.

Councillors HURLEY and KERRIGAN:

Whereas, The tragic explosion aboard the Aircraft Carrier "Leyte" was one of the worst tragedies ever to occur in our beloved city, with a terrible loss of life as well as horrible injuries and burning to both the Navy and civilian personnel working aboard this ship; and

Whereas, Many outstanding acts of heroism were spoken of by officers and other persons aboard the ship at the time of the tragedy; and

Whereas, The prompt response of the Boston Fire Department to the alarm and their subsequent outstanding work aboard this ship was praised by officers and men, and their actions reflected great credit upon their department and upon the city, as their work has similarly reflected credit upon the department and city in other emergencies in the past; and

Whereas, The speedy action of many of the members of the Boston Police Department in transporting the injured and providing motorcycle escort to ambulances was most helpful and executed with a maximum of efficiency; and

Whereas, The Boston City Hospital and all of the personnel associated with it, including the superintendent, the doctors, the nurses, the medical attendants, ambulance drivers and orderlies, responded to the emergency in a manner that also reflects great credit upon the hospital and upon the city; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, extends its warmest praise and commendation to the men of the Boston Fire Department, the Boston Police Department, and the personnel of the Boston City Hospital, for their work during this tragic emergency.

In City Council, October 19, 1953. Adopted.

Attest:

WALTER J. MALLOY,
City Clerk."

"COMMANDER,
BOSTON NAVAL SHIPYARD,
BOSTON, MASS.

October 20, 1953.

HON. JOHN F. COTTER,

Fire Commissioner.

DEAR COMMISSIONER COTTER:

The personnel of the shipyard join me in expressing our appreciation and gratitude to the members of the Boston Fire Department for their outstanding performance on board the USS "Leyte" last Friday.

The excellent service rendered on that occasion was typical of that of the Boston Fire Department. We are indeed fortunate for the teamwork which has always existed between your department and the Boston Naval Shipyard.

With kindest regards and sincere thanks.

Sincerely yours,

P. D. GOLD, Jr."

"SAINT VINCENT'S RECTORY, 267 WEST THIRD STREET,
SOUTH BOSTON, MASS.

October 20, 1953.

MR. JOHN F. COTTER,

Fire Commissioner.

MY DEAR COMMISSIONER:

Perhaps the firemen who showed much courage and bravery at the fire on the "Leyte" would like to know that their courage did not go unnoticed.

When the two priests who were first to respond to the call returned home from the disaster, their first words were words of praise for the heroic firemen and the cool-headed direction of the Fire Commissioner. One of these priests, before he entered the seminary, was a captain in the U. S. Marines and fought in all the early battles in the South Pacific. He is no stranger to scenes of heroism thus his unbounded praise of your men is not emotional but really solid.

I thought you and the men might be interested to know how they are needed and appreciated at times like this when there is a call for courage and bravery.

Yours respectfully,

REV. JOHN T. POWERS."

V. COMMENDATIONS.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend all members of the department who responded to and performed services during the fire on board the USS "Leyte," October 16, 1953. Their efficient action and devotion to duty on this occasion reflected great credit upon the entire membership of the Fire Department.

The following named are hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 6167, on October 6, 1953, while off duty:

Lieut. John A. Pepe, Engine Company 5.

Lieut. George M. Sacco, Ladder Company 31.

Hoseman Charles C. Famulari, Engine Company 5.

Ladderman Richard T. O'Brien, Ladder Company 31.

Hoseman Robert N. Anderson of Engine Company 29 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 5253, October 17, 1953, while off duty.

Ladderman Joseph T. O'Brien of Ladder Company 31 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 6152, two alarms, October 22, 1953, while off duty.

The fire was on board a beam trawler and Ladderman O'Brien's knowledge of this type of ship was of great help to the chief of department in directing operations at the fire.

By order of Fire Commissioner JOHN F. COTTER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

PROPERTY OWNERS WHO COOPERATE WITH CITY IN IMPROVEMENTS IN CONNECTION WITH MAYOR HYNES' REHABILITATION AND CONSERVATION PROGRAM NOT TO SUFFER FROM INCREASES IN TAX VALUATIONS THEREFOR—CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF ASSESSORS MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT.

The City of Boston will not penalize any property owner who, in cooperation with Mayor John B. Hynes' Rehabilitation and Conservation Program, or otherwise, improves his property, said Edmund J. Burke, chairman of the Board of Assessors, in a statement released yesterday to the chairmen of the nine District Rehabilitation and Conservation Program Committees now in the process of organization.

"However, in fairness to the other taxpayers," he says, "any real estate owner who enjoys increased profits as a result of such improvements or makes any substantial additions to his property will be assessed accordingly."

"This statement," he pointed out, "has no relation whatsoever to any increased

CITY LAND-TAKING CASE IN BACK BAY SETTLED WITH APPROVAL OF MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES FOR $322,000, FIGURE RECOMMENDED BY LAW DEPARTMENT, FINANCE COMMISSION, AND REAL ESTATE COMMISSION—ITEM ON ST. JAMES AVENUE AND PROVIDENCE STREET PART OF HOTEL BRUNSWICK PROPERTY, OWNERS OF WHICH HAD SOUGHT DAMAGES OF $450,000, LATER REDUCED TO $355,000.

In connection with a land-taking in Back Bay by the city the Finance Commission addressed the following explanation to the Mayor and City Council:

October 30, 1953.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

Among the provisions of chapter 474, Acts of 1946, which is titled "An Act to Authorize Public Off-Street Parking Facilities in the City of Boston," is the power given to the Real Estate Commissioners of the city to acquire properties by eminent domain proceedings. In order that payments for takings of properties might be subject to public scrutiny, it is further provided in that Act:

"... no purchase and no award, settlement or agreement for judgment in eminent domain proceedings hereunder shall be made by the city or in its behalf, unless the terms of the proposed purchase, award, settlement or agreement, together with all pertinent facts, shall first have been submitted to the Boston Finance Commission not less than ten days before such purchase, award, settlement or agreement."

In accordance with the direction thus given, the Finance Commission was notified on October 29 by Corporation Counsel William L. Baxter that he has arrived at a decision in the matter of damages sustained by the owners of the parcels located on St. James avenue at the corner of Clarendon street and extending through to Providence street. This happens to be the last of the settlements for the St. James Avenue takings. It is significant for the fact that in this case a substantial part of the proposed payment is not for the land taken, but for alleged damages because the taking prevents a particular use which had been planned for the Hotel Brunswick property and the St. James Avenue land; said use being the erection of a new hotel on the Brunswick Hotel site to be connected by an archway over Providence street (if the Legislature granted such permission) where a garage to serve the hotel would be erected.

The letter of the Corporation Counsel which is referred to above is part of this communication. It contains all the facts required by statute to be submitted to the Finance Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD F. MULLEN, Chairman,
LEO J. DUNN,
FREDERICK DEANE,
EDWARD U. LEE,
ROGER J. ABIZAD, M.D.,
The Finance Commission.

ROBERT E. CUNNIFF,
Secretary.

MAYOR APPROVES SETTLEMENT OF BACK BAY LAND-TAKING CASE.

October 28, 1953.

BOSTON FINANCE COMMISSION,
24 School Street, Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIRS:

I hereby notify the Commission pursuant to St. 1946, c. 474, sec. 1, subdivision (a), that this department is about to settle the suit of 506 Boylston Street, Inc. v. City of Boston, Suffolk Superior Court, No. 458504, in which suit the petitioner claimed damages for the taking of land and buildings located at 97, 99, 101, 103, 105-107, and 109 St. James avenue, and 201-203 Clarendon street, in the City of Boston.

The taking of the above premises was made for off-street parking purposes on December 29, 1950, by the Board of Real Estate Commissioners pursuant to the authority granted by the statute hereinbefore cited. The facts concerning the property are as follows:

The property consisted of 14,243 square feet of land, made up of six separate adjoining lots having a total frontage on St. James avenue of approximately 142 feet 6 inches. The lot was rectangular in shape and extended back 100 feet where it was bounded on the rear by Providence street, a distance of 142 feet 6 inches. The lot also fronts on Clarendon street, with a total frontage thereon of 100 feet, forming a lot bounded on three sides by public ways in the City of Boston.

FOR OFF-STREET PARKING.

The property taken was part of the block which extended from Berkeley street to Clarendon street, and was bounded on St. James avenue on the one side and Providence street in the rear. The whole block was taken for off-street parking on the date hereinbefore stated. On two of the lots which form part of this parcel were two buildings consisting of a brick building, Nos. 105-107-109 St. James avenue and 201 Clarendon street, which was a combination store and apartment house. The other building was a one-story building located at 203 Clarendon street, used for stores. The property is located in the B-80 zone, and was assessed in 1950 for $117,500.

The petitioner also owns the adjoining property across Providence street on which the Brunswick Hotel is located, and both the Brunswick Hotel property and the parcel in question were purchased at the same time for $675,000 in 1950, which was less than the property was assessed for, which was $732,500.

Appraisals were made at the request of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners by John A. Breen and Elson M. Blunt, Jr. The figures at which they appraised the property were as follows: Mr. Breen's figure was $155,000 for the property taken, and Mr. Blunt's figure was $167,000.

In 1953 an appraisal was made by William H. Ballard at the request of the petitioner, and a copy of the same was furnished this department. In this appraisal Mr. Ballard arrives at a figure of $322,200 as the total damage to the petitioner as a result of the taking of its property. It is understood by this office that the petitioner has appraisals from W. K. Bean and Louis Donovan, both of which are in excess of $450,000. In this connection it must be stated that a copy of all the appraisals for both the petitioner and respondent were made available to Mr. Ballard.

In the negotiations which have taken place it was necessary to take into consideration all the settlement and trial figures of all the other parcels included within the taking, as this is the last petition pending as the result of this taking. Reports thereof have been submitted to you in the past.

QUESTION OF DAMAGES.

Inasmuch as any land damage case involves mostly questions of fact as to the value of land taken, it is exceedingly difficult many times to arrive at what figure a given case should be settled for. Consideration is given to prior experience in settlement of verdict figures if any are available of other parcels included in the taking. Appraisals of experts both for the taking authority and for a petitioner are also considered, inasmuch as juries many times render verdicts which are arrived at by the simple method of adding appraisal figures of the experts of both sides and then dividing the total, thereby reaching a figure half way between. If this method were followed in this case, this office would arrive at a figure in excess of $300,000. To this would be added two years and ten months' interest at 4 per cent per year, or a total in excess of $300,000, which would bring the total up in the vicinity of $330,000.

Sales of comparable property where available are taken into consideration. This was done in this case. One in particular was the sale in December, 1948, of 24,166 square feet of vacant land located at 321 Stuart street, which runs through to St. James avenue and is in close proximity to the parcel in question. This lot has a depth of 270 feet from street to street, and a frontage on both streets of 89 feet. The price paid by the Liberty Mutual Company for this land was $362,500, or approximately $15 per square foot.

Another factor to which consideration was given was one which was not present in any of the other parcels which were part of this whole taking. The petitioner alleges and lays particular stress on a claim of severance damage to its property. It contends that its remaining parcel upon which the Brunswick Hotel stands was damaged or its value diminished as the result of the taking. Its contention is that several contemplated uses in connection with the highest and best use of the property have been eliminated by the city's taking of this parcel. This contention is alleged even though the parcel taken and the adjoining Brunswick parcel were separated by Providence street. There is some authority which tends to sustain this contention, and it has been stated in the case of Trustees of Boston University v. Commonwealth, 286 Mass. 57, at page 64, as follows:

"...the principle, that land divided by public ways may nevertheless be treated as a unit in awarding damages for a severance where part is taken, was well recognized in the law of Massachusetts."

In the appraisals made for the city Mr. Breen discusses but discounts any severance value, and Mr. Blunt does not take it into consideration. The appraisal by William H. Ballard sets out this severance value as a main factor in his arrival at the figure, which he sets at $322,200 as the damage caused by the taking. In his appraisal he approaches the problem of determining the fair market value of the property taken and the severance damage in three or four different ways. One of the methods used by him is a determination of the fair market value of both parcels as of the date of the taking. This value is placed at $1,035,000, made up as follows: $243,000 for the land taken and $792,000 for the Brunswick parcel. He then allots a severance damage of 10 per cent to the part not taken which amounts to $79,200. Adding the figures of the value of the land taken and damage to the remainder, he arrives at $322,200 as the total damage caused to the petitioner as the result of the taking.

OTHER PROPERTIES COMPARED.

There is no doubt that evidence of the highest and best use of property can be testified to, and that evidence of conjunctive use or adjoining use might be introduced in a trial of this case. Because of this, it is a question of fact as to what damage, if any, the petitioner has suffered to its remaining property as a result of the taking.

After full consideration of the foregoing facts, it was found that the most closely comparable property to the one in question was the parcel of land owned by the First National Bank, and which consisted of 26,480 square feet of land, bounded on three sides by St. James avenue, Berkeley street, and Providence street. This lot was part of the same taking. It was vacant land which was being used as a parking space and, like the property in question, fronted on three public ways. The building on it was a small parking lot office. Mr. Breen appraised this property at $440,000, which figures to approximately $16.50 per square foot. This case was settled by this office for $416,000.

If this office applied this figure of $16.50 per square foot (although Mr. Breen's appraisal per square foot of the property in question is somewhat less), it would arrive at a total value of $235,000 for 14,243 square feet. Add to this figure the assessed value of the building on the petitioner's land, which is $12,200, and then if it allowed a figure of $50,000 (which is somewhat less than Mr. Ballard's figure for the same item for severance damage), it would arrive at a total of $297,200. To this would be added the sum of $29,700, representing 10 per cent interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum from the date of the taking, and the total would then come to $326,900, which is higher than the Ballard appraisal figure, although Ballard's figure does not take into consideration the interest item.

During the negotiations the asking figure of the petitioner was $450,000, which it reduced to $355,500, and was arrived at by using Mr. Ballard's appraisal and adding interest thereto. Finally the petitioner has agreed to accept the figure of $322,000, which is the approximate appraisal made by William H. Ballard without interest added thereto.

In view of the foregoing considerations herein stated, this office has agreed to settle this case for the said amount of $322,000.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

NO INCREASE IN VALUATIONS TO PROPERTY OWNERS WHO COOPERATE IN REHABILITATION PROGRAM.

assessments that may arise out of the proposed city-wide reassessment of real estate." An order calling for such reassessment is now pending before the City Council.

The announcement of such a policy should give considerable impetus to the Mayor's long-range "Fight Blight Program." Many persons have expressed the fear that, if they were to repaint and repair their homes or business properties, their real estate assessments would be increased. Now that they have been assured by the chairman of the Board of Assessors that this will not happen, it will encourage them to make the desired repairs and improvements.

Much progress has been made in the organization and promotion of the Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program. Since the program was inaugurated last May impressive committees of business and professional men and clergymen have been organized in nine of the city's fifteen health and welfare districts. The other six are expected to be formed before the end of the year.

Although most of the district committees are still in the formation period, some of them have made remarkable progress, notably in the Pilot Area of South Boston and in the South End.

Two of the areas in the South End, involving more than 1,100 parcels, have already been surveyed by technically trained City of Boston health inspectors and their findings turned over to the committees for its information and use. It is the intention of the committee to organize block committees in each of these areas and to have their members call on the owners of all properties found to be below standard and request them to cooperate with the program by making immediate repairs and improvements.

The exterior study made by the Health Department will be followed by an interior study to be made by the Building Department. Wherever structural, heating, or plumbing defects are found, the owners will be ordered, for the protection of the health and safety of the occupants, to conform immediately to the City of Boston Building Code.

MAYOR NAMES CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL COMMITTEE.

At the meeting the Mayor described to the committee his hopes for the decorating of all the principal streets and squares of downtown Boston, the erection of colorful religious and festive displays on Boston Common and the Public Garden and the lighting of prominent homes, office buildings, stores, and business houses.

Other unusual features of the forthcoming event, which last year attracted more than a million sight-seers to Boston, will also be announced.

The committee is comprised of more than 200 of the city's outstanding business and professional leaders. Mayor Hynes is honorary chairman.
